Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, nothing in the Scheme Document, the Restructuring Implementation Deed or this Explanatory Statement or the distribution thereof evidences to any person or constitutes any admission by the Company, that a Liability is owed to any person in respect of any claim or that any person is or may be a Scheme Creditor. The failure to distribute this document to any Scheme Creditor shall not constitute an admission by the Company that such person is not a Scheme Creditor.

No person has been authorised by the Company to make any representations concerning the Scheme which are inconsistent with the statements contained in this Explanatory Statement and, if made, such representations may not be relied upon as having been so authorised. It is also possible that the drawing up of the order of the Court sanctioning the Scheme may be delayed if any person appeals the order.
- 2 The Custody Instruction Deadline is relevant for Existing Noteholders that are either (i) Euroclear/Clearstream Account Holders or (ii) are holding their Existing Notes through a Euroclear/Clearstream Account Holder. This deadline is for such Account Holders to submit an electronic instruction to Euroclear or Clearstream to block their Existing Notes (please see the section titled Summary of Actions to be Taken by Scheme Creditors, below, for more information).

- 4 Please see the section entitled Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors at Appendix 7 of this Explanatory Statement. Voting instructions will not be taken into account in respect of Account Holder Letters and Lender Claim Forms received after the Voting Instruction Deadline, being 5:00 pm on 28 October 2020. Scheme Creditors (or Account Holders, if different) requiring any assistance in completing Account Holder Letters and/or Lender Claim Forms (as applicable) should contact the Information Agent using the contact details in the Account Holder Letter set out in Appendix 8 to this Explanatory Statement and the Lender Claim Form set out in Appendix 9 to the Explanatory Statement. All relevant documentation for Scheme Creditors can be accessed on the Scheme Website at <http://www.lucid-is.com/kcadoutag>.
- 5 The Scheme Meeting will be conducted virtually and will commence at the time stated. Scheme Creditors wishing to attend the Scheme Meeting should produce evidence of corporate authority (in the case of a corporation) (for example, a valid power of attorney and/or board minutes) and evidence of personal identity (a passport or other equivalent identification) to the Information Agent via email by no later than one hour before the scheduled time of the Scheme Meeting.
- 6 The Court will be requested to sanction the Scheme. The date for that hearing is expected to be on or about 5 November 2020. If this date changes, the dates of all subsequent steps, including the Scheme Effective Time and the Restructuring Effective Date, may be affected. In this event, the date of the hearing will be announced at the Scheme Meeting to the extent then known or will otherwise be notified to the Scheme Creditors.

Existing Noteholders should observe any deadlines set by any institution or settlement system through which they hold interests in the Existing Notes to ensure that any voting instructions given by them are taken into account at the Scheme Meeting. The Company strongly urges each Existing Noteholder to contact its relevant Account Holder or Intermediary as soon as possible to ensure they are aware of this Explanatory Statement and the process and timetable set out in it.

The Scheme Meeting will be held virtually on 30 October 2020, via webinar. Please see the section titled Summary of Actions to be taken by Scheme Creditors on page 30, below, for more information.

representations and warranties given by the Company, or any directors or officers of any member of the Group elsewhere, to the fullest extent permitted by law, neither the Company, nor any other member of the Group, nor any directors or officers of the Company or any other member of the Group, will have any tortious, contractual or any other Liability to any person in connection with the use of this Explanatory Statement, and neither the Company nor any other member of the Group accepts any Liability whatsoever to any person, regardless of the form of action, for any lost profits or lost opportunity, or for any indirect, special, consequential, incidental or punitive damages arising from any use of this Explanatory Statement, its contents or preparation or otherwise in connection with it, even if the Company or such other member of the Group (as applicable) has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

2. Summary only

The summary of the principal provisions of the Scheme Document, the Restructuring Implementation Deed and any other Restructuring Document contained in this Explanatory Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual Scheme Document, Restructuring Implementation Deed or other Restructuring Document (as applicable). The full text of the Scheme Document is set out in Appendix 2 (Scheme Document) to this Explanatory Statement, and all Key Restructuring Documents are scheduled to the Restructuring Implementation Deed at schedule 2 (Key Restructuring Documents) (and appended to this Explanatory Statement at Appendix 4 (Key Restructuring Documents). Copies of the Other Restructuring Documents will be made available to Scheme Creditors via the Scheme Website.

Each Scheme Creditor is advised to read and consider carefully the text of the Scheme Document, the Restructuring Implementation Deed and all other Restructuring Documents. This Explanatory Statement has been prepared solely to assist the Scheme Creditors to vote on the Scheme.

Scheme Creditors should not construe the contents of this document as legal, tax, financial or other advice, and should consult with their own professional advisers as to the matters described in this document.

IN THE EVENT OF A CONFLICT BETWEEN THE INFORMATION AND TERMS DESCRIBED IN THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT AND THE SCHEME DOCUMENT (INCLUDING THE RESTRUCTURING IMPLEMENTATION DEED SCHEDULED TO THE SCHEME DOCUMENT (AND APPENDED TO THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT AT APPENDIX 3)), THE TERMS OF THE SCHEME DOCUMENT (AND THE RESTRUCTURING IMPLEMENTATION DEED) SHALL PREVAIL.

3. Electronic form

This Explanatory Statement has been sent to you in electronic form. Documents transmitted electronically may be altered or corrupted during the process of transmission. Although the Company and the Information Agent have taken reasonable steps to prevent the alteration or corruption of this Explanatory Statement, none of the Company, the other members of the Group, the Information Agent or their respective directors, officers, Affiliates, employees or agents accepts any liability or responsibility whatsoever in respect of any differences between the Explanatory Statement distributed to you in electronic form and the Explanatory Statement as it may appear on the Scheme Website.

4. Prospectus

This Explanatory Statement is not a prospectus within the meaning of the Prospectus Regulation EU 2017/1129, or a prospectus equivalent document.

5. Forward-looking statements

Nothing contained in this Explanatory Statement shall be deemed to be a forecast, projection or estimate of the Company's or the Group's future financial performance, except where otherwise specifically stated. This Explanatory Statement contains certain statements, statistics and projections that are, or may be, forward-looking. The accuracy and completeness of all such statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding the Group's future financial position, strategy, plans and objectives for the management of future operations, is not warranted or guaranteed.

This Explanatory Statement contains statements, estimates, opinions and projections with respect to the Company and/or the Group. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements often use words such as "anticipate", "target", "expect", "estimate", "intend", "plan", "goal", "believe", "will", "may", "should", "would", "could" or other words of similar import. These statements are based on numerous assumptions and assessments made by the Company and/or any other member of the Group as appropriate in light of their experience and their perception of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors which they believe appropriate. Although the Company and/or any other member of the Group, as appropriate, believe that the expectations reflected in such statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove to be correct. Forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties, should not be read as guarantees of future performance or results, and will not necessarily be accurate indications of whether or not such results will be achieved. Such forward-looking statements only speak as at the date of this Explanatory Statement. A number of factors could cause actual results to necessarily differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, future performance being lower than expected, deterioration in general economic conditions, changes in the regulatory environment, fluctuations in interest and exchange rates, the outcome of litigation, government actions and the other factors set out or referred to in Part 8 (Risk Factors) of this Explanatory Statement. It is up to the recipient of this Explanatory Statement to make its own assessment of the validity of such forward-looking statements and assumptions and no Liability is accepted by the Company or any other member of the Group in respect of the achievement of such forward-looking statements and assumptions. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialise, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in this Explanatory Statement.

6. Risk factors

Scheme Creditors' attention is drawn to certain risks associated with the Scheme that are set out or referred to in Part 8 (Risk Factors) of this Explanatory Statement.

7. Legal, tax and financial advice

Scheme Creditors should not construe the contents of this Explanatory Statement as legal, tax or financial advice.

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared without taking into account the objectives, financial situation or needs of any particular recipient of it and, consequently, the information contained in this Explanatory Statement may not be sufficient or appropriate for the purpose for which a recipient might use it. Any such recipients should conduct their own due diligence and consider the appropriateness of the information in this Explanatory Statement having regard to its own objectives, financial situations and needs.

Scheme Creditors are recommended to consult their own professional advisers as to legal, tax, financial or other matters relevant to the action Scheme Creditors should take in relation to the Scheme, or the implications/consequences of those actions.

This Explanatory Statement does not discuss the tax consequences for Scheme Creditors, the Company or the Group arising from the implementation of the Scheme. Save as set out in any Restructuring Document, Scheme Creditors are liable for their own taxes and shall have no recourse to the Company or any other member of the Group or any other entity or person named in this Explanatory Statement with respect to taxes arising in connection with the Scheme. Scheme Creditors who are in any doubt as to the effect of implementation of the Scheme are urged to consult their own professional advisers regarding the possible tax consequences under the laws of the jurisdictions that apply to them.

IMPORTANT SECURITIES LAW NOTICE

THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE OR FORM PART OF A RECOMMENDATION REGARDING ANY SECURITIES OR AN OFFER TO SELL OR INVITATION TO SELL OR A SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY OR SUBSCRIBE FOR OR OTHERWISE ACQUIRE ANY SECURITY. NONE OF THE SECURITIES REFERRED TO IN THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT MAY BE SOLD, ISSUED OR TRANSFERRED IN ANY JURISDICTION IN CONTRAVENTION OF APPLICABLE LAW. NEITHER THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT NOR ANY COPY THEREOF MAY BE TAKEN OR TRANSMITTED OR DISTRIBUTED, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, INTO THE U.S., OTHER THAN TO A QIB OR TO AN INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTOR" AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(A)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT.

Scheme Creditors are advised that none of the Scheme Consideration has been or will be registered under the Securities Act, the securities laws of any state or any other jurisdiction, and neither Alpha, the Company nor Jersey Newco (as applicable) expects that any of the Scheme Consideration will be subject to the reporting requirements applicable under the Exchange Act, the securities laws of any state of the U.S. or any other jurisdiction. None of the Scheme Consideration may be offered or sold in the U.S. absent registration under the Securities Act or an applicable exemption from registration thereunder.

The distribution of this Explanatory Statement in other jurisdictions may be restricted by law, and persons into whose possession this Explanatory Statement comes should inform themselves about, and observe, any such restriction. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the laws of any such other jurisdiction. This Explanatory Statement may not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not eligible to invest in securities offered by the Company or Jersey Newco (as applicable). Any investment or investment activity to which this Explanatory Statement relates is available only to persons eligible to invest in securities offered by the Company or Jersey Newco (as applicable) and will be engaged in only with such persons. A person who is eligible to invest in the Scheme Consideration is an Eligible Person.

The directors of Alpha understand that none of the Scheme Consideration will be listed with the SEC, with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the U.S. or on any inter-dealer quotation system in the U.S. None of Alpha, the Company or Jersey Newco (as applicable) intends to take action to facilitate a market in any of the Scheme Consideration in the U.S. Consequently, the Company believes that it is unlikely that an active trading market in the U.S. will develop for any such securities.

Neither the SEC nor any U.S. federal, state or other securities commission or regulatory authority has registered, approved or disapproved any of the Scheme Consideration or passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this Explanatory Statement. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the U.S.

Scheme Creditors should consult their own legal, financial and tax advisers with respect to the legal, financial and tax consequences of the Scheme in their particular circumstances.

The issuance of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to the Scheme Creditors (as explained in detail in this Explanatory Statement) relates to the issuance of shares in a Jersey company and is proposed to be made by and pursuant to a statutory arrangement under English company law. Accordingly, the Scheme is subject to the disclosure requirements, rules and practices applicable to English schemes of arrangement and the information in this Explanatory Statement is not the same as that which would have been disclosed if this Explanatory Statement had been prepared for the purposes of complying with the registration requirement of the Securities Act or in accordance with the laws or regulations of any other jurisdiction. Any financial information regarding the Company referred to in this Explanatory Statement has been or will have been prepared in accordance with UK accounting standards that may not be comparable to the accounting standards applicable to financial statements of U.S. companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S.

It may be difficult for Scheme Creditors in the U.S. to enforce their rights and claims arising out of U.S. federal securities laws against officers and directors of the Company who are residents of countries other than the U.S., and it may not be possible to sue the Company in a non-U.S. court for violations of U.S. securities laws.

1. Scheme Consideration

The Scheme Consideration offered under the Scheme will be offered in reliance upon exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, including the exemption provided by Section 4(a)(2)(private placement). In order to qualify for the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 4(a)(2)(private placement), the purchasers of the Scheme Consideration must (a) either have enough knowledge and experience in finance and business matters to be "sophisticated investors" or be able to bear the investment's economic risk and (b) have access to the type of information normally provided in a prospectus for a registered securities offering.

Scheme Creditors should be aware that the New Notes will be held in Euroclear and Clearstream only. Scheme Creditors should also note that the Jersey Newco Shares will not be listed on any recognised stock exchange and will not have an ISIN or CUSIP. As such, the Jersey Newco Shares will not be eligible for clearance in any Clearing System.

In connection with the issue of the Scheme Consideration (which consists of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the New Notes) pursuant to the Scheme, the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form will require Scheme Creditors who intend to subscribe for the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and/or the New Notes to confirm, among other things, that the relevant Scheme Creditor and/or Nominee(s) is an Eligible Person and will require Scheme Creditors and/or Nominee(s) who intend to subscribe for Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and/or New Notes to agree in writing to certain representations, warranties and undertakings, and those written confirmations will form part 6 (Securities Confirmation Deed) of the Account Holder Letter and part 4 (Securities Confirmation Deed) of the Lender Claim Form. If the confirmations required by the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form cannot be or are not given, the relevant Scheme Creditor and/or its Nominee(s) will not be eligible to subscribe for the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and/or the New Notes (as applicable) and will not be treated as an Eligible Person.

The Scheme Consideration delivered under the Scheme will be issued and delivered in reliance upon exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the New Notes will be offered and sold solely to persons within the U.S., in each case where each such person is an institutional "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act, or a QIB (such Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and New Notes, the Restricted Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the Restricted New Notes, respectively). Outside the U.S., the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the New Notes will be offered and sold solely in offshore transactions (and, in case of the New Notes, to non-U.S. persons only), in reliance on Regulation S, to persons who are not retail investors in the European Economic Area or in the United Kingdom (defined as persons who are one (or more) of: (x) retail clients as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (y) customers within the meaning of the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (z) not Qualified Investors) (such Jersey Newco Shares and New Notes, the Regulation S Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the Regulation S New Notes, respectively).

Upon issuance, the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the New Notes may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred other than in compliance with the transfer restrictions described under "U.S. Securities laws considerations" below.

U.S. Securities laws considerations

(a) Restricted New Notes

Each Scheme Creditor (or Nominee (if applicable)) that is subscribing for Restricted New Notes who is located in the U.S. or who is (or is acting for the account or benefit of) a U.S. person, prior to accepting delivery of New Notes will be required to represent and warrant to Alpha, the Company and Jersey Newco, on behalf of itself and each other person or account for which it is acting that:

- (i) It understands that the Restricted New Notes are being offered in reliance upon an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, registration under the Securities Act and similar provisions under state securities laws for an offer and sale by the Company not involving a public offering in the U.S.

Other securities law considerations

European Economic Area and the United Kingdom

The Restricted Jersey Newco Consideration Shares, the Restricted New Notes, the Regulation S Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the Regulation S New Notes are not being offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area or in the United Kingdom. For these purposes, a "retail investor" means a person who is one (or more) of: (a) a "retail client" as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (b) a customer within the meaning of the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or is not a Qualified Investor. Consequently no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation for offering or selling the Restricted New Notes and the Regulation S New Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the European Economic Area or in the United Kingdom will be prepared and, therefore, offering or selling the Restricted New Notes and the Regulation S New Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area or in the United Kingdom may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

Any invitation, offer or agreement to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire Restricted Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and Regulation S Jersey Newco Consideration Shares will only be engaged in with Relevant Persons. In the absence of bad faith, none of Alpha, the Company, Jersey Newco, the New Trustee, the New Security Agent, the Information Agent or any person appointed to distribute the Scheme Consideration shall have any Liability for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of such a sale or as a result of any remittance made pursuant to such distribution.

Non-Eligible Persons

Without limiting the information set out in this "Important Securities Law Notice" section to this Explanatory Statement, the New Notes and the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares will not be issued to a Scheme Creditor (and/or if appointed, its Nominee) pursuant to the Restructuring Implementation Deed on the Restructuring Effective Date where such a Scheme Creditor (and/or its Nominee) is not an Eligible Person.

NONE OF THE SECURITIES REFERRED TO IN THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT SHALL BE SOLD, ISSUED OR TRANSFERRED IN ANY JURISDICTION IN CONTRAVENTION OF APPLICABLE LAW.

SUMMARY OF ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN BY SCHEME CREDITORS

ALL SCHEME CREDITORS MUST ALSO READ APPENDIX 7 (INSTRUCTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR SCHEME CREDITORS) TO THIS EXPLANATORY STATEMENT, A SUMMARY OF WHICH IS BELOW.

1. Voting on the Scheme

Before the Scheme can become effective and binding on the Company and the Scheme Creditors, a resolution to approve it must be passed by the requisite majorities of the Scheme Creditors required by section 899 of the Companies Act. The requisite majorities are a majority in number representing at least 75% in value of the Scheme Creditors who, being so entitled, are present in person, by a duly authorised representative if a corporation, or by proxy, and vote at the Scheme Meeting. The Scheme Meeting has been ordered by the Court and has been summoned to take place by way of video conference on 30 October 2020 at 10:30 am.

Formal notice of the Scheme Meeting is set out in Appendix 10 (Notice of Scheme Meeting) to this Explanatory Statement.

It is important that as many votes as possible are cast at the Scheme Meeting so that the Court may be satisfied that there is a fair and reasonable representation of the opinion of the Scheme Creditors in relation to the Scheme. You are, therefore, strongly urged to complete, sign and return your Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) as soon as possible and by the Voting Instruction Deadline, being 5:00 pm on 28 October 2020.

Instructions and Guidance to Scheme Creditors are set out at Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement. In addition, the Restructuring Implementation Deed is set out at Appendix 3 to this Explanatory Statement and the other Key Restructuring Documents are set out at Appendix 4 to this Explanatory Statement.

2. Completion of Account Holder Letters and/or Lender Claim Forms (as appropriate)

Scheme Creditors (and/or their Account Holders) are strongly urged to complete and submit their Account Holder Letters and/or Lender Claim Forms (as applicable) online via the Scheme Website at www.lucid-is.com/kcadeutag or by email in pdf form to kcadeutag@lucid-is.com as soon as possible and in any event so as to be received no later than the Voting Instruction Deadline, being 5:00 pm on 28 October 2020.

An Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) is required to be completed and submitted in order for a Scheme Creditor to (a) vote at the Scheme Meeting and (b) receive its Scheme Creditor Entitlements.

- Each Existing Noteholder (and/or its Account Holder) must complete and submit an Account Holder Letter.
- Each Term Loan Lender, each Revolving Loan Lender and the Existing Overdraft Provider must complete and submit a Lender Claim Form. For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of the Term Loan and the Revolving Loans, a Lender Claim Form should only be completed by a lender of record according to the books and records of the relevant Existing Administrative Agent. Creditors with only a beneficial interest in the Term Loan or Revolving Loan (as applicable) may not submit a Lender Claim Form themselves and are therefore recommended to contact their lender of record counterparty.

A. Account Holder Letter (to be completed by Existing Noteholders (and/or their Account Holders))

The Existing Custodian holds the Global Notes in DTC. Existing Noteholders either hold their Existing Notes via:

- (i) DTC, either directly (a DTC Participant) or through an intermediary who is a DTC Participant; or
- (ii) Euroclear or Clearstream (through a DTC Participant who is holding the Existing Notes for Euroclear or Clearstream), either directly (a Euroclear/Clearstream Account Holder) or through an intermediary who is a Euroclear/Clearstream Account Holder.

Existing Noteholders, as the beneficial owners of and/or the persons with the ultimate economic interest in the Existing Notes, are Scheme Creditors.

The form of Account Holder Letter is enclosed at Appendix 8 (Account Holder Letter) to this Explanatory Statement.

Existing Noteholders with an interest in the Existing Notes held via Euroclear or Clearstream only

In order to vote at the Scheme Meeting, Existing Noteholders with an interest in the Existing Notes held via Euroclear or Clearstream must have blocked their Existing Notes.

Existing Noteholders will receive notice of the elections required by the Account Holder Letter from their Account Holders (if the Existing Noteholder is not itself an Account Holder, and who may be their custodian or prime broker in respect of their holding of Existing Notes). An Existing Noteholder must confirm its consent to this notification, following which the Account Holder must submit an electronic instruction to Euroclear or Clearstream by no later than the Custody Instructions Deadline. The electronic instruction confirmation will generate a Custody Instruction Reference Number which must be included in the Account Holder Letter submission. Once the electronic instruction is submitted, the relevant notes will be blocked in Euroclear and/or Clearstream. The block will be lifted:

- (a) if the Scheme is not approved at the Scheme Meeting, at the conclusion of the Scheme Meeting;
- (b) if the Scheme is approved at the Scheme Meeting but not sanctioned at the Sanction Hearing, at the conclusion of the Sanction Hearing;
- (c) if the Scheme is approved at the Scheme Meeting and sanctioned at the Sanction Hearing, but the Restructuring Effective Date does not occur on or before the Long Stop Date, on the Long Stop Date; or
- (d) if the Scheme is approved at the Scheme Meeting and sanctioned at the Sanction Hearing and the Restructuring Effective Date occurs on or before the Long Stop Date, on the Restructuring Effective Date (with the Existing Notes being cancelled in accordance with the Restructuring Implementation Deed).

An Account Holder Letter in respect of an Existing Noteholder with an interest in the Existing Notes held via Euroclear or Clearstream will not be complete or valid without the inclusion of a Custody Instruction Reference Number. Please see Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement for further information.

All Existing Noteholders

Each Existing Noteholder who wishes to vote at the Scheme Meeting must ensure that it, or if it is not an Account Holder, its Account Holder completes and submits to the Information Agent a valid Account Holder Letter in order to vote at the Scheme Meeting. For the purposes of voting, Account Holder Letters must be delivered to and received by the Information Agent before the Voting Instruction Deadline, being 5:00 pm on 28 October 2020.

The delivery of an Account Holder Letter to the Information Agent will not prevent the Existing Noteholder who completed it from subsequently attending and voting in person at the Scheme Meeting if it so wishes. Each Nominee so appointed must be an Eligible Person to receive the New Notes and/or Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to which the relevant Lender Scheme Creditor is entitled.

3. Chairperson's discretion

The Chairperson will be entitled, at their sole discretion, to permit a Scheme Creditor in respect of which a completed Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form has not been delivered prior to the Voting Instruction Deadline to vote at the Scheme Meeting if the Chairperson considers that the relevant Scheme Creditor has produced sufficient proof that it is a Scheme Creditor.

PART 1

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY

KCA Deutag UK Finance plc
1 Park Row
Leeds, LS1 5AB
United Kingdom

15 October 2020

Dear Scheme Creditor,

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This letter is part of an Explanatory Statement distributed to you for the reasons set out below. All capitalised terms used in this letter have the meaning given to such terms in Appendix 1 (Definitions and Interpretation) to this Explanatory Statement.
- 1.2 The Company has proposed the Scheme to the Scheme Creditors as an integral part of implementing the Restructuring, as described in further detail below.
- 1.3 In considering the Scheme, you should not rely solely on this letter, but you should also consider the more detailed information contained in the remainder of this Explanatory Statement. The Company recommends that you consult your own professional advisers as to legal, tax, financial or other matters relevant to any actions to be taken in relation to the Scheme, or the implications/consequences of those actions.
- 1.4 The purpose of this letter is to provide a brief explanation of the Scheme and its effect, should it become effective. The Company proposes to seek the sanction of the Court in respect of the Scheme should it first be approved by the requisite majorities of Scheme Creditors at the Scheme Meeting convened for that purpose.

2. Purpose of this Explanatory Statement

- 2.1 This Explanatory Statement, which is provided pursuant to section 897 of the Companies Act, is distributed for the purpose of providing you with sufficient information to make an informed decision as to whether or not to approve the Scheme. An explanation of the reasons for the proposed Scheme (which is to be voted on at the Scheme Meeting commencing at 10:30 am on 30 October 2020) is included below as part of this letter.
- 2.2 This document also explains why the Board and the Alpha Boards consider the Scheme, and the Restructuring to be implemented thereby, to be in the best interests of those with an economic interest in the Company and the Group, including the Scheme Creditors.

3. What is a scheme of arrangement?

- 3.1 A scheme of arrangement is a statutory procedure under English law which allows a company to agree a compromise or arrangement with its creditors (or classes of creditors), and for the terms of that compromise or arrangement to bind any non-consenting or opposing minority creditors.
- 3.2 If the Court is satisfied at the convening hearing that the proposed scheme of arrangement has a prospect of being approved by creditors, and that the proposed class or classes of scheme creditors for voting purposes have been correctly constituted, the court will order the scheme meeting or meetings for the relevant classes of creditors to be convened.
- 3.3 In order to become effective, a scheme of arrangement under English law must be:
- (a) approved by a majority in number (above 50%) representing at least 75% in value of each class of creditors present and voting (in person or by proxy) at each relevant scheme meeting;
 - (b) sanctioned by the Court; and
 - (c) delivered to the Registrar of Companies with a copy of the Sanction Order.
- 3.4 If a scheme of arrangement becomes effective, it will bind the relevant company and each scheme creditor according to its terms, including those scheme creditors who did not vote on the relevant scheme of arrangement or who voted against it.
- 3.5 A scheme of arrangement will not be sanctioned by the Court unless the Court is satisfied, among other things, that the scheme of arrangement is fair and reasonable, the scheme of arrangement has been properly explained to creditors, and the class or classes of creditors voting in respect of the scheme of arrangement have been properly constituted by the company.

4. Scheme Meeting

- 4.1 The Court has granted the Company permission to convene a single meeting of Scheme Creditors to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Scheme.
- 4.2 We encourage all Scheme Creditors to submit their Account Holder Letter(s) and/or Lender Claim Form(s) to the Information Agent online via the Scheme Website at www.lucid-is.com/kcadeutag or by email in pdf form to kcadeutag@lucid-is.com as soon as possible and in any event so as to be received no later than the Voting Instruction Deadline. Details of the actions that Scheme Creditors need to take in order to vote are set out in Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement.
- 4.3 Existing Noteholders will receive notice of the elections required by the Account Holder Letter from their Account Holders (if the Existing Noteholder is not itself an Account Holder, and who may be their custodian or prime broker in respect of their holding of Existing Notes). An Existing Noteholder who holds the Existing Notes via Euroclear or Clearstream must confirm its consent to this notification, following which the Account Holder must submit an electronic instruction to Euroclear or Clearstream by no later than the Custody Instruction Deadline. The electronic instruction will generate a Custody Instruction Reference Number. Once the Information Agent receives a Custody Instruction Reference Number, the relevant Existing Notes will be blocked in Euroclear or Clearstream. The block will be lifted on the Restructuring Effective Date (or earlier, if applicable). An Account Holder Letter with respect to Existing Notes held via Euroclear or Clearstream will not be complete or valid without the inclusion of a Custody Instruction Reference Number. Please see Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement for further information.

5. The Scheme

Background

- 5.1 The Company is a public limited company incorporated and existing in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The Company was incorporated on 28 April 2014 with registered number 09015065. The Company is an indirect Subsidiary of Alpha.
- 5.2 The Group is a market-leading international drilling, engineering and technology company serving both onshore and offshore drilling markets. It has a vertically integrated business model, with its engineering and design expertise complementing and enhancing its drilling operations. The Group is one of the largest international land drilling contractors globally, with a highly sophisticated and flexible rig fleet, and is a leader in the design, engineering and manufacturing of premium land rigs and components. In terms of international reach, the Group focusses on geographies characterised by attractive industry dynamics (such as low breakeven oil prices, significant levels of industry consolidation and high return on capital) and operates in more than 15 countries, with a strong presence in Europe (including the North Sea), Russia (including the Caspian Sea), Africa and the Middle East.
- 5.3 As a result of concerns regarding the level of the Group's financial leverage and certain debt maturities in early 2021, the Group engaged Houlihan Lokey as financial adviser in August 2019 to assist (in conjunction with A&O, the Group's longstanding legal advisers) with conducting a strategic review of its balance sheet (including the indebtedness under the Existing Notes and the Credit Agreement) and finding a comprehensive solution to the Group's capital structure. Between August 2019 and March 2020, the Group, in conjunction with its advisers and ultimate shareholders, continued to explore and progress various strategic options to address its capital structure.
- 5.4 The range of strategic options available to the Group was severely limited by the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction. Examples of the direct and indirect negative impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction on the Group's business include:
- (a) requests from the Group's customers for significant price reductions in relation to the services provided by the Group;
 - (b) the termination and/or suspension of several of the Group's contracts in connection with its land fleet;
 - (c) the resulting reclassification of many of the oil platforms operated by the Group within the UK from operating to stacking mode; and
 - (d) severe disruptions to the Group's supply chains and its workforce.
- 5.5 Despite the measures put in place by the Group to reduce the effect of these external factors on its business (including placing most of its staff on a four-day week for several months and freezing all non-business critical spending), their continuing impact led to a significant deterioration in the Group's financial position (especially in relation to its short-term liquidity). Ultimately, the combined impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction on the Group and the wider market meant that many of the strategic options that were previously being considered by the Group in relation to its capital structure were no longer determined to be viable.
- 5.6 Furthermore, in addition to the significant short-term impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction, the Group also determined that, given its considerable exposure to the oil and gas sector, the ongoing impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic combined with a lower demand for oil (and a corresponding drop in the price of oil) was likely to have a medium to long-term impact on its business and financial outlook.

5.7 In light of the situation described above, on 26 March 2020 the Group announced that it: (a) was planning to utilise the applicable grace periods in relation to the April 2020 Interest Payments in order to give it more time to evaluate and assess the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction on its business and operations; and (b) would be formally engaging with its creditors (including the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders and each of their respective advisers).

5.8 Scheme Creditors can obtain further information on the Group, including financial information, from the Group's investor website at <https://kcadeutag.com/investors/>.

Standstill Agreement

5.9 Having used the applicable grace periods in respect of the April 2020 Interest Payments to further assess its financial position and potential options and following negotiations with the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders (and each of their respective advisers), the Group announced on 2 May 2020 that, in order to provide stability while it continued to evaluate the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction, it had entered into the Standstill Agreement with the Ad-Hoc Committee and each of the RCF Lenders⁷.

5.10 Under the terms of the Standstill Agreement, the members of the Ad-Hoc Committee, the RCF Lenders and the other creditors party thereto agreed to standstill arrangements (including restrictions on enforcement action and forbearances in relation to specified defaults) in respect of the indebtedness under the Existing Notes and the Credit Agreement for the Standstill Period. The Group gave various undertakings under the Standstill Agreement (including in relation to the provision of financial information regarding the Group and the preparation of a proposal for the financial restructuring of the Group's balance sheet) and accepted certain restrictions on the conduct of its business. Pursuant to the terms of the Standstill Agreement, it was also agreed that the Group would not make the April 2020 Interest Payments or (subject to certain limited exceptions) any other interest or amortisation payments due under the Existing Indentures or the Credit Agreement during the Standstill Period.

Work Fee

5.11 As a condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Standstill Agreement, Alpha and certain other members of the Group entered into the Work Fee Letters. Pursuant to the Work Fee Letters, Alpha is to pay or to procure the payment to:

(a) the members of the Ad-Hoc Committee party to the AHC Work Fee Letter of the AHC Work Fees; and which Work Fees have been paid as at the date of this letter and represent the total amount of fees payable under the Work Fee Letters.

(b) the RCF Lenders party to the RCF Work Fee Letter of the RCF Work Fees,

5.12 The Group considers the Work Fees to be appropriate in light of the work that:

(a) has been undertaken by the Ad-Hoc Committee and RCF Lenders in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the negotiation of the terms of the Restructuring and its implementation, including:

(i) participating in calls and meetings with the advisers to, and representatives of, the Group;

⁷ One RCF Lender acceded to the Standstill Agreement shortly thereafter, following completion of its internal credit approval process.

- (ii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on proposals made by the Group in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on draft documentation relating to the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iv) working with fellow creditors and other stakeholders to build a consensus around the terms of the Restructuring; and
 - (v) liaising with current and prospective management in relation to the Restructuring; and
- (b) continues to be undertaken by the Ad-Hoc Committee and RCF Lenders to in relation to the implementation of the Restructuring.

Lock-Up Agreement

- 5.13 On 31 July 2020, after a period of further discussions between the Group, the Ad-Hoc Committee, the RCF Lenders and certain other stakeholders (including the Group's ultimate shareholders), the Group announced that the Company and certain other members of the Group had entered into the Lock-Up Agreement setting out the agreed commercial terms of the Restructuring. As the ultimate shareholders of the Group had, after negotiations with the Ad-Hoc Committee, agreed to support the Restructuring, Holdings I (being the ultimate holding company of the Group) and certain other holding companies in the Group structure entered into the Lock-Up Agreement as original parties thereto.
- 5.14 A redacted copy of the Lock-Up Agreement is available on the Group's website⁸ and an unredacted copy is available on the Scheme Website.
- 5.15 Under the Lock-Up Agreement, the Company and the other parties thereto (other than FAB) have agreed, among other things, that they will:
- (a) promptly take all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to all or any part of the Restructuring; and
 - (b) not take, encourage, assist or support (or procure that any other person takes, encourages, assists or supports) any action which would, or would reasonably be expected to, breach or be inconsistent with the Lock-Up Agreement, the Restructuring Term Sheets or the Restructuring Steps Plan (taken as a whole) or delay, impede or prevent the implementation or consummation of all or any part of the Restructuring.
- 5.16 Pursuant to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, each Participating Creditor (other than FAB) has acknowledged and submitted to the jurisdiction of the English court in respect of the Scheme and agreed that it shall enter an appearance formally in connection with the Scheme (if required by the Court or, if any creditor that is not a Participating Creditor formally objects to the Scheme, as reasonably requested by Alpha II) or be willing to be joined formally to the Scheme as a defendant (if required by the Court).
- 5.17 In accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and in order to help facilitate the Scheme:
- (a) the Company has entered into each of the Supplemental Indentures pursuant to which certain amendments were made to the terms of Existing Indentures (including the amendments referred to in paragraph 5.19 below and the amendments to section 6.01 (Events of Default) of each Existing Indenture to ensure that any step taken, or to be taken, in connection with the Scheme or the Restructuring did not and will not trigger a Default or Event of Default (each as defined in each Existing Indenture));

- (b) Alpha has entered into the Credit and Guaranty Agreement Amendment Agreement, pursuant to which certain amendments were made to the terms of the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (including the amendments referred to in paragraph 5.20 below); and
- (c) the Company has entered into the Contribution Deed.

5.18 The Contribution Deed results in the Credit Agreement Borrowers and the Company having rights of contribution against each other, and the members of the Group that are Guarantors (under and as defined in the Guaranty Agreement) and the Company also have rights of contribution against each other pursuant to the Guaranty Agreement. The Company, therefore, cannot effectively seek a release or variation of the Scheme Creditors' rights against it without also seeking to release or vary the Scheme Creditors' rights as against both the Credit Agreement Borrowers and the Guarantors. It will otherwise, in effect, remain liable for the claims of Scheme Creditors to be compromised by Scheme because of its liability under the Contribution Deed.

5.19 Pursuant to the Supplemental Indentures:

- (a) each Existing Indenture, the Existing Notes and the Guarantees (as defined in each Existing Indenture) and all non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them are now governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales; and
- (b) subject to the terms of each Existing Indenture, the courts of England and Wales now have jurisdiction to settle any disputes that arise out of or in connection with each Existing Indenture, the Existing Notes and the Guarantees, and accordingly any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with each Existing Indenture, the Existing Notes and the Guarantees may be brought in such courts.

5.20 Pursuant to Credit and Guaranty Agreement Amendment Agreement:

- (a) the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (and all non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Credit Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement) are now governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales; and
- (b) subject to the terms of the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (as applicable), the courts of England and Wales now have jurisdiction to settle any disputes that arise out of or in connection with the Credit Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement, and accordingly any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with the Credit Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement may be brought in such courts.

5.21 The Company has obtained an opinion from an independent expert, Judge Robert Smith (retired), a former judge of the US Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and a respected New York law qualified attorney, that the amendments made pursuant to the Supplemental Indentures and the Credit and Guaranty Agreement Amendment Agreement were validly effected as a matter of New York law.

5.22 The amendments referred to in paragraphs 5.19 and 5.20 above were made to assist with the international recognition of the Scheme in the relevant jurisdictions (including certain of the jurisdictions referred to in paragraph 9 below).

- 5.23 Following further due diligence and discussions between the respective advisers to the Group, the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders, it was agreed that, in order to facilitate the implementation of the Restructuring within the timescale contemplated by the Lock-Up Agreement, certain amendments were required to be made to the Restructuring Steps Plan. Pursuant to the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment Letter, the Company requested that the Majority Participating AHC Creditors and the Majority Participating RCF Lenders consent to the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment. This consent was received and the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment became effective on 8 October 2020 and a copy of the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment Letter (including the amended Restructuring Steps Plan) is available to Scheme Creditors on the Scheme Website.

Lock-Up Fee

- 5.24 Pursuant to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, on 21 August 2020 (being the date falling 15 Business Days after the Effective Date), Abbot procured payment to each Participating Creditor who had entered into or acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement by 14 August 2020 (being the date falling ten Business Days after the Effective Date) of a Lock-Up Fee in an amount equal to 0.15 % of its Participating Creditor Exposure (as defined in the Lock-Up Agreement).
- 5.25 The payment of the Lock-Up Fee was (and continues to be) considered by the Group to have been appropriate in order to secure early support for the Restructuring from the Group's diverse and numerous Existing Noteholders, Term Loan Lenders and RCF Lenders in order to provide the Group with a degree of commercial comfort regarding the implementation of the Restructuring. All Existing Noteholders, Term Loan Lenders and RCF Lenders had the opportunity to enter into the Lock-Up Agreement within ten Business Days of the Effective Date and thereby become eligible to receive the Lock-Up Fee.

Purpose and effect of the Scheme

- 5.26 The purpose of the Scheme is to enable the implementation of the Restructuring in the manner described in and contemplated by the Restructuring Steps Plan and the Restructuring Term Sheets which will preserve value for all stakeholders and seek to allow the Existing Noteholders and Lender Scheme Creditors to recover greater amounts in due course than would be recoverable in the likely alternative scenarios if the Restructuring is not implemented, as further detailed in Part 7 (Estimated Alternative Outcomes for Scheme Creditors) of this Explanatory Statement.
- 5.27 The Scheme will alter the rights of all Scheme Creditors arising out of or in connection with the Existing Indentures and the Credit Agreement, including any accrued but unpaid interest.
- 5.28 As a result of the Restructuring and the Scheme, it is anticipated that:
- (a) in return for the issuance to the Scheme Creditors of (and as a result of the release of all of the principal, accrued but unpaid interest and any other claims in respect of the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities):
 - (i) the New Notes; and
 - (ii) the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares,

the Restructured Group will have a strengthened and de-levered balance sheet, with its total debt being reduced by approximately USD 1.4 billion (meaning it will have a pro forma net leverage of $1.4x^9$ (down from its current net leverage of $6.3x^{10}$));

- (b) the Restructured Group's annual debt servicing costs will be reduced from USD 155 million to USD 49 million;
- (c) the Restructured Group will benefit from a five-year runway to maturity of the New Notes;
- (d) the Restructured Group will have access to:
 - (i) overdraft, cashing pooling and bank account facilities through the New Cash Management Facilities; and
 - (ii) guarantee and letter of credit facilities through the New LC/Undertaking Facilities to be made available by Lloyds and FAB (as applicable); and
- (e) by receiving the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares, Scheme Creditors will be provided with the opportunity to benefit from the potential upside of the implementation of the Restructured Group's turnaround strategy.

5.29 If the Scheme is approved by the requisite majorities of Scheme Creditors and the Restructuring is implemented, the Company anticipates that the Restructured Group will be able to repay the full amounts owing:

- (a) in respect of the New Notes under the New Notes Documents; and
- (b) under the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements.

5.30 Further details of the Restructuring and the Scheme are set out in paragraph 6 below and in Part 5 (Summary of the Restructuring (including the Scheme)) of this Explanatory Statement.

5.31 As at 30 September 2020, the Group had outstanding indebtedness under the Existing Notes and Credit Agreement of an aggregate principal amount of approximately USD 1,989,714,617 (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any accrued but unpaid interest or fees in respect of such indebtedness) with events of default outstanding under both the Credit Agreement and each Existing Indenture. If the Company does not implement the Restructuring by the Long Stop Date and the requisite majorities of the Participating Creditors refuse to extend the Long Stop Date, the Lock-Up Agreement will terminate. In light of the events of default outstanding under both the Credit Agreement and each Existing Indenture, the relevant creditors thereunder would, following the termination of the Lock-Up Agreement, be entitled to accelerate the indebtedness outstanding under the Credit Agreement and the Existing Indentures and instruct the security agent under the Existing Intercreditor Agreement to enforce part or all of the Existing Security. If the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement and the Existing Indentures was accelerated, the Company does not anticipate that the Group would be able to repay the accelerated amounts in full (please see Part 7 (Estimated Alternative Outcomes for Scheme Creditors) of this Explanatory Statement for more information).

5.32 Additionally, the Company considers that, if it is ultimately unable to implement the Restructuring (and no immediate or short term action is taken by the creditors following any termination of the Lock-Up Agreement), the most likely outcome is that there will have to be a distressed, accelerated sale of the individual business units within the Group (with any residual part of the Group and its assets entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings). If it is not possible to complete one or more of the business unit sales in the time available, the Company considers that it is likely that the relevant part of the Group and its assets will have to enter insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings. If it is not possible to complete any sale in the time available, the Company considers that it is likely that the entire Group and its assets will have to enter insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings.

¹⁰ Based on LTM June 2020 EBITDA of USD 293 million, total debt at 20 June 2020 of approximately USD 1.9 billion (including the Existing Notes and facilities under the Credit Agreement) and current cash at 30 June 2020 of USD 100 million (which excludes USD 80 million of transaction costs).

- 5.33 The execution of any distressed sale, even on an accelerated basis, will require a sufficient number of the Group's creditors (including the Scheme Creditors) to allow time for such a sale to complete and will be subject to a considerable number of consents, forbearances and waivers. In addition, the current market environment and wider economic climate may present further challenges to achieving a distressed sale of any of the Group's business units, thereby adding to the level of uncertainty and execution risk in this scenario.
- 5.34 In any of the scenarios referred to in paragraphs 5.31, 5.32 and 5.33 above, the Company considers that the Group would not be able to repay its creditors (including the Scheme Creditors) in full and the quantum and timing of any distributions to those creditors would be very uncertain.
- 5.35 Furthermore, in any of the scenarios described above or in the event that the relevant creditors under the Credit Agreement and the Existing Indentures initiated an enforcement of the Existing Security following the termination of the Lock-Up Agreement, the Group anticipates that the amounts that would be received by its creditors (including the Scheme Creditors) via insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings (with or without a distressed sale of part of the Group having occurred first) or as a consequence of any enforcement action (as applicable) would be less than the amounts such creditors would ultimately receive if the Restructuring is implemented.
- 5.36 For further information, please see Part 7 (Estimated Alternative Outcomes for Scheme Creditors) of this Explanatory Statement.
- 5.37 In light of the factors set out above, while no assurances can be given that, even if the Restructuring is successfully completed, the Group's business will be successful in the future, the Board and the Alpha Boards consider, on the basis of professional advice they have received (including, but not limited to, from Deloitte, for the sole benefit of the Company and certain other members of Group, in relation to the estimated outcomes if the Restructuring is not implemented), that the implementation of the Restructuring is in the best interests of the relevant stakeholders taken as a whole (including the Scheme Creditors).

6. Key Terms of the Restructuring

- 6.1 The Restructuring will reflect the terms of the Restructuring Term Sheets and the Restructuring Steps Plan.
- 6.2 A new holding company structure has been established comprising Jersey Newco, which owns English NewCo 1 which in turn owns English NewCo 2.
- 6.3 Alpha II has acquired all of the shares in Jersey Newco (and, as a result, indirectly acquired English NewCo 1 and English NewCo 2) from Crestbridge Corporate Nominees Limited (being an entity controlled by Crestbridge, the corporate services provider which arranged for Jersey Newco to be incorporated) for nil consideration.
- 6.4 Following the Scheme Effective Time but prior to the Restructuring Effective Date, Alpha II will transfer all of the shares in Alpha to English NewCo 2 for nil consideration (with the shares in Alpha remaining subject to the relevant Existing Security).

- 6.5 The key terms of the Restructuring (and the Scheme) provide for the following inter-conditional steps to occur on the Restructuring Effective Date:
- (a) Alpha II shall transfer 100% of the shares in Jersey Newco to certain of the Scheme Creditors (to be selected, subject to certain limitations set out in the Restructuring Implementation Deed, by the Company in its discretion (in consultation with the Ad-Hoc Committee and the Existing Overdraft Provider (or their respective advisers)) for nil consideration;
 - (b) on behalf of all Scheme Creditors, the Company (pursuant to the authority granted in the Scheme and pursuant to the steps set out in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) and other relevant parties will affect the release of all of the principal, accrued interest and any other Liabilities in respect of the Scheme Claims and the Existing Security. The Company shall take steps to effect the cancellation of the Existing Notes and will inform the Luxembourg Stock Exchange of such cancellation;
 - (c) in consideration for the release described in paragraph (b) above:
 - (i) the Company will issue the New Notes to the Scheme Creditors with each Scheme Creditor being entitled to a pro rata amount of the New Notes reflecting the proportion of its holdings of principal and accrued interest in respect of the Scheme Claims as at the Record Time compared to the total amount of principal and accrued interest in respect of all Scheme Claims as at the Record Time; and
 - (ii) Jersey Newco will issue the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to the Scheme Creditors with each Scheme Creditor being entitled to a pro rata amount of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares reflecting the proportion of its holdings of principal and accrued interest in respect of the Scheme Claims as at the Record Time compared to the total amount of principal and accrued interest in respect of all Scheme Claims as at the Record Time (taking into account any shares in Jersey Newco already held by Scheme Creditors as a result of the transfer described in paragraph 6.5(a) above and as calculated before the issuance of any shares in connection with the Management Equity Plan);
 - (d) the relevant members of the Group will enter into the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements, in each case, with the relevant New Bilateral Lenders;
 - (e) the relevant members of the Group will enter into the New Security Documents with the New Security Agent;
 - (f) on behalf of all Scheme Creditors, the Company (pursuant to the authority granted in the Scheme) together with other relevant parties will enter into the New Intercreditor Agreement that will regulate the ranking and priority of the New Bilateral Facilities and the New Notes Documents;
 - (g) the relevant parties (including the Scheme Creditors (acting through the Company pursuant to the authority granted in the Scheme) that will be receiving the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares on the Restructuring Effective Date) will enter into the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement to govern the rights as between the shareholders of Jersey Newco in accordance with the terms set out in the Equity Term Sheet (as defined in, and scheduled to, the Lock-Up Agreement); and
 - (h) the Deed of Release will be entered into by the relevant parties including the Company (on behalf of itself and all Scheme Creditors pursuant to the authority granted in the Scheme), to effect the releases described in clause 9.2 (Releases on the Completion Date) of the Lock-Up Agreement.

- 6.6 On the Business Day following the Restructuring Effective Date, subject to the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed, Jersey Newco shall issue the Warrants to the Participating Shareholders.
- 6.7 Scheme Creditors should note that the New Notes will be issued in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and subject to applicable securities laws. The New Notes will be held in Euroclear and Clearstream only. The Company encourages Existing Noteholders holding Existing Notes directly through DTC to transfer their holdings to an account held with Euroclear or Clearstream prior to the Principal Record Time in order to be in a position to receive the New Notes on the Restructuring Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, and irrespective of the Clearing System in which the Existing Notes are held, the consideration due to Scheme Creditors in connection with the Scheme will be allocated to or on behalf of all Scheme Creditors rateably in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed.
- 6.8 Scheme Creditors should also note that the Jersey Newco Shares will not be listed on any recognised stock exchange and will not have an ISIN or CUSIP. As such, they will not be eligible for clearance in any Clearing System.

Certain Conditions to the Restructuring

- 6.9 The Scheme Effective Time will occur upon:
- (a) the approval of the Scheme by a majority in number of Scheme Creditors representing 75% in value of the Scheme Claims present and voting at the Scheme Meeting (in person or by proxy);
 - (b) the Court making the Sanction Order, sanctioning the Scheme; and
 - (c) a copy of the Sanction Order being delivered to the Registrar of Companies.
- 6.10 The Restructuring Effective Date will occur upon: (a) the satisfaction or waiver of the Restructuring Conditions Precedent; and (b) the completion of the steps necessary to implement the Restructuring set out in clause 5 (Restructuring Steps) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed.

7. Undertaking Deeds

- 7.1 Each of the Undertaking Parties, who are persons involved in the implementation of the Restructuring, some of which are not party to the Lock-Up Agreement, will execute and deliver, prior to the Sanction Hearing, an Undertaking Deed in favour of the Court, the Company and the Scheme Creditors (as applicable), pursuant to which it will agree and undertake to the Court, the Company and the Scheme Creditors (as applicable), on and from the Scheme Effective Time, among other things:
- (a) to be bound by the Scheme and the applicable Restructuring Documents;
 - (b) to promptly do all such acts and things necessary for the purpose of giving effect to the Scheme and the applicable Restructuring Documents; and
 - (c) to promptly execute and deliver each of the Restructuring Documents (and related documents) to which they are party.
- 7.2 Having signed the Lock-Up Agreement, FAB has agreed and is expected to execute and deliver a support letter to the Company prior to the Sanction Hearing, pursuant to which FAB will undertake, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, to take any and all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to the documentation of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility (including, without limitation, executing and delivering to the Company the Restructuring Implementation Deed) on and from the Scheme Effective Time.

8. Support for the Scheme

Since the date of the Lock-Up Agreement, additional creditors and certain of the ultimate shareholders of the Group have acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement. As at 8 October 2020:

- (a) Existing Noteholders holding 92.76% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2021 Notes;
- (b) Existing Noteholders holding 99.08% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2022 Notes;
- (c) Existing Noteholders holding 99.01% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2023 Notes;
- (d) Term Loan Lenders holding 96.43% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan;
- (e) Revolving Loan Lenders holding 89.47% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans; and
- (f) the Existing Overdraft Provider, Lloyds and FAB

have executed or acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement, meaning that Scheme Creditors representing 96.86%¹¹ of the aggregate principal amount of debt under the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities have entered into the Lock-Up Agreement.

9. Recognition of the Scheme in jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom

9.1 United States

- (a) The Company intends to seek a Chapter 15 Order. The Company considers the seeking of a Chapter 15 Order to be a prudent course of action given that certain of the Scheme Creditors are anticipated to be U.S. persons, one of the Guarantors is incorporated in the U.S. and, additionally, the Existing Notes and the Credit Agreement were originally governed by New York law and subject to the jurisdiction of the New York courts.
- (b) The Company is advised and believes that the Scheme will be recognised in the United States under Chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and will adduce expert evidence in relation to these matters.

9.2 Russia, Oman, Germany and Norway

No formal steps to obtain recognition of the Scheme are foreseen in Russia, Oman, Germany or Norway; however, the Company has obtained opinions from independent experts (in respect of which privilege is not waived):

- (a) that the Scheme is likely to be recognised and given effect in Russia, Norway and Germany, each being a jurisdiction in which the Group has material operations; and ¹¹ As the amount under the Existing Overdraft Facilities fluctuates on a daily basis, the overall amount of the commitments in respect of the Existing Overdraft Facilities has been used for the purposes of calculating this percentage.

- (b) that the Scheme may be recognised de facto and given effect in Oman (being another jurisdiction in which the Group has material operations) and that in any event it is unlikely that a dissenting Scheme Creditor would be able to improve its position (relative to that of the other Scheme Creditors) before the Omani courts such as to undermine the compromise proposed in the Scheme.

10. Conclusions

10.1 The Board and the Alpha Boards consider the Restructuring and the Scheme to be in the best interests of those parties with an economic interest in the Company and the Group, including the Scheme Creditors. It has arrived at this conclusion on the basis of the reasons given in this letter, in particular:

- (a) the benefits to the Company and to the rest of the Group of the implementation of the Restructuring and the Scheme, which will in turn benefit the Scheme Creditors;
- (b) the high levels of support already received for the Restructuring and the Scheme via the Lock-Up Agreement, as described at paragraph 8; and
- (c) the likely negative alternative outcomes for Scheme Creditors if the Scheme is not approved and/or the Restructuring is not completed.

Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends that the Scheme Creditors vote in favour of the Scheme at the Scheme Meeting.

3. Overview of business operations of the Group

3.1 Overview

- (a) The Group is a market-leading international drilling, engineering and technology company serving both onshore and offshore drilling markets. It has a vertically integrated business model, with its engineering and design expertise complementing and enhancing its drilling operations. The Group is one of the largest international land-drilling contractors globally, with a highly sophisticated and flexible rig fleet, and a leader in the designing, engineering and manufacturing of premium land rigs and components.

- (b) In terms of international reach, the Group focusses on geographies characterised by attractive industry dynamics (such as low breakeven oil prices, significant levels of industry consolidation and high return on capital) and operates in more than 15 countries, with a strong presence in the Middle East, Russia (including the Caspian Sea), Africa and Europe (including the North Sea). These mature hydrocarbon basins have a high concentration of development and production drilling operations (as opposed to higher risk exploration activities) and are characterised by countries with fiscal budgets that are reliant on revenues from commodity exports, resulting in long-term drilling programs which are less susceptible to normal, cyclical change based on oil and gas market conditions.
- (c) The Group's integrated approach to front-end engineering, design and manufacturing helps the Group acquire and maintain highly competitive market positions by establishing long-term relationships with blue chip customers. The Group's highly regarded drilling expertise has resulted in significant long-term customer relationships with the major international oil and gas companies and their affiliated joint ventures, such as BP, Shell, Total, CNR (Canadian Natural Resources), ExxonMobil, and large national oil and gas companies, including Equinor, PDO, Saudi Aramco and Rosneft.
- (d) The Group's operations are divided between two divisions:
 - (i) Integrated Land Drilling; and
 - (ii) Offshore Drilling Services & Design,which focus on the onshore and offshore markets, respectively.
- (e) The Group's Integrated Land Drilling division comprises the Land Drilling segment and Bentec, the Group's onshore engineering and manufacturing segment.
- (f) The Group's Offshore Drilling Services & Design division comprises the offshore services and RDS segments.
- (g) In 2019, the Group's Integrated Land Drilling division and Offshore Drilling Services & Design division contributed 70.0% and 30.0%, respectively, of the Group's EBITDA before exceptional items (prior to the allocation of central overheads).

3.2 Integrated Land Drilling Division

- (a) The Group's Integrated Land Drilling division combines the Group's leading expertise in design and manufacture of high-end land rigs and components with the Group's reputation as a leading international premium drilling contractor. The Group's ability to build customised, high specification rigs and operate them for customers according to a wide range of specifications and in varied geographic conditions, provides the Group with a unique competitive advantage and allows the Group to provide a broad spectrum of services to the client on a land-drilling project. In many instances, the Group's Land Drilling and Bentec segments work together to provide a potential customer with an integrated bid to build and operate customised rigs (or contract existing rigs from our land-drilling fleet).
- (b) For example, in 2015, Bentec and the Group's Land Drilling segments worked together to define the rig specifications, pricing and operations model specifically to meet the requirements of BP's Khazzan project in Oman, resulting in the Group being awarded the integrated contract to build five customised fast moving land rigs. A more recent example of this is the contract for two new build rigs in Kuwait. The Group have been working with their Kuwaiti partner and representative, the Action Group, to supply and operate two new build drilling rigs for an initial term of five years. The rigs will be procured by the Action Group and leased to KCA Deutag. They will be specified to KCA Deutag global standards and contain state of the art components provided by Bentec. The first of these rigs commenced operations in Q3 2020 with the other expected to start up in Q4 2020.

- (c) Land Drilling: With 73 owned land-drilling and work-over rigs as of 31 August 2020, and operations and maintenance contracts on a further four rigs, plus the two leased rigs in Kuwait, the Group is a leading provider of land-drilling operations by number of rigs in international markets, including Russia, the Middle East, Africa and Europe. The Group's rigs range in size, with an emphasis on medium and high-horsepower rigs (1,500-2,000hp) capable of drilling wells up to 25,000 feet in depth. Of the Group's 73 owned drilling rigs, 28 have been newly built and 30 have undergone significant refurbishment since 2010. The Group performs drilling operations for a wide range of customers in a variety of geographic settings and environments, from equatorial deserts at 55°C to Siberia at -55°C. The rigs are predominantly used in development and production drilling with very low exposure to exploration activities and a track record of repeat business.
- (d) Bentec: Bentec is the trade name of the Group's drilling rig and component engineering and manufacturing segment, which is based in Bad Bentheim, Germany. The Group is a leader in the design, engineering and manufacturing of premium land and offshore rigs and components for international markets as well as for use by the Group's Land Drilling segment. The Group produces premium, custom-built land rigs, including high-specification rigs capable of drilling under harsh and remote conditions, as well as key rig components, such as top drives (higher technical-specification equipment which turns the rig drillstring). The Group also performs after-market repair and maintenance services for land rigs and components. In 2019, 24.1% of the Group's Bentec segment revenues came from external sales of rigs, 28.1% was attributable to component sales and 45.1% to after-sale services and 2.7% from non-oilfield services.

3.3 Offshore Drilling Services & Design Division

- (a) The Group's Offshore Drilling Services & Design division combines the Group's ability to undertake offshore rig design and engineering, from concept to commission, rig refurbishment and re-activation and subsequently to provide customers with the Group's leading expertise in offshore drilling platform operations and maintenance management, allowing the Group to capitalise on greater proportions of an offshore drilling project over the full duration of the project life cycle. By working with the Group's offshore services segment, the Group's RDS segment gains first-hand knowledge of the operations and maintenance challenges of offshore drilling platforms, thereby providing insight into ways to enhance usability and longevity of customers' drilling platforms. Furthermore, engineering and design proposals put forward by RDS can contribute to the Group's offshore services segment winning the subsequent operations and maintenance services contract, as the offshore services segment has gained first-hand knowledge of the engineering and design of the platform through working with the Group's RDS segment and contributing to the engineering and design project.
- (b) Offshore services: The Group is one of the three leading platform-drilling providers in the world by rig count. The Group manages the drilling facilities on 29 platform rigs and two Cat J jack-up rigs, that are owned by the Group's customers across the UK North Sea, Norway, Azerbaijan, Sakhalin Island, Canada and Angola. Furthermore, reactivation work continues in the UK. The Group's offshore services segment is an asset-light, minimal capital expenditure business that features relatively high levels of cash generation.
- (c) RDS: RDS is the trade name for the Group's offshore Rig Design Services segment. The Group is a leading provider of engineering services for the design and refurbishment of offshore drilling platforms and mobile offshore drilling units. The Group's greenfield engineering group designs new drilling rigs, predominantly large rigs that are integrated into topsides (i.e., above sea level), facilities on offshore platforms located in harsh environments, as well as drilling facilities on new mobile offshore drilling units. The Group's brownfield engineering group conducts upgrade, refurbishment, modification and reactivation design and engineering work for existing drilling facilities. The early involvement of RDS in customers' new projects through engineering and design positions the Group's offshore services segment to win future management contracts for such platforms. Of the 31 offshore platform-drilling facilities the Group manages, approximately 65% were designed or refurbished by RDS.

- (d) For example, in 2010, RDS won the engineering and design contract for ExxonMobil's Hebron drilling platform in Canada. Subsequently, the Group's offshore services segment leveraged its co-operative relationship with RDS to win the associated contract for drilling operations and maintenance services, which has a fixed term comprised of a three-year pre-operations phase followed by a nine-year operations and maintenance program, with a customer extension option. Similarly, the combined RDS and offshore services expertise led to the Group winning the construction support and drilling contracts on the two Statoil CJ-70 harsh environment jack-ups. Both rigs were delivered in 2017.

4.3 Term Loan and RCF

- (a) The Term Loan and RCF are each facilities made available to the Group under the Credit Agreement.

- (h) KCA Deutag GmbH is the borrower of the Term Loan.

- (i) Interest is payable on each relevant Interest Payment Date (as such term is defined in the Credit Agreement) and the Term Loan Maturity Date, and the Term Loan is repayable in full on the Term Loan Maturity Date.

- (k) While the Company, Abbot and certain other members of the Group are the borrowers under the RCF, all borrowings under the RCF are currently borrowed by Abbot.
- (l) Interest is payable on each relevant Interest Payment Date (as such term is defined in the Credit Agreement) and the maturity date is the Revolving Maturity Date.

4.4 Ancillary Facilities

- (a) Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement, an RCF Lender may make available ancillary facilities (such as overdrafts, guarantees, short-term loan facilities, derivatives, cash-pooling or foreign exchange facilities), subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent, to a borrower in place of all or part of its unutilised commitment under the RCF.

 - (i) the Existing Overdraft Facilities;
 - (ii) the Existing Undertaking Facility; and
 - (iii) the Existing LC Facility.
- (c) The claims under the Existing Overdraft Facilities are being compromised pursuant to the Scheme. However, the Scheme will not compromise the claims under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities. The Existing Overdraft Facilities is a funded facility in contrast to the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities which represent contingent obligations and are not yet funded. The Liabilities under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities are not being included in the Scheme Claims because the Liabilities under these facilities are not being compromised and are instead being consensually reinstated pursuant to the Restructuring in the form of the New LC Facility and the FAB Run-Off LC Facility. For further detail, please see Part 6 (Summary of the Key Restructuring Documents) of this Explanatory Statement.

Existing Overdraft Facilities

- (d) Pursuant to a facility letter dated 25 September 2018, HSBC issued the Group with an overdraft, guarantee, letters of credit and cash-pooling facility.
- (e) This facility is an ancillary facility under the Credit Agreement.
- (f) The current facility limit is USD 115,000,000 and the maturity date is the Revolving Maturity Date.

Existing Undertaking Facility

- (h) Pursuant to a facility letter dated 27 April 2018, FAB issued the Group with a custom bond, letter of credit and bank guarantee facility.

- (i) This facility is an ancillary facility under the Credit Agreement and ranks senior in right and priority of payment with respect to the Existing Intercreditor Agreement. FAB also benefits from the Existing Security.
- (j) The current facility limit is USD 22,183,661 and the maturity date is the earlier of (a) the date falling four years after the Dalma Acquisition Date, and (b) the Revolving Facility Maturity Date (as defined in the Credit Agreement).
- (k) The Existing Undertaking Facility has been used for the general corporate purposes of the Group.

Existing LC Facility

- (l) Pursuant to a facility letter dated 16 May 2014 (as amended and restated from time to time, including on 6 September 2018), Lloyds issued the Group with a letter of credit and bank guarantee multicurrency facility.
- (m) This facility is an ancillary facility under the Credit Agreement and ranks senior in right and priority of payment with respect to the Existing Intercreditor Agreement. Lloyds also benefits from the Existing Security.
- (n) The current facility limit is USD 39,600,000 or its equivalent in any other currency and the maturity date is the earlier of (i) the Revolving Maturity Date and (ii) the date on which it is cancelled by the Company.
- (o) The Existing LC Facility has been used for the general corporate purposes of the Group.

5. Details of other financing arrangements of the Group

- (a) In addition to the financing arrangements mentioned above, the Group has also entered into additional financial indebtedness consisting of the Omani Term Loans, the IDTEC Loan and the HSBC Hedging Arrangements.
- (b) The Scheme will not compromise the claims under the Omani Term Loan, the IDTEC Loan or the HSBC Hedging Agreements and they do not form part of the Restructuring.
- (c) The Group also had an uncommitted and unutilised letter of credit facility with Citicorp North America Inc. dated 21 February 2019 which has now been cancelled.

5.2 Omani Term Loans

Oman KCA Deutag Drilling Company LLC, and various other members of the Group, entered into an English law-governed facility agreement on 11 February 2016 under which Oman KCA Deutag Drilling Company LLC has borrowed two term loans of which USD 4,000,000 (in aggregate) is currently outstanding and repayable in monthly payment until December 2020.

5.3 IDTEC Loan

The Group's joint venture in Oman, IDTEC, has a term loan with a local bank which currently has USD 979,000 outstanding and is repayable in bi-annual payments until August 2021.

5.4 HSBC Hedging Arrangements

The Group manages its hedging exposures with HSBC through the placement of FX spot trades and FX Forward trades. There are currently 9 open FX forward trades in place, which all relate to EUR RUB transactions placed by Abbot on behalf of Bentec in November 2019. These are all non-deliverable forward trades and have maturity dates ranging from 2 October 2020 through to 6 May 2021.

PART 3

FURTHER BACKGROUND TO AND REASONS FOR THE RESTRUCTURING (INCLUDING THE SCHEME)

1. Events leading up to the entry into the Standstill Agreement

- 1.1 As a result of concerns regarding the level of the Group's financial leverage and certain debt maturities in early 2021, the Group engaged Houlihan Lokey as financial adviser in August 2019 to assist (in conjunction with A&O, the Group's longstanding legal advisers) with conducting a strategic review of its balance sheet (including the indebtedness under the Existing Notes and the Credit Agreement) and finding a comprehensive solution to the Group's capital structure. Between August 2019 and March 2020, the Group, in conjunction with its advisers and ultimate shareholders, continued to explore and progress various strategic options to address its capital structure.
- 1.2 The range of strategic options available to the Group was severely limited by the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction. Examples of the direct and indirect negative impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction on the Group's business include:
 - (a) requests from the Group's customers for significant price reductions in relation to the services provided by the Group;
 - (b) the termination and/or suspension of several of the Group's contracts in connection with its land drilling fleet;
 - (c) the resulting reclassification of several of the oil platforms where the drilling activities are operated by the Group from operating to stacking mode; and
 - (d) severe disruptions to the Group's supply chains and its workforce.
- 1.3 In order to try to mitigate and reduce the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction, the Group took a number of steps, including:
 - (a) introducing a target to reduce its overhead and land opex costs by 10% in FY2020/21 versus previous expectations;
 - (b) in April 2020, moving most non-rig based staff to a four-day week for a period of three months, providing an immediate USD4 million saving, and this has subsequently been replaced by a 10% salary cut for most personnel across the Group;
 - (c) freezing the backfilling of any positions and overall recruitment;
 - (d) stopping all non-business critical spending; and
 - (e) aligning headcount and overheads across all areas of the Group with activity reductions, identifying additional cost reduction initiatives and monitoring government support opportunities (e.g., the short time working initiative in Germany).
- 1.4 Despite the measures set out in paragraph 1.3 above, the continuing impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction led to a significant deterioration in the Group's financial position (especially in relation to its short-term liquidity).
- 1.5 Furthermore, in addition to the significant short-term impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction, the Group also determined that, given its considerable exposure to the oil and gas sector, the ongoing impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic combined with lower demand for oil

(and a corresponding drop in the price of oil) was likely to have a medium to long-term impact on its business and financial outlook.

- 1.6 In light of the situation described above, on 26 March 2020 the Group announced that it (a) was planning to utilise the applicable grace periods in relation to the April 2020 Interest Payments in order to give it more time to evaluate and assess the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction on its business and operations; and (b) would be engaging with its creditors (including the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders (including the Revolving Loan Lenders and the Existing Overdraft Provider) and each of their respective advisers).

2. Negotiations with creditors

Entry into Standstill Agreement

- 2.1 Having used the applicable grace periods in respect of the April 2020 Interest Payments to further assess its financial position and potential options and following negotiations with the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders (and each of their respective advisers), the Group announced on 2 May 2020 that, in order to provide stability while it continued to evaluate the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic and the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction, it had entered into the Standstill Agreement¹².
- 2.2 Under the terms of the Standstill Agreement, the members of the Ad-Hoc Committee, the RCF Lenders and the other creditors party thereto agreed to standstill arrangements (including restrictions on enforcement action and forbearances in relation to specified defaults described in paragraph 2.3 below) in respect of the indebtedness under the Existing Notes and the Credit Agreement for the Standstill Period. The Group gave various undertakings under the Standstill Agreement (including in relation to the provision of financial information regarding the Group and the preparation of a proposal for the financial restructuring of the Group's balance sheet) and accepted certain restrictions on the conduct of its business. Pursuant to the terms of the Standstill Agreement, it was also agreed that the Group would not make the April 2020 Interest Payments or (subject to certain limited exceptions) any other interest or amortisation payments due under the Existing Indentures or the Credit Agreement during the Standstill Period.
- 2.3 The members of the Ad-Hoc Committee, the RCF Lenders and the other creditors party to the Standstill Agreement agreed (as applicable), for the duration of the Standstill Period (as defined in the Standstill Agreement) to temporarily forbear from exercising any rights or remedies they may have as a result of:
- (a) in relation to the Credit Agreement, any Default or Event of Default (both as defined in the Credit Agreement) which may occur due to the breach of:
 - (i) the financial covenant set out in section 6.22 (Financial Covenant) of the Credit Agreement in respect of the Quarter Period (as defined in the Credit Agreement) ending on 31 March 2020 and each Quarter Period ending during the Standstill Period;
 - (ii) section 7.01(a) or 7.01(b) of the Credit Agreement as a result of any amount not being paid under the Credit Agreement during the Standstill Period;
 - (iii) section 7.01(f) of the Credit Agreement as a result of (x) any amount not being paid under the Existing Financings (as defined in the Standstill Agreement) during the Standstill Period or (y) any other default referred to in paragraph 5 of the Standstill Agreement;

- (iv) section 7.01(g)(v) of the Credit Agreement as a result of any amount not being paid under the Existing Financings (as defined in the Standstill Agreement) during the Standstill Period or the entry into of the Standstill Agreement or any public announcement relating to the same; and
 - (v) section 7.01(j) or 7.01(l) of the Credit Agreement solely due to circumstances which, as at the date of the Standstill Agreement, have arisen, or could reasonably be expected to arise, directly or indirectly as a result of the Covid-19 Pandemic or the OPEC-related Oil Price Reduction.
- (b) In relation to the Existing Notes, any Default or Event of Default (as both defined in the relevant Existing Indenture) which may occur due to the breach of:
- (i) section 6.01(a)(1) of each Existing Indenture in respect of which they hold Existing Notes as a result of any amount of interest not being paid under that Existing Indenture during the Standstill Period;
 - (ii) section 6.01(a)(5) of each Existing Indenture as a result of (x) any amount not being paid under the Existing Financings (as defined in the Standstill Agreement) during the Standstill Period or (y) any other default referred to in paragraph 5 of the Standstill Agreement; and
 - (iii) section 6.01(a)(9)(E) of the 2021 Notes Indenture and the 2022 Notes Indenture and section 6.01(a)(10)(E) of the 2023 Notes Indenture as a result of any amount not being paid under the Existing Financings (as defined in the Standstill Agreement) during the Standstill Period or the entry into of the Standstill Agreement or any public announcement relating to the same.

Work Fee

2.4 As a condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Standstill Agreement, Alpha and certain other members of the Group entered into the Work Fee Letters. Pursuant to the Work Fee Letters, Alpha agreed to pay or to procure the payment to:

- (a) the members of the Ad-Hoc Committee party to the AHC Work Fee Letter of the AHC Work Fees; and
- (b) the RCF Lenders (including Lloyds (who is not a Scheme Creditor) and to FAB (who is not a Scheme Creditor in relation to the Existing Undertaking Facility)) party to the RCF Work Fee Letter of the RCF Work Fees, which Work Fees have been paid as at the date of this letter and represent the total amount of fees payable under the Work Fee Letters.

2.5 The Group considers the Work Fees to be appropriate in light of the work that:

- (a) has been undertaken by the Ad-Hoc Committee and RCF Lenders in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the negotiation of the terms of the Restructuring and its implementation, including:
 - (i) participating in calls and meetings with the advisers to, and representatives of, the Group;

- (ii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on proposals made by the Group in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on draft documentation relating to the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iv) working with fellow creditors and other stakeholders to build a consensus around the terms of the Restructuring; and
 - (v) liaising with current and prospective management in relation to the Restructuring; and
- (b) continues to be undertaken by the Ad-Hoc Committee and RCF Lenders to in relation to the implementation of the Restructuring.

3. Support for the Restructuring

- 3.1 On 31 July 2020, after a period of further discussions between the Group, the Ad-Hoc Committee, the RCF Lenders and certain other stakeholders (including the Group's ultimate shareholders), the Group announced that the Company and certain other members of the Group had entered into the Lock-Up Agreement setting out the agreed commercial terms of the Restructuring. As the ultimate shareholders of the Group had, after negotiations with the Ad-Hoc Committee, agreed to support the Restructuring, Holdings I (being the ultimate holding company of the Group) and certain other holding companies in the Group structure entered into the Lock-Up Agreement as original parties thereto.
- 3.2 A copy of the Lock-Up Agreement is available on the Group's website¹³ and an unredacted copy is available on the Scheme Website.
- 3.3 Under the Lock-Up Agreement, the Company and the other parties thereto, other than FAB, have agreed, amongst other things, that they will:
- (a) promptly take all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to all or any part of the Restructuring; and
 - (b) not take, encourage, assist or support (or procure that any other person takes, encourages, assists or supports) any action which would, or would reasonably be expected to, breach or be inconsistent with the Lock-Up Agreement, the Restructuring Term Sheets or the Restructuring Steps Plan (taken as a whole) or delay, impede or prevent the implementation or consummation of all or any part of the Restructuring.
- 3.4 Pursuant to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, each Participating Creditor (other than FAB) has acknowledged and submitted to the jurisdiction of the English court in respect of the Scheme and agreed that it shall enter an appearance formally in connection with the Scheme (if required by the Court or, if any creditor that is not a Participating Creditor formally objects to the Scheme, as reasonably requested by Alpha II) or be willing to be joined formally to the Scheme as a defendant (if required by the Court).
- 3.5 FAB is a party to the Lock-Up Agreement. Pursuant (and subject) to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, FAB has agreed to take actions which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to the FAB Run-Off LC Facility.

Effectiveness of the Lock-Up Agreement

- 3.6 The Lock-Up Agreement was initially signed by, among others, the Obligor, each member of the Ad-Hoc Committee and certain RCF Lenders.
- 3.7 The Lock-Up Agreement became effective in accordance with its terms on 31 July 2020.
- 3.8 As at 8 October 2020, the Lock-Up Agreement had been signed or acceded to by:
- (a) Existing Noteholders holding 92.76% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2021 Notes;
 - (b) Existing Noteholders holding 99.08% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2022 Notes;
 - (c) Existing Noteholders holding 99.01% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2023 Notes;
 - (d) Term Loan Lenders holding 96.43% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan;
 - (e) Revolving Loan Lenders holding 89.47% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans; and
 - (f) the Existing Overdraft Provider, Lloyds and FAB.

Amendment to the Lock-Up Agreement

- 3.9 Following further due diligence and discussions between the Group's advisers and the advisers to the Ad-Hoc Committee and the RCF Lenders, it was agreed that implementing the Restructuring in accordance with steps set out in the Restructuring Steps Plan originally scheduled to the Lock-Up Agreement would require one or more clearances from the FAS to be obtained before the completion of the Restructuring in order to comply with the Russian Strategic Investment Law.
- 3.10 As the Group was advised by its Russian counsel that it would not be feasible to obtain the requisite clearances from the FAS within the timescale contemplated by the Lock-Up Agreement for the completion of the Restructuring, certain amendments were required to be made to the Restructuring Steps Plan. Accordingly, pursuant to the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment Letter (which was circulated by the Information Agent to all Participating Creditors on 8 October 2020 and is available to all Scheme Creditors on the Scheme Website), the Company requested that the Majority Participating AHC Creditors and the Majority Participating RCF Lenders consent to the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment. The consent was received and the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment became effective on 8 October 2020.
- 3.11 While the key terms of the Restructuring remain unchanged, as a result of the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment, the steps that will be taken to implement the Restructuring are now different in certain respects to the steps summarised in paragraph 6 of the Practice Statement Letter. The principal differences are that, in accordance with the Restructuring Steps Plan (as amended by the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment):
- (a) Alpha II has acquired all of the shares in Jersey Newco (and, as a result, indirectly acquired English NewCo 1 and English NewCo 2) from Crestbridge Corporate Nominees Limited (being an entity controlled by Crestbridge, the corporate services provider which arranged for Jersey Newco to be incorporated) for nil consideration;

- (b) following the Scheme Effective Time but prior to the Restructuring Effective Date, Alpha II will transfer all of the shares in Alpha to English NewCo 2 for nil consideration (with the shares in Alpha remaining subject to the relevant Existing Security); and
 - (c) as part of the Restructuring Steps, Alpha II will transfer 100% of the shares in Jersey Newco to certain of the Scheme Creditors (to be selected, subject to certain limitations set out in the Restructuring Implementation Deed, by the Company in its discretion (in consultation with the Ad-Hoc Committee and the Existing Overdraft Provider (or their respective advisers)) for nil consideration.
- 3.12 As originally contemplated, at a later Restructuring Step, Jersey Newco will issue the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to each Scheme Creditor or its Nominee (or the Holding Period Trustee, on behalf of each Unadmitted Scheme Creditor in respect of the Jersey Newco Shares) such that the relevant Scheme Creditor or its Nominee (or the Holding Period Trustee, as applicable) receives Jersey Newco Consideration Shares in an aggregate amount equal to the relevant Scheme Creditor's Jersey Newco Share Entitlement (as adjusted for any Jersey Newco Shares held by a Scheme Creditor prior to this Restructuring Step).
- 3.13 As noted above, despite the changes to the Restructuring Steps Plan and the differences referred to in paragraph 3.11 above, the economic terms of the Scheme and the Restructuring are unchanged and the Restructuring Steps to occur after the transfer of Jersey Newco to certain of the Scheme Creditors remain materially consistent with the steps summarised in the Practice Statement Letter.

Lock-Up Fee

- 3.14 Each Creditor who became a Participating Creditor within ten Business Days of the Effective Date became entitled to receive the Lock-Up Fee. The Lock-Up Fee was paid to each relevant Participating Creditor on 21 August 2020 (being 15 Business Days after the Effective Date).
- 3.15 The payment of the Lock-Up Fee was (and continues to be) considered by the Group to have been appropriate in order to secure early support for the Restructuring from the Group's diverse and numerous Creditors in order to provide the Group with a degree of commercial comfort regarding the implementation of the Restructuring. All Existing Noteholders, Term Loan Lenders and RCF Lenders had the opportunity to enter into the Lock-Up Agreement within ten Business Days of its effective date and thereby become eligible to receive the Lock-Up Fee.

4. Third-party support for the Scheme

- 4.1 In order to successfully implement the Restructuring through the Scheme, participation is required from, inter alios, the following third parties (each of which is an Undertaking Party, with the exception of FAB):
- (a) Jersey Newco;
 - (b) English NewCo 1;
 - (c) English NewCo 2;
 - (d) the Holdcos;
 - (e) the Obligors (other than the Company);
 - (f) FAB (in its capacity as an Existing Ancillary Lender and as a New Bilateral Lender);
 - (g) Lloyds (in its capacities as an Existing Ancillary Lender and as a New Bilateral Lender);

- (h) HSBC (in its capacity as a New Bilateral Lender);
- (i) each Existing Trustee;
- (j) each Existing Administrative Agent;
- (k) the Existing Security Agent;
- (l) the Information Agent;
- (m) the Holding Period Trustee;
- (n) the New Security Agent;
- (o) the New Trustee; and
- (p) Lucid Agency Services Limited (in its capacities as Paying Agent, Registrar and Transfer Agent (in each case as defined in the New Notes Indenture)).

4.2 Each of the Undertaking Parties will execute and deliver, prior to the Sanction Hearing, an Undertaking Deed in favour of the Court, the Company and the relevant Scheme Creditors (as applicable pursuant to which it will agree to the Scheme and agree and undertake to the Court, the Company and the Scheme Creditors (as applicable), on and from the Scheme Effective Time, among other things:

- (a) to be bound by the Scheme and the applicable Restructuring Documents;
- (b) to promptly do all such acts and things necessary for the purpose of giving effect to the Scheme and the applicable Restructuring Documents; and
- (c) to promptly execute and deliver each of the Restructuring Documents (and related documents) to which it is party.

4.3 Having executed the Lock-Up Agreement, FAB has agreed and is expected to execute and deliver a support letter to the Company, prior to the Sanction Hearing, pursuant to which, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, FAB will undertake to take any and all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to the documentation of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility (including, without limitation, executing and delivering to the Company the Restructuring Implementation Deed) on and from the Scheme Effective Time.

CERTAIN LEGAL ASPECTS OF THE SCHEME

1. Scheme of arrangement overview

- 1.1 The Scheme is being proposed by the Company under the laws of England and Wales in order to enable the implementation of the Restructuring.
- 1.2 A scheme of arrangement is a formal procedure under Part 26 of the Companies Act which allows a company to agree a compromise or arrangement with its creditors (or classes of creditors), and for the terms of that compromise or arrangement to bind any non-consenting or opposing minority creditors.
- 1.3 In order to become effective and legally binding, a scheme of arrangement under English law must be:
 - (a) approved by a majority in number (above 50%) representing at least 75% in value of each class of creditors present and voting either in person or by proxy at the relevant scheme meeting convened by the Court to approve the scheme of arrangement;
 - (b) sanctioned by the Court; and
 - (c) delivered to the Registrar of Companies in England and Wales with a copy of the Sanction Order.
- 1.4 If a scheme of arrangement is approved by the requisite majorities and sanctioned by the Court and the Sanction Order is delivered to the Registrar of Companies, the scheme of arrangement will become effective in accordance with its terms and bind all the creditors subject to it, including those creditors who voted against it or did not vote at all, together with their successors and assigns.
- 1.5 A scheme of arrangement cannot be sanctioned by the Court unless the Court is satisfied, among other things, that the relevant provisions of Part 26 of the Companies Act have been complied with and that an intelligent and honest person being a member of the class concerned and acting in respect of his/her own interest, might reasonably approve the scheme of arrangement. However, among other matters, it does not need to be the only fair scheme or the "best scheme" which could reasonably have been agreed to by the Court.
- 1.6 The actions required of the Scheme Creditors in connection with the Scheme are set out in detail in Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement, to which Scheme Creditors should refer.
- 1.7 A summary of the following items is set out below:
 - (a) the identity of the Scheme Creditors;
 - (b) an explanation of class constitution at the Scheme Meeting;
 - (c) the process for and voting at the Scheme Meeting;
 - (d) when the Scheme will become effective; and
 - (e) recognition of the Scheme in the United States, Russia, Norway, Oman and Germany if approved by Scheme Creditors and sanctioned by the Court.

2. Identity of the Scheme Creditors

- 2.1 The creditors who are bound by the terms of the Scheme, if it becomes effective, are referred to in the Scheme Document as Scheme Creditors.
- 2.2 The Scheme Creditors in respect of the Existing Notes are the Existing Noteholders, the Existing Trustee, the Existing Custodian and the Existing Depositary.
- 2.3 However, the Existing Noteholders, as the beneficial owners of and/or the persons with the ultimate economic interest in the Existing Notes, are the persons with the "real" interest in the Scheme Claims in respect of the Existing Notes and accordingly the Existing Noteholders at the Principal Record Time will be entitled to vote at the Scheme Meeting in respect of the Scheme. Although the Existing Custodian and the Existing Depositary (in accordance with their respective customary practices) and the Existing Trustee (by giving an undertaking not to vote) have agreed that they will not vote at the Scheme Meeting or receive any Scheme Consideration, they remain Scheme Creditors. For the avoidance of doubt, the Account Holders are not Scheme Creditors unless and to the extent that they have a beneficial interest in the Existing Notes.
- 2.4 The Scheme Creditors in respect of the Term Loan are the Term Loan Lenders, the Scheme Creditors in respect of the Revolving Loans are the Revolving Loan Lenders and the Scheme Creditor in respect of the Existing Overdraft Facilities is the Existing Overdraft Provider.
- 2.5 The Scheme will not compromise the claims under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities. The Liabilities under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities are not Scheme Claims because the Liabilities under these facilities will not be compromised and will instead be consensually reinstated:
- (a) in the case of the Liabilities under the Existing LC Facility (other than in respect of any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing LC Facility), under the New LC Facility, which will be made available to certain members of the Group by Lloyds and which will allow those members of the Group to continue to request new letters of credit, guarantees and other relevant instruments in accordance with the terms of the New Lloyds LC Facility Agreement;
 - (b) in the case of the Liabilities under the Existing Undertaking Facility (other than in respect of any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Undertaking Facility), under the FAB Run-Off LC Facility, which will be made available to certain members of the Group by FAB and under which the Liabilities under the Existing Undertaking Facility will run-off during the term of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility (which will expire on the original maturity date specified in the Existing Undertaking Facility). For the avoidance of doubt, members of the Group will not be able to request new letters of credit, guarantees or other relevant instruments under the terms of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility; and
 - (c) with any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing LC Facility any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Undertaking Facility both being paid at the end of November 2020.
- 2.6 Lloyds was an original party to the Lock-Up Agreement and will execute an undertaking in favour of, among others, the Court and the Company pursuant to which it will undertake and agree, amongst other matters, to perform those actions which it is required to perform in accordance with the terms of the Scheme (including entering into the Restructuring Implementation Deed) and, where necessary, be bound by the terms of the Scheme as sanctioned by the Court, on and from the Scheme Effective Time.
- 2.7 FAB has also acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement and will, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, take the actions which are necessary to facilitate, implement or otherwise give effect to the documentation for the FAB Run-Off LC Facility. Furthermore, prior to the Sanction Hearing, FAB has agreed and is expected to execute and deliver a support letter to the Company pursuant to which FAB will undertake, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, to take any and all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to the documentation of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility (including, without limitation, executing and delivering to the Company the Restructuring Implementation Deed) on and from the Scheme Effective Time.

- 2.8 If the Scheme becomes effective, each Scheme Creditor's Scheme Creditor Entitlements will be determined based on its Scheme Claim as at the relevant Record Time. The Company shall not be under any obligation to recognise any assignment or transfer of Scheme Claims after the relevant Record Time, provided that, where the Company has received from the relevant parties written notice of such assignment or transfer, the Company may in its absolute discretion, and subject to such evidence as it may reasonably require, agree to recognise such assignment or transfer, subject to the assignee or transferee agreeing to be bound by the terms of the Scheme and to be treated as having been a Scheme Creditor for the purposes of the Scheme.
- 2.9 In relation to the Existing Overdraft Provider, the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities to be compromised by the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed (being a Scheme Claim) shall be an amount equal to the Compromised Overdraft Amount, provided that the maximum Compromised Overdraft Amount for the purposes of the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed shall not exceed USD 115,000,000 plus the aggregate amount of any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Overdraft Facilities as at the Existing Overdraft Record Time.
- 2.10 For the purposes of calculating the Compromised Overdraft Amount, any amounts under the Existing Overdraft Facilities that are denominated in a currency other than dollars shall be converted by the Company into dollars using the HSBC Mid-Market Rate (or if the HSBC Mid-Market Rate is not accessible by the Company at the Existing Overdraft Record Time, the Bank of England Exchange Rate).

3. Scheme Classes

The existing rights of the Scheme Creditors against the Company

- 3.1 The Company considers that the existing rights of the Scheme Creditors against the Company are not so dissimilar as to make it impossible for them to consult together with a view to a common interest, notwithstanding that the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities have different rates of interest and maturity. This is because:
- (a) under the Existing Intercreditor Agreement, which governs the relationship between, among others, the Scheme Creditors, the Liabilities in respect of the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities all rank pari passu as between themselves;
 - (b) the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities all benefit from the same security and guarantee package;
 - (c) the outstanding events of default under each Existing Indenture and the Credit Agreement mean that each series of Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities are all capable of acceleration and the security under the Existing Intercreditor Agreement is capable of enforcement in accordance with the terms of the Existing Intercreditor Agreement, in each case but for the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement;

- (d) if the Company was to enter into an insolvency or bankruptcy proceeding, each Scheme Creditor would be treated the same way when proving in the insolvency or bankruptcy;
- (e) although there are differences between the economic terms and the maturities for the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans and the Existing Overdraft Facilities, these differences are not so substantial as to fracture the class in circumstances where the most likely alternative to the Scheme is a distressed, accelerated sale of the individual business units within the Group (with any residual part of the Group and its assets entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings) or, if such sales are not achievable in the time available, the entry into formal insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings of the entire Group; and
- (f) in all the circumstances, there is more to unite than divide all of the Scheme Creditors, so as to make any further classes unnecessary.

The rights of the Scheme Creditors under the Scheme

3.2 The Company considers that the rights of the Scheme Creditors under the Scheme would not prevent them from consulting together with a view to a common interest because there is no different treatment of the Existing Noteholders, the Term Loan Lenders, the Revolving Loan Lenders and the Existing Overdraft Provider. In particular:

- (a) each Scheme Creditor will be entitled to the same Scheme Consideration on a rateable basis;
- (b) the rights conferred on each shareholder that holds the Jersey Newco Shares are identical, as there is a single class of shares to be allotted as part of the issuance of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and the rights within that class are identical. However, certain of those rights are qualified by minimum holdings requirements. In particular, a shareholder that (with its Affiliates) holds at least ten % in aggregate of the Jersey Newco Shares is entitled to nominate directors for approval by a Major Shareholder Majority (as defined in the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement) and to appoint one observer to the board. In addition, shareholders who hold less than five % in aggregate of the Jersey Newco Shares, will not be entitled to vote (save for certain important matters, being Shareholder Super Reserved Matters, such as the alteration of the Jersey Newco Articles of Association), and shareholders who hold at least one % aggregate of the Jersey Newco Shares following the Restructuring Effective Date will have certain information rights as more fully set out in the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement. The Company does not consider that these different thresholds affect the composition of classes for the Scheme Meeting, as all relevant shareholder rights are identical and any difference in the enjoyment of those rights results from the number of shares held by a Scheme Creditor or by its Affiliates; and
- (c) due to the fact that Scheme Creditors may continue to trade their exposures in respect of the Existing Notes, the Term Loan and the Revolving Loans up to the Record Time, the Company was not, as a practical matter at the time at which it was required to formulate the class composition for the Scheme Meeting, in a position to determine definitively which Scheme Creditors hold more than 5% and more than 10% of the Scheme Claims. Therefore, even if it was necessary to convene separate class meetings of Scheme Creditors based on these criteria, the Company could not have confidently proposed which Scheme Creditors should be placed in which class as at the relevant date.

Impact of Work Fees

3.3 The Company does not consider that the Work Fees give rise to any separate class issues, particularly as:

- (a) the Work Fees are de minimis and not material (looked at in isolation or together with the Lock-up Fee) in the context of both the total amount of the Scheme Claims and the Scheme Creditor Entitlements¹⁴;
- (b) the members of the Ad-Hoc Committee and RCF Lenders have assisted the Company's advisers in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the negotiation of the terms of the Restructuring and its implementation, including:
 - (i) participating in calls and meetings with the advisers to, and representatives of, the Group;
 - (ii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on proposals made by the Group in connection with the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iii) reviewing, assessing and providing feedback on draft documentation relating to the Standstill Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring;
 - (iv) working with fellow creditors and other stakeholders to build a consensus around the terms of the Restructuring; and
 - (v) liaising with current and prospective management in relation to the Restructuring;
- (c) the Work Fees are not a term of the Scheme nor does the entitlement to the Work Fees arise under or in connection with the Lock-Up Agreement;
- (d) the Work Fees are not intended to induce the relevant members of the Ad-Hoc Committee or the RCF Lenders to vote in favour of the Scheme; and
- (e) all the Work Fees payable pursuant to the Work Fee Letters have already been paid in full and are not therefore an entitlement under or conditional upon the Scheme.

Impact of Lock-Up Agreement

3.4 The Company has considered whether the Lock-Up Agreement gives rise to any separate class issues. The Company has concluded that it does not as:

- (a) the existence of the Lock-Up Agreement is information available to all Scheme Creditors; and
- (b) the Lock-Up Agreement is open to all Scheme Creditors should they wish to accede to it.

Impact of Lock-Up Fee

3.5 The Company does not consider that the Scheme Creditors who have acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement need to be put into a separate class for the purpose of voting on the Scheme, particularly as:

- (a) all Scheme Creditors were given equal opportunity to accede to the Lock-Up Agreement;
- (b) the Lock-Up Fee has already been paid on 21 August 2020 to each eligible Scheme Creditor;
- (c) the Lock-Up Fee is not a term of, or linked to the outcome of, the Scheme;

Using an estimated aggregate principal amount of Scheme Claims of USD 1,927,314,617, the Work Fees (a total of USD 23,374,288.09, including amounts paid to RCF Lenders that are not Scheme Creditors) represents approximately 1.2% of this total.

- (d) it is unlikely that a Scheme Creditor that considered any substantive aspect of the Scheme to be against its interests would be persuaded to vote in favour by the existence of the Lock-Up Fee;
- (e) the alternative of a distressed, accelerated sale of the individual business units within the Group (with any residual part of the Group and its assets entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings) or, if such sales are not achievable in the time available, the entry into formal insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings of the entire Group would result in the Scheme Creditors suffering very significant losses compared to the proposed rights under the Scheme and in that context the Lock-Up Fee is not a material factor; and
- (f) the Company considers that the quantum of the Lock-Up Fee is de minimis in the context of the total amount of both the Scheme Claims and the Scheme Consideration.¹⁵

Impact of Scheme Creditors who are not Eligible Persons

3.6 The Company does not consider that Scheme Creditors who are not Eligible Persons should be put in a separate class because:

- (a) if a Scheme Creditor is not an Eligible Person, the Scheme Creditor is nonetheless entitled to nominate a Nominee to hold the Scheme Consideration;
- (b) in any event, if a Scheme Creditor does not claim the Scheme Consideration to which it is entitled (because it is not an Eligible Person or otherwise) that Scheme Consideration will be held on trust in accordance with the Holding Period Trust Agreement for the Holding Period and (if still unclaimed) will thereafter be sold. The proceeds of sale will be available to be claimed by the relevant Scheme Creditor for a further six-month period; and
- (c) although a Scheme Creditor who is not an Eligible Person has different interests as compared to an Eligible Person, the differences do not fracture the class.

Impact of payment of fees, costs and expenses of the Ad-Hoc Committee's advisors and the advisors to the RCF Lenders

3.7 The Company does not consider that payment of fees, costs and expenses incurred by the Ad-Hoc Committee's advisors and the advisors to the RCF Lenders represent a net "benefit" to the Ad-Hoc Committee or to the relevant RCF Lenders in the usual sense. All fees, costs and expenses incurred by the Ad-Hoc Committee's advisors and the advisors to the RCF Lenders in connection with the negotiation, preparation and implementation of the Scheme will be covered by the Group in accordance with certain fee arrangement letters entered into by the applicable parties. In this regard, it should be noted that:

- (a) the fees, costs and expenses relate solely to the negotiation of the Restructuring and the implementation thereof and would not have arisen if the Restructuring was not proposed to take place. Accordingly, the payment of the fees, costs and expenses of the Ad-Hoc Committee's advisors and the advisors to the RCF Lenders does not represent a net "benefit" to the Ad-Hoc Committee or the RCF Lenders (not all of whom are Scheme Creditors) in the usual sense;
- (b) the Ad-Hoc Committee's advisors and the advisors to the RCF Lenders have assisted the Company's advisors in drafting the documents relating to the Restructuring and devising the transaction structure. Accordingly, to that extent, the work carried out by the relevant advisers was for the benefit of all creditors; and

- (c) the Company is not aware of any fees, costs or expenses incurred by any other Scheme Creditor in relation to the Scheme. Had any other Scheme Creditor wished to participate in the development of the Restructuring, the Company would have been willing to pay the reasonable fees, costs and expenses of that Scheme Creditor's advisors. In the event, no other creditor advisory costs have emerged and there is no reason to believe that any other Scheme Creditor will be left out of pocket.

3.8 For the reasons set out in this paragraph 3, the Company considers that the rights of the Scheme Creditors are not so dissimilar as to make it impossible for them to consult together with a view to a common interest. Rather, the Company considers that the Scheme Creditors are able to consult together, irrespective of the fact that some Scheme Creditors may hold Scheme Claims in respect of:

- (a) different series of Existing Notes;
- (b) the Term Loan;
- (c) the Revolving Loans; and/or
- (d) the Existing Overdraft Facilities.

3.9 Accordingly, it is proposed that the Scheme Meeting is convened for the purposes of considering and, if the Scheme Creditors think fit, approving the Scheme.

4. Scheme Meeting

4.1 Before the Scheme can become effective and binding on the Company and the Scheme Creditors, the Scheme must be passed by the requisite majorities (as set out above) at the Scheme Meeting.

4.2 The Court gave directions on 15 October 2020 for the Scheme Meeting to be convened on 30 October 2020 and to commence at 10:30 am.

4.3 A formal notice of the Scheme Meeting is set out in this document at Appendix 10 (Notice of Scheme Meeting) to this Explanatory Statement. In light of the ongoing Covid-19 Pandemic, the Scheme Meeting will take place via webinar using the Zoom communications platform. A Scheme Creditor wishing to attend the Scheme Meeting (via webinar) should first complete the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) via the Scheme Website before the Voting Instruction Deadline and, upon validation of such forms by the Information Agent, will be provided with details in order to access the Scheme Meeting if they so wish. Scheme Creditors should note that they will only be provided with access details once the Information Agent and the Company (or its advisers) are satisfied that they (or their representative) have provided evidence of their authority to represent that body corporate at the Scheme Meeting (for example, a valid power of attorney and/or board minutes). Please see Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement for more information on voting and attending the Scheme Meeting.

4.4 Any person with a Scheme Claim as at the Record Time (being (a) in respect of any Liability (other than the Existing Overdraft Liabilities), 5:00 pm (New York time) on 26 October 2020 and (b) in respect of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities, the Existing Overdraft Record Time) will be entitled to attend and vote at the Scheme Meeting.

4.5 Only the votes of Scheme Creditors voting at the Scheme Meeting via webinar or by proxy can be taken into account for the purpose of establishing whether the requisite approvals for the Scheme have been obtained.

- 4.6 Scheme Creditors should be aware that they were afforded an opportunity to raise any issues in relation to the constitution of the Scheme Meeting at the Convening Hearing, as stated in the Practice Statement Letter. If Scheme Creditors have not already raised any such issues, the Court will expect any Scheme Creditors doing so at the Sanction Hearing to show good reason why such issues were not raised at the Convening Hearing.
- 4.7 Scheme Creditors should refer to the detailed instructions in relation to voting at the Scheme Meeting in Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement.
- 4.8 The chairman of the Scheme Meeting will be Robert Ellis.

5. Effectiveness of the Scheme

- 5.1 Before the Scheme can become effective and binding on the Company and its respective Scheme Creditors, the Court must sanction the Scheme at the Sanction Hearing. The Sanction Hearing will take place after the requisite statutory majorities of the Scheme Creditors have approved the Scheme at the Scheme Meeting. The Company expects that the Sanction Hearing will take place on or around 5 November 2020. The Company (through the Information Agent) will give notice to Scheme Creditors of the exact time and date of the Sanction Hearing.
- 5.2 All Scheme Creditors are entitled to attend in person or through representatives to support or oppose the sanctioning of the Scheme by the Court.
- 5.3 The Company may, subject to paragraph 5.4 below, at any hearing of the Court to sanction the Scheme consent on behalf of all Scheme Creditors to any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme or to any terms or conditions that the Court may think fit to approve or impose and which are otherwise necessary for the purpose of implementing the Restructuring, and which could not reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have a material adverse effect on the interests of any Scheme Creditor under the Scheme. However, if such modifications could reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have a material adverse effect on the interests of a Scheme Creditor, then the Company may not give such consent without the prior written consent of that Scheme Creditor.
- 5.4 Any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme and/or any of the Implementation Documents may only be made pursuant to clause 9.1 (Modification of the Scheme) of the Scheme Document with the consent of:
 - (a) the Majority Creditors and the New Bilateral Lenders; and
 - (b) any Existing Administrative Party whose interests would be adversely affected by such modification or addition, in each case, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 5.5 Additionally, certain provisions of the Restructuring Implementation Deed that relate to the Existing Administrative Parties may only be amended with the consent of each Existing Administrative Party.

6. Chapter 15 Recognition in the United States

- 6.1 The Company intends to apply to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court shortly after the Convening Hearing to seek a Chapter 15 Order. In addition, the making of a Chapter 15 Order permits a U.S. bankruptcy court to provide additional assistance to a foreign representative. In determining whether to provide additional assistance, the U.S. Bankruptcy Code directs the court to do so "consistent with the principles of comity". The Company has appointed Neil Gilchrist (a director of the Company and the chief financial officer of the Group) as its foreign representative for such purpose.

- 6.2 If a Chapter 15 Order is sought, relevant parties (including the Scheme Creditors) will be notified and the Company will publish notice of the application in the manner prescribed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court (which may include publication on the Scheme Website).
- 6.3 The Company at this stage intends to deliver the Sanction Order relating to the Scheme to the Registrar of Companies once the hearing to recognise the Scheme under Chapter 15 has occurred. It is intended that the hearing to recognise the Scheme as a "foreign main proceeding" under Chapter 15 and grant other related relief, including recognition and enforcement of the Scheme and the Sanction Order, will occur on the day following the Sanction Hearing, or shortly thereafter.

7. Recognition of the Scheme elsewhere

- 7.1 The Company has also obtained:
- (a) opinions from independent experts that the Scheme is likely to be recognised and given effect in Russia, Norway and Germany, each being a jurisdiction in which the Group has material operations; and
 - (b) an opinion from independent experts that the Scheme may be recognised de facto and given effect in Oman (being another jurisdiction in which the Group has material operations) and that in any event it is unlikely that a dissenting Scheme Creditor would be able to improve its position (relative to that of the other Scheme Creditors) before the Omani courts such as to undermine the compromise proposed in the Scheme.

8. Releases and waivers

As part of the Scheme and pursuant to the Deed of Release, which will be entered into in accordance with the steps set out in the Restructuring Implementation Deed, each Scheme Creditor, Lloyds, FAB and each Obligor will, among other things (with effect from the Scheme Effective Time and subject to the terms of the Deed of Release):

- (a) irrevocably, unconditionally, fully, finally and absolutely waives and releases and forever discharges, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each and every Claim that it ever had, may have or hereafter can, shall or may have against the Released Parties, in each case, in relation to or arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with:
 - (i) the Existing Financings, including the Existing Finance Documents and the Existing Security Documents;
 - (ii) the negotiation or preparation of the Restructuring, the Scheme or the Restructuring Documents or the implementation and/or consummation of the Restructuring;
 - (iii) the execution of the Restructuring Documents or any other documents required to implement the Restructuring or the taking of any steps or actions necessary or desirable to implement the Restructuring (including, without limitation, the steps set out in the Restructuring Steps Plan); and
 - (iv) with respect to the Existing Shareholders or any Relevant Director, any matter arising out of or in connection with any steps, actions or omissions on or prior to the Restructuring Effective Date by or on behalf of such person holding such positions with respect to any Group Company or Holdco (as the case may be); and
- (b) irrevocably and unconditionally undertakes and (in the case of a Scheme Creditor only) shall procure that each of its Nominees (if applicable) undertakes, that it will not assert, threaten, bring, commence, facilitate, participate, provide any information (to the extent that non-provisions of information is permissible under applicable law or regulation) take or continue, cooperate in any manner or support any person commencing, taking or continuing, or instruct any person to commence, take or continue any proceedings or other judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or regulatory process in any jurisdiction whatsoever against any Released Party, in each case in relation to or arising out of or in connection with:

- (i) the Existing Financings, including the Existing Finance Documents and the Existing Security Documents;
- (ii) the negotiation or preparation of the Restructuring, the Scheme or the Restructuring Documents or the implementation and/or consummation of the Restructuring;
- (iii) the execution of the Restructuring Documents or any other documents required to implement the Restructuring or the taking of any steps or actions necessary or desirable to implement the Restructuring (including, without limitation, the steps set out in the Restructuring Steps Plan); and
- (iv) with respect to the Existing Shareholders or any Relevant Director, any matter arising out of or in connection with any steps, actions or omissions on or prior to the Restructuring Effective Date by or on behalf of such person holding such positions with respect to any Group Company or Holdco (as the case may be),

and the waivers, releases and discharges granted under the Deed of Release shall be treated, for all purposes whatsoever and without limitation, as having been granted irrevocably by deed, provided, however, that nothing in the Deed of Release will:

- (A) affect, impair or prejudice any right of any Creditor arising under the Scheme Document or any Restructuring Document (including as a consequence of non-compliance with the terms of the Scheme Document or any Restructuring Document);
- (B) apply to any claim or liability in respect of fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct by any Released Party; or
- (C) extend to any liability of any Adviser (as defined in the Deed of Release) arising under or relating to a duty of care to such Adviser's client or arising under a duty of care to another person which has been expressly accepted in writing by that Adviser.

9. Jurisdiction and exercise of Jurisdiction

9.1 The Company considers that the Court has jurisdiction to sanction the Scheme and that the Company has a sufficient connection to England and Wales for the Court to exercise its discretion to sanction the Scheme because the Company is an English public limited company and is therefore:

- (a) liable to be wound up in England under the Insolvency Act 1986; and
- (b) subject to the jurisdiction of the Court under Part 26 of the Companies Act.

9.2 Furthermore, no rule of trans-national law, including the Brussels (Recast) Regulations, excludes that jurisdiction. Part II of the Brussels (Recast) Regulations requires that a person domiciled in a member state of the European Union be "sued" in the courts of that member state but that general rule is subject to certain exceptions including article 8 (which, broadly, allows persons to be sued in the courts of a member state in which a number of defendants are domiciled, if it is expedient to do so) and article 25 (which, broadly, states that where the parties to an agreement have agreed that a court or the courts of a Member State are to have jurisdiction to settle any disputes which have arisen or which may arise in connection with a particular legal relationship, that court or those courts shall have jurisdiction). The Company has concluded that, if the Brussels (Recast) Regulations were found to apply in relation to the Scheme, the Company considers that the Court would have jurisdiction in relation to the Scheme under the Brussels (Recast) Regulations because:

- (a) pursuant to article 25 of the Brussels (Recast) Regulations (and, in the case of the Existing Indentures, as a result of the amendments made by the Supplemental Indentures and, in the case of the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement, as a result of the amendments made by the Credit and Guaranty Agreement Amendment Agreement):
 - (i) each Existing Indenture, the relevant Existing Notes and the Guarantees (as defined in each Existing Indenture) and all non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them are now governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales;
 - (ii) subject to the terms of each Existing Indenture, the courts of England and Wales now have jurisdiction to settle any disputes that arise out of or in connection with each Existing Indenture, the relevant Existing Notes and the Guarantees, and accordingly any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with each Existing Indenture, the relevant Existing Notes and the Guarantees may be brought in such courts;
 - (iii) the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (and all non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them) are now governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales;
 - (iv) subject to the terms of the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (as applicable), the courts of England and Wales now have jurisdiction to settle any disputes that arise out of or in connection with the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (as applicable), and accordingly any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement (as applicable) may be brought in such courts; and
 - (v) each Scheme Creditor who executed the Lock-Up Agreement (other than FAB) has, pursuant to clause 7.5 of the Lock-Up Agreement, expressly submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court for the specific purpose of implementing the Scheme; and
- (b) pursuant to article 8 of the Brussels (Recast) Regulations, a number of the Scheme Creditors are subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Court by virtue of having their registered office, central administration or principal place of business in the jurisdiction of the Court.
- (b) Paragraphs 6 (Chapter 15 Recognition in the United States) and 7 (Recognition of the Scheme elsewhere) of this Part 4 (Certain Legal Aspects of the Scheme) provide details of the international jurisdictional recognition issues in relation to the Scheme.

10. Questions

- 10.1 Scheme Creditors are entitled to appear at the Sanction Hearing, which is expected to be held on 5 November 2020. The exact time and date of the Sanction Hearing will be notified to Scheme Creditors, once confirmed with the Court, at least one Business Day prior to the Sanction Hearing. Scheme Creditors who wish to ask any questions in advance of the Scheme Meeting or the Sanction Hearing are encouraged to contact Lucid Issuer Services Limited (as Information Agent) via the Scheme Website at www.lucid-is.com/kcadeutag or by email at kcadeutag@lucid-is.com.
- 10.2 Additionally, Scheme Creditors will have the opportunity at the Scheme Meeting to raise any questions or issues they may have in relation to the Scheme.

11. Directors' interests

11.1 The directors of the Company are:

- (a) Anthony Byrne;
- (b) Sean Branston;
- (c) Neil Gilchrist.

11.2 The directors of Alpha and Alpha II are:

- (a) Joseph Elkhoury;
- (b) Robert Ellis;
- (c) John Ensall; and
- (d) Neil Gilchrist.

11.3 To the best of the knowledge of the Company, Alpha and Alpha II, none of their respective directors has any interest, direct or indirect, in the Scheme and the Scheme will have no effect on the interests of those directors other than to the extent:

- (a) they all benefit from the releases granted by the Scheme Creditors described in paragraph 8 above;
- (b) they will be a recipient of a transaction bonus as described in paragraph 11.4 below; and/or
- (c) they will participate in the Management Equity Plan (the indicative terms of which are summarised in Appendix 13 (Management Equity Plan – Summary) of this Explanatory Statement.

11.4 Certain directors of the Company, Alpha and Alpha II and certain other members of the senior management team of the Group will be awarded bonus payments (subject to normal payroll deductions and to the relevant individual being on the Group payroll and not under notice on the relevant payment date (other than in the case of Robert Ellis, who will resign as a director of Alpha on or shortly after the Restructuring Effective Date)) if the Restructuring is successfully completed. In particular:

- (a) Joseph Elkhoury will be awarded a bonus of GBP 375,000, to be paid in equal instalments in November 2020 and April 2021;
- (b) Robert Ellis will be awarded a bonus of GBP 129,600, to be paid in November 2020;
- (c) Neil Gilchrist will be awarded a bonus of GBP 84,694, to be paid in November 2020;
- (d) Sean Branston will be awarded a bonus of GBP 62,043, to be paid in November 2020;
- (e) Anthony Byrne will be awarded a bonus of GBP 42,500, to be paid in November 2020; and
- (f) certain other members of the senior management team of the Group will share in an aggregate bonus pool of GBP 104,000.

- 11.5 John Ensall is also a director of Lemna Limited, which is entitled to a transaction fee of GBP 80,240 (plus VAT) on completion of the Restructuring under the terms of a consultancy agreement dated 6 May 2020 (as amended by a variation dated 8 May 2020).
- 11.6 Certain members of the senior management team of the Group, most likely including Joseph Elkhoury and Neil Gilchrist, will participate in the Management Equity Plan, the final terms of which are yet to be agreed as at the date of this Explanatory Statement. The indicative terms of the Management Equity Plan are summarised in Appendix 13 (Management Equity Plan – Summary) of this Explanatory Statement.
- 11.7 To the extent they have not already been appointed prior to the Restructuring Effective Date, Joseph Elkhoury and Neil Gilchrist will be appointed directors of Jersey Newco on the Restructuring Effective Date and Robert Ellis will enter into a consultancy agreement with Jersey Newco to advise the Jersey Newco board of directors. Robert Ellis and John Ensall will resign as directors of Alpha on or shortly after the Restructuring Effective Date and John Ensall's consultancy agreement referred to in paragraph 11.5 above will terminate concurrently.
- 11.8 As described in paragraph 4.6 of Part 5 (Summary of the Restructuring (including the Scheme)) of this Explanatory Statement, the Alpha Group (as defined in the Lock-Up Agreement) will provide the support set out in clause 11 (Holdco Liquidation) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed to enable an orderly solvent liquidation of each of the Holdcos, and which term includes Alpha II) following the Restructuring Effective Date. The directors of the Company and Alpha are also directors of certain of the Holdcos. In particular:
- (a) as noted above, the directors of Alpha II are the same as those for Alpha;
 - (b) Joseph Elkhoury is also a director of KCAD Holdings I Limited and KCAD Holdings II Limited;
 - (c) Robert Ellis is also a director of KCAD Holdings I Limited and KCAD Holdings II Limited;
 - (d) Neil Gilchrist is also a director of KCA Deutag Finance I Limited, KCA Deutag Finance II Limited, KCA Deutag Midco Limited, Land Rig Ventures I Limited and Land Rig Ventures II Limited; and
 - (e) Anthony Byrne is also a director of KCA Deutag Finance II Limited, KCA Deutag Finance I Limited and KCA Deutag Midco Limited and is also company secretary of Alpha, KCAD Holdings I Limited and KCAD Holdings II Limited.
- 11.9 No other non-pecuniary or other benefits are established in favour of the directors of the Company, Alpha or Alpha II. The directors of the Company, Alpha and Alpha II have the benefit of existing directors' and officers' liability insurance and, in accordance with clause 11 (Holdco Liquidation) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed, the Alpha Group will ensure that the benefit of any directors and officer's insurance currently in place for the Relevant Directors (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) remains in place for three years following the Restructuring Effective Date.
- 11.10 Other than as set out in this paragraph 11, none of the directors of the Company, Alpha or Alpha II has or has had any interest in any transaction which is or was unusual in its nature or conditions or significant to the business which was effected by the Group during the current or immediately preceding financial year, or which was effected during an earlier financial year and remains in any respect outstanding or unperformed.

SUMMARY OF THE RESTRUCTURING (INCLUDING THE SCHEME)

This section contains a brief overview of the Restructuring (including the Scheme). The summary information contained herein does not purport to be complete and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by references to, the more detailed information presented elsewhere in this Explanatory Statement including, without limitation, the Scheme Document set out at Appendix 2 (Scheme Document) to this Explanatory Statement and the Restructuring Implementation Deed (which is appended to the Scheme Document and appended to this Explanatory Statement at Appendix 3 (Restructuring Implementation Deed)).

1. Overview

1.1 This Part 5 (Summary of the Restructuring (including the Scheme)) is divided into the following sections:

- (a) purpose of the Restructuring;
- (b) key terms of the Scheme;
- (c) summary of the Restructuring Steps; and
- (d) allocation and distribution of Scheme Consideration.

2. Purpose of the Restructuring

2.1 The principal purpose of the Restructuring is to de-lever the Group's balance sheet by implementing an exchange pursuant to which each Scheme Creditor releases its Scheme Claims in return for a proportion of the Scheme Consideration equal to its Scheme Creditor Entitlement.

2.2 As part of the Restructuring, certain members of the Group will also enter into the New Cash Management Documents and agreements in connection with the New LC/Undertaking Facilities, in each case, with HSBC and the Existing LC and Undertaking Facility Lenders (as applicable).

2.3 As a result of the Restructuring, it is anticipated that:

- (a) as a result of the release of all the Scheme Claims in return for the issuance to the Scheme Creditors of:

- (i) the New Notes; and
 - (ii) Jersey Newco Consideration Shares,

the Restructured Group will have a strengthened and de-levered balance sheet, with its total debt being reduced by approximately USD 1.4 billion (meaning it will have a pro forma net leverage of $1.4x^{16}$ (down from its current net leverage of $6.3x^{17}$));

- (b) the Restructured Group's annual debt servicing costs will be reduced from USD 155 million to USD 49 million;
 - (c) the Restructured Group will benefit from a five-year runway to maturity of the New Notes;

¹⁶ Based on LTM June 2020 EBITDA of USD 293 million, pro forma total debt of approximately USD 510 million, and current cash at 30 June 2020 of USD 100 million (which excludes USD 80 million of transaction costs).

¹⁷ Based on LTM June 2020 EBITDA of USD 293 million, total debt at 20 June 2020 of approximately USD 1.9 billion (including the Existing Notes and facilities under the Credit Agreement) and current cash at 30 June 2020 of USD 100 million (which excludes USD 80 million of transaction costs).

- (d) the Restructured Group will have access to:
 - (i) overdraft, cash pooling and bank account facilities through the New Cash Management Facilities; and
 - (ii) guarantee and letter of credit facilities through the New LC/Undertaking Facilities; and
- (e) by receiving the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares, Scheme Creditors will be provided with the opportunity to benefit from the potential upside of the implementation of the Restructured Group's turnaround strategy.

2.4 If the Scheme is approved by the requisite majority of Scheme Creditors, sanctioned by the Court and the Restructuring is implemented, the Company anticipates that the Restructured Group will be able to repay the full amounts owing:

- (a) in respect of the New Notes under the New Notes Documents; and
- (b) under the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements.

3. Key Terms of the Scheme

The Company, the Scheme Creditors and the Scheme Claims

3.1 The Scheme is being proposed by the Company.

3.2 The Scheme Creditors comprise:

- (a) each Existing Noteholder;
- (b) each Term Loan Lender;
- (c) each Revolving Loan Lender;
- (d) the Existing Overdraft Provider; and
- (e) each Non-Voting Scheme Creditor.

3.3 The Non-Voting Scheme Creditors comprise the Existing Custodian, the Existing Depository and the Existing Trustee. In order to avoid double counting, the Existing Custodian and the Existing Depository will not (in accordance with their respective customary practices) and the Existing Trustee has agreed not to (by giving an undertaking not to) vote at the Scheme Meeting or receive any Scheme Consideration.

3.4 The Scheme Claims (which will be released in exchange for the New Notes and Jersey Newco Consideration Shares), subject to the terms of the Deed of Release, comprise any claim in respect of any Liability of the Company and any other Obligor to a Scheme Creditor arising directly or indirectly out of an interest in the Existing Notes, the Term Loan, the Revolving Loans, and, subject to paragraph 3.5 below, the Existing Overdraft Liabilities arising on or before the relevant Record Time or which may arise after the relevant Record Time as a result of an obligation or Liability of the Company or other Obligor incurred or as a result of an event occurring or an act done on or before the relevant Record Time.

3.5 Under the Scheme, all Scheme Claims will be determined at the Record Time. The Record Time is, however, split so that a different record time (being the Existing Overdraft Record Time) applies to the Existing Overdraft Liabilities compared to all other Liabilities that are subject to the Scheme. This is for the following reasons:

- (a) unlike the Existing Notes, the Term Loan or the Revolving Loans, the Existing Overdraft Liabilities fluctuate during the course of each working day and are comprised of account balances in six different currencies;
- (b) the exercise to confirm the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities as at a specific time must be done during UK business hours to reflect the Group's treasury operations (by contrast, the Existing Depositary requires that the record time in respect of the Existing Notes is 5:00 pm (New York time) (and the Term Loan Administrative Agent is also based in the United States)); and
- (c) confirming the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities requires accessing account balance information via an online banking platform and it is possible (for reasons outside of the Group's control) that the online banking platform will not be accessible at the specific time required (8:00 am (London time) on 27 October 2020). To allow for this possibility, the Existing Overdraft Record Time includes a degree of flexibility such that if the information required to calculate the Compromised Overdraft Amount is not accessible at the specific time required, the Existing Overdraft Record Time will be the first time after 8:00 am (London time) on 27 October 2020 that the Company is able to access such information.

- 3.6 In consultation with the Existing Overdraft Provider, the Group has determined that it will be operationally simpler to confirm the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities at the opening of a business day and that using 8:00 am (London time) on 27 October 2020 is the closest time to 5:00 pm (New York time) on 26 October 2020 (being the Record Time in respect of all other Liabilities that are subject to the Scheme) that it can practically use.
- 3.7 As set out in paragraph 2.9 of Part 4 (Certain Legal Aspects of the Scheme) to this Explanatory Statement, in relation to the Existing Overdraft Provider, the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities to be compromised by the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed (being a Scheme Claim) shall be an amount equal to the Compromised Overdraft Amount, provided that the maximum Compromised Overdraft Amount for the purposes of the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed shall not exceed USD 115,000,000 plus the aggregate amount of any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Overdraft Facilities as at the Existing Overdraft Record Time.
- 3.8 For the reasons set out in paragraph 2.5 of Part 4 (Certain Legal Aspects of the Scheme) to this Explanatory Statement, the Scheme will not compromise the claims under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities.
- 3.9 Lloyds was an original party to the Lock-Up Agreement and (in its capacities as an Existing Ancillary Lender and a New Bilateral Lender) will execute an undertaking in favour of, among others, the Court and the Company pursuant to which it will undertake and agree, amongst other matters, to perform those actions which it is required to perform in accordance with the terms of the Scheme (including entering into the Restructuring Implementation Deed) and, where necessary, be bound by the terms of the Scheme as sanctioned by the Court on and from the Scheme Effective Time.
- 3.10 FAB has also acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement and will, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, take the actions which are necessary to facilitate, implement or otherwise give effect to the documentation for the FAB Run-Off LC Facility. Furthermore, prior to the Sanction Hearing, FAB (in its capacities as an Existing Ancillary Lender and a New Bilateral Lender) will execute and deliver a support letter to the Company pursuant to which FAB will, subject to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement, undertake to take any and all actions required pursuant to and in accordance with the Lock-Up Agreement and the Restructuring Steps Plan which are necessary to facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to the documentation of the FAB Run-Off LC Facility (including, without limitation, executing and delivering to the Company the Restructuring Implementation Deed) on and from the Scheme Effective Time.

- 3.11 HSBC has also acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement and will (in its capacity as a New Bilateral Lender only) execute an undertaking in favour of, among others, the Court and the Company pursuant to which it will undertake and agree, amongst other matters, to perform those actions which it is required to perform in accordance with the terms of the Scheme (including entering into the Restructuring Implementation Deed) and, where necessary, be bound by the terms of the Scheme as sanctioned by the Court on and from the Scheme Effective Time.

Purpose of the Scheme

- 3.12 The principal purpose of the Scheme is to grant the Company the authority, on behalf of all Scheme Creditors, to enter into the Implementation Documents and do such other acts that may be necessary to implement the Restructuring. The steps for the implementation of the Restructuring are not set out in the Scheme itself but will occur in accordance with the Restructuring Steps (as summarised below and as set out in full in the Restructuring Implementation Deed).

Effectiveness

- 3.13 Assuming the requisite majorities vote in favour of the Scheme at the Scheme Meeting and the Scheme is sanctioned at the Sanction Hearing, the Scheme will become effective on and from the time the Company delivers (or its legal advisers deliver on its behalf) an office copy of the Sanction Order to the Registrar of Companies. The Company shall promptly notify the Scheme Creditors in writing when the Scheme becomes effective.
- 3.14 The compromise and arrangement effected by the Scheme and the relevant Implementation Documents shall apply to all Scheme Claims and bind all Scheme Creditors, their successors, assigns and, to the extent relevant, any Nominee appointed pursuant to a validly submitted Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable).

Authorisation to execute and undertaking to be bound by the Implementation Documents

- 3.15 Due to the fact that the principal purpose of the Scheme is to authorise the Company to enter into the Implementation Documents and do such acts as are necessary to consummate the Restructuring, under the Scheme, each Scheme Creditor will irrevocably authorise, instruct and empower the Company (represented by an authorised representative):
- (a) to enter into, execute and deliver for and on behalf of such Scheme Creditor as its attorney and agent each of the Implementation Documents;
 - (b) in respect of the Implementation Documents, and on behalf of each Scheme Creditor:
 - (i) to insert the calculation and completion of any commitments, participations or allocations to any Scheme Creditor or any other party under the Implementation Documents (as determined in accordance with the terms of the Scheme and/or the Restructuring Implementation Deed);
 - (ii) to insert information into any blanks (including without limitation, any bank account details, notice provisions or legal entity names), lists of parties and/or signature blocks;
 - (iii) to make any mechanical amendments required by the Company;

- (iv) to make any other minor or technical amendments;
- (v) to ensure that they are legal, valid, binding and enforceable upon the parties to them in accordance with the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed; and/or
- (vi) to make any amendment to take into account any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme and/or the Implementation Documents approved or imposed by the Court in accordance with clause 9 (Modification to the Scheme) of the Scheme Document, provided that if any such amendment or insertion could reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have an adverse or disproportionate effect on the interests of a Scheme Creditor, then such amendment will require the prior written consent of that Scheme Creditor; and

- (c) take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the books and records of the Clearing Systems are updated to reflect the terms of the Scheme and the relevant Implementation Documents, including without limitation to:
 - (i) instruct the Clearing Systems to debit the Book-Entry Interests relating to the Existing Notes from the custody account of each Scheme Creditor (or its Account Holder, as applicable);
 - (ii) authorise the cancellation of the Book-Entry Interests in respect of the Existing Notes; and
 - (iii) take or carry out any other step or procedure reasonably required to effect the settlement of the transactions contemplated the Scheme.

3.16 Under the Scheme, each Scheme Creditor and, pursuant to an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable), each respective Nominee(s) (if applicable), will authorise and instruct each Existing Administrative Party, the Existing Custodian and the Existing Depositary to undertake such steps as it considers necessary or desirable for it to take for the purposes of facilitating the implementation of the Scheme, including (without limitation) entering into and executing in its respective capacity the Implementation Documents to which it is a party and any other document that it reasonably considers necessary or advisable to implement the Scheme.

3.17 Furthermore, under the Scheme, each Scheme Creditor will agree to be bound by and to comply with each of its obligations under the Implementation Documents and irrevocably and unconditionally ratifies and confirms everything which the Company (including its respective authorised signatories) may lawfully do or cause to be done in accordance with any authority conferred by the Scheme.

Releases

3.18 Certain releases will be granted as part of the Scheme and will take effect in accordance with clauses 5.3 (Step 2 – release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security) and 5.8 (Step 7 – Releases) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and the Deed of Release.

Assignments or Transfers

3.19 Under the Scheme, the Company shall not be under any obligation to recognise any purported assignment or transfer of any Scheme Claims by a Scheme Creditor following the relevant Record Time for the purposes of the Scheme or the Implementation Documents (including but not limited to determining the applicable allocation of Scheme Consideration). Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the Company has received from the relevant parties written notice of such purported assignment or transfer, the Company may in its absolute discretion, and subject to such evidence as it may reasonably require, agree to recognise such purported assignment or transfer, subject to the assignee or transferee agreeing to be bound by the terms of the Scheme and to be treated as having been a Scheme Creditor for the purposes of the Scheme.

Determination of Scheme Consideration

- 3.20 Unless expressly provided otherwise in the Scheme, each Scheme Creditor's entitlement to the Scheme Consideration (as allocated in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed) will be determined based on its Scheme Claims as at the relevant Record Time.

Modification of the Scheme

- 3.21 Subject to paragraph 3.22 below, as part of the Scheme, the Scheme Creditors will agree that the Company may at any Court hearing to sanction the Scheme, consent on behalf of itself and the Scheme Creditors and anyone else concerned to any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme and/or any of the Implementation Documents on any terms or conditions that the Court may think fit to approve or impose which is necessary for the implementation of the Restructuring, and which could not reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have an adverse effect on the interests of any Scheme Creditor under the Scheme. However, if such modifications could reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have an adverse effect on the interests of a Scheme Creditor, then the Company may not give such consent without the prior written consent of that Scheme Creditor.
- 3.22 Any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme and/or any of the Implementation Documents may only be made pursuant to clause 9.1 of the Scheme Document with the consent of:
- (a) the Majority Creditors and the New Bilateral Lenders; and
 - (b) any Existing Administrative Party whose interests would be adversely affected by such modification or addition, in each case, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

- 3.23 Under the Scheme, if any provision of the Scheme (or any document to be executed pursuant to the authority granted under the Scheme) becomes illegal or unenforceable, such provision will be severed from the Scheme and the rest of the Scheme shall continue in full force and effect as if the severed provision had not been included.

Termination of the Scheme

- 3.24 If the Restructuring Effective Date does not occur on or before the Long Stop Date, the terms of and the obligations on the parties under or pursuant to the Scheme shall lapse and all the compromises and arrangements provided by the Scheme and any releases granted pursuant to the Scheme shall be of no effect and shall be construed as if they had never become effective, and the rights and obligations of the Scheme Creditors (including under the Existing Debt Documents) shall not be affected and shall be reinstated and remain in full force and effect (although certain clauses of the Scheme, as specified in clause 10 (Termination of the Scheme) of the Scheme Document, shall survive termination).
- 3.25 In addition, the Restructuring Implementation Deed can be terminated at the election of the Super Majority Creditors (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) and the New Bilateral Lenders by serving a written notice on the Company if the Company or any other Obligor takes any action which is materially inconsistent with or prejudicial to the implementation of the Restructuring; or by unanimous written consent of the parties to the Restructuring Implementation Deed.

Stay of Proceedings

- 3.26 The Scheme will impose a stay on proceedings that restrict the ability of a Scheme Creditor to commence certain proceedings. In particular, under (and subject to the terms of) the Scheme:
- (a) subject to the terms of the Scheme, which are summarised in the paragraph below, no Scheme Creditor will be allowed to commence, continue, support any person commencing, or instruct any person to commence or take any Prohibited Proceeding against any Scheme Party;
 - (b) a Scheme Creditor (or its Nominee(s)) will be allowed to commence an Allowed Proceeding against any Scheme Party after giving each Scheme Party 21 days' written notice of its intention to do so; and
 - (c) each Scheme Creditor will hold on trust for the benefit of the relevant Scheme Party any recovery made pursuant to any Prohibited Proceeding in breach of the stay and will turn over any such recovery forthwith upon demand being made by the Company without set-off, counterclaim or deduction. To the extent that the asset comprising the recovery cannot be held on trust by the Scheme Creditor, the Scheme Creditor shall pay to the Company an amount equal to that recovery immediately upon demand being made by the Company without set-off, counterclaim or deduction, to be held on trust by the Company for the person(s) entitled to it.

Costs

- 3.27 Under the Scheme, the Company shall pay, or procure the payment of, in full all costs, charges, expenses and disbursements incurred by it in connection with the negotiation, preparation and implementation of the Scheme as and when they arise, including, but not limited to, the costs of holding the Scheme Meeting, the costs of obtaining the sanction of the Court and the costs of placing the notices (if any) required by the Scheme.

Provision of information by Scheme Creditors

- 3.28 Under the Scheme:
- (a) an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) submitted by or on behalf of any Scheme Creditor shall be submitted in accordance with the instructions set out in the relevant Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) and the Scheme;
 - (b) whether an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) has been validly completed shall be determined by the Information Agent at its discretion, provided that, if the Information Agent determines that an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) has not been validly completed, it shall promptly prepare a written statement of its reasons for doing so and send that statement by electronic mail to the party that provided such Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable); and
 - (c) the Company may disclose the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) and its contents on a confidential basis to such persons as are necessary to facilitate the consummation of the Restructuring.

Future insolvency

- 3.29 In the event that the Company enters into an insolvency proceeding on or before the Restructuring Effective Date, the Company's obligations under the Scheme shall continue to be performed by the Company in an insolvency proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by law or unless otherwise determined by the Court.

- 3.30 With effect from the Restructuring Effective Date, the Scheme shall continue according to its terms to the fullest extent permitted by law or unless otherwise determined by the Court, notwithstanding any insolvency proceeding in respect of the Company.

Application to the Court for directions

- 3.31 Without prejudice to any rights that the Company or any Scheme Creditor might otherwise have in connection with the Scheme or any aspect of it, the Company shall be entitled to make an application to the Court for directions at any time in connection with any matter arising under or in relation to the Scheme, any Implementation Document or any other aspect of the Restructuring.

Exercise of discretion

- 3.32 Where, under or pursuant to any provision of the Scheme Document or any Implementation Document, a matter is to be determined by the Company, it shall be determined by the board of directors of the Company in their discretion in such manner as they consider fair and reasonable.

Chapter 15 Filing

- 3.33 To the extent it has not already done so prior to the Scheme Effective Time, under the Scheme, the Company shall file a petition for recognition of the Scheme under Chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and shall use reasonable endeavours to obtain a Chapter 15 Order, unless and until:
- (a) such order is granted or unconditionally denied by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court; or
 - (b) otherwise agreed between the Majority Participating AHC Creditors and Majority Participating RCF Lenders and the Company, each acting reasonably and in good faith.

4. Summary of the Restructuring Steps

- 4.1 The Restructuring Steps are set out in (and will occur in accordance with) the Restructuring Implementation Deed, which will be executed by the Company on behalf of the Scheme Creditors following the Scheme Effective Time in accordance with the authority granted under the Scheme.
- 4.2 The Restructuring Implementation Deed will become effective and legally binding, as between the signatories thereto, on the date on which it is executed by all the relevant parties, provided that the Effective Date (under and as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) shall not occur before the Scheme Effective Time.
- 4.3 As referred to in paragraph 3.11 of Part 3 (Further Background to and Reasons for the Restructuring (including the Scheme)) of this Explanatory Statement, while the key terms of the Restructuring remain unchanged, as a result of the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment the steps that will be taken to implement the Restructuring are now different in certain respects to the steps summarised in paragraph 6 of the Practice Statement Letter. The principal differences are that, in accordance with the Restructuring Steps Plan (as amended by the Restructuring Steps Plan Amendment):
- (a) Alpha II has acquired all of the shares in Jersey Newco (and, as a result, indirectly acquired English NewCo 1 and English NewCo 2) from Crestbridge Corporate Nominees Limited (being an entity controlled by Crestbridge, the corporate services provider which arranged for Jersey Newco to be incorporated) for nil consideration;
 - (b) following the Scheme Effective Time but prior to the Restructuring Effective Date, Alpha II will transfer all of the shares in Alpha to English NewCo 2 for nil consideration (with the shares in Alpha remaining subject to the relevant Existing Security); and

- (c) as part of the Restructuring Steps summarised below, Alpha II will transfer 100% of the shares in Jersey Newco to certain of the Scheme Creditors (to be selected, subject to certain limitations set out in the Restructuring Implementation Deed, by the Company in its discretion (in consultation with the Ad-Hoc Committee and the Existing Overdraft Provider (or their respective advisers)) for nil consideration.

4.4 However, as emphasised in paragraph 3.13 of Part 3 (Further Background to and Reasons for the Restructuring (including the Scheme)) of this Explanatory Statement, despite the changes to the Restructuring Steps Plan and the differences referred to in paragraph 4.3 above, the economic terms of the Scheme and the Restructuring are unchanged and the Restructuring Steps to occur after the transfer of Jersey Newco to certain of the Scheme Creditors remain materially consistent with the steps summarised in the Practice Statement Letter.

4.5 The Restructuring Steps are summarised below:

Step	Description of the Restructuring Step
1.	Transfer of Jersey Newco to certain Scheme Creditors
2.	Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security.
3.	Entry into the New Debt Documents and issue of New Notes.
4.	Issuance of shares in Jersey Newco.
5.	Execution of the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement
6.	Appointment of new directors.
7.	Releases.
8.	Delivery of Restructuring Effective Date Notice.

4.6 The Restructuring Steps will occur when the Company has delivered to the Notice Parties (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) in accordance with clause 4.3 (Restructuring Steps Start Time Notice) a notice notifying the Notice Parties that:

- (a) the Company has delivered the Restructuring Documents Notice (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) to the Notice Parties in accordance with clause 3.1 (Execution of the Restructuring Documents) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed;
- (b) subject to clause 4.2 (Waiver of Restructuring Conditions Precedent) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed, the Company has received all Restructuring Conditions Precedent in form and substance satisfactory to it; and
- (c) all confirmations specified in schedule 7 (Restructuring Conditions Precedent) to the Restructuring Implementation Deed have been provided in writing to the Company.

4.7 The Restructuring Steps will require the assistance and co-operation of various parties (not just the Company and the Scheme Creditors). The Company has therefore obtained or, if not yet obtained will use reasonable endeavours to obtain prior to the Sanction Hearing, undertakings and/or assurances from the Implementation Parties (being those parties who have a role to play in consummating the Restructuring but are not themselves Scheme Creditors and therefore are not bound by the terms of the Scheme).

- 4.8 The transfer of Alpha to English NewCo 2 referred to in paragraph 4.3(b) above will be made with the consent of the Existing Shareholders and was explicitly approved by Holdings I (being the ultimate holding company of the Group) prior to the execution of the Lock-Up Agreement. The consent of the Existing Shareholders was given on the basis that, pursuant to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement:
- (a) the Participating Shareholders will be eligible to receive the Warrants;
 - (b) the Existing Shareholders, the Holdcos and the Relevant Directors will benefit from the releases set out in the Deed of Release; and
 - (c) the Alpha Group (as defined in the Lock-Up Agreement) will provide the support set out in clause 11 (Holdco Liquidation) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed to enable an orderly solvent liquidation of each of the Holdcos following the Restructuring Effective Date.
- 4.9 Subject to the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed, the Restructuring Steps shall occur in the following order:

Step 1 – Transfer of Jersey Newco to certain Scheme Creditors

The Company shall date and release the Jersey Newco Sale and Purchase Agreement (and any applicable ancillary documents necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the Jersey Newco Sale and Purchase Agreement).

Step 2 – Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security

- (a) Without any requirement for any additional actions or steps to be undertaken by any party to the Restructuring Implementation Deed:
 - (i) all of the right, title and interest of the Scheme Creditors in and to the Scheme Claims shall automatically and without further documentation required to be entered into or action or steps required to be taken by any Party be released and treated as satisfied fully and absolutely in each case so as to bind the Scheme Creditors and any person who has acquired or who may acquire any interest in or arising out of a Scheme Claim after the Record Time;
 - (ii) all of the right, title and interest of the Existing Depositary, the Existing Custodian and the Existing Trustee to any claims they have or may have under the Existing Debt Documents including the Global Notes or any parallel debt covenant (as applicable) shall automatically and without further documentation required to be entered into or action or steps required to be taken by any Party be released and treated as satisfied fully;
 - (iii) subject to clause 10 (Calculation of Overdraft Scheme Claim) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed, all Claims of the Scheme Creditors against any Obligor under or in connection with the Existing Debt Documents shall be released and treated as satisfied fully and absolutely in each case so as to bind the Scheme Creditors and any person who has acquired or acquires any interest in or arising out of such Claims after the Record Time; and
 - (iv) without prejudice to the terms of the New LC/Undertaking Facilities Agreements (including with respect to the payment of accrued but unpaid interest and fees under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities), all of the Claims of the Existing LC and Undertaking Facility Lenders against the Obligors in respect of the Existing Instruments (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) or under the Existing LC and Undertaking Facilities shall be released and treated as satisfied fully and absolutely in each case so as to bind Existing LC and Undertaking Facility Lenders and the Obligor and any person who has acquired or acquires any interest in or arising out of any such Claims after the Record Time.

- (b) The Company shall date, release and deliver each Security and Guarantees Release Document.
- (c) The Company shall deliver all instructions or notices and take such actions necessary or desirable for the cancellation of the Existing Notes (including the relevant Global Notes), including without limitation:
 - (i) instructing DTC to debit the book-entry interests relating to the Existing Notes from the custody account of each Scheme Creditor (or its Account Holder, as applicable);
 - (ii) arranging for the cancellation of the Book-Entry Interests in respect of the Existing Notes; and
 - (iii) issuing a confirmation to DTC to cancel the Existing Notes in accordance with the relevant procedures,
- (d) Immediately following the sub-step set out in paragraph (b) above, the Company shall procure that each Scottish Shareholder Resolution be passed.
- (e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (c) above, nothing in the Restructuring Implementation Deed shall release, affect, impair or prejudice any right of any party to the Restructuring Implementation Deed:
 - (i) in respect of the Scheme Consideration; and/or
 - (ii) arising under the Scheme Document or any Restructuring Document (including as a consequence of non-compliance with the terms of the Scheme Document or any Restructuring Document).

Step 3 – Entry into the New Debt Documents and issue of New Notes

- (a) The Company shall:
 - (i) date, (where applicable) complete, release and (where applicable) deliver each New Debt Document (other than each New Security Document and any Relevant New Bilateral Facility Agreement) and the Holding Period Trust Agreement; and
 - (ii) procure that any Relevant New Bilateral Facilities Agreements are entered into in the manner agreed with the HSBC pursuant to clause 3.1(c)(ii)(A) (Execution of the Restructuring Documents) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed; and
 - (iii) deliver requisite (i) instructions for the authentication of the New Notes Global Note and (ii) settlement instructions in respect of the New Notes to the new common depositary and (iii) take any other such steps required to issue the New Notes to:
 - (A) each Scheme Creditor (other than an Unadmitted Scheme Creditor in respect of the New Notes) and/or its Nominee (as applicable) such that the relevant Scheme Creditor and/or its Nominee (as applicable) receives New Notes in an aggregate amount equal to that Scheme Creditor's New Notes Entitlement; and

- (B) the Holding Period Trustee (on behalf of each Unadmitted Scheme Creditor in respect of the New Notes) such that the Holding Period Trustee receives New Notes in an amount equal to the aggregate of each Unadmitted Scheme Creditor's New Notes Entitlement (with the Holding Period Trustee holding such Unadmitted Entitlements on trust for the relevant Unadmitted Scheme Creditors in accordance with the terms of this Deed and the Holding Period Trust Agreement).
- (b) Immediately following the completion of the sub-steps set out in paragraph (b) in Step 2 above and paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above, the Company shall date, (where applicable) complete, release and (where applicable) deliver each New Security Document (or, in the case of any New Security Document that is a Notarial Security Document, procure that each such Notarial Security Document is entered into by the relevant parties thereto).
- (c) Immediately following the completion of the sub-step set out in paragraph (b) above:
 - (i) the Company shall date each Certificate (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed); and
 - (ii) each Legal Opinion (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) shall be issued.
- (d) This Step shall take place simultaneously with the Step set out in Step 2 – Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security above.

Step 4 – Issuance of shares in Jersey Newco

- (a) Jersey Newco shall allot and issue the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to:
 - (i) each Scheme Creditor (other than an Unadmitted Scheme Creditor in respect of the Jersey Newco Shares) and/or its Nominee (as applicable) such that the relevant Scheme Creditor and/or its Nominee (as applicable) receives Jersey Newco Consideration Shares in an aggregate amount equal to that Scheme Creditor's Jersey Newco Share Entitlement; and
 - (ii) the Holding Period Trustee (on behalf of each Unadmitted Scheme Creditor in respect of the Jersey Newco Shares) such that the Holding Period Trustee receives Jersey Newco Consideration Shares in an amount equal to the aggregate of each Unadmitted Scheme Creditor's Jersey Newco Share Entitlement (with the Holding Period Trustee holding such Unadmitted Entitlements on trust for the relevant Unadmitted Scheme Creditors in accordance with the terms of this Deed and the Holding Period Trust Agreement), and any such issuance and allocation shall take into account any Jersey Newco Shares held by a Scheme Creditor prior to this Step to ensure that, as at the Restructuring Effective Date, the number of Jersey Newco Shares held by each Scheme Creditor is consistent with its Jersey Newco Share Entitlement.

- (b) Jersey Newco shall update its register of members and take any other action necessary in connection with the allotment and issuance of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares.
- (c) This Step shall take place simultaneously with the Step set out in Step 2 – Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security above.

Step 5 – Execution of the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement

- (a) The Company shall date and release the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement.
- (b) Jersey Newco and the relevant shareholders of Jersey Newco shall procure that the Jersey Newco Articles of Association are adopted.
- (c) This Step shall take place simultaneously with the Step set out in Step 2 – Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security above.

Step 6 – Appointment of new directors

- (a) The directors of Jersey Newco shall pass such resolutions as are necessary to:
 - (i) appoint Joseph Elkhoury and Neil Gilchrist to the board of directors of Jersey Newco (in each case to the extent not already appointed); and
 - (ii) to effect the removal of any other directors from the board of Jersey Newco.
- (b) This Step shall take place simultaneously with the Step set out in Step 2 – Release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security above.

Step 7 – Releases

The Company shall date, release and deliver the Deed of Release.

Step 8 – Delivery of Restructuring Effective Date Notice

Immediately following the completion of the steps described above, the Company shall deliver the Restructuring Effective Date Notice to the Notice Parties notifying them that Restructuring has been implemented and that the Restructuring Effective Date has occurred.

5. Post-Restructuring Effective Date Steps

Under the Restructuring Implementation Deed (and subject to the occurrence of the Restructuring Effective Date):

- (a) provided that each Participating Shareholder and Holdco has at all times complied with all of its obligations under the Lock-Up Agreement, on the Business Day immediately following the Restructuring Effective Date, Jersey Newco shall, subject to paragraph (b) below, issue the Warrants to the Participating Shareholders pro rata to each such Participating Shareholder's shareholding in Holdings I as at the Restructuring Effective Date (excluding any shareholdings in Holdings I that are held by shareholders of Holdings I that are not Participating Shareholders));
- (b) If the issue of the Warrants in accordance with paragraph (a) above would result in a breach of any limitation on the number of warrant holders contained in the Control of Borrowing (Jersey) Order 1958, the Warrants shall be issued to the Participating Shareholders on an allocation basis to be agreed by Jersey Newco and the Participating Shareholders (each acting in good faith) and Jersey Newco shall be under no obligation to issue the Warrants if an agreement on the allocation of the Warrants has not been reached with the Participating Shareholders; and

- (c) within 60 Business Days of the Restructuring Effective Date, the Company must apply to The International Stock Exchange Authority Limited for the listing and permission to deal in the New Notes on the Official List of the International Stock Exchange.

6. Allocation and Distribution of Scheme Consideration

- 6.1 Each Scheme Creditor may only receive the Scheme Consideration in accordance with the provisions of clause 7 (Allocation and Distribution of Scheme Consideration) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed.
- 6.2 A Scheme Creditor (and/or, if relevant, its Nominee) shall only receive the Scheme Consideration on the Restructuring Effective Date if it:
 - (a) has duly elected to do so by validly completing and delivering an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) to the Information Agent before the Voting Instruction Deadline;
 - (b) is an Eligible Person; and
 - (c) in the case of Jersey Newco Consideration Shares only, has provided the Jersey Newco KYC in a form satisfactory to the Jersey Registrar.
- 6.3 Please see Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement for further information relating to the submission of the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form and the eligibility requirements specified above.
- 6.4 A Scheme Creditor may elect for a Nominee to receive all of its proportion of the New Notes and/or the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares on the Restructuring Effective Date, provided that:
 - (a) to make such election, such Scheme Creditor must have validly completed and delivered an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) to the Information Agent prior to the Voting Instruction Deadline;
 - (b) such Nominee has executed and delivered a Securities Confirmation Deed as a deed;
 - (c) such Nominee is an Eligible Person; and
 - (d) in the case of the Jersey Newco Consideration shares only (if applicable), such Nominee has provided the Jersey Newco KYC in a form satisfactory to the Jersey Registrar.
- 6.5 Each Scheme Creditor (and/or its Nominee, as applicable) shall (subject to paragraphs 5 and 6 below) receive a proportion of the Scheme Consideration consistent with its Scheme Creditor Entitlement (without double counting).
- 6.6 If the number of Jersey Newco Consideration Shares to be issued to a Scheme Creditor and/or its Nominee resulting from any calculation made in accordance with its Scheme Creditor Entitlements is not a whole number, that number shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares.
- 6.7 If the principal amount of New Notes to be issued to a Scheme Creditor resulting from any calculation made in connection with the calculation of the New Notes Entitlements is not a whole number of dollars, that number shall be rounded down to the nearest U.S. dollar and the relevant Scheme Creditor shall have no entitlement to any fractional amount.
- 6.8 If a Scheme Creditor does not satisfy the requirements of clause 7 (Allocation and Distribution of Scheme Consideration) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed to be able to receive its Scheme

Creditor Entitlement on the Restructuring Effective Date, such Scheme Creditors' Scheme Creditor Entitlement will be issued on the Restructuring Effective Date to the Holding Period Trustee to hold in accordance with clause 8 (Holding Period Trustee) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and the Holding Period Trust Agreement (with the same fractional entitlement provisions applying where relevant).

PART 7

ESTIMATED ALTERNATIVE OUTCOMES FOR SCHEME CREDITORS

1. Estimated alternative outcomes for Scheme Creditors

- 1.1 The Group engaged Deloitte to deliver the Going Concern Valuation and the Scheme Comparator Analysis.
- 1.2 The Company is able to rely on the work carried out by Deloitte. The information in this Part 7 is being provided to the Scheme Creditors for information purposes only in connection with the Scheme and on a non-reliance basis as regards other purposes, in particular any tortious or other liability. Scheme Creditors should consider their own due diligence and seek independent advice.
- 1.3 Deloitte prepared the Going Concern Valuation to illustrate an enterprise value range of the Group using a variety of different and widely accepted valuation methodologies as set out below. Deloitte also independently considered the market evidence available and prepared indicative calculations through the application of different methodologies. To prepare the Going Concern Valuation, Deloitte considered:
 - (a) an income approach:
 - (i) Discounted cash flow analysis based on Group management's forecasts;
 - (b) a market approach:
 - (i) Comparable / guideline listed company analysis; and
 - (ii) Comparable / guideline transaction analysis.
- 1.4 The Going Concern Valuation was limited in time, scope and the nature of the information provided to Deloitte and assumes that the Group continues as a going concern. The indicative analysis reflects the assumptions that the business is not in any financial distress, is appropriately capitalised to achieve the forecasts provided by Management and the Group could look to maximise value in a normal sales process without the need to undertake any accelerated M&A or other realisation approaches.
- 1.5 Given the relatively independent operations of the four business units within the Group, Deloitte adopted a sum of the parts approach which involved valuing each of the four business units to imply an enterprise value for the Group.
- 1.6 For the income approach, the discount rate in relation to Deloitte's discounted cash flow analysis was determined using the weighted average cost of capital formula and the capital asset pricing model. Different discount rates were applied for each of the Group's business units based on market data and by reference to comparable companies. As regards to the market approach, different valuation multiples were applied to the different business units within the Group based on Deloitte's review of the trading multiples for listed companies and the valuation multiples implied from transactions in companies that are broadly comparable to the business units.
- 1.7 According to the Going Concern Valuation, the estimated enterprise value of the Group on a cash free and debt free basis is in a range from USD 1,200,000,000 to USD 1,500,000,000. Based on the estimated enterprise value in the Going Concern Valuation, the Group has calculated an indicative "day one" post-Restructuring value of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares by deducting from the estimated enterprise value of the Group, the principal amount of the New Notes to be issued on the Restructuring Effective Date and the amounts of the Omani Term Loans and the IDTEC Loans referred to in paragraph 5 (Details of other financing arrangements of the Group) of Part 2 (Background to the Company, the Group and the Group's Principal Financial Indebtedness) of this Explanatory Statement. Based on the information provided, Deloitte consider this approach by the Group to be reasonable. This calculation results in a range of USD 695,021,000 to USD 995,021,000 and, for the purposes of the calculations below, the Group have used a mid-point indicative "day one" post-Restructuring value of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares of USD 845,021,000. This indicative value of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares does not take account of any cash on the Group's balance sheet and has not been adjusted to take account of the terms of the Management Equity Plan.

- 1.8 If the Scheme is approved by the requisite majority of Scheme Creditors and sanctioned by the Court and the Restructuring is implemented, the Group estimates that indicative returns to Scheme Creditors based on their allocations of New Notes and Jersey Newco Consideration Shares and on an estimated aggregate principal amount of Scheme Claims of USD 1,927,314,617 and applying the methodology set out in paragraph 1.7 above will be up to 100% (or potentially higher), depending on the future performance of the Restructured Group in line with its business plan, with an indicative estimated 'day one' value of 69.7%, calculated as follows:
- (a) a pro rata share of USD 500,000,000 in New Notes (representing an indicative recovery on Scheme Claims of 25.9%), accruing interest in accordance with their terms; and
 - (b) a pro rata share of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares (with the opportunity to benefit from the potential upside of the implementation of the Restructured Group's turnaround strategy, and representing an indicative "day one" recovery on Scheme Claims of 43.8%).
- 1.9 Deloitte's Scheme Comparator Analysis was prepared using the Group's entity balance sheets and intercompany balances as at 30 June 2020. The Group has confirmed to Deloitte that there were no material changes to the information provided to them since 30 June 2020 that alter the Deloitte analysis.
- 1.10 In the Scheme Comparator Analysis, Deloitte consider two scenarios where the Group is unable to implement the Restructuring (and no immediate or short term action is taken by the creditors following any termination of the Lock-Up Agreement):
- (a) the scenario in which a sufficient number of the Group's creditors allow time and continued financial support to seek a distressed, accelerated sale of each of the individual business units within the Group; and
 - (b) the scenario in which the entire Group and its assets enter insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings.
- 1.11 If distressed, accelerated sales of each of the individual business units within the Group are achieved, Deloitte estimate that returns to Scheme Creditors would be in the range of 49% to 59%.
- 1.12 If the Group and its assets enter insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, Deloitte estimate that returns to Scheme Creditors would be in the range of 27% to 38%.
- 1.13 Set out below is a table showing the estimated returns to Scheme Creditors, on the one hand, if the Scheme is approved by the requisite majority of Scheme Creditors and sanctioned by the Court and Restructuring is implemented and, on the other hand, in each of the scenarios described in paragraph 1.10 above (in each case based on the assumptions and subject to the limitations referred to in this Part 7 (Estimated Alternative Outcomes for Scheme Creditors)).

Scheme Creditor	Group's estimated return under the Restructuring implemented pursuant to the Scheme*	Estimated return in distressed, accelerated sale of business units scenario	Estimated return in Group-wide insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings scenario
2021 Notes	$261m-$375m (97m of the New Notes and 19.5% of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares) (up to 100% or higher (69.7% day one))	$182m-$220m (49%-59%)	$103m-$143m (27%-38%)
2022 Notes	$373m-$535m (139m of the New Notes and 27.8% of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares) (up to 100% or higher (69.7% day one))	$260m-$314m (49%-59%)	$147m-$204m (27%-38%)
2023 Notes	$279m-$400m (104m of the New Notes and 20.8% of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares) (up to 100% or higher (69.7% day one))	$195m-$234m (49%-59%)	$110m-$152m (27%-38%)

Revolving Loan	$66m-$95m (25m of the New Notes and 4.9% of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares) (up to 100% or higher (69.7% day one))	$46m-$56m (49%-59%)	$26m-$36m (27%-38%)
Existing Overdraft Facilities	$80m-$115m (30m of the New Notes and 6.0% of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares) (up to 100% or higher (69.7% day one))	$52m-$63m (49%-59%)	$29m-$41m (27%-38%)

*Calculations based on the Group's estimate of indicative "day one" post-Restructuring value of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares as set out in paragraph 1.7 above, with the upside depending on the future performance of the Jersey Newco Consideration Shares in line with the Restructured Group's turnaround strategy

- 1.14 It should be noted that Deloitte's work has been limited both in time, scope and the nature of the information provided to Deloitte, which included unaudited information.
- 1.15 The key conclusion that can be drawn from the Scheme Comparator Analysis, insofar as it is relevant for Scheme Creditors, is that in the scenario where there is a distressed, accelerated sale of the individual business units within the Group (which the Company considers to be the most likely outcome if it is ultimately unable to implement the Restructuring, with any parts of the Group that cannot be sold in the time available entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings) and each of the individual business units is successfully sold, Scheme Creditors are estimated to receive a return representing between 49% and 59% of their claims against the Group.
- 1.16 As indicated above, if not every individual business unit within the Group can be sold as a going concern in the time available and instead enter insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, the returns to Scheme Creditors are estimated to be significantly lower. As well as the need for a number of consents, forbearances and waivers from the Group's creditors to allow time for accelerated sales processes to be run, the current market environment and the wider economic climate may present additional challenges to achieving a distressed sale of any of the Group's business units, thereby adding to the level of uncertainty and execution risk in this scenario.
- 1.17 The ranges presented above are illustrative only, based on certain assumptions made by the Group and therefore the actual recoveries could be greater or less than those percentages. In particular, the low case does not necessarily represent the worst case, as there are many factors which could impact the illustrative ranges presented. Similarly, the high case does not represent the best case.
- 1.18 A comparison of the Scheme Comparator Analysis with the recoveries that Scheme Creditors might expect to receive based on their Scheme Creditor Entitlements demonstrates that the Scheme (and the Restructuring to be implemented via the Scheme) is likely to result in an outcome that is more favourable for all Scheme Creditors than they would be likely to achieve if the individual business units in the Group were to be sold on a distressed, accelerated basis (with any residual part of the Group and its assets entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings) (i.e. the most likely alternative to the Scheme).
- 1.19 The Group considers the Scheme to be in the best interests of the Scheme Creditors because if the Scheme is not approved and the wider Restructuring is not implemented then their recoveries in a distressed, accelerated sale of the individual business units within the Group (with any residual part of the Group and its assets entering insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings) scenario would, on the basis of the work undertaken by Deloitte, likely be less than their potential recoveries should the Restructuring as presently contemplated (including by the Scheme) be successful and Scheme Creditors receive their Scheme Creditor Entitlements.

RISK FACTORS

All statements in this Explanatory Statement are to be read subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by, the matters referred to in this Part 8.

The risk factors described below are those that the Group believes are potentially significant, but this should not be regarded as a comprehensive statement of all potential risks and uncertainties relating to the Restructuring or the Scheme. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Group, or that the Group currently considers to be immaterial, may also have an adverse effect on the Restructuring or the Scheme, the Company and/or the Group, and no assurance can be given that all material risks relating to the Group are set out below. Scheme Creditors should carefully consider these risk factors and the other information set out in this Explanatory Statement.

This Explanatory Statement also contains forward-looking statements that include risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including the risks described below and elsewhere in this Explanatory Statement.

If a Scheme Creditor is in any doubt about the action it should take, such Scheme Creditor is advised to consult appropriately authorised independent professional advisers.

1. Risks relating to the Scheme and Restructuring

Effectiveness of the Scheme requires the approval of Scheme Creditors

- 1.1 Pursuant to Part 26 of the Companies Act, in order for the Scheme to become legally binding on the Company and the respective Scheme Creditors, a majority in number representing 75% in value of the aggregate Scheme Claims of the Scheme Creditors present and voting (either in person or by proxy) at the single class Scheme Meeting must vote in favour of the Scheme. In order for the Scheme to become effective, the Scheme must then be sanctioned by the Court, and an official copy of the Sanction Order must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration.
- 1.2 If approved by the requisite majorities, the Scheme is expected to be made effective no later than 30 November 2020 by the delivery of copies of the Sanction Order to the Registrar of Companies. If the Scheme becomes effective, the Scheme Creditors will be bound by its terms from the Scheme Effective Time.
- 1.3 Pursuant to the Lock-Up Agreement, any Scheme Creditor (other than FAB) that is a party to or has acceded to the Lock-Up Agreement is bound to:
 - (a) attend the Scheme Meeting by proxy or in person and exercise and cast all of its votes (or instruct its proxy or other relevant person to vote, to the extent it is legally entitled to instruct that person to vote) in respect of its Scheme Claims in favour of the Scheme and any amendment or modification to the Scheme or adjournment to the Scheme Meeting, provided that the terms of the Scheme or such amendment or modification, do not include any material terms which are likely to (and nor is any such adjournment likely to) adversely affect or conflict with the terms of the Restructuring or its implementation; and
 - (b) if (A) any proposal is made to adjourn the Scheme Meeting or (B) the terms of the Scheme or any amendment or modification of the Scheme include any material terms which, in each case is or are likely to adversely affect or conflict with the terms of the Restructuring or its implementation, exercise and cast all of its votes in respect of its debt against any such amendment or modification to the Scheme or proposal to adjourn the Scheme Meeting (as applicable).

- 1.4 Each party to the Lock-Up Agreement (including any Scheme Creditor party thereto, but excluding FAB) shall also not challenge or object, or encourage or support any challenge or objection, to any terms of, and supporting and voting in favour of, any scheme of arrangement, consent solicitation, arrangement and reconstruction, alternative restructuring or any step proposed to support, facilitate, implement, consummate or otherwise give effect to all or any part of the Restructuring (other than as already provided for in the Lock-Up Agreement).
- 1.5 Although Scheme Creditors (other than FAB) which are party to the Lock-Up Agreement are expected to vote in favour of the Scheme, in the event that the Lock-Up Agreement was terminated in accordance with its terms, any Scheme Creditor that was party to the Lock-Up Agreement would cease to be bound by its obligation to support the Scheme.

Even if the Scheme Creditors approve the Scheme, the Scheme may be objected to and the Restructuring may not be completed

- 1.6 If the Scheme is approved at the Scheme Meeting, it is possible for a person with an interest in the Scheme (whether a Scheme Creditor or otherwise) to lodge objections to the Scheme with the Court, and, if such objections have been lodged, to attend or be represented at the Sanction Hearing in order to make representations that the Scheme should not be approved and to appeal against the granting of the Sanction Order. Therefore, there can be no assurance that objections will not be made at or before the Sanction Hearing, or that an appeal will not be made against the grant of the Sanction Order and that any such objections or appeal will not delay or possibly prevent the implementation of the Restructuring.

Effectiveness of the Scheme requires the sanction of the Court

- 1.7 In order for the Scheme to become effective, it must receive the sanction of the Court. The Court will not sanction the Scheme unless it is satisfied that the correct procedures have been followed, each class of creditors has been properly constituted, the proposed arrangements are reasonable and, as a matter of discretion, the Court considers it proper to sanction the Scheme that there are no other reasons why the Scheme should not be approved. There can be no assurance that the Court will determine that the Scheme is reasonable or that the Court will not conclude that there are other reasons why the Scheme should not be sanctioned. If the Court does not sanction the Scheme, or sanctions it subject to conditions or amendments which:

- (a) the Group deems unacceptable; or
- (b) would have (directly or indirectly) a material adverse effect on the interests of any Scheme Creditor and such conditions or amendments are not approved by the Scheme Creditors, the Scheme will not become effective and the Restructuring will not be implemented.

If the conditions to the Restructuring Steps Start Time are not satisfied or waived, the Restructuring may not be completed

- 1.8 The Scheme and the transactions contemplated by the Restructuring will not become effective unless (i) the Restructuring Conditions are satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and (ii) the conditions to the transactions contemplated by the Restructuring are satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and/or the Scheme. If this does not occur, it will not be possible to complete the Restructuring. While there is a risk that the relevant parties to the Restructuring Documents may disagree as to when a condition precedent has been satisfied or waived (or will refuse to waive a condition precedent), the Board anticipates that most of the Restructuring Conditions are capable of being satisfied prior to the Scheme Effective Time or will be satisfied by actions to take place on the Scheme Effective Time.

- 1.9 One of the Restructuring Conditions requires confirmation that each Prospective Major Shareholder has received an official document issued by the FAS acknowledging that the FAS has reviewed and accepted the Russian UBO Disclosure submitted by that Prospective Major Shareholder and, further, that in circumstances where the FAS has notified any Prospective Major Shareholder in writing that a further clearance is required, either (i) that clearance has been received by the relevant Prospective Major Shareholder, or (ii) the relevant Prospective Major Shareholder, all other Prospective Major Shareholders that would be adversely affected by the proposed amendments and the Company have agreed structural amendments to the terms of the Restructuring (and the relevant parties to the Restructuring Implementation Deed have consented to relevant amendments) with the result that such clearance is no longer required.
- 1.10 The Board understands that each Prospective Major Shareholder has made, or will shortly make, a Russian UBO Disclosure to the FAS in accordance with the relevant Russian foreign direct investment law and that it is unlikely, based on the contemplated Restructuring Steps, that any further clearance will be required by the FAS or other Russian authorities. However, the Russian government has a discretion to require any foreign investor to obtain further clearances for its Russia-related investments. If such a further clearance is required, there can be no assurance that it will be possible to complete the Restructuring because of the time it may take to obtain such a clearance and the possibility that structural amendments to avoid the need for a clearance are either not available or cannot be agreed.

Foreign recognition of the Scheme

- 1.11 There can be no assurances that a court in another jurisdiction would recognise or give effect to the Scheme. In particular:
- (a) Notwithstanding the foreign expert opinion obtained by the Company, there is a possibility that the U.S. Bankruptcy Court will not recognise the Scheme, whether in whole or in part, under Chapter 15. If the U.S. Bankruptcy Court declines to recognise the Scheme under Chapter 15, the Scheme may not be recognised or enforced in the U.S.
 - (b) Similarly, and notwithstanding the common view in the foreign expert opinions obtained by the Company that recognition of the Scheme under the terms of the Brussels (Recast) Regulations, and under the ordinary principles of private international law, is at least possible, and may be likely, in relation to the recognition of the Scheme in Norway, Germany, Oman and Russia, there is a possibility that courts in Norway, Germany, Oman and Russia will not recognise the Scheme under applicable laws in those jurisdictions. If the courts in Norway, Germany, Oman or Russia decline to recognise the Scheme, the Scheme may not be recognised or enforced in Norway, Germany, Oman or Russia.
 - (c) Additionally, there is a possibility that the courts in Saudi Arabia will not recognise the Scheme under the laws applicable in Saudi Arabia and the Company has not obtained an opinion as to whether recognition in Saudi Arabia is either possible or likely.
 - (d) Despite the fact that the Group has obtained expert opinions as to the recognition of the Scheme in the various jurisdictions within Europe where the Group has operations and assets, no assurance can be provided that the Scheme will be recognised in other EU member states. Further, following Brexit on 31 January 2020, the United Kingdom entered into a transition period set to terminate on 31 December 2020 during which it will continue to apply EU law. If the Restructuring is not implemented before the end of the transition period on 31 December 2020, the effects of Brexit on the Group and on recognition of the Scheme in other EU member states will be dependent upon the terms of the UK's withdrawal. Depending on the outcome of the withdrawal negotiations, the impact of Brexit may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations or the recognition of the Scheme in other EU member states.

- 1.12 In such circumstances, Creditors would not be prevented from trying to enforce their rights in the applicable foreign courts, as they otherwise would be if the effects of the Scheme are recognised in the applicable jurisdictions.

Scheme Creditors are responsible for complying with the procedures set out in this Explanatory Statement

- 1.13 Scheme Creditors are solely responsible for complying with all of the procedures of the Scheme, including, but not limited to, submitting Account Holder Letters and/or Lender Claim Forms in accordance with the instructions and information provided to Scheme Creditors in this Explanatory Statement, as applicable. Further details on voting at the Scheme Meeting are set out in Appendix 7 (Instructions and Guidance for Scheme Creditors) to this Explanatory Statement.
- 1.14 Each Scheme Creditor is responsible for independently assessing the merits of the Restructuring and the Scheme. This Explanatory Statement has been prepared without taking into account the objectives, financial situation or needs of any particular recipient of it and, consequently, the information contained in this Explanatory Statement may not be sufficient or appropriate for the purpose for which a recipient might use it. Any such recipients should conduct their own due diligence and consider the appropriateness of the information in this Explanatory Statement having regard to their own objectives, financial situations and needs, and making an assessment of how this Explanatory Statement, the Restructuring Implementation Deed and the Scheme will affect them.

The Scheme and/or the Restructuring may not be implemented in accordance with the timeline envisaged in this Explanatory Statement

- 1.15 Factors unknown to the Company at the date of this Explanatory Statement may result in delays to the implementation of the Scheme and/or the Restructuring.
- 1.16 A long protracted alternative restructuring may be on worse terms and could adversely impact management's ability to manage the Group's operations and may otherwise adversely affect its business.

The successful implementation of the Scheme and the Restructuring does not guarantee viability of the business

- 1.17 While it is anticipated that the Scheme and the Restructuring will ensure the continued viability of the Group's business, there may be other factors which have an impact on its financial performance, business, affairs and continued progress. The successful implementation of the Scheme and the Restructuring cannot be taken as an indication or guarantee of the continued viability of the Group's business.

Scheme Creditors are responsible for consulting with their advisers

- 1.18 Scheme Creditors should consult their own tax, accounting, financial, legal and other advisers regarding the suitability to themselves of the tax, accounting and other consequences of participating or declining to vote in favour of the Scheme. Each Scheme Creditor must determine, based on its own independent review and such professional advice as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, that participation in the Restructuring or the Scheme is fully consistent with its objectives and condition, complies and is fully consistent with all internal policies, guidelines and restrictions applicable to it, and is a fit, proper and suitable action for it. Scheme Creditors are solely liable for any taxes and similar or related payments imposed under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction arising in connection with the Scheme or the Restructuring.

The Group comprises of entities organised under the laws of several jurisdictions and insolvency, bankruptcy or similar laws applicable to the Group may not be as favourable to creditors as the insolvency, bankruptcy or similar laws of the jurisdiction with which they are familiar

- 1.19 The Group comprises of entities organised under the laws of several jurisdictions, including England and Wales, Germany, Norway, Jersey, Russia and Oman. In the event that a member of the Group faces financial difficulty, it is not possible to predict with certainty in which jurisdictions insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceedings would be commenced or how these Proceedings would be resolved. Any insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceedings commenced in respect of a member of the Group would most likely be based on and governed by the insolvency, bankruptcy or similar laws of the jurisdiction under which it is organised. As a result, creditors will most likely be subject to the insolvency, bankruptcy or similar laws of that member of the Group's jurisdiction of incorporation. There can be no assurance as to how the insolvency, bankruptcy or similar laws of these jurisdictions will be applied in insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceedings relating to several jurisdictions.
- 1.20 To the extent that the laws of such jurisdictions would be applicable to any bankruptcy, insolvency, administrative or other law of any jurisdiction, such provisions could be materially different from, or in conflict with, one another and those in the United States or other jurisdictions which may be more familiar to New Noteholders, including creditors' rights, priority of creditors, the ability to obtain post-petition interest and the duration of the insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceeding. The application of these various laws in multiple jurisdictions could trigger disputes over the laws of which jurisdiction should apply and could adversely affect the ability of New Noteholders to enforce their rights and collect payment thereunder.
- 1.21 Further, one or more members of the Group may in the future take actions, which result in the insolvency laws of a different or additional jurisdiction being applicable to them. In certain circumstances, those laws may conflict, or one or more persons may dispute the applicability of, any such insolvency laws.
- 1.22 The insolvency and other laws of the jurisdiction in which each member of the Group is organised or operates may be materially different from, or conflict with, both each other and the laws under any creditor's country of incorporation. Some jurisdictions may be less favourable to the interests of certain creditors than others, which may affect, among other things: the ability to obtain post-petition interest; the duration of insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceedings; preference periods; and the priority of governmental and other creditors in any insolvency, bankruptcy or similar Proceeding.
- 1.23 Prospective creditors should seek independent legal advice in each relevant jurisdiction when entering into financing arrangements with any member of the Group, in particular with regard to the impact of local law on their rights as creditors in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy.

2. Risks relating to the Restructured Group

2.1 The outbreak of Covid-19 Pandemic and recent events in the energy markets has had, and may continue to have an adverse impact on the Group's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

On January 30, 2020, the WHO announced a global health emergency with respect to a new strain of coronavirus known as Covid-19 Pandemic. In March 2020, the WHO classified the Covid-19 Pandemic outbreak as a pandemic based on the rapid increase in global infections. The Covid-19 Pandemic outbreak triggered a sharp sell-off in energy commodities markets during the first half of 2020 due to the sudden drop in worldwide consumption of oil, gas and other energy products as a result of measures taken worldwide to contain the spread of the disease. In addition, a dispute between Russia and Saudi Arabia regarding proposed oil production cuts to counteract decreased demand resulting from the Covid-19 Pandemic outbreak put downward pressure on energy markets.

The recent significant weakness in oil and natural gas prices has resulted in reductions in the exploration and production capital and operating budgets of the Group's customers. Demand for the Group's services and associated product offerings and the rates the Group is able to charge its customers is closely tied to such exploration and production activities and the significant price weakness and associated volatility surrounding recent global events has had, and is reasonably likely to continue to have, an adverse impact on the demand for the Group's services. Certain of the Group's customers have requested discounts in terms of pricing and sharing of cost savings and the Group has experienced several contract terminations and suspensions within the land fleet as well as in terms of our offshore contracts in the UK North Sea and Angola. Offshore, several of the platforms that the Group operates on moved from operating to stacking mode and reactivations have been delayed. The Group's operations have faced supply chain delays and restrictions in moving crews to and from its operations due to the pandemic which is impacting upon its ability to deliver services to its customers. The Group's Bentec and RDS businesses currently anticipate a slow-down of activity and increasing difficulties in the tender pipeline and will likely see delays in large projects and scope reviews, especially in light of the current oil price environment, and which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and result of operations. The Group expects a drop in international rig counts in the remainder of 2020 and 2021.

While the Group has implemented various measures to limit non-critical business spending and reduce capital and operational expenditures, it remains uncertain when the energy market will recover. Moreover, future increases in commodity prices may not necessarily translate into the resumption of exploration and production activities (and a corresponding increase in demand for the Group's services) because the Group's customers' expectations of future prices may also influence or limit their activity. As a result of these factors, lower industry demand for oil and natural gas field services may persist for a significant period and it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the Group's results and financial condition may be adversely affected by federal or state laws, regulations, orders, or other governmental or regulatory actions addressing the current Covid-19 Pandemic, energy market or any other industries related to the Group's business, which, if adopted, could result in direct or indirect restrictions to the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

Furthermore, the current Covid-19 Pandemic has caused disruption in the financial markets and the businesses of financial institutions. These factors have caused a slowdown in the decision-making of these institutions, which may affect the timing on which the Group may obtain any additional funding. There can be no assurance that the Group will be able to raise additional funds on terms acceptable to the Group, if at all.

The foregoing and other continued disruptions to the Group's business as a result of the Covid-19 Pandemic and events in the energy market could result in a material adverse effect on the Group's business, result of operations, financial condition, cash flows and ability to service the Group's indebtedness and other obligations.

2.2 Demand for the Group's services is linked to the level of expenditure by the oil and gas industry, which is in turn driven by the prices of oil, gas and refined products. Such prices are volatile and have declined since 2014, which has led to a decrease in the Group's activity levels. A prolonged or further reduction in oil and gas prices could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The success of the Group's business is dependent upon the level of exploration, development and production of crude oil and gas reserves by the major international and national oil and gas companies that make up the Group's customer base. The oil and gas exploration and production industry historically has been characterised by significant changes in the levels of exploration and development activities. Demand for drilling rigs is driven by expenditure on exploration, development and production of crude oil and gas reserves, which is in turn driven by the prices of oil and gas. The profitability of operating wells may change as oil and gas prices fall or rise, which will influence the expenditures the Group's customers make and, in turn, affect the Group's results of operations. Thus, capital expenditure on such services as the Group's depends on current and expected short-term and long-term oil and gas prices. If overall levels of exploration, development and production activities of the Group's customers do not align with the Group's expectations, the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

Global oil and gas prices are affected by global supply and demand, particularly in the United States, Europe and Asia (notably China), as well as trading activities by market participants and others either seeking to secure access to oil and gas or to hedge against commercial risks, or as part of investment portfolio activity. Historically, oil and gas prices have been highly positively correlated with global economic activity and levels of GDP and as a result are, and will likely continue to be, subject to substantial and unpredictable volatility. Oversupply and uncertainty about future demand have had a significant adverse effect on global oil and gas prices, and may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Global and regional oil and gas prices are affected by numerous other factors, including:

- (b) demand for energy, which is determined by population growth and general economic and business conditions;
- (c) oil and gas production by non-OPEC countries and competition between them;
- (d) the policies and laws of various governments regarding exploration and development of their oil and gas reserves, energy sources and energy efficiency requirements;
- (e) the implementation or lifting of sanctions on oil-producing countries;
- (f) the cost of exploring for, producing and delivering oil and gas;
- (g) the ability of OPEC to set and maintain production levels for oil;
- (h) capital expenditures by major national and international oil companies, and the types of projects to which these expenditures are allocated;
- (i) political and economic uncertainty and socio-political unrest;
- (j) the level of worldwide oil exploration and production activity;
- (k) the availability of pipeline, storage and refining capacity;
- (l) the availability and prices of alternative energy sources;
- (m) advances in exploration, development and production technology;
- (n) developments in hydraulic fracturing, or "fracking", which has significantly increased the recoverable reserves from certain shale formations, resulting in increased oil and gas production, particularly in the United States;
- (o) technological advances affecting energy consumption; and
- (p) weather conditions.

Oil and gas are globally and regionally traded commodities and, as a result, the Group's clients are unable to control the prices they receive for the oil that the Group or they drill, which is generally sold with reference to market prices. Historically, crude oil prices have been highly volatile and subject to large fluctuations in response to relatively minor changes in the demand for oil. Most recently, in response to the significant fall in the price of oil since the beginning of 2020, due in part to failed OPEC negotiations and the inability of OPEC and non-OPEC countries, such as Russia, to set and maintain production levels and prices for oil, and to concerns about COVID-19 and its impact on the worldwide economy and global demand for oil, OPEC and certain non-OPEC countries agreed in April 2020 to production cuts. Despite these measures, the oversupply of crude oil and stagnant demand could continue, sustaining current depressed activity levels, or resulting in further declines. The Group's customers also take into account the volatility of energy prices and other risk factors when determining whether to pursue capital projects, and higher perceived risks generally mandate higher required returns. Any further substantial and extended decline, or heightened volatility, in oil or gas prices would be likely to cause a significant decline in the level of expenditure on exploration, development and production. A prolonged period of lower oil and gas prices could also result in future impairment to the Group's long-lived assets. On an annual basis the Group carries out a review of the carrying value of assets in the Group's financial statements for each of the Group's business segments. The fair value of each segment is determined from discounted cash flow calculations and third-party valuations. A prolonged period of lower activity may cause the Group to reassess the future cash flows of the business and hence the carrying value of the Group's assets. Additionally, a sustained reduction in exploration, development and production activity could lead to a decline in the demand for the Group's rigs and services, and therefore either a reduction in the Group's utilization or downward price pressure on day rates, or both, which could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Spending by exploration and production companies may also be impacted by conditions in the capital markets, which have been volatile in recent years. Limitations on the availability of capital or higher costs of capital may cause exploration and production companies to make additional reductions to capital budgets, even if oil and natural gas prices increase from current levels. Any such cuts in spending will curtail drilling programs as well as discretionary spending on well services, which may result in a reduction in the demand for the Group's services, the rates the Group can charge and the utilization of the Group's assets. Moreover, reduced discovery rates of new oil and natural gas reserves or a decrease in the development rate of reserves in the Group's market areas, whether due to increased governmental regulation, limitations on exploration and drilling activity or other factors, could also have a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations, even in a stronger oil and natural gas price environment. With respect to national oil company customers, the Group is also subject to risk of policy, regime, currency and budgetary changes, all of which may affect their capital expenditures.

In addition to lower levels of expenditure by the Group's customers, a period of low or declining oil and gas prices may also result in consolidation among the Group's existing and potential customers (resulting from a reduction in the number of independent players focused on activities with higher marginal cost of production and the concentration of larger-scale operators capable of exploiting potential synergies) and among the Group's competitors (in all of engineering, construction and drilling). Some of these trends could result in a more competitive environment. Given the diversity and unpredictability of possible outcomes in a dynamic and discontinuous market such as the one described above, the Group cannot accurately predict the commercial, operational and competitive evolution of the markets in which the Group operates were oil and gas prices to remain at current levels or decline further in the medium- to long-term. Any unfavourable developments in the commercial, operational or competitive landscape resulting from a decline or volatility in oil and gas prices could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operation.

2.3 The Group's future business performance depends on the Group's ability to win new contracts, and to renew and extend existing contracts.

The Group's revenue is derived from contracts that are awarded on a tender basis. The Group participates in the tender process to win new contracts and, in certain circumstances, to renew certain existing contracts which may not provide the option to negotiate privately with the customer on the renewal terms. It is generally difficult to predict whether the Group will be awarded such contracts on favourable terms or at all. The tenders are affected by a number of factors beyond the Group's control, such as market conditions, including the intensity of the competition in a particular market, financing arrangements and governmental approvals required of the Group's customers. In preparation for a tender of a new contract, the Group assesses its current capacity in terms of employees, equipment and the availability of third parties, such as sub-contractors and suppliers, and, if the Group is awarded the contract, it determines how to deploy these resources in order to perform the Group's obligations under the contract. Often, the Group must pre-qualify to participate in such tenders by meeting certain thresholds for the performance of the Group's operations including health, safety and environmental requirements, and by demonstrating the Group's ability to provide available equipment and sufficiently comply with local requirements. If the Group is not selected or if the contracts it enters into are delayed and the Group is unable to execute the work it is contracted to perform within the timeframe agreed, the Group's utilisation may drop below currently expected levels, which could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's drilling contracts are normally linked to fixed lengths of time or fixed numbers of wells, and may include extension options that are exercisable at the discretion of the customer. The extension options do not represent guaranteed commitments from the Group's customers. Customer extension options typically require notice several months prior to the end of a contract term. While the Group actively markets its rigs prior to the end of a contract in anticipation of a customer choosing not to exercise its extension option(s), if the customer decides not to exercise the option(s), then the Group will need to secure a new contract for that rig, which could lead to a period during which that rig is off-hire and adversely affect the Group's utilization and contract backlog.

The Group's ability to renew or extend existing contracts or sign new contracts or enter into new markets will largely depend on the prevailing market conditions. If the Group is unable to sign new contracts that start immediately after the end of the Group's current contracts, or if new contracts are entered into at day rates substantially below the existing day rates, or on terms otherwise less favourable compared to existing contract terms, or which leave the Group with mobilisation or demobilisation costs that cannot be fully recovered, the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

2.4 The Group's backlog may not be fully realised.

The Group's backlog represents its estimate of the amount of the Group's awarded contracts that the Group expects to result in future revenue. Backlog is calculated as an aggregate of such potential future revenue for each of the Group's segments over the relevant contracted period for each contract, which in some cases may be five years or more and is not subject to a present value discount. Backlog does not provide a precise indication of the time period over which the Group is contractually entitled to receive such revenue and there is no assurance that such revenues will be actually received by the Group in the time frames anticipated, or at all. Backlog is computed based on facts known and assumptions deemed appropriate at the computation date. Although under most of the Group's contracts customers have the right to terminate the contract without cause upon written notice of typically 30 to 90 days (sometimes with payment of early termination fees), backlog is based on the full contractual (or optional, as indicated) period, as the Group estimates that, based on the Group's operating history and course of dealing with its customers, these contracts are more likely than not to reach their full term and be continued for the duration of their option periods.

The Group may not be able to realise the full amount of revenue projected in the Group's backlog due to events beyond the Group's control and, if realised, there can be no assurance that any such revenue will result in profit. Because of contract terminations or suspensions and changes in project scope and schedule, including the effect of increased mobilisation times and other factors, including maintenance projects and downtime (in respect of the Group's drilling business), the Group cannot predict with certainty when, or if, the Group's backlog will translate into revenue.

Throughout the regions in which the Group operates, the current depressed market environment has contributed to decreased business confidence and activity and resulted in an increase in the early cancellation, termination or, in some cases, suspension of the Group's existing contracts. In addition, decreased confidence affects the investment policies of the Group's major clients and exposes the Group to potential: (i) delays in the negotiation process and possible cancellation of future projects; (ii) cancellation, termination and suspension of projects in progress (whether lump sum contracts or service contracts); (iii) delays and difficulties in obtaining the payment of contractual penalties owed to the Group for the cancellation and suspension of such contracts; (iv) delays and difficulties in obtaining variation orders for changes in the scope of work requested by clients and executed by the Group; and (v) delays and difficulties in renewing agreements of the Group's drilling fleet on similar economic terms. This economic and business environment may negatively affect the Group's client relationships and, in more serious cases, might also lead to arbitration. Moreover, the Covid-19 Pandemic resulted in several early cancellation, termination or suspension of the Group's existing contracts. Whilst the duration and severity of the Covid-19 Pandemic are not clear, continued depressed business confidence and activities resulting from the Covid-19 Pandemic could further increase the early cancellation, termination or suspension of the Group's existing contracts and adversely affect its business and operations.

There is no assurance that the Group will not receive additional cancellations, especially if the Covid-19 Pandemic is extended, which may continue to depress economic activity. In addition, even where the Group provides services as per the relevant contract, the customer may default and fail to pay amounts owed to the Group. Some of the Group's customers may experience liquidity issues, which could worsen if oil and gas prices declined to lower levels for an extended period of time or their operations are adversely impacted due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. Liquidity issues could encourage the Group's customers who are experiencing financial difficulties to seek to repudiate, cancel or renegotiate agreements with the Group or lead them into bankruptcy, insolvency or similar.

2.5 The Group's multi-year contracts may be subject to early termination or variance, which could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial conditions or results of operations.

Some of the Group's contracts may be subject to early termination or variation, and if such variation provisions are exercised, the Group's utilisation and backlog levels may decrease, and the levels of revenue received by the Group may be withdrawn or reduced. While certain contracts entered into by the Group is long-term in nature, most provide the customer with an early termination right within notice periods of typically 30 to 90 days. In addition, most provide the customer with an early termination right upon default or non-performance by the Group. In such circumstances, the Group may or may not have the right to receive compensation in respect of such early termination, and the Group may not be able to fully eliminate costs associated with the contract. In addition, some contracts may be suspended, rather than terminated early, for an extended period of time, in some cases without adequate compensation. During 2018 and 2019, the Group experienced downward pricing pressure, in particular during the first half of 2020 due to the outbreak of Covid-19 Pandemic and recent events in the energy market, resulting in renegotiations of pricing and other terms in the Group's contracts with certain customers. The Group's customers' ability to perform their obligations under their contracts, including their ability to pay the Group or fulfil their indemnity obligations to the Group, may also be impacted by an economic or industry downturn or other adverse conditions in the oil and gas industry.

Termination and suspension of drilling contracts results in loss of the day rates for the period of the contract. If the Group's customers default or cancel certain of the Group's significant contracts and the Group is unable to secure new contracts on substantially the same terms, the Group's backlog may be reduced and the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

2.6 The Group's concentrated customer base in the energy industry exposes the Group to credit and other risks.

Most of the Group's customers are large national oil companies and international oil companies. National oil companies and international oil companies have substantial bargaining power with respect to price and other commercial terms, which could adversely affect the Group's profit margins. The Group's customer base is concentrated and generates significant amount of revenue from its top three customers. The loss of any of these customers or another significant customer, or a decline in payments under any of the Group's contracts with these customers could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The Group's customers are concentrated in the energy industry, which may impact the Group's overall exposure to credit risk as the Group's customers may be similarly affected by prolonged changes in economic and industry conditions. Some of the Group's customers are experiencing extreme financial distress as a result of the prolonged decline in oil and gas prices and may be forced to seek protection under applicable bankruptcy laws. Furthermore, countries that rely heavily upon income from hydrocarbon exports have been negatively and significantly affected by the drop in oil and gas prices, which could affect the Group's ability to collect from the Group's customers in these countries, particularly national oil companies. Laws in some jurisdictions in which the Group operates could make collection difficult or time consuming. The Group performs ongoing credit evaluations of the Group's customers and do not generally require collateral in support of the Group's trade receivables. While the Group maintain reserves for potential credit losses, the Group cannot assure such reserves will be sufficient to meet write-offs of uncollectible receivables or that the Group's losses from such receivables will be consistent with the Group's expectations. Additionally, in the event of a bankruptcy of any of the Group's customers, the Group may be treated as an unsecured creditor and may collect substantially less, or none, of the amounts owed to the Group by such customer.

2.7 The Group's growth strategy involves selective acquisitions and the Group cannot guarantee that such bolt-on or larger-scale acquisitions will be successful.

As part of the Group's growth strategy, the Group regularly identifies and evaluates potential acquisition opportunities. Should the Group decide to acquire a business or assets, there can be no assurance that such acquisition will not have material adverse consequences. Any future acquisitions are subject to the risk that they may not be integrated successfully into the Group's operations and may not achieve the Group's desired financial objectives. In addition, any acquisitions of businesses or assets entail numerous operational and financial risks, including:

- (a) higher than expected acquisition costs, including the possibility that the Group could pay more than the acquired company or its assets are worth;
- (b) the possibility that the Group may not identify appropriate acquisition targets, complete future acquisitions on satisfactory terms or realise expected synergies or cost savings within expected timelines;
- (c) unforeseen expenses, delays or conditions may be imposed upon the acquisition, including due to required regulatory approvals or consents;
- (d) exposure to unknown liabilities (including, but not limited to, liabilities in relation to tax and environmental regulations and laws);

- (e) difficulty and cost in integrating the operations and personnel of acquired businesses with the Group's existing operations and personnel;
- (f) diversion of management's attention from the Group's day-to-day business;
- (g) impairment of relationships with key suppliers or customers of acquired businesses due to changes in management and ownership and the restructuring of logistics and information technology systems;
- (h) the inability to retain key employees of acquired businesses;
- (i) difficulty avoiding labour disruptions in connection with any integration, particularly in connection with any headcount reduction; and
- (j) the incurrence of substantial debt, the cost of servicing which may affect the Group's ability to service the Group's existing short- term and long-term liabilities or otherwise negatively impact the Group's cash flows.

The occurrence of any such event in connection with an acquisition could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

These acquisitions may be selective and complementary bolt-on acquisitions as part of the Group's ongoing growth strategy. Alternatively, the Group may enter into acquisitions or business combinations of a larger scale, or expand by acquisitions into new business segments or geographic markets. Any such acquisition or business combination could be material in size and transformative to the Group's business. If the Group were to undertake such additional acquisitions or business combinations, the risks associated therewith would be similar in nature to, but of a substantially greater magnitude than, those associated with the Group's more routine acquisitions.

Although the Group analyses each acquisition target, in agreeing to acquire entities the Group's assessments are subject to a number of assumptions and determinations with respect to, among other things, future net sales and earnings, profitability, growth, interest rates and company valuations, based on the Group's investigation of the respective businesses and other information then available. The Group cannot assure you that the Group's assumptions and determinations will prove to be correct or those liabilities, contingencies or other risks previously not known to the Group will not arise. In addition, there can be no assurance that, following the integration into the Group's Group, an acquired business will be able to maintain its customer base consistent with the Group's expectations or generate the expected margins or cash flow. Any such unanticipated risks, liabilities, contingencies, losses or issues, if realised, could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.8 Rig move, upgrade, repair, refurbishment and construction projects are subject to risks, including delays and cost overruns, which could adversely affect the Group's cash flows and results of operations.

The Group often have to incur upgrade and refurbishment expenditures for the Group's rig fleet to comply with contractual requirements, when repairs are required, to comply with the Group's quality management and preventative maintenance system and to comply with periodic certification requirements. Additionally, the Group may make substantial capital expenditures for the construction of additional rigs. Rig upgrade, repair, refurbishment and construction projects often involve complex design and engineering services and are especially vulnerable to the risks of delay and cost overruns, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) shortages of material or skilled labour;

- (b) failure or delay of third-party service providers and labour disputes;
- (c) disputes with suppliers;
- (d) unforeseen design and engineering problems;
- (e) unanticipated change orders;
- (f) work stoppages;
- (g) adverse weather conditions;
- (h) long lead times for manufactured rig components;
- (i) unanticipated cost increases of equipment, labour and raw materials that are not recoverable under the contract;
- (j) the need for greater than expected levels of repair as a result of detailed inspections; and
- (k) delay in or inability to obtain required work permits, visas, customs clearance of routine shipments of equipment, materials and supplies and temporary importation permits, extensions and renewals.

The occurrence of any of the above risks could cause the Group to not realise a contract's full value, which could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group also incur costs related to the demobilisation and mobilisation of a rig from one location to another when a contract terminates or a new contract is commenced. Rig moves are vulnerable to risks of delays and cost overruns flowing from the factors set out above, and in particular adverse weather and delays in obtaining customs clearance. While the Group seek to recover the cost of such moves from the Group's customers, the Group typically receive a lump sum payment as compensation for such moves and there can be no guarantee that the sums received will fully cover the Group's costs. Significant shortfall in the sums received from the Group's customers as compared to the Group's actual mobilisation costs could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.9 The Group operates in a highly competitive industry with excess drilling capacity and competition in its business could result in reduced profitability and loss of customers.

Contracts for the Group's services and products are generally awarded on a competitive bid basis. Intense price competition is a significant factor in determining which qualified contractor is awarded a project, as well as rig availability, historical performance, safety philosophy, business management systems and technical capability of service and equipment. In order to remain competitive, the Group must continue to add value for the Group's customers by providing, in comparison to the Group's peers, new and advanced technologies, reliable products and services and competent personnel, as well as superior drilling and health and safety performance. The timing and cost to develop competitive technology and new product introductions can impact the Group's financial results, in particular if one of the Group's competitors were to develop competing technology that accelerates the obsolescence of any of the Group's products or services or results in the Group's inability to compete on commercially acceptable terms. For example, the introduction of new oil production technologies, such as fracking, has resulted in the increased production of shale oil. New technologies have also enabled the profitable extraction and processing of conventional oil. Any one of these factors, including the Group's failure to develop new and advanced technologies in line with the Group's competitors, could materially and adversely affect its ability to compete and win contracts.

In addition, the Group's industry has historically been cyclical and is impacted by oil and gas price levels and volatility. There have been periods of high demand, short rig supply and high day rates, followed by periods of low demand, excess rig supply and low day rates. In addition, changes in oil and energy prices can have a dramatic effect on rig demand in a given region. The current low oil and gas price environment has impacted exploration and production activity and has consequently resulted in significant excess rig capacity in the Group's markets. Periods of excess rig supply intensify the competition in the industry and often result in rigs being idle for long periods of time. In such periods of excess rig supply, the Group may be required to stack idle rigs or enter into contracts at lower day rates until market conditions improve. The industry has been characterised by increasing competition due to the strengthening of international competitors and the volatility of oil and gas prices. It is therefore possible that the entry of new competitors with leading-edge resources and technologies could jeopardize the Group's market positioning. Additional competitive pressure or downturns in the markets in which the Group is engaged could adversely affect the Group's market share. Moreover, a market environment characterised by persistently low or declining oil and gas prices could lead to consolidation of customers and competitors in the Group's markets. The Group may not have the types of skills or the necessary financial resources to enable the Group to compete under such market conditions.

During prior periods of high utilisation and day rates, industry participants increased the supply of rigs by ordering the construction of new rigs or the upgrading of existing rigs. When market conditions change adversely, this has typically resulted in an over-supply of drilling rigs and has caused a subsequent decline in utilisation and day rates, sometimes for extended periods of time. The entry into service of any new or upgraded rigs will increase supply and could lead to a further reduction in utilisation and day rates as these rigs are absorbed into the market.

Lower utilisation and day rates in one or more of the regions in which the Group operates could adversely affect the Group's revenue and profitability. Prolonged periods of low utilisation and day rates could also result in the recognition of further impairment charges on certain classes of the Group's drilling rigs or the Group's goodwill balance, if future cash flow estimates, based upon information available to management at the time, indicate that the carrying value of these rigs, or the goodwill balance, may not be recoverable. During 2020, the Group is experiencing reduced utilisation in most of the countries it operates in and if this level of utilisation continues in the future the Group's revenue and profitability will be adversely affected.

With regard to Bentec, the Group's drilling rig and component engineering and manufacturing segment, competition includes National Oilwell Varco, Drillmec and Uralmash (in Russia) as well as various Chinese rig and component manufacturers. Bentec's main competitors in top drive design and manufacturing are National Oilwell Varco and various Chinese and Russian manufacturers. Bentec has competition in its other components and after sales business from companies such as National Oilwell Varco, which also offer a complete range of components and services. Competition from these, and other industry participants, could impact Bentec's ability to gain orders and maintain margins. Should the prices of oil and gas decline again for a prolonged period, the Group may experience decreases in demand for Bentec's products and services from the Group's customers. During periods of reduced demand, competition could also increase, thus eroding margins.

2.10 The Group has significant international operations, particularly in the Middle East, North and West Africa, Russia and the Caspian region, which may be susceptible to political, social and economic instability.

The Group's international operations, particularly those in the Middle East (including Iraq, Kurdistan, Oman and Pakistan), North and West Africa (including Algeria, Angola and Nigeria), Russia and the Caspian region, may be susceptible to political, social and economic instability, civil disturbances or similar events, which may lead to:

- (a) difficulties in collecting accounts receivable and longer collection times than in more developed markets;
- (b) deterioration of customer relationships due to local political pressure as governments seek greater control over their oil and gas industries;
- (c) difficulties complying with changing local legal or regulatory requirements, or their interpretation, in the operation of the Group's business, including environmental rules, contracting or bidding requirements, local content rules, or various other areas of labour, contract or natural resource law;
- (d) expropriation or nationalization of assets by governments;
- (e) difficulty attaining any visas, licenses or relevant regulatory approvals to support continuing operations;
- (f) political pressure to favour local contractors;
- (g) inability to retain or increase market share due to shifts in preferences or policies favouring local or national suppliers;
- (h) disruption to operations, including strikes, civil actions or political interference;
- (i) increasing security threats to the Group's personnel and equipment; or
- (j) the imposition of sanctions by the UK government, EU Commission, U.S. government or other foreign governments.

Any of the above factors could result in disruptions to the Group's business, increased costs and/or reduced future growth. The Group may not be able to obtain insurance policies covering such risks, or such policies may only be available with premiums that are not commercially viable. In addition, there is no certainty that the Group will be able to enforce the Group's legal rights through an independent and objective judiciary in all the territories in which the Group operates. As a result, any political, social and economic instability, civil disturbances or similar events could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

There can be no assurance that compliance issues under OFAC and applicable EU regulations, measures or similar laws and regulations will not arise with respect to the Group or its personnel. Non-compliance with OFAC and applicable EU regulations could result in, among other things, debarment from the ability to contract with the U.S. and EU government or their agencies, a significant restriction of the Group's ability to raise funds in global capital markets, limitations on the Group's ability to source certain goods, technology and services from the United States or U.S. suppliers, liability on behalf of the Group or the Group's personnel, imposition of significant fines and negative publicity and reputational damage.

Furthermore, should either OFAC or the Council of the EU or other sanctions be deemed to apply to any of the Group's existing or future clients, a large sector of the Russian economy or otherwise, such an expansion could result in financial difficulties for such persons or the suspension or potential curtailment of business operations between the Group and the designated persons. In addition, the introduction of large scale sanctions on Russian companies or sectors of the Russian economy may negatively affect the Russian economy and investment climate and lead to further deterioration of financial markets. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations.

The political unrest and resulting sanctions have contributed to significant volatility in Russian financial markets and created uncertainty over foreign investment in Russia and the status of future operations within Russia by foreign companies. The Group has significant operations in Russia, including a Bentec manufacturing and assembly facility in Tyumen, Russia and land rigs located in Russia. In addition, the Group currently operates and maintains platform drilling operations in Sakhalin, Russia. The Group believes that Russia will continue to be an important part of the Group's business. Further deterioration in the political situation or the imposition of further, more restrictive sanctions on Russia or Russian persons or businesses could result in reduced demand for the Group's services or require the Group to suspend certain of the Group's current or planned future activities in Russia.

Beginning in June 2014, militants affiliated with the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ("ISIS") launched attacks on a number of cities and villages across the north and west of Iraq, seizing control over a large swath of territory and advancing towards the national capital of Baghdad. Although the Iraqi government and military have since reasserted control over the areas formerly controlled by ISIS and secured the entire length of the Iraq-Syria border, the threat of violence from members of ISIS and other militant groups remains. As the political and security situation continues to develop, uncertainty remains regarding the future stability and operating climate, particularly in Kurdistan in northern Iraq. The Group believes that Iraq will continue to be an important part of the Group's business. Continuing hostilities in the Middle East may lead to armed conflicts or to further acts of terrorism and civil disturbance, which may contribute to further economic instability and disruption of oil production and distribution, which could result in reduced demand for the Group's services.

In addition to the operational risks inherent to the Group's operations in Iraq, the Group also faces the risk that governmental authorities in Iraq may be unable to carry out mine clearing operations in the areas where it operates, or be unable to provide the necessary degree of peace, order, stability and security for the Group to carry out its services, particularly with regard to infrastructure development, mine safety and protection of the Group's physical property. Foreign companies operating in Iraq may be particular targets for violent criminal or terrorist actions, and such criminal or terrorist actions against the Group or the Group's third-party partners' personnel, facilities or infrastructure could adversely affect the Group's regional business, prospects, and results of operations. In addition, the possible threat of criminal or terrorist actions against the Group could adversely affect the Group's ability to adequately staff its operations or materially increase operating costs in this region. The Group may also face higher operating costs, or a significant shortage of necessary personnel, equipment or supplies, as a result of increased demand from the Group's customers, including international oil companies, as they simultaneously seek to build up and/or maintain their local presence in Iraq.

2.11 The Group is subject to the complexity of running a business with global operations.

The Group operates its business in a range of international locations, including Russia, Kazakhstan, Algeria, Angola, Nigeria, Azerbaijan, Iraq, Kurdistan and Pakistan, and it is expected that the Group's business will expand into new locations in the future. As a result, the Group's international operations are subject to the following risks, among others:

- (a) foreign laws and governmental regulation, including those governing tax, worker immigration and customs;
- (b) expropriation, confiscatory taxation and nationalization of the Group's assets located in areas in which the Group operates;
- (c) unfavourable changes in foreign monetary and tax policies, and unfavourable and inconsistent interpretation and application of foreign tax laws;
- (d) foreign currency fluctuations and restrictions on currency repatriation; and

- (e) restrictions in moving expatriate employees to and from the countries where services are being provided, particularly as a result of the Covid-19 Pandemic.

If the existing body of laws and regulations in the countries in which the Group operates are interpreted or applied, or relevant discretions exercised, in an inconsistent manner by the courts or applicable regulatory bodies, this could result in ambiguities, inconsistencies and anomalies in the enforcement of such laws and regulations, which in turn could hinder the Group's long-term planning efforts and may create uncertainties in the Group's operating environment.

The Group's international operations are subject to the laws and regulations of a number of countries. The Group's ability to compete in international drilling markets may be adversely affected by governmental regulations or other policies that favour the awarding of contracts to contractors in which nationals of those countries have substantial ownership interests. The Group's international operations may face governmentally imposed restrictions or taxes from time to time on the transfer of funds to the Group.

2.12 General economic conditions may adversely affect the Group's operating performance and results of operations and its customers' operating performance and results of operations, which may affect the Group's ability and its customers' ability to raise capital.

The global financial crisis impacted the Group's business and its customers' business in Europe, the U.S. and globally. Moreover, the recent Covid-19 Pandemic and decreased demand for oil and gas caused and is continuing to cause severe disruptions in the European, U.S. and worldwide economies. Longer term disruptions in the capital and credit markets could adversely affect its customers' and the Group's ability to access needed liquidity for working capital and growth. Sustained weakness in general economic conditions and/or financial markets in Europe, the U.S. or globally could adversely affect the Group's ability and its customers' ability to raise capital on favourable terms or at all, which could result in project modifications, delays and/or cancellations. The inability to raise capital on favourable terms, particularly during times of uncertainty in the financial markets, could adversely impact the Group's ability to sustain the Group's businesses and would likely increase its capital costs.

2.13 The Group's operating costs will not necessarily fluctuate in proportion to changes in the Group's operating revenues

The Group's operating costs will not necessarily fluctuate in proportion to changes in the Group's operating revenues. Although the Group tries to reduce its operating costs in line with reductions in operating activity, some costs for operating a rig are fixed or partially variable, and accordingly may not be reduced in proportion with reductions in operating activity. In addition, the Group will not always seek to reduce variable operating costs in instances where it is inefficient to do so. For example, when its rigs incur unplanned downtime while on contract or idle time between drilling contracts, the Group may seek to keep daily rate staff on those rigs to prepare the rig for its next contract. Furthermore, during times of reduced activity, reductions in costs may not be immediate as portions of the crew may be required to idle the rigs, after which time the crew members are assigned to active rigs or dismissed.

In addition, equipment maintenance costs fluctuate depending upon the type of activity the unit is performing and the age and condition of the equipment, and these costs could increase for short or extended periods as a result of regulatory or customer requirements that raise maintenance standards above historical levels.

As part of a large global business the Group also incurs certain overhead costs to support the provision of processes and systems as well as the general management of the Group's operations. These costs do not vary directly with activity and the costs may need to be incurred even where there are substantial reductions in activity levels.

2.14 The Group may be affected by the actions of third parties, including sub-contractors, manufacturers and partners.

The Group relies on third-party equipment manufacturers and sub-contractors in the completion of its projects. In particular, the Group sub-contracts out the survey, upgrade and maintenance work on its rigs, and the mobilisation and demobilisation of certain rigs reliant on warranty services and rig movers, among others. In many of its rigs' locations, there are few or no repair facilities in close proximity that have the facilities and capability to perform the upgrade, repair, refurbishment and contributions that the Group requires. In the event that there are no local facilities, or should a local facility close, the Group would be required to transport the rigs greater distances in order to complete the Group's survey, upgrade and maintenance requirements. This may have a negative impact on the Group's utilisation rate due to the additional transport time required, and would lead to increased costs associated with upgrading and maintaining the Group's fleet and maintaining the Group's certifications.

To the extent that the Group does not engage sub-contractors or acquire equipment or materials according to its plans and budgets, the Group's ability to complete a project in a timely fashion or at a profit may be impaired. In addition, if a sub-contractor or a manufacturer is unable to deliver its services, equipment or materials according to the pre-agreed terms or on time, the Group may be required to purchase such services, equipment or materials from another source at a higher price or, in certain circumstances, the Group may be unable to find a replacement.

The Group's RDS segment staffs a portion of its workforces with contract employees, whose services the Group retain at market rates. Where the Group cannot pass on increases in these market rates to customers, increases have to be absorbed into margin, thus eroding the profitability of this segment. Shortages of engineering staff in the Group's key markets can lead to volatility and rapid changes in the market rates payable to engineering service contractors.

The Group may not be able to recover all of these costs in all circumstances, which may reduce the profit to be realised or result in a loss on the project for which the services, equipment or materials were needed. Moreover, if the Group must purchase services, equipment or materials from a third party that is not the Group's customary provider, there is a risk the Group may fail to deliver at the standard its customers have been accustomed to, which could be detrimental to the Group's reputation. As a result, the failure of a sub-contractor or manufacturer to deliver its services, equipment or materials according to pre-agreed terms or on time could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.15 Legal, political and economic uncertainty in the European Union, including the expected exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union and the European sovereign debt crisis, may adversely impact current trading arrangements, be a source of instability in international markets and create significant currency fluctuations, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations and financial condition

The results of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union may have material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and result of operations. Possible negative outcomes resulting from Brexit include: significantly disrupted trade between the United Kingdom and the EU; political and economic instability in other countries of the EU; and instability in the global financial and foreign exchange markets, including volatility in the value of the euro and the pound sterling. Brexit may also result in delays in the movement of goods and products or restrictions on the actual availability of goods and products, in each case which may disrupt the Group's operations, when either sourced directly or through third party providers in the supply chain. Given the lack of comparable precedent, it is unclear what financial, trade and legal implications Brexit will have and whether, and to what extent, the Group's operations might be affected. Therefore, Brexit could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations.

2.16 The Group's international operations expose the Group to the risk of fluctuations in currency exchange rates.

The Group's financial statements are stated in U.S. dollars. However, the functional currencies of the Group's Subsidiaries are denominated in other currencies, primarily krone, roubles, pound sterling and euros. Changes in the value of the krone and pound sterling, on the one hand, and the value of the U.S. dollar, on the other hand, will impact the Group's reported profit and net asset position. It is also possible that currencies under which the Group has entered, or may enter, into under its existing or future contracts, that are currently pegged or effectively pegged to the U.S. dollar, such as Saudi Arabian riyal (SAR) and Omani rial (OMR), might be reset or floated in the future, leading to volatility and/or devaluation of the Group's operations in the respective jurisdictions. The Group does not seek to hedge this translational impact.

In addition, the Group is exposed to transactional foreign exchange risk where individual Subsidiaries enter into contracts or incur costs in currencies other than their functional currency, and the Group may not always be able to match revenue with costs denominated in the same currency. If the currency in which the costs are denominated increases in value relative to the currency in which the revenue is denominated, the Group's operating margins decrease. Moreover, an appreciation of the value of a currency may result in an increased tax liability in certain jurisdictions in which the Group operates. For instance, in the case of a depreciation of the U.S. dollar, the Group's U.S. dollar liabilities incurred in the countries in which the Group operates would be translated and reported as a lower number in local currency relative to the amount stated in U.S. dollars, resulting in taxable gains at the local level. Furthermore, currencies under a significant number of the Group's contracts in relation to its operations in Saudi Arabia is in SAR, which is currently pegged to the U.S. dollar. Moreover, the Group's operations in Oman are subject to contracts that are currently denominated in U.S. dollars, but the Group may renew its existing contracts and/or enter into additional contracts in the future with respect to its Omani operations in OMR instead, which is currently pegged to the U.S. dollar. If SAR, OMR or any other relevant currencies in which the Group operates becomes effectively unpegged with the U.S. dollar in the future, it could result in volatility and/or devaluation of the Group's operations in the respective jurisdictions, which could lead to an adverse impact on the Group's business, financial prospects and results of operations. While the Group attempts to minimize its exposure to such foreign exchange risks through measures such as buying or selling forward currency exposures and through economically matching the currency of the Group's costs and income, there can be no assurance that the Group will be able to successfully hedge its foreign exchange risks.

The results of the United Kingdom's referendum on the UK's continued membership in the EU caused significant volatility in global stock markets and currency exchange rate fluctuations, and resulted in a significant weakening of the pound sterling against the U.S. dollar, the euro and other major currencies. As a result of the referendum and the decision by the UK to trigger Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union to begin the exit process from the EU, for the years ended 2018 and 2019, the Group's revenue in pound sterling was, in U.S. dollar terms, significantly lower than in prior years, while the Group's costs in pound sterling were, in U.S. dollar terms, also lower than in prior years. Any future effects of Brexit will depend, in part, on agreements the United Kingdom negotiates during and after the transitional period to retain access to markets in the EU, including current trade and finance agreements. Depending on the outcome, the Group could be required to make additional currency related adjustments. The effects on the UK, European and global economy of the uncertainties arising from Brexit are difficult to predict, but may include economic and financial instability in the UK and Europe, including a continued drop in the value of the pound sterling, or euro, compared to the U.S. dollar and other currencies. In addition to the translational impact on the Group's financial statements, to the extent the Group has unhedged exposure to assets, liabilities, or income statement items in the euro or pound sterling, the change in exchange rate could adversely affect the Group's business, financial prospects and results of operations.

The Group has historically been successful in limiting the risks of currency fluctuation and restrictions on currency repatriation by obtaining contracts providing for payment in U.S. dollars or freely convertible foreign currencies wherever possible. However, certain countries in which the Group may operate could require that all or a portion of its revenue be paid in local currencies that are not freely convertible.

In addition, certain parties with which the Group does business may require that all or a portion of its revenue be paid in local currencies. To the extent possible, the Group limits its exposure to potentially devaluating currencies by matching the acceptance of local currencies to the Group's expense requirements, including taxation in those currencies. Although the Group has done this in the past, it may not be able to obtain such contractual terms or match revenue and expenses in this manner in the future, thereby exposing the Group to foreign currency fluctuations that could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.17 Downgrades in the Group's credit ratings by various credit rating agencies could impact the Group's access to capital and materially adversely affect the Group's business and financial condition.

A lowering of the Group's credit ratings could have material adverse consequences on the Group's business and future prospects and could:

- (a) limit the Group's ability to access debt markets, including for the purpose of refinancing the Group's existing debt;
- (b) cause the Group to refinance or issue debt with less favourable terms and conditions, which debt may require collateral and restrict, among other things, the Group's ability to pay distributions or repurchase shares;
- (c) increase certain fees under the Group's credit facilities and negatively impact current and prospective customers' willingness to transact business with the Group;
- (d) impose additional insurance, guarantee and collateral requirements;
- (e) limit the Group's access to bank and third-party guarantees, surety bonds and letters of credit; and
- (f) result in suppliers and financial institutions lowering or eliminating the level of credit provided through payment terms or intraday funding when dealing with the Group, thereby increasing the Group's cash-on-hand requirements, which would decrease the Group's ability to repay debt balances.

Any downgrades to the Group's credit ratings could result in a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.18 The tax laws of the countries in which the Group operates or changes thereto or to the Group's tax profile could result in a higher tax expense or a higher effective tax rate on its worldwide earnings.

The Group conducts its operations through various Subsidiaries in countries throughout the world. Tax laws, regulations and treaties can be complex and are subject to interpretation. Consequently, the Group is subject to changing tax laws, regulations and treaties in and between the countries in which the Group operates. The Group's income tax expense is based upon the tax laws in effect in various countries at the time that the expense was incurred. A change in these tax laws, regulations or treaties or in the interpretation thereof, or in the valuation of the Group's deferred tax assets, which is beyond the Group's control, could result in a materially higher tax expense or a higher effective tax rate on the Group's worldwide earnings. The tax implications of Brexit and the outcome of negotiations between the UK and other EU member states are not known as at the date of this document. Additionally, the Group's expansion into new jurisdictions could adversely affect the Group's tax profile and significantly increase the Group's future cash tax payments.

In addition, various national and local taxing authorities periodically examine the Group. Such examinations, including tax audits, may result in an assessment of additional taxes and other costs payable in relation to prior periods. Where challenged, the Group has appealed against these assessments as having no basis under the relevant tax legislation, but there is no assurance the Group will be successful in doing so. Many of the countries in which the Group operates are heavily reliant on the oil and gas sector for their revenues. As a result of the recent and prolonged decline in commodity prices, the tax authorities in some countries have become more active in pursuing tax audits and interpreting tax laws more aggressively.

2.19 The Group conducts its business within a strict environmental regime and may be exposed to potential liabilities and increased compliance costs.

The Group's operations are subject to increasingly stringent laws and regulations relating to environmental protection, including laws and regulations governing emissions into the air, discharge into waterways, and the generation, storage, handling treatment and disposal of waste materials. The Group incurs, and expects to continue to incur, capital and operating costs to comply with environmental laws and regulations. The technical requirements of environmental laws and regulations are becoming increasingly expensive, complex and stringent. Although customers continue to take primary responsibility for environmental pollution under the Group's contracts, customers may attempt to pass increasing liability on to contractors such as the Group over time as part of their risk management policies, and there can be no guarantee that the Group will successfully resist such changes. Further, natural or other disasters may result in an increase in environmental regulations and restrictions. These laws may provide for strict liability for damage to natural resources or threats to public health and safety. Strict liability can render a party liable for environmental damage whether or not negligence or fault on the part of that party can be shown and, if imposed by way of fine or penalty, is generally not something for which insurance can be procured. Certain environmental laws provide for joint and several strict liability for remediation of spills and releases of hazardous substances.

In addition, the governments of certain countries have been increasingly active in regulating and controlling the exploration for, and production of, oil and gas and other aspects of the oil and gas industries in their countries. Many governments favour, or effectively require, that drilling contracts be awarded to local contractors. These practices may result in inefficiencies or put the Group at a disadvantage when the Group bid for contracts against local competitors.

2.20 Climate change legislation or protests against fossil fuel extraction may have a material adverse effect on our industry.

Continued political attention to issues concerning climate change, the role of human activity in it and potential mitigation through regulation could have a material impact on the Group's business. International agreements, national and regional legislation, and regulatory measures to limit greenhouse emissions are currently in various stages of discussion or implementation. Like other oil and gas companies, given that the Group's operations involve emissions of greenhouse gases, these and other greenhouse gas emissions related laws, policies and regulations may result in substantial capital, compliance, operating and maintenance costs. The level of expenditure required to comply with these laws and regulations is difficult to accurately predict and will vary depending on, among other things, the laws enacted by particular countries. As such, climate change legislation and regulatory initiatives restricting emissions of greenhouse gases may materially adversely affect the Group's operations and increase its cost structure. Such legislation or regulatory initiatives could also have a material adverse effect by diminishing the demand for oil and gas, increasing the Group's cost structure or causing disruption to its operations by regulators.

In addition, the Group may be subject to activism from groups campaigning against fossil fuel extraction, which could affect its reputation, dissuade investors from investing in its business, persuade shareholders to sell their holdings, dissuade contractors from working with the Group, disrupt our campaigns or programs, induce our employees and/or directors to cease working or acting for the Group or otherwise negatively impact its business.

Additionally, some scientists have concluded that increasing concentrations of greenhouse gases in the Earth's atmosphere may produce climate changes that have significant physical effects, such as increased frequency and severity of storms, droughts, floods and other climatic events. The Group's offshore operations are at particular risk of severe climatic events and, if any events were to occur in the area where it has operations, they could have an adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

2.21 A decline in pension asset values may increase the Group's pension liability, which may adversely affect the Group's profitability.

Certain of the Group's employees participate in defined benefit pension plans. A decline in pension asset values or different actuarial assumptions or the application of purchase accounting may result in an increase in pension liability. Declines in interest rates, the market values of the securities held by the plans or certain other changes could adversely affect the status of the Group's plans and affect the level and timing of required contributions, thus increasing the Group's pension expense and reducing the Group's profitability. Any shortfall in the Group's retirement pension benefit scheme funding obligations may require additional funding.

Further, decisions made by the trustees of defined benefits pension schemes can impact on the funding requirements of the schemes.

2.22 The Group may be unable to attract and retain sufficiently skilled personnel to meet the Group's operational requirements.

The Group's ability to remain competitive depends on the Group's ability to employ highly skilled personnel. The Group's directors and senior management possess commercial, engineering, project management, legal and financial and administrative skills that are important to the operation of the Group's business. The Group's ability to successfully conduct the Group's business depends on the depth of experience of the Group's senior management and directors and their customer relationships. The Group has established succession planning measures aimed at ensuring the development of the Group's employees to provide successors, over time, for the Group's existing directors and senior managers. However, there can be no assurance that these measures will be successful or that the Group will be able to attract, develop or retain high-calibre directors and senior managers. The loss of or an extended interruption in the services of a substantial number of the Group's directors or senior managers, or the inability to attract or develop a new generation of senior management, could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, demand for engineers and other technical and management personnel is traditionally high and could exceed supply, particularly in the case of skilled and experienced engineers and field service personnel, such as the engineers employed by Bentec. This shortage is exacerbated by the reality of the current skilled workforce aging and not being fully replaced by younger entrants. The Group's recruitment efforts are further challenged by the remoteness of, or perceived dangers of traveling to, the various locations in which the Group operates, the paramount importance of recruiting staff who are capable of rigorously adhering to its high standards of safety, and the need to employ a specified percentage of local workers under nationalization programs in certain countries, which may be problematic if there is insufficient interest from local workers or such workers lack the requisite education, qualifications, skills and experience typically required for such positions. To the extent that the demand for drilling services and the size of the worldwide rig fleet increases, shortages of qualified personnel could arise, leading to higher wages and preventing the Group from attracting qualified personnel in a cost-effective manner. All of the Group's offshore platform contracts and certain of its Land Drilling contracts provide for an annual review of key terms and allow the Group to pass on certain costs, such as increases in wages and insurance, to customers. However, there is no assurance that all, or any, of such increases in wages as a result of a labour shortage or wage inflation can be passed on to the Group's customers. If the Group is unable to pass on such costs to its customers, the Group may be unable to retain adequate skilled personnel and the Group's results of operations would be adversely affected.

2.23 The Group's operations may be adversely affected by natural disasters and climatic conditions, as well as violence and social unrest, hazards inherent to the operation of oil and gas wells and other events outside of the Group's control. The Group could be subject to substantial liability claims, which may potentially exceed the Group's insurance coverage and contractual indemnity provisions.

Many of the Group's services are carried out in hazardous environments. The Group's operations may be adversely affected and severely disrupted by natural disasters or adverse weather conditions, such as cyclones, excessive rainfall, tropical storms or droughts, that may occur in those geographic areas in which the Group operates. The Group's offshore operations are subject to perils inherent in marine operations, including capsizing, grounding, collision and loss or damage from severe weather. In addition, damage to offshore rigs caused by high winds, turbulent seas or unstable sea bottom conditions could potentially force the Group to suspend operations for significant periods of time until the damage can be repaired.

The Group's international operations in certain countries are also subject to risks of terrorism, war, kidnappings, piracy, sabotage, social unrest, civil disturbances and other political events. The Group's oil facilities, shipyards, vessels, pipelines and oil and natural gas fields could be targets of future terrorist attacks, and the Group's rigs, installations or personnel could be targets of pirates, hijackers or criminal or terrorist actions. International companies and persons, such as the Group and its employees, may be singled out. Any such attacks could lead to, among other things, bodily injury or loss of life, rig, platform or other property damage and increased operational costs, including insurance costs. In addition, the security situation in Iraq remains volatile. Violence could have significant negative effects on the Group's operations by damaging the Group's equipment, shutting down or delaying production, forcing temporary or permanent withdrawal of employees and contractors from facilities or areas, or requiring private security. Any of these risks could result in damage to or destruction of drilling equipment, personal injury and property damage, suspension of operations or environmental damage. If the Group or its employees are the subject of attacks, kidnappings or other security threats, the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects in the relevant region could be adversely affected.

The Group's operations both on- and offshore are subject to hazards inherent in activities related to the operation of oil and natural gas wells, such as oil spills, blow-outs, reservoir damage, loss of production, loss of well control, punch through, craterings, and fires. An accident or service failure can cause personal injury, loss of life, damage to property, equipment or the environment, consequential losses or the suspension of operations, or possibly the termination of the contract. Furthermore, distance from the Group's principal locations can make it more difficult to implement and impress upon local workforces the Group's policies on matters such as health and safety, and can present challenges in the supervision of the Group's sub-contracted employees. While the Group strive to reduce the Group's accident and injury rates by implementing safety standards at the locations where the Group conduct the Group's operations, there can be no assurance that accidents will not occur in the future.

Furthermore, the Group may be liable for environmental damages, including resulting from the pollution of offshore waters. The Group's insurance and its contractual limitations on liability may not adequately protect the Group in all cases against liability for such events, including events involving pollution, or against direct and consequential losses resulting from business interruption. In addition, indemnities which the Group receives from customers may not be easily enforced and may be of limited value if the relevant customers do not have adequate resources. Moreover, the Group may not be able to maintain insurance at levels that the Group deem adequate or ensure that every contract contains adequate limitations on liabilities. There is no assurance that such insurance or indemnification agreements will adequately protect the Group against liability from all of the consequences of the hazards and risks described above. The occurrence of an event not fully insured or indemnified against, or the failure of a customer or insurer to meet its indemnification or insurance obligations, could result in substantial losses. In addition, there can be no assurance that insurance will be available to cover any or all of these risks, or, even if available, that insurance premiums or other costs will not rise significantly in the future, so as to make the cost of such insurance prohibitive. Any future damage caused by the Group's products or services that are not covered by insurance, are in excess of policy limits, are subject to substantial deductibles, or are not limited by contractual limitations of liability, could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.24 Compliance with labour, health and safety laws and other employment regulations could increase the Group's costs or restrict the Group's operations.

The Group's operations and properties are subject to regulation by various governmental entities and agencies, including in connection with ongoing compliance with existing laws and regulations concerning labour, health and safety, among others (including, most recently, policies relating to the Covid-19 Pandemic). For example, the Group's operations rely on maintaining a sufficient number of workers who are properly registered for work in the relevant geographic location and adequately trained in safety precautions, and therefore any delays in a governmental entity's ability to process visas, work permits, extensions and renewals or certify safety training courses can disrupt the Group's ability to adequately staff the Group's sites. If the Group is not able to obtain visas and work permits for the employees the Group needs for operating its rigs on a timely basis, the Group might not be able to perform the Group's obligations under the Group's drilling contracts, which could allow the Group's customers to cancel their contracts, adversely affecting the Group's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

In various countries the Group is also subject to nationalization programs which require the Group to hire a certain percentage of local personnel within a specified time period. In an employment market with a shortage of suitably trained staff, this may be difficult to achieve. The Group may not be able to hire and retain a sufficient number of skilled and experienced workers for wages, pensions and other benefits that the Group believes are commercially reasonable. In addition, a significant portion of the workers the Group employ in the Group's European operations are members of labour unions or otherwise subject to collective bargaining. Although the Group believes the Group presently have good relations with the Group's employees, the Group cannot guarantee that a work slowdown, a work stoppage or a strike will not occur in the future, and the Group cannot estimate the effect of any such work slowdown, work stoppage or strike on its overall performance. In addition, employees may strike for reasons unrelated to the Group's union arrangements. Any future work stoppage could, depending on the operations and the length of the work stoppage, have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial position and results of operations.

The technical requirements of employee labour, health and safety laws and regulations are becoming increasingly complex and stringent and it is therefore more difficult to ensure compliance. Legislation and regulations applicable to the Group's industry are evolving continuously, and the Group's ability to maintain satisfactory levels of compliance at all times may be uncertain and may incur significant costs. The level of compliance requirements continues to increase across the broad range of territories in which the Group operates, including the recent implementation of new legislation around modern slavery. In the near term, data privacy and protection rules are expected to become more onerous with large potential fines and other sanctions for non-compliance. In addition, health and safety laws are often unclear and contradictory, which makes it difficult for the Group to ensure compliance. The incurrence of material expenditures to comply with new and/or existing health and safety laws could restrict the Group's ability to grow and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Failure to deliver consistently high standards across all fields of operations could create risks for the Group, including legal action and reputational risks.

Regulatory authorities exercise considerable discretion in monitoring compliance and in interpreting and enforcing applicable laws and regulations. Future inspections by regulatory authorities may conclude that the Group has violated applicable laws or regulations. If the Group is unable to refute these conclusions or to remedy these violations, the regulatory authorities may impose fines, criminal and administrative penalties or severe sanctions, including compelling the Group to cease certain of the Group's business activities. The loss of profits could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.25 Complaints or litigation from customers and other third parties could adversely affect the Group's business.

The Group is currently, and may in the future become, involved in legal complaints or proceedings initiated by the Group's customers, employees and other third parties. These current or potential future proceedings, whether individually or in the aggregate, could involve substantial claims for damages or other payments, and, even if successfully disposed of without direct adverse financial effect, could adversely affect the Group's reputation and divert the Group's financial and management resources from more beneficial uses. If the Group were to be found liable under any such claims, its results of operations could be adversely affected.

Providing project management, engineering and construction services involves the risk of contractual and professional errors, omissions, warranty claims, infringements of third-party intellectual property and other liability claims, as well as negative publicity that may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The Group is involved in litigation, claims and disputes incidental to the Group's business, which at times involve claims for significant monetary amounts. The Group may not be able to maintain or obtain adequate insurance coverage at rates the Group consider reasonable or the Group may take the decision not to insure such risks. Even in the event coverage is obtained, claims may exceed such insurance coverage. The Group undertakes all reasonable steps to defend itself in such lawsuits. However, there can be no assurance as to the ultimate outcome of such lawsuits, in which case the Group could suffer material adverse consequences.

2.26 The Group could be adversely affected by violations of applicable anti-corruption laws.

The Group is an international business with operations in developing economies and in countries which are high on the Corruption Perceptions Index published by Transparency International. The Group is committed to doing business in accordance with the Group's own codes of ethics and with all applicable laws, including the Bribery Act and FCPA and similar worldwide anti-corruption laws that generally prohibit companies and their intermediaries from making, offering or authorizing improper payments to government officials, private individuals or companies for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business. The Group operates in several countries where compliance with anti-corruption laws may conflict with local customs and practices and are subject to the risk that the Group, the Group's affiliated entities or the Group's or their respective officers, directors, employees and agents may take actions determined to be in violation of such anti-corruption laws. Even though some of the Group's local agents, joint ventures with local operators or strategic partners may not themselves be subject to the Bribery Act, the FCPA or other anti-corruption laws to which the Group is subject, if the Group's agents or partners make improper payments in connection with the Group's work, the Group could be found liable for violation of such anti-corruption laws and could incur civil and criminal penalties and other sanctions, and such costs could adversely affect the Group's business, financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Violations of anti-corruption laws (either due to the Group's acts or its omissions) may result in criminal and civil sanctions and could subject the Group to other liabilities in the UK, the U.S. and elsewhere. Even allegations of such violations could disrupt the Group's business and result in a material adverse effect on the Group's business and operations. The Group has policies and procedures designed to assist the Group's compliance with applicable laws and regulations and have trained the Group's employees to comply with such laws and regulations, and to consider the policies, procedures and behaviour of third parties before entering into contracts with them. While the Group has a culture of compliance and have adequate systems of control, the Group seeks to continuously improve its systems of internal controls, to remedy any weaknesses the Group identify through appropriate corrective action depending on the circumstances, including additional training, improvement of internal controls and oversight and deployment of additional resources and to take appropriate action in case of any breach of its rules and procedures, which might include disciplinary measures, suspensions of employees and ultimately termination of such employees. There can be no assurance, however, that the Group's policies and procedures will be followed at all times or effectively detect and prevent violations of the applicable laws by one or more of the Group's employees, consultants, agents or partners and, as a result, the Group could be subject to penalties and adverse consequences on the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations if the Group fail to prevent any such violations. Finally, the Group may be subject to competitive disadvantages to the extent that the Group's competitors are able to secure business, licenses or other preferential treatment by making payments to government officials and others in positions of influence or using other methods that UK, U.S. and foreign laws and regulations and the Group's own policies prohibit the Group from using.

2.27 Damage to the Group's reputation and business relationships may adversely affect the Group's business beyond any monetary liability.

The Group's business depends on the Group's customer goodwill, the Group's reputation and on maintaining good relationships with the Group's customers, joint venture partners, employees and regulators. Any circumstances which publicly damage the Group's goodwill, injure the Group's reputation or damage the Group's business relationships may lead to a broader adverse effect on the Group's business and prospects by way of loss of business, goodwill, customers, joint venture partners and employees than solely the monetary liability arising directly from the damaging events.

3. Risk Factors relating to the New Notes

The following are some of the material risks in respect of the New Notes.

3.1 The Restructured Group may not have enough cash available to service its debt.

The Restructured Group's ability to make scheduled payments on the New Notes and its other indebtedness, or to refinance its debt, depends on its future operating and financial performance, which will be affected by its ability to implement successfully, following the Restructuring, the Restructured Group's business strategy as well as general economic, financial, competitive, regulatory, technical and other factors beyond its control.

If, in the future, the Restructured Group cannot generate sufficient cash to meet its debt service requirements, the Restructured Group may, among other things, need to refinance all or a portion of its debt, including the New Notes, obtain additional financing, delay planned capital expenditures or sell material assets. The Restructured Group's ability to pay and refinance its debt or its ability to fund its working capital and capital expenditures is heavily reliant on the Restructured Group's future operating performance and the Restructured Group's ability to generate a sufficient cash flow. The Restructured Group may be unable to achieve any refinancing on a timely basis or on satisfactory terms. The Group may also be limited in its ability to pursue refinancing alternatives by the terms and conditions of its existing debt agreements. The Group's inability to refinance its debt obligations on or prior to their maturity on favourable terms or at all could have a material adverse effect on its ability to service and repay the New Notes.

If the Restructured Group is not able to refinance its debt as necessary, obtain additional financing or sell assets on commercially reasonable terms or at all, the Restructured Group may not be able to satisfy its obligations with respect to its debt, including the New Notes. In that event, borrowings under other debt agreements or instruments that contain cross-default or cross-acceleration provisions may become payable on demand, and the Restructured Group may not have sufficient funds to repay all of the Restructured Group's debts, including the New Notes. In addition, any of the members of the Group may, subject to the restrictions in the New Intercreditor Agreement, distribute a significant amount of cash and cash equivalents to its shareholders, use the cash to make acquisitions or enter into transactions that may be adverse to the interests of New Noteholders or otherwise decrease the amount of cash on their balance sheets, which would adversely affect the ability of the Company to repay the interest or principal of the New Notes.

3.2 The Restructured Group's indebtedness may make it difficult for it to service the Group's debt and to operate the Group's business.

Although the Restructuring will significantly deleverage the Group's capital structure, substantial indebtedness will continue for the foreseeable future. The Group's substantial indebtedness may have material negative consequences for Scheme Creditors, including:

- making it more difficult for the Group to satisfy its obligations with respect to its debt and other Liabilities;
- requiring that a substantial portion of the cash flow from operations of the Group's operating Subsidiaries be dedicated to debt service obligations, reducing the availability of cash flow to fund internal growth through working capital and capital expenditures and for other general corporate purposes;
- increasing the Group's vulnerability to economic downturns in its industry;
- exposing the Group to interest rate increases;
- placing the Group at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors that have less debt in relation to cash flow;
- limiting the Group's flexibility in planning for or reacting to changes in the Group's business and its industry;
- restricting the Group from pursuing strategic acquisitions or exploiting certain business opportunities;
- limiting, among other things, the Group's ability to borrow additional funds or raise equity capital in the future and increasing the costs of such additional financings; and
- limiting the Group's ability to pay dividends.

In the worst case, an actual or impending inability to pay debts as they become due and payable could result in the insolvency of the Group. Certain assets, including certain shares of the members of the Group and material bank accounts, have been pledged to secure the New Notes and the New Bilateral Facilities. On any insolvency, these assets would be subject to foreclosure and liquidation for the benefit of the secured creditors and the priority in which amounts (if any) may be available for distribution to Scheme Creditors is not certain.

In addition, the New Notes Indenture, the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and the New Intercreditor Agreement contain restrictions that substantially limit the Group's financial and operational flexibility and that of its Subsidiaries. In particular, these agreements place limits on the ability to incur additional indebtedness, grant security interests to third persons, dispose of material assets, undertake organisational measures such as mergers, changes of corporate form, joint ventures or similar transactions, and enter into transactions with related parties. If an event treated as a change of control, as defined in the New Notes Indenture, the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and the New Intercreditor Agreement, occurs at any time, the Group may be required to repurchase the New Notes or repay outstanding drawings under the New Bilateral Facilities.

3.3 Despite the Restructured Group's current leverage, the Restructured Group may be able to incur more debt in the future, which could further exacerbate the risks of its leverage.

The Restructured Group may need to incur additional debt in the future to complete acquisitions or capital projects or for working capital purposes. Although the agreements governing the New Notes impose limits on the Restructured Group's ability to incur debt, these agreements permit the incurrence of additional debt if the Restructured Group satisfies certain conditions. The Restructured Group may also incur substantial additional debt that could mature prior to the New Notes, and which may be secured by liens on its assets, including the collateral that secures the New Notes. The incremental debt which the Restructured Group may be able to incur under the New Notes may rank pari passu or, in certain circumstances, senior to and share security with the New Notes. In particular, the New Notes Indenture will permit the Company to secure debt other than the New Notes with certain assets that will not secure the New Notes. If the Restructured Group and its Subsidiaries incur additional debt, the risks related to being in a highly leveraged group that the Restructured Group now faces, as described elsewhere in this Part 8 (Risk Factors), could intensify.

3.4 Certain Indebtedness may be designated as super senior indebtedness and would be entitled to be repaid with the proceeds of the collateral sold in any enforcement sale in priority to the New Notes and the New Noteholders will not control decisions regarding the collateral in certain circumstances.

Pursuant to the terms of the New Intercreditor Agreement, the New Bilateral Facilities will be secured on a super senior basis by the same collateral securing the New Notes and there may also be hedging facilities established that may be secured on a super senior basis. Upon enforcement of any of the New Security, the New Notes will rank behind the New Bilateral Facilities on the proceeds of enforcement. As such, in the event of an enforcement of the collateral, New Noteholders may not be able to recover on the collateral if the aggregate of the then outstanding New Total Super Liabilities is greater than the proceeds realised. Any proceeds from an enforcement sale of the collateral by any creditor will, after all Super Senior Liabilities (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement) have been discharged from such recoveries, be applied pro rata in repayment of the New Notes and any other obligations secured by the collateral which are permitted to rank pari passu with the New Notes.

In addition, the New Notes Indenture will permit the Restructured Group and its Subsidiaries to incur up to a capped amount of additional indebtedness under credit facilities that are permitted to be Super Senior Liabilities (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement) under the New Intercreditor Agreement (such cap exclusive of any hedging Liabilities incurred). For more information, see the form of the New Notes Indenture included in part 1 (New Notes Indenture) of schedule 2 (Key Restructuring Documents) to the Restructuring Implementation Deed (and appended to this Explanatory Statement at Part 1 (New Notes Indenture) of Appendix 4 (Key Restructuring Documents)).

In general, the facility agent under the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements, the New Noteholders and the agents under any permitted future senior secured debt, voting as provided below, will have, subject to certain restrictions, the ability to provide enforcement instructions to the New Security Agent to enforce the shared Pledged Assets. The New Intercreditor Agreement will provide that, where there is an inconsistency between enforcement instructions by the Majority Super Senior Creditors and the holders of more than 50% of Majority Senior Secured Creditors, the aggregate of the New Notes and all liabilities outstanding under any other indebtedness sharing the Pledged Assets and certain hedging obligations on a first ranking basis, the latter instructions will prevail. However, if and to the extent the obligations under the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and other Super Senior Liabilities (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement) have not been fully discharged within six months of the end of an initial consultation period, or no enforcement action has been taken within three months of such date, or an insolvency event (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement) occurs, the enforcement instructions provided by the Majority Super Senior Creditors will prevail. The lenders under the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and certain hedging counterparties may have interests that are different from the interests of the New Noteholders, and they may, subject to the terms of the New Intercreditor Agreement, elect to pursue their remedies under the New Security Documents at a time when it would be disadvantageous for the New Noteholders to do so.

These arrangements could be disadvantageous to the New Noteholders in a number of other respects. Other creditors not subject to the New Intercreditor Agreement could commence an enforcement action against the Restructured Group during such period, one or more of the Restructured Group members could seek protection under applicable bankruptcy laws, or the value of certain Pledged Assets could otherwise be impaired or reduced.

The New Intercreditor Agreement provides that the New Security Agent, who will serve as the common security agent for the New Notes and the Super Senior Liabilities (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement), will act only as provided for in the New Intercreditor Agreement. The New Intercreditor Agreement regulates the ability of the New Trustee or the New Noteholders to instruct the New Security Agent to take enforcement action. The New Security Agent is not required to take enforcement action unless instructed to do so by an Instructing Group (as defined in the New Intercreditor Agreement). Consequently, the rights of the New Noteholders to commence and control any enforcement action is restricted, as provided in the New Intercreditor Agreement.

3.5 Each of Alpha and its Restricted Subsidiaries is subject to restrictive debt covenants that may limit its ability to finance its future operations and capital needs and to pursue business opportunities and activities.

The New Notes Indenture and New Bilateral Facilities Agreements contain covenants that limit the ability of the Restructured Group and its Subsidiaries to take certain actions. These restrictions may limit the Restructured Group's ability to operate its businesses and may prohibit or limit its ability to enhance its operations or take advantage of potential business opportunities as they arise. The New Notes Indenture will restrict the Restructured Group's ability to:

- incur or guarantee additional indebtedness and issue certain preferred stock;
- make certain payments, including dividends or other distributions, with respect to the shares of such entity;
- create or incur certain liens;
- prepay or redeem subordinated debt or equity;
- make certain investments;
- sell, lease or transfer certain assets, including stock of the Restricted Subsidiaries;

- create encumbrances or restrictions on the payment of dividends or other distributions, loans or advances to, and on the transfer of, assets to such entity;
- engage in certain transactions with Affiliates;
- enter into arrangements that restrict dividends or other payments to the Restructured Group;
- create Unrestricted Subsidiaries;
- enter into transactions with Affiliates;
- consolidate, merge or transfer all or substantially all of the Group's assets and the assets of the Group's Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; and
- impair the security interest for the benefit of the New Noteholders.

All of these limitations are subject to exceptions and qualifications. These covenants could limit the Restructured Group's ability to finance its future operations and capital needs and its ability to pursue business opportunities and activities that may be in the Restructured Group's interest.

If the Restructured Group breaches any of these covenants, it may be in default under the New Notes Indenture. A significant portion or all of the Restructured Group's indebtedness may then become immediately due and payable. The Restructured Group may not have, or be able to obtain, sufficient funds to make these accelerated payments. In addition, any default under the New Notes Indenture could lead to an acceleration of debt under other debt instruments that contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions under any of the Restructured Group's other agreements governing the Restructured Group's debt. If the debt under the New Notes or other debt instruments is accelerated, the Restructured Group may not have sufficient cash to repay amounts due thereunder.

3.6 Certain covenants may be suspended upon the occurrence of a change in ratings.

The New Notes Indenture will provide that, if at any time following the Issue Date, the New Notes receive an Investment Grade Rating by at least two Rating Agencies and no default or event of default has occurred and is continuing, then beginning that day and continuing until such time that the New Notes are no longer assigned an Investment Grade Rating by at least two Rating Agencies, certain covenants will cease to be applicable to the New Notes. If these covenants were to cease to be applicable, the Issuer would be able to incur additional indebtedness or make payments, including dividends or investments, which may conflict with the interests of New Noteholders. There can be no assurance that the New Notes will ever achieve an investment grade rating or that any such rating will be maintained.

3.7 Under certain circumstances, following a tender offer or offer to purchase the New Notes, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem the New Notes of non-tendering holders.

If, pursuant to any tender offer or other offer to purchase all of the New Notes, holders of not less than 90% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding New Notes validly tender and do not withdraw such New Notes, the New Notes Indenture will permit the Issuer, at its option, to redeem the remaining outstanding New Notes at a price equal to that paid pursuant to such purchase or tender offer (excluding any early tender premium). As a consequence, the holders may be required to surrender the New Notes against their will at a price equivalent to the lowest price paid to tendering holders, including if such price is below par, and may not receive the return the holders expected to receive on the New Notes.

3.8 The New Notes, the New Notes Guarantees, and the New Security granted to the New Security Agent and any other transactions entered into by the Company and the Post-Restructuring Obligors, the obligations and transactions in connection with the New Intercreditor Agreement and any other obligations or transactions entered into at any time by the Company and any other member of the Restructured Group may be voidable, subordinated or limited in scope under laws governing fraudulent transfers and insolvency.

The Issuer's obligations under the New Notes are guaranteed by the Post-Restructuring Obligors and each of the New Notes Guarantees may be subject to review under the fraudulent transfer and conveyance laws of the relevant jurisdiction where such guarantors operate.

Under U.S. federal bankruptcy laws and comparable provisions of state fraudulent transfer laws, the issuance of the New Notes Guarantees by the Post-Restructuring Obligors could be voided, or claims in respect of such obligations could be subordinated to all of their other debts and other Liabilities, if, among other things, at the time of entering into the New Notes Guarantees, the Post-Restructuring Obligors had an actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud any present or future creditors, or received less than the reasonably equivalent value for the incurrence of such indebtedness and either:

- was insolvent or rendered insolvent by reason of such incurrence;
- was engaged in a business or transaction for which its remaining assets constituted unreasonably small capital;
- intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature; or
- made such transfer to or for the benefit of an insider, or incurred such obligation to or for the benefit of an insider, and not in the ordinary course of business.

In addition, any payment by a guarantor pursuant to the New Notes Guarantees could be voided and required to be returned to the guarantor, or to a fund for the benefit of the creditors of the guarantor.

The Restructured Group and each of its Restricted Subsidiaries, cannot assure Scheme Creditors which standard a court would apply in determining whether a guarantor was "insolvent" as of the date the New Notes Guarantees were issued, or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that a guarantor was insolvent on that date, or that a court would not determine, regardless of whether or not a guarantor was insolvent on the date its guarantee was issued, that payments to New Noteholders constituted fraudulent transfers on other grounds.

Under German insolvency law, guarantees and/or security interests provided by a German guarantor may be subject to avoidance laws in an insolvency proceeding over the assets of the relevant German guarantor. Specific hardening periods range from one month up to ten years in a worst-case scenario and are very fact sensitive. There are potential mitigants, in particular reliance on the exception for "cash-transactions". However, a "cash-transaction" is only possible where "fresh money" has been provided in exchange of a German guarantor granting guarantees and/or security interests of adequate value for such "fresh money" within a period usually not exceeding two weeks up to 30 days, depending on the type of security interest. The provision of guarantees and/or security interests by a German guarantor for existing debt (instead of "fresh money") can significantly increase avoidance risks. An insolvency administrator (Insolvenzverwalter) or custodian (Sachwalter) or self-administrator (Eigenverwalter) could potentially argue that the New Notes are in fact a refinancing of pre-existing debt and thus may not qualify as "fresh-money" in the sense of the exception for "cash-transactions". Guarantees and/or security interests could therefore potentially be treated in hindsight as a gratuitous transaction (Schenkungsanfechtung) with an applicable hardening period of four years.

In addition, providing security for shareholder loans or comparable shareholder claims is subject to potential German law avoidance with a ten-year hardening period. The definition of "comparable shareholder claims" is wide and captures various kinds of instruments with a financing character, e.g., the deferral of non-shareholder-loan claims over a period of usually more than three months, or shareholder loans provided by indirect shareholders or other members of the Group controlled by a direct or indirect shareholder. Should such claims also be secured by guarantees and/or security interests provided by a German guarantor without adequate protective measures, the guarantee or security interest as a whole could be infected by such shareholder avoidance risks. In addition, New Noteholders who are also direct or indirect shareholders of a German guarantor holding at least more than 10% of the relevant share capital (unless they are managing shareholders; in such case the 10% exception does not apply) generally qualify as shareholders and thereby infect the relevant guarantees and/or security interests. These risks can be mitigated to a certain extent if the relevant New Noteholders have acquired their shares in a qualifying rescue attempt (zum Zwecke der Sanierung). In order to qualify, the acquisition of shares must have been made while Alpha and/or the relevant German guarantor were in a state of (imminent) illiquidity ((drohende) Zahlungsunfähigkeit) or over-indebtedness (Überschuldung). This privilege automatically ceases once the rescue has been sustained (bis zur nachhaltigen Sanierung).

Furthermore, certain German law governed security interests may only be enforced (verwertet) in an insolvency proceeding over the assets of such German guarantor by an insolvency administrator or custodian (Sachwalter) or self-administrator (Eigenverwalter). This refers in particular to Pledged Assets which is in possession of one of the aforementioned persons at the time of the opening of insolvency proceedings.

Under Russian insolvency law, creditors are allowed with "claims of a similar nature", to agree between themselves on the order in which their claims will be discharged, inter alia allowing claims to be satisfied otherwise than on a pro rata basis. A creditor that recovers more than it is entitled to under the terms of an intercreditor agreement must turn over the excess to the other creditors, but the recovering creditor is subrogated to the rights of the creditors with which it shared the excess. The subrogation right applies whether the recovering creditor received the excess amount by breaching the intercreditor agreement itself or the debtor decided to prefer that particular creditor. The law is silent over whether these rules can be contracted out of by agreement between the parties.

Court practice on the enforcement of intercreditor agreements in Russian courts is limited, especially in the context of claims arising under guarantees. Moreover, the concept of contractual subordination or similar intercreditor arrangements is not recognised under Russian bankruptcy legislation. Accordingly, a Russian bankruptcy administrator may not give effect to a subordination agreement entered into by a Russian debtor.

3.9 Enforcement of security interest across multiple jurisdictions may be difficult and the New Notes Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations on enforcement and may be limited by applicable laws or subject to certain defences that may limit their validity and enforceability.

The rights of New Noteholders, the New Notes Guarantees and the Pledged Assets may be subject to the insolvency and administrative laws of several jurisdictions, and the holders may not be able to effectively enforce their rights in such complex, multiple bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings. The New Notes Guarantees provide the New Noteholders with a direct claim against the relevant guarantor. However, the New Notes Indenture will provide that the New Notes Guarantees will be limited to the maximum amount that can be guaranteed by the relevant guarantors without rendering the guarantee voidable or otherwise ineffective under local law, and enforcement of the guarantee would be subject to certain generally available defences. These laws and defences include those that relate to corporate benefit, fraudulent conveyance or transfer, voidable preference, financial assistance, corporate purpose, capital maintenance or similar laws, regulations or defences affecting the rights of creditors generally.

With regards to the German Guarantors the included guarantee and security limitation language may significantly reduce the value of the relevant guarantees and/or security interests which were provided upstream and where the relevant Guarantor is incorporated as a limited liability company (GmbH) or partnership with a limited liability company acting as general partner (GmbH & Co. KG) and which has suffered a "capital impairment" (Unterbilanz). In case of a Group-wide insolvency scenario also affecting the German Guarantors, a "capital impairment" is very likely to occur. In such a scenario, guarantees and/or security interests may no longer be enforced by the New Security Agent. There are various exceptions to the limitation language, e.g., where money has been on-lent or in case of profit and loss pooling agreements that remain in place between the relevant Post-Restructuring Obligor and the Company. However, the value of such exceptions may be questioned by an insolvency officeholder in an insolvency proceeding.

3.10 The value of the assets securing the New Notes may not be sufficient to satisfy the obligations under the New Notes, and the assets securing the New Notes may be reduced or diluted under certain circumstances.

The New Notes will be secured by first-priority security interests on all of the Pledged Assets. The Pledged Assets also secure the New Bilateral Facilities but any Liabilities in respect of obligations under the New Notes will rank behind the New Bilateral Facilities with respect to any proceeds received upon any enforcement action over any New Security. The New Security may also secure additional debt to the extent permitted by the terms of the New Notes Indenture. New Noteholders' rights to the New Security would be diluted by any increase in the debt secured by the New Security or a reduction of the New Security securing them.

The value of the New Security and the amount to be received upon a sale of such New Security will depend upon many factors, including, among others, the ability to sell the New Security in an orderly sale, macroeconomic conditions at the time of sale, the availability of buyers and other factors. The book value of the New Security should not be relied on as a measure of realisable value for such assets. Portions of the New Security may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. To the extent that holders of other secured debt or third parties enjoy liens (including statutory liens), whether or not permitted by the New Notes Indenture, such holders or third parties may have rights and remedies with respect to the New Security securing the New Notes that, if exercised, could reduce the proceeds available to satisfy the obligations under the New Notes. In the event of a foreclosure, liquidation, bankruptcy, the enforcement of the security or similar Proceeding, there can be no assurance as to whether the proceeds from any sale or liquidation or enforcement of the security will be sufficient to discharge the obligations due under the New Notes Indenture.

For subordination risks relating to shareholder loan or comparable shareholder claims in Germany, see paragraph 3.8 above.

3.11 It may be difficult to realise the value of the Pledged Assets.

The Pledged Assets will be subject to exceptions, defects, encumbrances, liens and other imperfections permitted under the Indenture and the terms of the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements, whether on or after the date the New Notes are first issued. The existence of such exceptions, defects, encumbrances, liens and other imperfections could adversely affect the value of the Pledged Assets, as well as the ability of the New Security Agent to realise or foreclose on such Pledged Assets. Furthermore, the ranking of security interests can be affected by a variety of factors, including the timely satisfaction of perfection requirements (including registration requirements), statutory liens or re-characterization under the laws of certain jurisdictions.

The Pledged Assets may be subject to practical problems generally associated with the realization of security interests in Pledged Assets. For example, it may be difficult for the New Security Agent to sell the Group's assets in an enforcement scenario. The New Security Agent may also need to obtain the consent of a third party to enforce a security interest.

The New Security Agent may not be able to obtain any such consent. In addition, the consents of any third parties may not be given, when required, to facilitate a foreclosure on such assets. In particular, to the extent that any other first priority and pre-existing security interests permitted under the Indenture and the terms of the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and other rights encumber the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees, these parties may have or may exercise rights and remedies with respect to the Pledged Assets. Accordingly, the New Security Agent may not have the ability to foreclose upon those assets, and the value of the Pledged Assets may significantly decrease.

3.12 Rights of the New Noteholders in the Pledged Assets may be adversely affected by the failure to perfect security interests in the Pledged Assets.

Applicable law may require that a security interest in certain assets can only be properly perfected and its priority retained through certain actions undertaken by the secured party. The liens on the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees may not be perfected with respect to the claims of the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees if the Company, any other relevant Post-Restructuring Obligor, or the New Security Agent, fail or are unable to take the actions required to perfect any of these liens. Such failure may result in the invalidity of the relevant security interest in the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes or adversely affect the priority of such security interest in favour of the New Notes against third parties, including a trustee in bankruptcy and other creditors who claim a security interest in the same Pledged Assets. In addition, applicable law may require that certain property and rights acquired after the grant of a general security interest can only be perfected at the time such property and rights are acquired and identified. There can be no assurance that the New Security Agent will monitor, or that the Group will inform the New Security Agent of, the future acquisition of property and rights that constitute Pledged Assets, and that the necessary action will be taken to properly perfect the security interest in such after-acquired Pledged Assets. Neither the New Trustee nor the New Security Agent has any obligation to monitor the acquisition of additional property or rights that constitute Pledged Assets or the perfection of any security interest therein. Such failure may result in the loss of the security interest in the Pledged Assets or the priority of the security interest in favour of the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees against third parties.

Additionally, the New Notes Indenture and the New Security Documents entered into in connection with the New Notes will not require us to take a number of actions that might improve the perfection or priority of the security interests of the New Security Agent in the Pledged Assets. To the extent that the security interests created by the security documents with respect to any Pledged Assets are not perfected, the New Security Agent's rights will be equal to the rights of general unsecured creditors in the event of a liquidation, foreclosure, bankruptcy, reorganisation or similar Proceeding.

3.13 The granting of the security interests in the Pledged Assets may create or restart hardening periods.

The granting of security interests to secure the New Notes may create hardening periods for such security interests. The granting of security interests to secure future indebtedness that is permitted to be secured by the Pledged Assets may restart or reopen such hardening periods, in particular as the New Notes Indenture will permit the release and retaking of security granted in favour of the New Notes in certain circumstances, including in connection with the incurrence of other future indebtedness. The applicable hardening period for these new security interests can run from the moment each new security interest has been granted, perfected or recreated. At each time, if the security interest granted, perfected or recreated were to be enforced before the end of the respective hardening period, it may be declared void or ineffective and it may not be possible to enforce it in an insolvency scenario of the relevant security provider. If the grantor of such security interest were to become subject to a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up Proceeding after the Scheme Effective Time, any security interest in the Pledged Assets delivered after the Scheme Effective Time would face a greater risk than security interests in place on the Scheme Effective Time of being avoided by the grantor or by its trustee, receiver, liquidator, administrator or similar authority, or otherwise set aside by a court, as a preference under insolvency law, in each case depending on the relevant length of the applicable hardening period. To the extent that the grant of any security interest is voided, New Noteholders would lose the benefit of the security interest.

3.14 There are circumstances other than repayment or discharge of the New Notes under which the Pledged Assets and the New Notes Guarantees securing the New Notes may be released automatically.

Under the New Notes Indenture, the Pledged Assets and New Notes Guarantees may be released automatically under certain circumstances as provided in Section 10.02 “Release of Collateral” and Section 11.07 “Releases” of the New Notes Indenture.

Under applicable law, security may automatically be released upon a transfer or other dealing with the relevant Pledged Assets. In addition, under various circumstances, the New Notes Guarantees may be released.

3.15 The New Notes will be structurally subordinated to the Liabilities of Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries.

Some, but not all, of the members of the Restructured Group will guarantee the New Notes. Generally, holders of indebtedness of, and trade creditors of, Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, including lenders under bank financing agreements, are entitled to payments of their claims from the assets of such Subsidiaries before these assets are made available for distribution to any guarantor, as direct or indirect shareholders.

Accordingly, in the event that any of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries becomes insolvent, liquidates or otherwise reorganises:

- the creditors of New Notes Guarantees will have no right to proceed against such Subsidiary's assets; and
- creditors of such Non-Guarantor Subsidiary, including trade creditors, will generally be entitled to payment in full from the sale or other disposal of the assets of such Subsidiary before any guarantor, as direct or indirect shareholder, will be entitled to receive any distributions from such Subsidiary.

As such, the New Notes and each New Notes Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to trade creditors, creditors under certain ancillary facilities and any preferred stockholders of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries. As of 31 August 2020, Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries had USD 6.3 million of indebtedness outstanding, which represented approximately 0.36% of total financial indebtedness of the Group.

3.16 The security interests in the Pledged Assets will be granted to the New Security Agent rather than directly to the New Noteholders. The ability of the New Security Agent to enforce certain of the Pledged Assets may be restricted by local law.

The security interests in the Pledged Assets that will secure the obligations of the Issuer under the New Notes and the obligations of the Post-Restructuring Obligors under the New Notes Guarantees will not be granted directly to the New Noteholders but will be granted only in favour of the New Security Agent. The New Security Agent will accede to the New Intercreditor Agreement and will be party to the New Intercreditor Agreement with among others, the New Security Agent, and representatives of the other indebtedness secured by the Pledged Assets (including the New Notes). Other creditors may become parties to the New Intercreditor Agreement in the future. Among other things, the New Intercreditor Agreement governs the enforcement of the New Security Documents, the sharing in any recoveries from such enforcement and the release of the Pledged Assets by the New Security Agent. As a consequence, New Noteholders will not have direct security interests and will not be entitled to take enforcement action in respect of the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes, except through the New Security Agent, who will follow the terms under the New Intercreditor Agreement.

The ability of the New Security Agent to enforce the security interests in the Pledged Assets is subject to mandatory provisions of the laws of Germany and each other jurisdiction in which security over Pledged Assets is taken. In several jurisdictions, including Germany, certain types of security are accessory (akzessorisch) to the obligations they secure and, therefore, the security interests may only be constituted for the benefit of the creditors of the secured obligations. In order to grant pledges over the Pledged Assets to the New Security Agent under German law (and any other applicable law with similar requirements), it is necessary that the New Security Agent holds its own so called "Parallel Debt" claim. The New Intercreditor Agreement provides for the creation of such Parallel Debt claim in favour of the New Security Agent mirroring the Principal Obligations. Any payment in respect of the Principal Obligations shall discharge the corresponding Parallel Debt and any payment in respect of the Parallel Debt shall discharge the corresponding Principal Obligations. Although the New Security Agent will have, pursuant to the Parallel Debt, a claim against the Issuer and the Post-Restructuring Obligors for the full principal amount of the New Notes, New Noteholders bear some risks associated with a possible insolvency or bankruptcy of the New Security Agent and the recognition of the English law governed Parallel Debt in particular in Germany.

In addition, there is no assurance that such a structure will be effective before courts in the governing law jurisdictions of the New Security Documents as there are no published court decisions or other guidance as to its efficacy, and therefore the ability of the New Security Agent to enforce the Pledged Assets may be restricted. To the extent that the security interests in the Pledged Assets created under the Parallel Debt construct are successfully challenged by other parties, the New Noteholders will not receive any proceeds from an enforcement of such security interests.

3.17 The Notes Guarantees and the security interests over the Pledged Assets, including future security interests permitted by the New Notes Indenture and actually granted, will be subject to certain limitations on enforcement and may be limited by applicable laws or subject to certain defences that may limit their validity and enforceability.

The Issuer and the Post-Restructuring Obligors are incorporated or organised, as applicable, under the laws of England and Wales, Germany, Norway, Scotland, the Netherlands, Russia, Oman and Saudi Arabia. Although laws differ among these jurisdictions, in general, applicable fraudulent transfer and conveyance laws, equitable principles and insolvency laws and limitations on the enforceability of judgments obtained in courts in such jurisdictions could limit the enforceability of the New Notes Guarantees and the Pledged Assets against a Post-Restructuring Obligor.

Enforcement of any of the New Notes Guarantees against any Post-Restructuring Obligor will be subject to certain defences available to Post-Restructuring Obligors in the relevant jurisdiction. Although laws differ among these jurisdictions, these laws and defences generally include those that relate to corporate purpose or benefit, fraudulent conveyance or transfer, voidable preference, insolvency or bankruptcy challenges, financial assistance, preservation of share capital, thin capitalisation, capital maintenance or similar laws, regulations or defences affecting the rights of creditors generally. If one or more of these laws and defences are applicable, a Post-Restructuring Obligor may have no liability or decreased liability under its New Notes Guarantee depending on the amounts of its other obligations and applicable law. Limitations on the enforceability of judgments obtained in New York courts in such jurisdictions could limit the enforceability of any New Notes Guarantee against any Post-Restructuring Obligor.

Although laws differ in various jurisdictions, in general, under fraudulent conveyance and other laws, a court could subordinate, reduce or void the New Notes Guarantees or the security interests in the Pledged Assets and, if payment had already been made under a Guarantee or the relevant security interests, require that the recipient return the payment to the relevant Post-Restructuring Obligor or the relevant security provider, if the court found that:

- the relevant New Notes Guarantee was incurred or security interest was created with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud current or future creditors or shareholders of the Post-Restructuring Obligors or the relevant security providers with a desire to prefer some creditors over others or the relevant obligor was insolvent when creating the security interest or, in certain jurisdictions, if the recipient was aware that the relevant obligor was insolvent when it granted the relevant New Notes Guarantee or created the relevant security interest;
- the Post-Restructuring Obligor or the relevant security provider did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for the relevant New Notes Guarantee or the creation of the relevant security interest and the Post-Restructuring Obligor or the relevant security provider was: (i) insolvent or rendered insolvent because of the relevant New Notes Guarantee or the creation of the security interest or subsequently became insolvent for other reasons; (ii) undercapitalised or became undercapitalised because of the relevant New Notes Guarantee or the relevant security interests; or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, indebtedness beyond its ability to pay at maturity or create an imbalance between the other financial burdens assumed by the Post-Restructuring Obligors or the relevant security provider;
- the relevant New Notes Guarantees or the relevant security interests were held to exceed the corporate objects of such obligor or the credit lines which effectively benefit such obligor or were held not to be in the best interests or for the corporate benefit of the relevant obligor;
- the amount paid or payable under the relevant New Notes Guarantee was in excess of the maximum amount permitted under applicable law;
- the relevant security interest securing a third party's debt was not approved by the relevant corporate body; or
- a German guarantor incorporated as a limited liability company (GmbH) or partnership with a limited liability company acting as general partner (GmbH & Co. KG) and which has suffered a "capital impairment" (Unterbilanz).

The measures of insolvency for purposes of fraudulent transfer laws vary depending upon applicable governing law. Generally, an entity would be considered insolvent if, at the time it incurred indebtedness:

- the sum of its debts, including contingent liabilities, is greater than the fair value of all its assets;
- the present fair saleable value of its assets is less than the amount required to pay the probable liability on its existing debts and liabilities, including contingent and prospective liabilities, as they become due; or
- it cannot pay its debts as they become due.

The Restructured Group cannot assure the holders which standard a court would apply in determining whether a Post-Restructuring Obligor was "insolvent" at the relevant time or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that a Post-Restructuring Obligor was insolvent on that date, or that a court would not determine, regardless of whether or not a Post-Restructuring Obligor was insolvent on the date its New Notes Guarantee was issued, that payments to New Noteholders constituted preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances on other grounds.

The liability of each Post-Restructuring Obligor under its New Notes Guarantee will be limited to the amount that will result in such New Notes Guarantee not constituting a preference, fraudulent conveyance or improper corporate distribution or otherwise being set aside.

However, there can be no assurance as to what standard a court will apply in making a determination of the maximum liability of each Post-Restructuring Obligor. There is a possibility that the entire New Notes Guarantee may be set aside, in which case the entire liability may be extinguished.

If a court decided that a New Notes Guarantee was a preference, fraudulent transfer or conveyance and voided such New Notes Guarantee, or held it unenforceable for any other reason, the holders may cease to have any claim in respect of the relevant Post-Restructuring Obligor and would be a creditor solely of the Issuer and, if applicable, of any other Post-Restructuring Obligor under the relevant New Notes Guarantee which has not been declared void. In the event that any New Notes Guarantee is invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, or to the extent the agreed limitation of the New Notes Guarantee obligations apply, the New Notes would be effectively subordinated to all liabilities of the applicable Post-Restructuring Obligor, and if the Restructured Group cannot satisfy its obligations under the New Notes, or any New Notes Guarantee is found to be a preference, fraudulent transfer or conveyance or is otherwise set aside, the Restructured Group cannot assure the holders that it can ever repay in full any amounts outstanding under the New Notes, or that in turn, the Issuer can ever repay in full any amounts outstanding under the New Notes.

In many jurisdictions those limitation languages have not been tested in court and it is uncertain whether, in the event of violation of capital maintenance or similar rules, a security interest or a New Notes Guarantee will be null and void altogether or only in part (i.e., to the extent it is not compliant with capital maintenance or similar rules). Irrespective thereof, the application of such limitation language may result in a security interest or a New Notes Guarantee having a value of zero because of insufficient profits or assets of the respective Post-Restructuring Obligor.

If a court were to find that the issuance of a New Notes Guarantee or the granting of security interests over the Pledged Assets was a fraudulent conveyance or held it unenforceable for any other reason, the court could hold that the payment obligations under the New Notes or such New Notes Guarantee are ineffective, or require New Noteholders to repay any amounts received with respect to the New Notes funded by any payments on the New Notes that are guaranteed by such New Notes Guarantee or secured by such Pledged Assets.

In the event of a finding that a fraudulent conveyance occurred in respect of the New Notes Guarantee or the Pledged Assets, New Noteholders may cease to have any indirect claim in respect of the relevant Post-Restructuring Obligor and would be a creditor solely of the Issuer and indirectly, if applicable, of the other Post-Restructuring Obligors under any New Notes Guarantees which have not been declared void.

Additionally, any future granting of security over the Pledged Assets in favour of the New Security Agent, including pursuant to security documents delivered after the date of the New Notes Indenture, might be voidable by the pledgor (as debtor-in-possession) or by its trustee in bankruptcy if certain events or circumstances exist or occur, including, among others, if the pledgor is insolvent at the time of granting of security, the security interest permits New Noteholders to receive, directly or indirectly, a greater recovery than if the security interest had not been given and a bankruptcy proceeding in respect of the security grantor is commenced within certain number of days (as required under applicable law of the respective jurisdictions) following the grant of the relevant security interest, or in certain circumstances, a longer period.

In addition, under the terms of the New Notes Indenture, the Restructured Group will be permitted in the future to incur additional indebtedness and other obligations that may share in the security interest under the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes. The granting of new security interests may require the releasing and retaking of security or otherwise create new hardening periods in certain jurisdictions. The applicable hardening period for these new security interests will run from the moment each new security interest has been granted or perfected. At each time, if the security interest granted or recreated were to be enforced before the end of the respective hardening period applicable in such jurisdiction, it may be declared void or ineffective and/or it may not be possible to enforce it.

Under Russian law, judgments rendered by a court in any jurisdiction outside the Russian Federation will be generally recognised by courts in the Russian Federation if an international treaty providing for the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil cases exists between the Russian Federation and the country where the judgment is rendered and/or a federal law is adopted in the Russian Federation that provides for the recognition and enforcement of foreign court judgments.

No such treaty for the reciprocal enforcement of foreign court judgments in civil and commercial matters exists between the Russian Federation and certain jurisdictions (including the United States and the United Kingdom), and no relevant federal law on enforcement of foreign court judgments has been adopted in the Russian Federation.

As a result, new proceedings may have to be brought in the Russian Federation in respect of a judgment already obtained in any such jurisdiction against the Russian Guarantor or its respective officers or directors. These limitations, as well as the general procedural grounds set out in Russian legislation for the refusal to recognise and enforce foreign court judgments in the Russian Federation, may significantly delay the enforcement of such judgments or deprive the Company, the Post-Restructuring Obligors or the New Noteholders of effective legal recourse for claims related to the investment in the New Notes.

In the absence of an applicable treaty, enforcement of a final judgment rendered by a foreign court may still be recognised by a Russian court on the basis of reciprocity, if courts of the country where the foreign judgment is rendered have previously enforced judgments issued by Russian courts. While Russian courts have recognised and enforced English court judgments on these grounds, the existence of reciprocity must be established at the time the recognition and enforcement of a foreign judgment is sought, and it is not possible to predict whether a Russian court will in the future recognise and enforce on the basis of reciprocity a judgment issued by a foreign court, including an English court. Even if an applicable international treaty is in effect or a foreign judgment might otherwise be recognised and enforced on the basis of reciprocity, the recognition and enforcement of a foreign judgment will in all events be subject to exceptions and limitations provided for in Russian law. For example, a Russian court may refuse to recognise or enforce a foreign judgment if its recognition or enforcement would contradict Russian public policy.

The New Notes Guarantee provided by the Russian Guarantors will provide for disputes, controversies and causes of action brought by any party thereto to be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the LCIA. The place of such arbitration shall be London, England. The Russian Federation and the United Kingdom are parties to the New York Convention. Consequently, Russian courts should generally recognise and enforce in the Russian Federation an arbitral award from an arbitral tribunal in the United Kingdom on the basis of the rules of the New York Convention (subject to qualifications provided for in the New York Convention and compliance with Russian procedural regulations and other procedures and requirements established by Russian legislation).

While Russian courts have, in many instances, recognised such awards, nevertheless, as a practical matter, their enforcement in Russia may be difficult or impossible. The enforcement of judgments and/or arbitral awards in the Russian Federation may be limited by statutes of limitation, lapse of time, and by laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, administration, arrangement, moratorium, reorganisation, or other laws relating to or affecting generally the enforcement of the rights of creditors, and claims may be or become subject to set-off or counterclaim.

The Arbitrazh Procedural Code of the Russian Federation, which sets out the procedure for the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards by Russian courts, and other Russian procedural legislation could change, and other grounds for Russian courts to refuse the recognition and enforcement of foreign courts' judgments and foreign arbitral awards could arise in the future. In practice, reliance upon international treaties may meet with resistance or a lack of understanding on the part of a Russian court or other officials, thereby introducing delay and unpredictability into the process of enforcing any foreign judgment or any foreign arbitral award in the Russian Federation. Furthermore, any arbitral award pursuant to arbitration proceedings in accordance with the LCIA Rules and the application of New York law to the relevant documents and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them may be limited by the mandatory provisions of Russian laws relating to the exclusive jurisdiction of Russian courts and the application of Russian laws with respect to bankruptcy, winding up or liquidation of Russian companies.

There can be no assurance that both a New York Court and an arbitral body would come to the same decision even if presented with the same facts and arguments or that the damages awarded from such decision would be similar. Further, procedural or evidentiary rules may differ, which could also affect the outcome of any such litigation. Finally, there can be no assurance that courts in Russia would treat such awards as final.

3.18 The value of the Pledged Assets may decrease because of obsolescence, impairment or certain casualty events.

The value of certain properties and assets serving as Pledged Assets may be adversely affected by depreciation and normal wear and tear or because of certain events that may cause damage to these properties. Although the New Notes Indenture, the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and the New Security Documents contain certain covenants in relation to the maintenance and preservation of assets and the Existing Indenture contains and the New Notes Indenture will contain, a covenant restricting impairment of security interests, the Issuer and the Post-Restructuring Obligors will not be required to improve the Pledged Assets. Any insurance policies carried by the Issuer or the Post-Restructuring Obligors are unlikely to cover all the events that may conceivably result in damage to the Pledged Assets.

3.19 The Pledged Assets is subject to casualty risks.

The Restructured Group intends to continue to maintain insurance or otherwise insure against hazards. There are, however, certain losses that may be either uninsurable or not economically insurable, in whole or in part. Insurance proceeds may not compensate us fully for the Restructured Group's losses. If there is a complete or partial loss of any of the Pledged Assets, the insurance proceeds may not be sufficient to satisfy all of the secured obligations, including the New Notes and the New Bilateral Facilities. In addition, even if there is sufficient insurance coverage, if there is a total or partial loss of certain Pledged Assets, there may be significant delays in obtaining replacement Pledged Assets.

3.20 The New Notes will be secured only to the extent of the value of the Pledged Assets that has been granted as security for the New Notes and other secured indebtedness may be secured by assets that do not secure the Notes.

The New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees will be secured by the Pledged Assets, which will secure the New Bilateral Facilities (and any guarantees thereof), and may also secure certain hedging obligations and certain additional indebtedness with "super senior" status on a first-priority basis. The Pledged Assets may also secure additional debt to the extent permitted by the New Notes Indenture and the New Intercreditor Agreement. Any holders' of the New Notes rights to the Pledged Assets may be diluted by the incurrence of any additional debt which is secured by the Pledged Assets or a reduction of the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes.

Not all of our assets secure the New Notes, and the New Notes Indenture allows the Restructured Group to secure certain future indebtedness permitted to be incurred with certain property and assets that do not secure the New Notes. If an event of default occurs and the obligations under the New Notes are accelerated, the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees will not benefit from the assets securing such secured debt and will rank equally with the holders of other unsecured indebtedness of Alpha and its Restricted Subsidiaries with respect to any property or assets excluded from the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes.

No appraisals of any of the Pledged Assets have been prepared by the Group or on the Group's behalf in connection with the Scheme, and the value of the Pledged Assets and the amount to be received upon an enforcement of such Pledged Assets will depend upon many factors, including, among others, the ability to sell the Pledged Assets in an orderly sale, economic conditions where operations are located and the availability of buyers. The book value of the Pledged Assets should not be relied on as a measure of realizable value for such assets. All or a portion of the Pledged Assets may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. Similarly, the Group cannot assure you that there will be a market for the sale of the Pledged Assets, or, if such a market exists, that there will not be a substantial delay in its liquidation. In addition, the share pledges of an entity may be of no value if that entity is subject to an insolvency or bankruptcy proceeding. If the proceeds of any sale of Pledged Assets are not sufficient to repay all amounts due on the New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees, the Scheme Creditors (to the extent not repaid from the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Assets) would have only an unsecured claim against the remaining assets of the relevant members of the Group.

While the New Notes Indenture creates certain obligations to provide additional New Notes Guarantees and grant additional security over assets, or a particular class of assets, whether as a result of granting liens in favour of other indebtedness or the acquisition or creation of future assets or Subsidiaries or otherwise, such obligations are subject to certain exceptions and qualifications pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles. The Agreed Security Principles set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement set out a number of limitations on the rights of the holders of the New Notes to be granted security or New Notes Guarantees in certain circumstances.

The operation of such Agreed Security Principles may result in, among other things, the amount recoverable under any Pledged Assets provided being limited or security not being granted over a particular type or class of assets. Accordingly, such Agreed Security Principles may affect the value of the security or New Notes Guarantees provided by the Issuer and any Guarantors of the New Notes.

3.21 The value of the Pledged Assets securing the New Notes may not be sufficient to secure post-petition interest in the United States.

In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution, reorganisation or similar proceeding against us in the United States, New Noteholders will only be entitled to post-petition interest under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code to the extent that the value of their security interest in the Pledged Assets is greater than their pre-bankruptcy claim. New Noteholders that have a security interest in Pledged Assets with a value equal or less than their pre-bankruptcy claim will not be entitled to post-petition interest under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. No appraisal of the fair market value of the Pledged Assets has been prepared in connection with this offering and therefore the value of the interest of New Noteholders in the Pledged Assets may not equal or exceed the principal amount of the New Notes.

3.22 The relevant New Notes Guarantees by certain Subsidiaries based in Norway and the security interests granted by such Subsidiaries are subject to challenge under Norwegian law.

Section 8-10 of the Acts restricts a Norwegian private or public limited liability company from providing financial assistance (including placing funds at disposal, granting loans or providing security or guarantees) in connection with the acquisition of its shares or the shares in its (direct or indirect) parent companies, unless the value of such financial assistance is within the company's distributable reserves and then, further, provided that satisfactory security for repayment has been established, the financial assistance is provided on ordinary business terms and principles and for fully paid shares. The practical restriction in respect of financial assistance referred to above applies irrespective of whether such parent company is a Norwegian or a foreign company, and there are no general exemptions available except for special cases of real property financing and employee share purchase programs. Before such financial assistance is provided, the board of directors of the company shall ensure that a credit check of the party or parties that receive assistance is carried out. Further, the board of directors' resolution to provide such assistance must be approved by the general meeting by the same majority as required for amendments to the company's articles of association.

In addition to the above general financial assistance restriction, section 8-7 of the Acts restricts a Norwegian limited liability company on a broader basis from granting credit to, or providing guarantees and security interests for the obligations of, its shareholders or closely related entities of a shareholder beyond its distributable reserves (free equity) and then, further, provided that satisfactory security for repayment (or for the payment of any recourse claim) has been established in favour of the relevant Norwegian limited liability company. However, section 8-7 of the Acts permits a Norwegian limited liability company to provide upstream loans, guarantees or security in favour of a legal entity which has decisive influence over such Norwegian Guarantor, as set out in section 1-3 of the Acts, or a Subsidiary of such legal entity, provided that the granting of any such loan, guarantee and/or security, as applicable, is made for the purpose of serving the Restructured Group's financial interests (foretaksgruppens økonomiske interesser). Therefore, the guarantees and security interests provided by a Norwegian limited liability company may not be valid and binding under Norwegian law if such guarantees or security interests are deemed to not serve the financial interests of the Restructured Group.

Due to the restriction under section 8-10 of the Acts, there is a risk that the New Notes Guarantees and security interests granted by the Group's Subsidiaries based in Norway will be ineffective to the extent these cover refinanced acquisition debt.

3.23 The insolvency laws of England and Wales, Germany, Norway, Scotland, the Netherlands, Russia, Oman and Saudi Arabia and other local insolvency laws may not be as favourable to the holders as the U.S. bankruptcy laws and may preclude New Noteholders from recovering payments due on the New Notes.

The Issuer is established under the laws of England and Wales, and certain of the Post-Restructuring Obligors are established under the laws of England and Wales, Germany, Norway, Scotland, the Netherlands, Russia, Oman and Saudi Arabia. Consequently, in the event of a bankruptcy or insolvency of the Issuer or any of the Post-Restructuring Obligors, insolvency proceedings with respect to the Issuer or the Post-Restructuring Obligors would most likely be based on and governed by the insolvency laws of the jurisdiction under which the relevant entity is established. The insolvency laws of England and Wales, Germany, Norway, Scotland, the Netherlands, Russia, Oman and Saudi Arabia may be less favourable to the holders' interests as creditors than the bankruptcy laws of the United States or another jurisdiction with which the holders may be familiar, in particular with respect to priority of creditors, ability to obtain post-petition interest and the duration of the insolvency proceedings.

The application of these laws, and any conflict between them, may limit the holders' ability to recover payments due on the New Notes to an extent exceeding the limitations arising under other insolvency laws.

3.24 New Noteholders may be unable to enforce judgments obtained in U.S. courts against the Issuer and Post-Restructuring Obligors.

The Issuer and the Post-Restructuring Obligors are companies incorporated outside the United States. Most of the Issuer's directors and executive officers and the directors and executive officers of the Post-Restructuring Obligors are not residents of the United States. Although the Issuer and the Post-Restructuring Obligors have submitted to the jurisdiction of certain New York courts in connection with any action under U.S. securities laws, the holders may be unable to effect service of process within the United States on the Issuer's directors and executive officers or the directors or executive officers of the Post-Restructuring Obligors. In addition, as most of the Issuer's and each Post-Restructuring Obligor's assets and those of their respective directors and executive officers are located outside of the United States, the holders may be unable to enforce against them judgments obtained in the U.S. courts predicated upon civil liability provisions of the federal securities laws of the United States.

3.25 The Issuer is a finance company with no revenue-generating operations of its own and will depend on cash from other members of the Restructured Group to be able to make payments on the New Notes.

The Issuer is a finance Subsidiary of the Restructured Group and was formed in order to offer and issue debt securities.

The Issuer does not conduct any business operations and, therefore, it has a limited ability to generate revenue. Further, the Issuer has limited assets and no Subsidiaries. Upon completion of the Restructuring, only significant assets of the Issuer will be its right to receive payments made to it under the proceeds to Abbot in connection with the New Notes. The Issuer's material liabilities will include the New Notes, the New Bilateral Facilities and any additional debt it may incur in the future. As such, the Issuer will be dependent upon payments from the relevant members of the Restructured Group to make any payments due on the New Notes. If one or more relevant members of the Restructured Group fails to make scheduled payments on the proceeds loans, it is not expected that the Issuer will have any other sources of funds that would allow it to make payments on its indebtedness.

The ability of the Restructured Group's Subsidiaries to make payments to Abbot to fund payments on the proceeds loans will depend upon their cash flows and earnings which, in turn, will be affected by all of the factors discussed in these. The payment of dividends and the making, or repayment, of loans and advances to the Company by its Subsidiaries are subject to various restrictions, including restrictions on certain intragroup payments (other than payments under proceeds loans) pursuant to the New Intercreditor Agreement, existing and future debt, including the Omani Term Loan, of certain of these Subsidiaries may prohibit the payment of dividends or the making, or repayment, of loans or advances to the Company or its parent entities. For example, certain Omani companies have a statutory reserve requirement, making them withhold 10% of their net profits until such reserves reach at least one third of the capital of the company. This requirement has the potential to reduce the amount of dividends payable to its shareholders. In addition, the ability of any of the Company's direct or indirect Subsidiaries to make certain distributions may be limited by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in which the Subsidiaries are organised or located, including financial assistance rules, corporate benefit laws and other legal restrictions which, if violated, might require the recipient to refund unlawful payments.

The inability to transfer cash among the Subsidiaries of the Restructured Group may mean that even though the entities, in aggregate, may have sufficient resources to meet their obligations, they may not be permitted to make the necessary transfers from one entity in their restricted group to another entity in their restricted group in order to make payments to the entity owing the obligations. In addition, the Subsidiaries of the Company that do not guarantee the New Notes have no obligation to make payments with respect to the New Notes or otherwise make funds available for that purpose.

3.26 The Issuer may not be able to obtain the funds required to repurchase the New Notes upon a change of control.

The New Notes Indenture will contain provisions relating to certain events constituting a "Change of Control". Upon the occurrence of certain "Change of Control" events (as detailed in the New Notes Indenture), the Issuer may be required to offer to repurchase all outstanding New Notes at a price equal to 101% of their aggregate principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest and additional amounts, if any, to the date of repurchase. If a change of control were to occur under the New Notes Indenture, no assurance can be given that the Company would have sufficient funds available at such time to pay the purchase price of the New Notes, or that the restrictions in the New Notes Indenture, New Bilateral Facilities Agreements, the New Intercreditor Agreement or the then-existing contractual obligations would allow the Company to make such required repurchases. A change of control may result in an event of default, or acceleration of, or an obligation to mandatorily prepay the New Bilateral Facilities Agreements and other indebtedness. The repurchase of the New Notes pursuant to such an offer could cause a default under such indebtedness, even if the change of control itself does not. The ability of the Company to receive cash from its Subsidiaries to allow it to pay cash to the New Noteholders, following the occurrence of a change of control, may be limited by the Restructured Group's then existing financial resources.

3.27 The change of control provision contained in the New Notes Indenture may not necessarily afford the New Noteholders protection in certain circumstances.

The change of control provision contained in the New Notes Indenture may not necessarily afford you protection in the event of certain important corporate events, including a reorganisation, restructuring, merger or other similar transaction involving us that may adversely affect you, because such corporate events may not involve a shift in voting power or beneficial ownership or, even if they do, may not constitute a "Change of Control" as defined in the New Notes Indenture.

In the event the Company is sold to a new investor, whether or not such sale does constitute a change of control under the New Notes Indenture, no assurance can be given that any such investor will continue to implement the Restructured Group's current business and financial strategy.

3.28 Holders of the New Notes may face foreign exchange risks

The New Notes will be denominated and payable in U.S. dollars. If holders of the New Notes measure their investment returns by reference to a currency other than the U.S. dollars, an investment in the New Notes will entail foreign exchange-related risks due to, among other factors, possible significant changes in the value of the U.S. dollars relative to the currency by reference to which the holder of the New Notes measures the return on his or her investments because of economic, political and other factors over which the Group has no control. Depreciation of the U.S. dollars against the currency by reference to which a holder of the New Notes measures the return on his or her investments could cause a decrease in the effective yield of the New Notes below their stated coupon rates and could result in a loss to holders of the New Notes when the return on the New Notes is translated into the currency by reference to which the holder of the New Notes measures the return on his or her investments. Receipt of the New Notes by holders may also have important tax consequences as a result of foreign exchange gains or losses, if any.

3.29 Credit ratings may not reflect all risks, are not recommendations to buy or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal at any time.

Following the issuance of the New Notes, one or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the New Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to the structure, market, additional risk factors discussed herein and other factors that may affect the value of the New Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal by the rating agency at any time. No assurance can be given that a credit rating will remain constant for any given period of time or that a credit rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by the credit rating agency if, in its judgement, circumstances in the future so warrant. A suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time of the credit rating assigned to the New Notes by one or more of the credit rating agencies may adversely affect the cost and terms and conditions of financing and could adversely affect the value and trading of the New Notes.

3.30 Transfer of the New Notes will be restricted, which may adversely affect the value of the New Notes.

Because the New Notes will not have been, and are not required to be, registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, they may not be offered or sold in the United States except (A) (i) to a person whom the beneficial owner and/or any person acting on its behalf reasonably believes is a QIB purchasing for its own account or for the account of a QIB in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, (ii) through a private placement in accordance with Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, (iii) in an "offshore transaction" complying with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S, (iv) pursuant to an exemption from, or a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Rule 144 thereunder (if available) or (v) pursuant to an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and (B) in accordance with all applicable securities laws of the states of the United States and any other jurisdiction. These restrictions may limit the ability of New Noteholders to resell the New Notes. It is the obligation of New Noteholders to ensure that all offers and sales of the New Notes in the United States and other countries comply with applicable securities laws. For further information, see "Important Securities Law Notice" above.

3.31 The New Notes will initially be held in book-entry form, and holders of the New Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and/or Clearstream to exercise any rights and remedies.

Unless and until the New Notes are in definitive registered form, or definitive registered notes, are issued in exchange for book-entry interests (which may occur only in very limited circumstances), owners of book-entry interests will not be considered owners or New Noteholders. The common depositary (or its nominee) for Euroclear and Clearstream will be the sole registered holder of the applicable global notes. Payments of principal, interest and other amounts owing on or in respect of the relevant global notes will be made to Lucid Issuer Services Limited, as Paying Agent, which will make payments to Euroclear and Clearstream. Thereafter, these payments will be credited to participants' accounts that hold book-entry interests in the global notes representing the New Notes and credited by such participants to indirect participants. After payment to the Paying Agent, no responsibility or Liability of the Restructured Group exists for the payment of interest, principal or other amounts to the owners of book-entry interests. Accordingly, if book-entry interest in the New Notes is owned, procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream must be relied upon.

Unlike the New Noteholders themselves, owners of book-entry interests will not have any direct rights to act upon any solicitations for consents, requests for waivers or other actions from New Noteholders. Instead, if book-entry interest is owned, New Noteholders will be permitted to act only to the extent they have received appropriate proxies to do so from Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, or, if applicable, from a participant. There can be no assurance that procedures implemented for the granting of such proxies will be sufficient to enable New Noteholders to vote on any matters or on a timely basis.

Similarly, upon the occurrence of an event of default under the New Notes Indenture, unless and until the relevant definitive registered New Notes are issued in respect of all book-entry interests, if a book-entry interest is owned, New Noteholders will be restricted to acting through Euroclear or Clearstream. There can be no assurance that the procedures to be implemented through Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, will be adequate to ensure the timely exercise of rights under the New Notes.

3.32 There may not be an active trading market for the New Notes, in which case the holders' ability to sell the New Notes may be limited.

The Restructured Group cannot assure the holders as to:

- the liquidity of any market in the New Notes;
- the holders' ability to sell its New Notes; or
- the prices at which the holders would be able to sell its New Notes.

Future trading prices for the New Notes will depend on many factors, including, among other things, prevailing interest rates, the Restructured Group's operating results and the market for similar securities. Historically, the market for non-investment grade securities has been subject to disruptions that have caused substantial volatility in the prices of securities similar to the New Notes. The liquidity of a trading market for the New Notes may be adversely affected by a general decline in the market for similar securities and is subject to disruptions that may cause volatility in prices. The trading market for the New Notes may attract different investors and this may affect the extent to which the New Notes may trade. It is possible that the market for the New Notes will be subject to disruptions. Any such disruption may have a negative effect on the holders, as a holder of New Notes, regardless of the Restructured Group's prospects and financial performance. As a result, there is no assurance that there will be an active trading market for the New Notes. If no active trading market develops, the holders may not be able to resell their holding of the New Notes at a fair value, if at all. Although an application will be made for the New Notes to be listed on the Official List of the International Stock Exchange, the Restructured Group cannot assure the holders that the New Notes will be or remain listed.

Although no assurance is made as to the liquidity of the New Notes as a result of the admission to trading on the Official List of the International Stock Exchange, failure to be approved for listing or the delisting (whether or not for an alternative admission to listing on another stock exchange) of the New Notes, as applicable, from the Official List of the International Stock Exchange may have a material effect on the ability of a holder of New Notes to resell the New Notes, as applicable, in the secondary market.

4. Risk Factors relating to the Jersey Newco Shares

The following are some of the material risks in respect of the Jersey Newco Shares.

4.1 There is no established trading market for the Jersey Newco Shares and active trading market for Jersey Newco Shares may fail to develop and holders may be unable to sell their Jersey Newco Shares.

The Jersey Newco Shares issued and delivered pursuant to the Scheme will be in uncertificated form and will not be listed on any stock exchange. A written instrument of transfer form is required to transfer their legal ownership (although share certificates will not be issued). The Restructured Group does not expect any active trading market for the Jersey Newco Shares to develop. If a market for the Jersey Newco Shares were to develop, the Jersey Newco Shares could trade at prices that may be volatile and lower than the initial values at which such shares have been valued for purposes of the Scheme depending on a number of factors, including the liquidity of the Jersey Newco Shares, prevailing interest rates, transfer restrictions, the markets for similar securities, the future performance of the Restructured Group and technological, market, economic, legislative, political, regulatory and other factors.

4.2 Issuance of additional Jersey Newco Shares may dilute ownership and voting interest of holders of Jersey Newco Shares and have an adverse effect on their price.

An additional issue of ordinary shares by Jersey Newco could dilute the proportionate ownership and voting interest of shareholders and could have an adverse effect on the price of Jersey Newco Shares. This will particularly be the case if and to the extent that such an issue of Jersey Newco Shares is not effected on a pre-emptive basis (including, but not limited to, any issue of ordinary shares in relation to the Management Equity Plan and/or exercise of Warrants) or shareholders do not take up their rights to subscribe for further Jersey Newco Shares structured as a pre-emptive offer or as an emergency securities issuance.

4.3 There can be no assurance as to the amount, if any, of future distributions with respect to Jersey Newco Shares.

The declaration, payment and amount of any future distributions of Jersey Newco are subject to the discretion of its board of directors and will depend on, among other things, the Restructured Group's earnings, financial position, cash requirements and availability of profits, as well as provisions of relevant laws or generally accepted accounting principles from time to time.

Jersey Newco is a holding company with no business operations other than the direct and indirect equity interests it holds in its Subsidiaries, including the Company, English NewCo 1 and English NewCo 2. Jersey Newco will be dependent upon the cash flow from certain members of the Restructured Group in the form of dividends or other distributions for payments to the holders of Jersey Newco Shares. The amounts of dividends and distributions available to Jersey Newco will depend on the profitability and cash flows of its Subsidiaries and the ability of those Subsidiaries to pay dividends or make upstream loans under applicable law. Members of the Restructured Group, however, may not be able to, or may not be permitted under applicable law to, make distributions or advance upstream loans to Jersey Newco to make dividend distributions on the Jersey Newco Shares. In addition, certain Subsidiaries of Jersey Newco, including the Company, English NewCo 1 and English NewCo 2, as applicable, are subject to restrictive covenants pursuant to the New Notes Indenture that may limit the ability of such Subsidiaries to make upstream distributions, in particular if an event of default has occurred and is continuing.

4.4 Drag-along provisions of the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement applicable to Jersey Newco may mandate a holder to sell its Jersey Newco Shares and the price that such holder will be able to recover for its Jersey Newco Shares may be lower than the initial value at which such Jersey Newco Shares have been valued for purposes of the Scheme or that could be recovered otherwise.

If (in each case as defined under the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement unless otherwise defined herein) any transferor or group of transferors intend(s) to transfer more than 50% of the Jersey Newco Shares to any bona fide third party in one transaction or a series of transactions the transferor may elect to deem such transfer a "Drag-Along Sale" and require each Dragged Shareholder(s) (as defined in the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement) to transfer an equal portion of their Jersey Newco Shares to such person on the same terms as agreed by the transferor.

Any consideration to be paid in connection with a Proposed Drag-Along Sale (as defined in the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement) shall be paid in cash or marketable securities listed on an internationally recognised and reputable stock exchange, or a combination of cash and marketable securities. If the Dragged Shareholder is a ring-fenced body pursuant to Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013, that Dragged Shareholder shall have the option to elect that such marketable securities are sold on its behalf so as to receive its consideration in cash only, even in circumstances where all or part of the proposed consideration for the Jersey Newco Shares is to be in marketable securities.

If a Dragged Shareholder does not execute transfers in respect of its Jersey Newco Shares within the time frame given in any Drag-Along Notice, then the Board is entitled to authorise and execute the necessary transfers as agent on the Dragged Shareholder's behalf on the same terms as those accepted by the transferor.

Additionally, if the Dragged Shareholder fails to comply with the Drag-Along Sale, any Jersey Newco Shares held by a Dragged Shareholder on the date of a Drag-Along Notice (and any Jersey Newco Shares acquired by the Dragged Shareholder thereafter) shall automatically cease to confer the right to receive notice of or to attend or vote at any general meeting of Jersey Newco, and will not be counted in determining quorum for said meetings, or for the purpose of any written resolution or other form of consent required under the articles of association of Jersey Newco. These rights are restored immediately upon transfer of said Jersey Newco Shares.

4.5 The Jersey Newco Shares will not be freely transferrable in the United States.

Any Jersey Newco Shares offered and sold to investors located in the United States will be "restricted securities" (as defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act), and such Jersey Newco Shares may be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only (A) (i) to a person whom the beneficial owner and/or any person acting on its behalf reasonably believes is a QIB purchasing for its own account or for the account of a QIB in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, (ii) through a private placement in accordance with Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, (iii) in an "offshore transaction" complying with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S under the Securities Act, (iv) pursuant to an exemption from, or a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Rule 144 thereunder (if available), or (v) pursuant to an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and (B) in accordance with all applicable securities laws of the states of the United States and any other jurisdiction. These restrictions may limit the ability of holders of the Jersey Newco Shares to resell the Jersey Newco Shares. It is the obligation of holders of the Jersey Newco Shares to ensure that all offers and sales of the Jersey Newco Shares in the United States and other countries comply with applicable securities laws. For further information, see "Important Securities Law Notice" above.

4.6 Certain extra rights attach to the Jersey Newco Shares once a New Shareholder holds (aggregated with affiliated holdings for this purpose) Jersey Newco Shares up to certain threshold amounts

The Jersey Newco Shares shall comprise a single class. All Jersey Newco Shares shall rank equally as to dividends and other distributions, interest and return of capital. Provided that a New Shareholder (affiliated holdings may be aggregated for this purpose) holds 5% or more of the Jersey Newco Shares in issue (each a Major Shareholder), each such Jersey Newco Share shall carry one vote. For so long as a New Shareholder holds fewer than 5% of the Jersey Newco Shares in issue, such Jersey Newco Shares shall be non-voting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all Jersey Newco Shares shall carry a vote with respect to the certain Shareholder Super Reserved Matters (as defined in the Jersey Newco Investment Agreement).

If no New Shareholder holds 5% or more of the Jersey Newco Shares then the 5% threshold for Major Shareholders shall be automatically reduced until such point as at least three New Shareholders are Major Shareholders.

If and for so long as the Major Shareholders hold in aggregate less than 30% of the Jersey Newco Shares, then each Jersey Newco Share shall have one vote and all Major Shareholder Majority (being the majority decision by reference to the number of Jersey Newco Shares held by Shareholders holding voting Jersey Newco Shares) matters shall be determined by a simple majority vote of all New Shareholders (by number of Jersey Newco Shares), or where required by law, $66\frac{2}{3}\%$, of the ordinary shares in issue.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE NEW NOTES

1. U.S. federal income tax considerations

- 1.1 The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations relevant to U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders acquiring, holding and disposing of New Notes. This summary addresses only the U.S. federal income tax considerations for recipients of the New Notes at their original issuance that will hold the New Notes as capital assets (generally, property held for investment). This summary does not address any other tax consequences of the Restructuring, including in respect of the release of the Existing Notes. This summary is based on the Code, final, temporary and proposed U.S. Treasury regulations and administrative and judicial interpretations, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to investors in light of their particular circumstances, such as investors subject to special tax rules (including, without limitation: (i) financial institutions; (ii) insurance companies; (iii) dealers or traders in stocks, securities, or currencies or notional principal contracts; (iv) regulated investment companies; (v) real estate investment trusts; (vi) tax-exempt organizations; (vii) partnerships or other pass-through entities, or persons that hold New Notes through pass-through entities; (viii) investors that hold New Notes as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion, constructive sale or other integrated transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (ix) U.S. Holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar and (xi) U.S. expatriates and former long-term residents of the United States), all of whom may be subject to tax rules that differ significantly from those summarized below. This summary does not address U.S. federal estate, gift, Medicare contribution or alternative minimum tax considerations, special tax accounting rules applicable as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the New Notes being taken into account on an applicable financial statement, or non-U.S., state or local tax considerations.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership holds New Notes, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders of New Notes that are partners, and the partners therein, are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the specific tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the New Notes.

1.2 U.S. Holder

Interest

- (a) Payments of stated interest on a New Note (without reduction for any amounts withheld and including payments of any Additional Amounts (as defined in the New Notes Indenture)) will be treated as qualified stated interest and includible in the gross income of a U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income at the time the interest is received or accrued, in accordance with the U.S. Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.
- (b) If the New Notes are issued with OID, U.S. Holders of the New Notes must include OID in income as ordinary income calculated on a constant yield method before the receipt of cash attributable to the income, regardless of the U.S. Holder's method of accounting, and will generally have to include in income increasingly greater amounts of OID over the life of the New Notes. An obligation generally will be treated as issued with OID if the excess of such New Notes' stated redemption price at maturity over their issue price is at least a de minimis amount (0.25% of such New Notes' stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to their maturity). If a substantial amount of New Notes are traded on an established securities market on their issue date, the issue price of the New Notes should be their fair market value on such date. If the New Notes are not traded in substantial amounts after their issue date but the Existing Notes were traded in substantial amounts prior to the Restructuring, the issue price of the New Notes should be the fair market of the Existing Notes exchanged for the New Notes on the issue date of the New Notes. Otherwise, the issue price of the New Notes should be their stated principal amount. The “stated redemption price at maturity” of the New Notes is the total of all payments provided by such New Notes that are not payments of “qualified stated interest”. A “qualified stated interest” payment is generally any one of a series of stated interest payments on the New Notes that is unconditionally payable at least annually at a single fixed rate or a qualified floating rate.

- (c) The amount of OID includible in income by a U.S. Holder is the sum of the daily portions of OID with respect to the New Note for each day during the taxable year or portion of the taxable year in which the U.S. Holder holds the New Note. The daily portion is determined by allocating to each day in any “accrual period” a pro rata portion of the OID allocable to that accrual period. Accrual periods with respect to a New Note may be of any length selected by the U.S. Holder and may vary in length over the term of the New Note as long as (i) no accrual period is longer than one year and (ii) each scheduled payment of interest or principal on the New Note occurs on either the final or first day of an accrual period. The amount of OID allocable to an accrual period equals the excess of (a) the product of the New Note’s adjusted issue price at the beginning of the accrual period and the New Note’s yield to maturity (determined on the basis of compounding at the close of each accrual period and properly adjusted for the length of the accrual period) over (b) the sum of the payments of qualified stated interest on the New Note allocable to the accrual period. The adjusted issue price of a New Note at the beginning of any accrual period is the issue price of the New Note increased by (x) the amount of accrued OID for each prior accrual period and decreased by (y) the amount of any payments previously made on the New Note that were not qualified stated interest payments. The OID rules are complex and each U.S. Holder should consult with its own tax advisor regarding the acquisition, ownership, and disposition of a New Note issued with OID.
- (d) Interest received and any OID earned on the New Notes by a U.S. Holder will generally be treated as foreign source “passive income” for U.S. foreign tax credit purposes, or, in certain cases, “general category income”. The rules governing the U.S. foreign tax credit are complex and each U.S. Holder is urged to consult with its own tax advisor regarding the availability of the U.S. foreign tax credit with respect to non-U.S. taxes paid with respect to interest received on, or proceeds from the disposition of, the New Notes.

Sale, exchange or other taxable disposition

- (e) Upon the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a New Note, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized (other than amounts attributable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will generally be taxable to the extent not previously included in income as described above under “— Interest”) and the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the New Note. A U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in a New Note generally will equal the issue price of the New Note increased by the amount of any OID previously included in the U.S. Holder’s income with respect to the New Note, and reduced by the amount of any payments made with respect to the New Note that are not qualified stated interest payments. A U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in a New Note may be affected by the U.S. federal income tax characterization of the Restructuring. Such characterization is complex and each U.S. Holder should consult with its own tax advisor regarding such U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the New Notes.
- (f) Any gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a New Note will generally be U.S. source capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder has held the New Note for more than one year at the time of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition. Net long-term capital gain recognized by a non-corporate U.S. Holder generally is eligible for reduced U.S. federal income tax rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to significant limitations.

1.3 Non-U.S. Holders

- (a) A Non-U.S. Holder generally should not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any payments on the New Notes and gain from the sale, redemption or other disposition of the New Notes unless: (i) that payment and/or gain is effectively connected with the conduct by that Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty requires, such items are attributable to the conduct of a trade or business through a permanent establishment or fixed base in the United States) or (ii) in the case of any gain realized on the sale, redemption or other disposition of a New Note by an individual Non-U.S. Holder, that holder is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale, redemption or other disposition and certain other conditions are met.

1.4 U.S. information reporting, backup withholding and certain tax return disclosure requirements

- (a) Payments of principal and interest on, and the proceeds of a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of, the New Notes payable to a U.S. Holder by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary will be reported to the IRS and to the U.S. Holder as may be required under applicable regulations. Backup withholding will apply to these payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status or otherwise fails to comply with the applicable backup withholding requirements. Certain U.S. Holders (including, among others, corporations) are not subject to backup withholding.
- (b) In general, payments of principal and interest and the proceeds of a sale, redemption or other disposition of, the New Notes, payable to a Non-U.S. Holder by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary will not be subject to backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements if an appropriate certification (IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN- E or other appropriate form) is provided by the Non-U.S. Holder to the payor and the payor does not have actual knowledge that the certification is false.
- (c) Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts withheld as backup withholding may be credited against a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability. A holder of New Notes may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules by timely filing the appropriate claim for refund with the IRS and furnishing any required information.
- (d) Certain U.S. Holders that own "specified foreign financial assets" with an aggregate value in excess of certain thresholds generally are required to file an information report (on IRS Form 8938) with respect to such assets with their tax returns. The New Notes generally will constitute specified foreign financial assets subject to these reporting requirements, unless the New Notes are held in an account at certain financial institutions. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the application of these disclosure requirements to their ownership and disposition of the New Notes. U.S. Holders that fail to comply with these disclosure requirements could be subject to substantial penalties.

1.5 United Kingdom tax considerations

The following applies only to persons who are the beneficial owners of New Notes and is a summary of the Issuer's understanding of current United Kingdom law and published HMRC practice relating only to certain aspects of the United Kingdom tax treatment of New Notes and the New Notes Guarantees. References to "interest" refer to interest as that term is understood for United Kingdom tax purposes. The following is not exhaustive and does not deal with any United Kingdom taxation implications of acquiring, holding or disposing of the New Notes other than as expressly set out herein. The United Kingdom tax treatment of prospective holders of New Notes depends on their individual circumstances and may be subject to change in the future. Prospective holders of New Notes who may be subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom or who may be unsure as to their tax position should seek their own professional advice.

Payment of interest on the New Notes

- (a) Payments of interest on the New Notes may be made without deduction of or withholding on account of United Kingdom income tax provided that the New Notes carry a right to interest and the New Notes are and continue to be listed on a “recognised stock exchange” within the meaning of section 1005 of the Income Tax Act 2007 (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the New Notes will need to be listed prior to interest being paid in order for the interest to be paid without deduction of or withholding). The International Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange. The New Notes will satisfy this requirement if they are officially listed in Guernsey in accordance with provisions corresponding to those generally applicable in European Economic Area states and are admitted to trading on the International Stock Exchange. Provided, therefore, that the New Notes are and remain so listed, interest on the New Notes will be payable without withholding or deduction on account of United Kingdom income tax.
- (b) In other cases, an amount must generally be withheld from payments of interest on the New Notes that has a United Kingdom source on account of United Kingdom income tax at the basic rate (currently 20%), subject to any other available exemptions and reliefs. However, where an applicable double tax treaty provides for a lower rate of withholding tax (or for no tax to be withheld) in relation to a holder of New Notes, HMRC can issue a notice to the Issuer to pay interest to the holder of such New Notes without deduction of tax (or for interest to be paid with tax deducted at the rate provided for in the relevant double tax treaty).

Payments by a Guarantor

- (c) The United Kingdom withholding tax treatment of payments by the Post-Restructuring Obligors under the terms of the New Notes Guarantees which have a United Kingdom source is uncertain. In particular, such payments by the Post-Restructuring Obligors may not be eligible for the exemptions described above in relation to payments of interest. Accordingly, if the Post-Restructuring Obligors make any such payments, these may be subject to United Kingdom withholding tax at the basic rate.

Stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax

- (d) No United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is payable on the issue of the New Notes or, assuming that (i) the interest on the New Notes does not exceed a reasonable commercial return on the nominal amount of the capital and (ii) any right on repayment of the New Notes to an amount which exceeds the nominal amount of the New Notes is reasonably comparable with what is generally repayable (in respect of a similar nominal amount of capital) under the terms of issue of loan capital listed in the Official List of the London Stock Exchange, on a transfer of the New Notes.

- 3.3 Each Scheme Creditor and, pursuant to an Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable), each respective Nominee(s) (if applicable), hereby authorises and instructs each Existing Administrative Party, the Existing Custodian and the Existing Depositary to undertake such steps as it considers necessary or desirable for it to take for the purposes of facilitating the implementation of this Scheme, including (without limitation) entering into and executing in its respective capacity the Implementations Documents to which it is a party (including, for the avoidance of doubt, in respect of the Existing Security Agent, each Security and Guarantees Release Document) and any other document that it reasonably considers necessary or advisable to implement this Scheme.
- 3.4 The Company and Scheme Creditors hereby agree that each Existing Administrative Party shall be entitled to enforce, enjoy the benefit of and rely upon the provisions of this Clause 3.
- 3.5 Each Scheme Creditor hereby consents to the transfer by KCA Deutag Alpha II Limited of the shares in KCA Deutag Alpha Limited to Kelly Holdco 2 Limited prior to the Restructuring Effective Date (and subject to the relevant Existing Security (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed)).
- 3.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Scheme, each Scheme Creditor hereby confirms that it agrees to, shall be bound by and shall comply with, and shall for all purposes be treated as having agreed to and be bound by, each Implementation Document after it has been executed by the Company on its behalf in accordance with this Clause 3. Furthermore, each Scheme Creditor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally ratifies and confirms everything which the Company (including its respective authorised signatories) may lawfully do or cause to be done in accordance with any authority conferred by this Scheme.
- 3.7 On and from the Scheme Effective Time, each person or entity that has been nominated by a Scheme Creditor to act as a Nominee pursuant to the applicable Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable), agrees that the authority and power conferred on the Company by this Clause 3 shall extend to any Implementation Documents to which such Nominee is named as a party.
- 3.8 Once an Implementation Document has been fully executed, dated, released and (if applicable, delivered), the authority granted by each Scheme Creditor to the Company under this Clause 3 shall expire automatically in respect of that Implementation Document at that time and, thereafter, that Implementation Document may only be amended in accordance with its terms. Any remaining authorities granted by the Scheme Creditors to the Company under this Clause 3 shall terminate two Business Days following the occurrence of the Restructuring Effective Date.

4. SCHEME STEPS

4.1 On and from the Scheme Effective Time and in the order set out in this Clause 4, the following steps (the Scheme Steps) shall be taken in accordance with this Scheme:

- (a) the Company shall execute but not date nor deliver the Restructuring Implementation Deed on its own behalf and on behalf of each Scheme Creditor;
- (b) each of the Scheme Undertaking Parties that is party to the Restructuring Implementation Deed shall execute but not date the Restructuring Implementation Deed on its own behalf and deliver a copy of such executed document to the Company or its legal advisers;
- (c) promptly following receipt of all signatures to the Restructuring Implementation Deed, the Company or its legal advisers shall, and are hereby irrevocably authorised to, date, complete, release and deliver the Restructuring Implementation Deed (without the consent of or any further notice to any party thereto); and
- (d) the Company and each Scheme Undertaking Party (to the extent any action is required by it in connection with the satisfaction of any condition precedent to any step specified in the Restructuring Implementation Deed) shall use reasonable endeavours to procure that any condition precedent to any step specified in the Restructuring Implementation Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the execution or delivery of any Implementation Document or any other conditions precedent to the effectiveness of any Implementation Documents) shall be satisfied (unless waived in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed).

4.2 Following the completion of the Scheme Steps:

- (a) the remaining Implementation Documents will be executed, dated and released in accordance with clauses 3 (Scheme Steps) to 5 (Restructuring Steps) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed; and
- (b) any other steps to be taken in connection with the implementation of the Restructuring will be taken in the manner prescribed in the Restructuring Implementation Deed.

5. RELEASES

Certain releases will be granted as part of the Scheme and will take effect in accordance with clauses 5.3 (Step 2 – release of Scheme Claims and Existing Security) and 5.8 (Step 7 – Releases) of the Restructuring Implementation Deed and the Deed of Release.

6. CALCULATION OF OVERDRAFT SCHEME CLAIM

- (a) In relation to the Existing Overdraft Provider, the amount of the Existing Overdraft Liabilities to be compromised by the Scheme and the Restructuring Implementation Deed (being a Scheme Claim) shall be an amount equal to the aggregate net balance on the Overdraft Accounts and any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Overdraft Facilities, in each case, as calculated by the Company with reference to the balances of the Overdraft Accounts at the Existing Overdraft Record Time (the Compromised Overdraft Amount), provided that the maximum Compromised Overdraft Amount for the purposes of the Scheme shall not exceed $115,000,000 plus the aggregate amount of any accrued and unpaid interest and fees under the Existing Overdraft Facilities as at the Existing Overdraft Record Time.
- (b) For the purposes of calculating the Compromised Overdraft Amount, any amounts under the Existing Overdraft Facilities that are denominated in a currency other than dollars shall be converted into dollars by the Company using the HSBC Mid-Market Rate (or if the HSBC Mid-Market Rate is not accessible by the Company at the Existing Overdraft Record Time, the Bank of England Exchange Rate).

- (c) The Existing Overdraft Liabilities shall be released in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed in an amount equal to the Compromised Overdraft Amount and, for the purposes of the Scheme, such amount shall be represented by the debit balances in the following bank accounts held with the Existing Overdraft Provider and in the following order:
 - (i) the bank account in the name of Abbot Group Limited with account number 60230006 and sort code 401276; and
 - (ii) to the extent necessary, such other bank account operated as part of the Existing Overdraft Facilities as the Company may notify the Existing Overdraft Provider in writing on the Restructuring Effective Date.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, the remaining credit and debit balances in the bank accounts operated as part of the Existing Overdraft Facilities following the release of the relevant Scheme Claim pursuant to paragraph (c) above shall be deemed to be the opening credit and debit balances for the purposes of the overdraft arrangements provided for in the New Cash Management Facilities Agreement (as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed).

7. ASSIGNMENTS AND TRANSFERS

The Company shall not be under any obligation to recognise any purported assignment or transfer of any Scheme Claims by a Scheme Creditor following the Record Time for the purposes of this Scheme or the Implementation Documents (including but not limited to determining the applicable allocation of Scheme Consideration). Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the Company has received from the relevant parties written notice of such purported assignment or transfer, the Company may in its absolute discretion, and subject to such evidence as it may reasonably require, agree to recognise such purported assignment or transfer, subject to the assignee or transferee agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Scheme and to be treated as having been a Scheme Creditor for the purposes of this Scheme.

8. DETERMINATION OF SCHEME CONSIDERATION

- 8.1 Unless expressly provided otherwise herein, each Scheme Creditor's entitlement to the Scheme Consideration (as allocated in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Implementation Deed) will be determined based on its Scheme Claims as at the Record Time.

9. MODIFICATION TO THE SCHEME

- 9.1 Subject to Clause 9.2, the Scheme Creditors hereby agree that the Company may at any Court hearing to sanction this Scheme, consent on behalf of itself and the Scheme Creditors and anyone else concerned to any modification of, or addition to, this Scheme and/or any of the Implementation Documents on any terms or conditions that the Court may think fit to approve or impose which is necessary for the implementation of the Restructuring, and which could not reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have an adverse effect on the interests of any Scheme Creditor under this Scheme. However, if such modifications could reasonably be expected directly or indirectly to have an adverse effect on the interests of a Scheme Creditor, then the Company may not give such consent without the prior written consent of that Scheme Creditor.
- 9.2 Any modification of, or addition to, this Scheme and/or any of the Implementation Documents may only be made pursuant to Clause 9.1 with the consent of:

- (a) the Majority Creditors and the New Bilateral Lenders (each as defined in the Restructuring Implementation Deed); and
- (b) any Existing Administrative Party whose interests would be adversely affected by such modification or addition (as determined by the relevant Existing Administrative Party in its sole discretion), in each case, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

- 9.3 If any provision of this Scheme (or any document to be executed pursuant to the authority granted under this Scheme) is illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be severed from this Scheme and the rest of this Scheme shall continue in full force and effect as if the severed provision had not been included.

10. TERMINATION OF THE SCHEME

- 10.1 If the Restructuring Effective Date does not occur on or before the Long Stop Date, the terms of and the obligations on the parties under or pursuant to this Scheme shall lapse and all the compromises and arrangements provided by this Scheme and any releases granted pursuant to this Scheme shall be of no effect and shall be construed as if it had never become effective, and the rights and obligations of the Scheme Creditors (including under the Existing Debt Documents) shall not be affected and shall be reinstated and remain in full force and effect.
- 10.2 Clauses 10, 12, 17 and 19 shall survive any termination of this Scheme.

11. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

- 11.1 Subject to Clause 11.2 below, no Scheme Creditor may commence, continue, support any person commencing, or instruct any person to commence or take any Prohibited Proceeding against any Scheme Party.
- 11.2 A Scheme Creditor (or its Nominee(s)) may commence an Allowed Proceeding against any Scheme Party after giving each Scheme Party 21 days' written notice of its intention to do so.
- 11.3 Each Scheme Creditor will hold on trust for the benefit of the relevant Scheme Party any recovery made pursuant to any Prohibited Proceeding in breach of this Clause 11 and will turn over any such recovery forthwith upon demand being made by the Company without set-off, counterclaim or deduction. To the extent that the asset comprising the recovery cannot be held on trust by the Scheme Creditor, the Scheme Creditor shall pay to the Company an amount equal to that recovery immediately upon demand being made by the Company without set-off, counterclaim or deduction, to be held on trust by the Company for the person(s) entitled to it.

12. COSTS

The Company shall pay, or procure the payment of, in full all costs, charges, expenses and disbursements incurred by it in connection with the negotiation, preparation and implementation of this Scheme as and when they arise, including, but not limited to, the costs of holding the Scheme Meeting, the costs of obtaining the sanction of the Court and the costs of placing the notices (if any) required by this Scheme.

13.3 The Company may disclose the Account Holder Letter and/or Lender Claim Form (as applicable) and its contents on a confidential basis to such persons as are necessary to facilitate the consummation of the Restructuring.

14. FUTURE INSOLVENCY

14.1 In the event that the Company enters into an insolvency proceeding on or before the Restructuring Effective Date, the Company's obligations under this Scheme shall continue to be performed by the Company in an insolvency proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by law or unless otherwise determined by the Court.

14.2 With effect from the Restructuring Effective Date, this Scheme shall continue according to its terms to the fullest extent permitted by law or unless otherwise determined by the Court, notwithstanding any insolvency proceeding in respect of the Company.

15. APPLICATION TO THE COURT FOR DIRECTIONS

Without prejudice to any rights that the Company or any Scheme Creditor might otherwise have in connection with this Scheme or any aspect of it, the Company shall be entitled to make an application to the Court for directions at any time in connection with any matter arising under or in relation to this Scheme, any Implementation Document or any other aspect of the Restructuring.

16. EXERCISE OF DISCRETION

Where, under or pursuant to any provision of this Scheme or any Implementation Document, a matter is to be determined by the Company, it shall be determined by the board of directors of the Company, in their discretion in such manner as they consider fair and reasonable.

ARTICLE 2 THE NOTES

Section 2.01 Form and Dating.

(a) General. The Notes and the Trustee’s or the Authenticating Agent’s certificate of authentication will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto. The Notes may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rule or usage. Each Note will be dated the date of its authentication. The terms and provisions contained in the Notes will constitute, and are hereby expressly made, a part of this Indenture and the Issuer and the Trustee, by their execution and delivery of this Indenture, expressly agree to such terms and provisions and to be bound thereby. However, to the extent any provision of any Note conflicts with the express provisions of this Indenture, the provisions of this Indenture shall govern and be controlling.

(b) Global Notes. Notes issued in global form will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (including the Global Note Legend thereon and the “Schedule of Exchanges of Interests in the Global Note” attached thereto). Each Global Note will represent such of the outstanding Notes as will be specified therein and each shall provide that it represents the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes from time to time endorsed thereon and that the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes represented thereby may from time to time be reduced or increased, as appropriate, to reflect exchanges and redemptions. Any endorsement of a Global Note to reflect the amount of any increase or decrease in the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes represented thereby will be made by the Registrar or the Paying Agent, in accordance with instructions given by the Holder thereof as required by Section 2.06.

(c) 144A Global Notes, IAI Global Notes and Regulation S Global Notes. Notes sold within the United States to QIBs pursuant to Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act shall be issued initially in the form of a 144A Global Note, which shall be deposited with and registered in the name of a nominee of the Common Depositary for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee, or the Authenticating Agent, as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the 144A Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on Schedule A to each such Global Note, as hereinafter provided.

Notes sold within the United States to IAIs pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act shall be issued initially in the form of an IAI Global Note, which shall be deposited with and registered in the name of a nominee of the Common Depositary for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee, or the Authenticating Agent, as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the IAI Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on Schedule A to each such Global Note, as hereinafter provided.

Notes offered and sold in reliance on Regulation S shall be issued initially in the form of a Regulation S Global Note, which shall be deposited with and registered in the name of a nominee of the Common Depositary for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee, or the Authenticating Agent, as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on Schedule A to each such Global Note, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Definitive Registered Notes. Definitive Registered Notes issued upon transfer of a Book-Entry Interest or a Definitive Registered Note, or in exchange for a Book-Entry Interest or a Definitive Registered Note, shall be issued in accordance with this Indenture.

Notes issued in definitive registered form will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (excluding the Global Note Legend thereon and the “Schedule of Exchanges of Interests in the Global Note” in the form of Schedule A attached thereto).

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. The Applicable Procedures shall be applicable to Book-Entry Interests in the Global Notes that are held by Participants through the Common Depositary.

(f) Denomination. The Notes shall be in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1 above $1,000.

Section 2.02 Execution and Authentication.

At least one Officer must sign the Notes for the Issuer by manual or facsimile signature.

If an Officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time a Note is authenticated, the Note will nevertheless be valid.

A Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual signature of the Trustee or Authenticating Agent. The signature will be conclusive evidence that the Note has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee or Authenticating Agent will, upon receipt of a written order of the Issuer signed by an authorized representative (an “Authentication Order”), authenticate or cause an Authenticating Agent to authenticate Notes for original issue that may be validly issued under this Indenture, including any Additional Notes; provided, however, that Additional Notes that are not fungible with the Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall have a separate ISIN or other identifying number from the Notes. The aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any time may not exceed the aggregate principal amount of Notes authorized for issuance by the Issuer pursuant to one or more Authentication Orders, except as provided in Section 1.01(h)(7).

The Trustee may appoint one or more authenticating agents acceptable to the Issuer to authenticate Notes. An authenticating agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as an Agent to deal with Holders or an Affiliate of the Issuer. The Trustee hereby appoints Lucid Agency Services Limited as the Authenticating Agent for the Notes (the “Authenticating Agent”). Lucid Agency Services Limited hereby accepts such appointment and the Issuer hereby confirms that such appointment is acceptable to it.

Section 2.03 Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent.

The Issuer will maintain one or more paying agents (each, a “Paying Agent”) for the Notes. The initial Paying Agent will be Lucid Agency Services Limited. Lucid Agency Services Limited hereby accepts such appointment.

The Issuer will also maintain a registrar (the “Registrar”) for the registration of the Notes and of their transfer or exchange. The Issuer will also maintain a transfer agent (the “Transfer Agent”). The Issuer hereby appoints Lucid Agency Services Limited as the initial Registrar and Lucid Agency Services Limited hereby accepts such appointment. The Issuer hereby appoints Lucid Agency Services Limited as the initial Transfer Agent and Lucid Agency Services Limited hereby accepts such appointment. The Registrar, each Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent, as applicable, will maintain a register reflecting ownership of Definitive Registered Notes outstanding from time to time, make payments on and facilitate transfers of Definitive Registered Notes on behalf of the Issuer.

The Issuer may change the Paying Agent, the Registrar or the Transfer Agent without prior notice to the Holders. For so long as the Notes are listed on the Official List of The International Stock Exchange (the “Exchange”) and the rules of the Exchange so require, the Issuer will notify the Exchange of any change of Registrar, Paying Agent or Transfer Agent.

Section 2.04 Paying Agent to Hold Money.

The Issuer will require each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee) to agree in writing that the Paying Agent will hold for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of, premium or Additional Amounts, if any, or interest on, the Notes, and will notify the Trustee of any default by the Issuer in making any such payment. While any such default continues, the Trustee may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee. The Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee. Upon payment over to the Trustee, or such entity designated by the Trustee, the Paying Agent (if other than the Company or a Subsidiary) will have no further liability for the money. Money held by a Paying Agent (if other than the Company or a Subsidiary) need not be segregated, except as required by law, and in no event shall any Paying Agent be liable for interest on any money received by it hereunder. If the Company or a Subsidiary acts as Paying Agent, it will segregate and hold in a separate trust fund for the benefit of the Holders all money held by it as Paying Agent. Upon any insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings relating to the Issuer (including, without limitation, its bankruptcy, voluntary or judicial liquidation, composition with creditors, reprieve from payment, controlled management, fraudulent conveyance, general settlement with creditors, reorganization or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally), the Trustee (or an entity appointed by the Trustee) will serve as Paying Agent for the Notes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Paying Agent and the Trustee shall be held harmless and have no liability with respect to payments or disbursements to be made by the Paying Agent and Trustee (i) for which payment instructions are not made or that are not otherwise deposited by the respective times set forth in this Indenture; and (ii) until they have confirmed receipt of funds sufficient to make the relevant payment.

Section 2.05 Holder Lists.

The Registrar will preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of all Holders. If the Trustee or the Paying Agent is not the Registrar, the Issuer will furnish to the Trustee and each Paying Agent at least two Business Days before each interest payment date and at such other times as the Trustee or the Paying Agent may request in writing, a list of the names and addresses of the Holders in such form and as of such date as the Trustee or the Paying Agent may reasonably require.

Section 2.06 Transfer and Exchange.

(a) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes.

All Global Notes will be exchanged by the Issuer for Definitive Registered Notes:

(1) if Euroclear or Clearstream notifies the Issuer that they are unwilling or unable to continue to act as depositary and a successor depositary is not appointed by the Issuer within 120 days; or

Upon the occurrence of either of the preceding events in clauses (a)(1) or (2) of this Section 2.06, the Issuer shall issue or cause to be issued Definitive Registered Notes in such names as Euroclear or Clearstream shall instruct the Registrar or Transfer Agent.

Transfers of Book-Entry Interests shall be subject to restrictions on transfer comparable to those set forth herein to the extent required by the U.S. Securities Act. (2) Global Note Legend. Each Global Note shall bear a legend in substantially the following form:

“THIS GLOBAL NOTE IS HELD BY THE COMMON DEPOSITARY (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE GOVERNING THIS NOTE) OR ITS NOMINEE IN CUSTODY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS, AND IS NOT TRANSFERABLE TO ANY PERSON UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES EXCEPT THAT (1) THE TRUSTEE MAY MAKE SUCH NOTATIONS HEREON AS MAY BE REQUIRED PURSUANT TO SECTION 2.06 OF THE INDENTURE, (2) THIS GLOBAL NOTE MAY BE EXCHANGED IN WHOLE BUT NOT IN PART PURSUANT TO CLAUSE (A) OF SECTION 2.06 OF THE INDENTURE, AND (3) THIS GLOBAL NOTE MAY BE DELIVERED TO THE TRUSTEE FOR CANCELLATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 2.11 OF THE INDENTURE.”

(g) Cancellation and/or Adjustment of Global Notes. At such time as all Book-Entry Interests in a particular Global Note have been exchanged for Definitive Registered Notes or a particular Global Note has been redeemed, repurchased or canceled in whole and not in part, each such Global Note will be returned to or retained and canceled by the Trustee in accordance with Section 2.11. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any Book-Entry Interest in a Global Note is exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a Book-Entry Interest in another Global Note or for Definitive Registered Notes, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note will be reduced accordingly and an endorsement will be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or the Paying Agent or the Common Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such reduction; and if the Book-Entry Interest is being exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a Book-Entry Interest in another Global Note, such other Global Note will be increased accordingly and an endorsement will be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or the Paying Agent or the Common Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such increase.

(h) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(1) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuer will execute and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent will authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Registered Notes upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.02 or at the Registrar's request.

(2) No service charge will be made by the Issuer or the Registrar to a Holder of a Book-Entry Interest in a Global Note, a Holder of a Global Note or a Holder of a Definitive Registered Note for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp duty, stamp duty reserve, documentary or other similar tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 2.10, Section 3.06, Section 4.10 and Section 4.15).

(3) No Transfer Agent or Registrar will be required to register the transfer of or exchange of any Note selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part.

(4) All Global Notes and Definitive Registered Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Notes or Definitive Registered Notes will be the valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Global Notes or Definitive Registered Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(5) The Issuer and the Registrar shall not be required to register the transfer into its register kept at its registered office of any Definitive Registered Notes:

(A) for a period of 15 calendar days prior to any date fixed for the redemption of the Notes under Section 3.02;

(B) for a period of 15 calendar days immediately prior to the date fixed for selection of Notes to be redeemed in part;

(C) for a period of 15 calendar days prior to the record date with respect to any interest payment date; or

(D) which the Holder has tendered (and not withdrawn) for repurchase in connection with a Change of Control Offer or an Asset Sale Offer.

Any such transfer will be made without charge to the Holder, other than any taxes, duties and governmental charges payable in connection with such transfer.

(6) The Trustee, any Agent and the Issuer may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Notes and for all other purposes, and none of the Trustee, any Agent or the Issuer shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(7) All certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Issuer, the Trustee or the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.06 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile with originals to be delivered as soon as practicable thereafter to the Trustee.

Section 2.07 Replacement Notes.

If any mutilated Note is surrendered to the Registrar and the Registrar receives evidence to its satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, the Issuer will issue and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, will authenticate, or cause the Authenticating Agent to authenticate, a replacement Note if the Registrar's requirements are met. If required by the Registrar or the Issuer, an indemnity bond must be supplied by the Holder that is sufficient in the judgment of the Registrar and the Issuer to protect the Issuer, the Trustee, the Registrar, any Agent and any Authenticating Agent from any loss that any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced. The Issuer and the Registrar may charge for its expenses in replacing a Note.

Every replacement Note is an additional obligation of the Issuer and will be entitled to all of the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Notes duly issued hereunder.

The Notes outstanding at any time are all the Notes authenticated by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent except for those canceled by it or the Registrar, those delivered to it or the Registrar for cancellation, those reductions in the interest in a Global Note effected by the Trustee or the Registrar in accordance with the provisions hereof, and those described in this Section 2.08 as not outstanding. Except as set forth in Section 2.09, a Note does not cease to be outstanding because the Company or an Affiliate of the Company holds the Note; however, Notes held by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company shall not be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of clause (a) of Section 3.07.

If a Note is replaced pursuant to Section 1.01(h)(7), it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee and the Registrar receive proof satisfactory to them that the replaced Note is held by a protected purchaser.

If the principal amount of any Note is considered paid under Section 4.01, it ceases to be outstanding and interest on it ceases to accrue.

If a Paying Agent (other than the Issuer, the Company, a Subsidiary or an Affiliate of any thereof) holds, on a redemption date or maturity date, money sufficient to pay Notes payable on that date, then on and after that date such Notes will be deemed to be no longer outstanding and will cease to accrue interest.

Section 2.09 Treasury Notes.

In determining whether the Holders of the required principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, waiver or consent, Notes owned by the Issuer, any Guarantor or by any Person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with the Issuer or any Guarantor (other than any persons that have beneficial ownership of the Notes on the Issue Date) or held by the Holding Period Trustee will be considered as though not outstanding, except that for the purposes of determining whether the Trustee and the Registrar will be protected in relying on any such direction, waiver or consent, only Notes that the Trustee and the Registrar know are so owned will be so disregarded.

Section 2.10 Temporary Notes.

Until certificates representing Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuer may prepare and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, will authenticate, or cause its Authenticating Agent to authenticate, temporary Notes. Temporary Notes will be substantially in the form of certificated Notes but may have variations that the Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Notes and as may be reasonably acceptable to the Trustee. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuer will prepare and the Trustee or Authenticating Agent will authenticate permanent Notes in exchange for temporary Notes.

Holders of temporary Notes will be entitled to all of the benefits of this Indenture.

Section 2.11 Cancellation.

The Issuer at any time may deliver Notes to the Registrar for cancellation. Each Paying Agent and any Transfer Agent will forward to the Registrar any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Registrar or Paying Agent (other than the Issuer or a subsidiary or an Affiliate of any thereof) and no one else will cancel all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment, replacement or cancellation and will destroy canceled Notes (subject to the record retention requirement of the U.S. Exchange Act). Certification of the destruction of all canceled Notes will be delivered to the Issuer upon written request. The Issuer may not issue new Notes to replace Notes that it has paid or that have been delivered to the Registrar for cancellation.

Section 2.12 Defaulted Interest.

If the Issuer defaults in a payment of interest on the Notes, it will pay the defaulted interest in any lawful manner plus, to the extent lawful, interest payable on the defaulted interest, to the Persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date, in each case at the rate provided in the Notes and in Section 4.01. The Issuer will notify the Trustee and the Paying Agent in writing of the amount of defaulted interest proposed to be paid on each Note and the date of the proposed payment. The Issuer will fix or cause to be fixed each such special record date and payment date; provided that no such special record date may be less than 10 days prior to the related payment date for such defaulted interest. At least 15 days before the special record date, the Issuer (or, upon the written request of the Issuer, the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer) will mail or cause to be mailed to Holders a notice that states the special record date, the related payment date and the amount of such interest to be paid.

Section 2.13 Common Code or ISIN Number.

The Issuer, in issuing the Notes, may use a common code or “ISIN” number and, if so, such common code or ISIN number shall be included in notices of redemption or exchange as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the common code or ISIN number printed in the notice or on the Notes, and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes, and any such redemption or exchange shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers.

The Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee and the Agents of any change in the common code or ISIN number.

Section 2.14 Deposit of Moneys.

(a) Prior to 10:00 a.m., London time, one Business Day prior to each interest payment date, the Stated Maturity date of the Notes and each payment date relating to a Change of Control Offer, and on the Business Day immediately following any acceleration of the Notes pursuant to Section 6.02, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent in immediately available funds money sufficient to make cash payments, if any, due on such day or date, as the case may be, in a timely manner which permits the Trustee or relevant Paying Agent to remit payment to the Holders on such day or date, as the case may be. Subject to actual receipt of such funds as provided by this Section 2.14 by the designated Paying Agent, such Paying Agent shall make payments on the Notes in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Paying Agent of its failure to so act.

Section 2.15 Agents.

(a) Actions of Agents. The rights, powers, duties and obligations and actions of each Agent under this Indenture are several and not joint or joint and several.

(b) Agents of Trustee. The Issuer and the Agents acknowledge and agree that in the event of a Default or Event of Default, the Trustee may, by notice in writing to the Issuer and the Agents, require that the Agents act as agents of, and take instructions exclusively from, the Trustee. Without prejudice to Section 2.04, until they have received such written notice from the Trustee, the Agents shall act solely as agents of the Issuer.

(c) Publication of Notices. Any obligation the Agents may have to publish a notice to Holders of Global Notes on behalf of the Issuer will have been met upon delivery of the notice to the Common Depositary.

(d) Authorized Signatories. The Issuer shall provide the Agents with a certified list of authorized signatories within a reasonable time following a request for such list by an Agent.

(e) Resignation of Agents. Any Agent may resign and be discharged from its duties under this Indenture at any time by giving thirty (30) days' prior written notice of such resignation to the Trustee and Issuer; provided that in the case of the resignation of a Paying Agent, no such resignation shall take effect until a new Paying Agent has been appointed by the Issuer to exercise the powers and undertake the duties hereby conferred and imposed upon the Paying Agent. The Trustee or the Issuer may remove any Agent at any time by giving thirty (30) days' prior written notice to any Agent. Upon such notice, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor Agent, who shall provide written notice of such to the Trustee. Such successor Agent shall become the Agent hereunder upon the resignation or removal date specified in such notice. If the Issuer is unable to replace the resigning Agent within thirty (30) days after such notice, the Agent shall deliver any funds then held hereunder in its possession to the Trustee or may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Agent or for other appropriate relief. The costs and expenses (including its counsels' fees and expenses) incurred by the Agent in connection with such proceeding shall be paid by the Issuer. Upon receipt of the identity of the successor Agent, the Agent shall deliver any funds then held hereunder to the successor Agent, less the Agent's fees, costs and expenses or other obligations owed to the Agent. Upon its resignation and delivery of any funds, the Agent shall be discharged of and from any and all further obligations arising in connection with this Indenture, but shall continue to enjoy the benefit of Section 7.06.

(f) Mechanical Nature. The roles, duties and functions of the Agents are of a mechanical nature and each Agent shall only perform those acts and duties as specifically set out in this Indenture and no other acts, covenants, obligations or duties shall be implied or read into this Indenture against any of the Agents.

(g) Instructions. In the event that instructions given to any Agent are not reasonably clear, then such Agent shall be entitled to seek reasonable clarification from the Issuer or other party entitled to give the Agents instructions under this Indenture by written request immediately and in any event on the same Business Day of receipt by such Agent of such instructions. If an Agent has sought clarification in accordance with this Section 2.15, then such Agent shall be entitled to take no action until such clarification is provided, and shall not incur any liability for not taking any action pending receipt of such clarification.

(h) No Duty. Except as otherwise set forth herein, no Agent shall be under any duty or other obligation towards, or have any relationship of agency or trust for or with, any person other than the Issuer.

ARTICLE 3 REDEMPTION AND PREPAYMENT

Section 3.01 Notices to Trustee.

If the Issuer elects to redeem Notes pursuant to the optional redemption provisions of Section 3.07, it must furnish to the Trustee (with a copy to the Paying Agent and Registrar), at least five Business Days (or such shorter time frame that may be otherwise agreed) prior to issuing a notice of redemption pursuant to Section 3.03, an Officer's Certificate setting forth:

- (1) the clause of this Indenture pursuant to which the redemption shall occur;
- (2) the redemption date and the record date;
- (3) the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed;
- (4) the redemption price; and
- (5) the common codes or ISIN numbers.

Section 3.02 Selection of Notes to Be Redeemed or Purchased.

If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed or purchased in an offer to purchase at any time, the Trustee or the Registrar, as applicable, will select Notes for redemption or purchase on a pro rata basis (or, in the case of Global Notes, based on a method that most nearly approximates pro rata selection in accordance with the procedures of the relevant clearing system, unless otherwise required by law or applicable stock exchange or depository requirements. The Trustee and the Registrar shall not be liable for selections made in accordance with this Section 3.02. Notes in excess of $1,000 in aggregate principal amount can be redeemed in part in integral multiples of $1.

No Notes of $1,000 in aggregate principal amount or less will be purchased or redeemed in part.

Notices of redemption will be given to each Holder pursuant to Section 3.03 and Section 14.01.

In relation to Definitive Registered Notes, a new Note in principal amount equal to the unpurchased or unredeemed portion of any Note purchased or redeemed in part will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Note. In the case of a Global Note, an appropriate notation will be made on such Note to decrease the principal amount thereof to an amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof. Notes called for redemption become due on the date fixed for redemption. On and after any purchase or redemption date, unless the Issuer defaults in payment of the purchase or redemption price, interest shall cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof tendered for purchase or called for redemption.

Section 3.03 Notice of Redemption.

At least 10 days but not more than 60 days before a redemption date, the Issuer will mail or cause to be mailed (with a copy to the Trustee and Paying Agent), by first class mail or electronically, a notice of redemption to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed at its registered address, except that redemption notices may be mailed more than 60 days prior to a redemption date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the Notes or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Article 8 or Article 13. In addition, for so long as the Notes are listed on the Official List of the Exchange and the rules of the Exchange so require, the Issuer shall publish any notice of redemption in accordance with the prevailing rules of the Exchange.

The notice will identify the Notes to be redeemed and will state:

- (1) the redemption date and the record date;
- (2) the redemption price and the amount of accrued interest, if any, and Additional Amounts, if any, to be paid;
- (3) if any Global Note is being redeemed in part, the portion of the principal amount of such Global Note to be redeemed and that, after the redemption date upon surrender of such Global Note, the principal amount thereof will be decreased by the portion thereof redeemed pursuant thereto;
- (4) if any Definitive Registered Note is being redeemed in part, the portion of the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed, and that, after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Note, a new Definitive Registered Note or Definitive Registered Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Definitive Registered Note;
- (5) the name and address of the Paying Agent(s) to which the Notes are to be surrendered for redemption;
- (6) that Notes called for redemption must be surrendered to the relevant Paying Agent to collect the redemption price, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, and Additional Amounts, if any;
- (7) that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment, interest, and Additional Amounts, if any, on Notes called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the redemption date;
- (8) the paragraph of the Notes and/or Section of this Indenture pursuant to which the Notes called for redemption are being redeemed; and
- (9) that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the common codes or ISIN numbers listed in such notice or printed on the Notes.

If the Issuer elects to redeem the Notes or portions thereof and requests the Trustee to distribute to the Holders any amounts deposited in trust (which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include accrued and unpaid interest to the date fixed for redemption) prior to the date fixed for redemption in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 13.01 and in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the applicable notice of redemption will state that Holders will receive such amounts deposited in trust prior to the date fixed for redemption and mention the payment date.

At the Issuer's request, the Trustee will give the notice of redemption in the Issuer's name and at its expense; provided, however, that the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee, at least five Business Days prior to the publication of the notice of redemption (or such shorter time frame that may be otherwise agreed), an Officer's Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in Section 3.01.

The Trustee will not be liable for selection made by it as contemplated in this Section 3.03. For Notes that are represented by Global Notes held on behalf of the Common Depositary, notices may be given by delivery of the relevant notices to the Common Depositary for communication to entitled account holders in substitution for the aforesaid mailing.

Section 3.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption.

(a) A redemption and notice may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, including (without limitation) that the Issuer has received or any Paying Agent has received from the Issuer or a Person on behalf of the Issuer sufficient funds to pay the full redemption price payable to the Holders of the Notes on or before the relevant redemption date. Notice of any redemption upon any Equity Offering may be given prior to the completion thereof, and any such redemption or notice may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, completion of the related Equity Offering. If such redemption is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, the notice of such redemption shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the redemption date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied, or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied by the redemption date, or by the redemption date so delayed. In addition, the Issuer may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of the Issuer's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Section 3.05 Deposit of Redemption or Purchase Price.

(a) On or prior to 10:00 a.m. London time on the date of such redemption or purchase, the Issuer will deposit with the Trustee (or such entity designated by the Trustee for this purpose) or with the Paying Agent money sufficient to pay the redemption or purchase price of, accrued interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on all Notes to be redeemed or purchased on that date. The Trustee or the Paying Agent will promptly return to the Issuer any money deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent by the Issuer in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the redemption or purchase price of, accrued interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on all Notes to be redeemed or purchased.

(b) If the Issuer complies with clause (a) of this Section 3.05, on and after the redemption or purchase date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or the portions of Notes called for redemption or purchase. If a Note is redeemed or purchased on or after an interest record date but on or prior to the related interest payment date, then any accrued and unpaid interest shall be paid to the Person in whose name such Note was registered at the close of business on such record date. If any Note called for redemption or purchase is not so paid upon surrender for redemption or purchase because of the failure of the Issuer to comply with the preceding paragraph, interest shall be paid on the unpaid principal, from the redemption or purchase date until such principal is paid, and to the extent lawful on any interest not paid on such unpaid principal, in each case at the rate provided in the Notes and in Section 4.01.

In the case of Definitive Registered Notes, upon surrender of a Note that is redeemed or purchased in part, the Issuer will issue and, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent will authenticate for the Holder at the expense of the Issuer a new Note equal in principal amount to the unredeemed or unpurchased portion of the Note surrendered, provided that any Note shall be in a principal amount of $1,000 or an integral multiple of $1 above $1,000.

Section 3.07 Optional Redemption.

(a) At any time prior to December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice to the Holders, at a price equal to 109.875% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to, but not including, the date set for the redemption of the Notes (subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date), with the net cash proceeds of one or more Equity Offerings; provided that:

(1) at least 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes under this Indenture remains outstanding immediately after the occurrence of such redemption; and

(2) the redemption occurs within 180 days of the date of the closing of such Equity Offering.

(b) Except pursuant to clause (a) and (e) of this Section 3.07 and except pursuant to Section 3.08, the Notes may not be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuer prior to December 1, 2022; provided, however, that the Issuer, the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may acquire the Notes by means other than a redemption, whether by open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, in accordance with applicable securities laws so long as (A) such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of this Indenture and (B) such acquired Notes will not be deemed to be outstanding and the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries and affiliates shall not be entitled to any of the voting rights provided to Holders under this Indenture.

(c) On or after December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem, in whole or in part, the Notes upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice to the Holders, at the prices (expressed as percentages of the outstanding principal amount on the redemption date) set forth below, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes redeemed, to, but not including, the applicable redemption date if repaid during the period beginning on the dates indicated below (subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date):

Year
December 1, 2022	104.938%
December 1, 2023	102.469%
December 1, 2024 and thereafter	100.000%

(d) At any time prior to December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem, in whole or in part, the Notes, upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice to the Holders, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed, plus the Applicable Premium (as calculated by the Issuer) as of, and accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes being redeemed to, but not including, the redemption date (subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date).

(e) In addition, at any time prior to December 1, 2022, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, the Issuer may redeem, during each twelve-month period commencing on the Issue Date, up to 10% of the original principal amount of the Notes (including the original principal amount of any Additional Notes of the same series) at a redemption price equal to 103% of the principal amount redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to, but not including, the applicable redemption date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with any tender offer for the Notes, if Holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in such tender offer and the Issuer, or any third party making such a tender offer in lieu of the Issuer, purchases all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuer or such third party will have the right upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to the Holders of the Notes, given not more than 30 days following such purchase date, to redeem all Notes that remain outstanding following such purchase at a price equal to the price paid to each other Holder in such tender offer (other than any incentive payment for early tenders), plus, to the extent not included in the tender offer payment, accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, thereon, to, but not including, the redemption date. In determining whether the Holders of at least 90% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes have validly tendered and not withdrawn Notes in a tender offer or other offer to purchase for all of the Notes, as applicable, Notes owned by an Affiliate of the Issuer or by funds controlled or managed by any Affiliate of the Issuer, or any successor thereof, shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purposes of such tender offer or other offer, as applicable.

(i) Unless the Issuer defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable redemption date.

(j) Any redemption or notice may, in the Issuer's discretion, be subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent.

Section 3.08 Redemption for Changes in Taxes.

The Issuer may redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at its discretion at any time upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to the Holders (which notice will be irrevocable and given in accordance with the procedures described in Section 3.02), at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date fixed by the Issuer for redemption (a "Tax Redemption Date") and all Additional Amounts (if any) then due and which will become due on the Tax Redemption Date as a result of the redemption or otherwise (and subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date and Additional Amounts (if any) in respect thereof), if the Issuer or a Guarantor, as the case may be, on the next date on which any amount would be payable in respect of the Notes or any Guarantee, is or would be required to pay Additional Amounts, and the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor (but, in the case of a Guarantor, only if the payment giving rise to such requirement cannot be made by the Issuer or another Guarantor, who can make such payment without the obligation to pay Additional Amounts) cannot avoid any such payment obligation by taking reasonable measures available (including making payment through a Paying Agent located in another jurisdiction), as a result of:

(1) any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction affecting taxation which change or amendment has not been publicly announced before the date of this Indenture and becomes effective on or after the date of this Indenture (or, if a Tax Jurisdiction has been added since the date of this Indenture, the date on which that Tax Jurisdiction became a Tax Jurisdiction under this Indenture); or

(2) any change in, or amendment to, the existing official written position regarding the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings (including a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction or a change in published practice), which change, amendment, application or interpretation has not been publicly announced before the date of this Indenture and becomes effective on or after the date of this Indenture (or, if a Tax Jurisdiction has been added since the date of this Indenture, the date on which that Tax Jurisdiction became a Tax Jurisdiction under this Indenture).

The Issuer will not give any such notice of redemption earlier than 60 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer, or Guarantor, as the case may be, would be obligated to make such payment or withholding if a payment in respect of the Notes or any Guarantee were then due. Prior to the publication or, where relevant, mailing of any notice of redemption of the Notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel, the choice of such counsel to be subject to the prior written approval of the Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), to the effect that there has been such change or amendment which would obligate the Issuer or a Guarantor to make such payment or withholding and an Officer's Certificate to the effect that the Issuer or Guarantor, as the case may be, cannot avoid such payment or withholding by taking reasonable measures available to it. For the avoidance of doubt, reasonable measures shall not include anything which has any material impact on the business of the Issuer or Guarantor, or which would cause the Issuer or Guarantor to incur any material costs. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such Opinion of Counsel and Officer's Certificate as sufficient evidence of the conditions as described in this Section 3.08, in which event it will be conclusive and binding on all Holders.

Any redemption and notice described in this Section 3.08 will be subject to the receipt by the Issuer or any Paying Agent of sufficient funds from the Issuer to pay the full redemption price payable to the Holders on or before the Tax Redemption Date.

Section 3.09 Offer to Purchase by Application of Excess Proceeds and Notes Offer.

In the event that, pursuant to Section 4.10, the Issuer is required to commence an Asset Sale Offer (as defined in Section 4.10) or a Notes Offer, it will follow the procedures specified in this Section 3.09.

Each Asset Sale Offer and Notes Offer shall be made to all Holders and, to the extent applicable, with respect to an Asset Sale Offer, to all holders of other Indebtedness that is pari passu with the Notes or any Guarantee with respect to an Asset Sale Offer. Each Asset Sale Offer and Notes Offer will remain open for a period of at least 10 Business Days following its commencement and not more than 30 Business Days, except to the extent that a longer period is required by applicable law (the “Offer Period”). No later than three Business Days after the termination of the Offer Period (the “Purchase Date”), the Issuer will apply all Excess Proceeds, in the case of an Asset Sale Offer, or the applicable Net Proceeds, in the case of a Notes Offer, (the “Offer Amount”) to the purchase of Notes and, if applicable, such other Pari Passu Indebtedness (on a pro rata basis based on the principal amount of Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness surrendered, if applicable) or, if less than the Offer Amount has been tendered, all Notes and, if applicable, other Indebtedness tendered in response to the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as the case may be. Payment for any Notes so purchased will be made in the same manner as interest payments are made.

If the Purchase Date is on or after an interest record date and on or before the related interest payment date, any accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will be paid to the Person in whose name a Note is registered at the close of business on such record date, and no additional interest will be payable to Holders who tender Notes pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as the case may be.

Upon the commencement of an Asset Sale Offer or a Notes Offer, the Issuer will send, by first class mail or electronically, a notice to the Trustee, the Paying Agent and each of the Holders. The notice will contain all instructions and materials necessary to enable such Holders to tender Notes pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer or the Notes Offer, as applicable. The notice, which will govern the terms of the Asset Sale Offer or the Notes Offer, as applicable, will state:

- (1) that the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, is being made pursuant to this Section 3.09 and Section 4.10 and the length of time the Asset Sale Offer will remain open;
- (2) the Offer Amount, the purchase price and the Purchase Date;
- (3) that any Note not tendered or accepted for payment will continue to accrue interest;
- (4) that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such payment, any Note accepted for payment pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, will cease to accrue interest after the Purchase Date;
- (5) that Holders electing to have a Note purchased pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer may elect to have Notes purchased in integral multiples of $1 only (provided that Notes of $1,000 or less may only be redeemed in whole and not in part);
- (6) that Holders electing to have Notes purchased pursuant to any Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, will be required to surrender the Note, with the form entitled “Option of Holder to Elect Purchase” attached to the Notes completed, or transfer by book-entry transfer, to the Issuer, a Common Depositary, if appointed by the Issuer, or a Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice at least three days before the Purchase Date;

(7) that Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Issuer or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, receives, not later than the expiration of the Offer Period, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Note the Holder delivered for purchase and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Note purchased;

(8) that, if the aggregate principal amount of Notes and, in the case of an Asset Sale Offer, other Pari Passu Indebtedness tendered into (or to be prepaid or redeemed in connection with) such Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds or if the aggregate amount of Notes tendered pursuant to a Notes Offer exceeds the amount of Net Proceeds so applied, the Issuer will select the Notes and, in the case of an Asset Sale Offer, such other Pari Passu Indebtedness to be purchased on a pro rata (or in the manner described in Section 3.02) basis based on the principal amount of Notes and, in the case of an Asset Sale Offer, such other Pari Passu Indebtedness tendered or required to be prepaid or redeemed (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Issuer so that only Notes in denominations of $1, or integral multiples thereof, will be purchased (provided that Notes of $1,000 or less may only be redeemed in whole and not in part)); and

(9) that Holders whose Definitive Registered Notes were purchased only in part will be issued new Definitive Registered Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered (or transferred by book-entry transfer).

On or before the Purchase Date, the Issuer will, to the extent lawful, accept for payment, on a pro rata basis to the extent necessary, the Offer Amount of Notes or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, or if less than the Offer Amount has been tendered, all Notes tendered, and will deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes properly accepted together with an Officer's Certificate stating that such Notes or portions thereof were accepted for payment by the Issuer in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.09. The Issuer, the Common Depositary or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, will promptly (but in any case not later than five days after the Purchase Date) mail or deliver to, or procure the mailing or delivery to, each tendering Holder an amount equal to the purchase price of the Notes tendered by such Holder and accepted by the Issuer for purchase. In connection with any partial purchase of Definitive Registered Notes, the Issuer will promptly issue a new Definitive Registered Note, and the Trustee, upon written request from the Issuer, will procure the authentication of and mail or deliver such new Definitive Registered Note to the tendering Holder, in a principal amount equal to any unpurchased portion of the Definitive Registered Note surrendered. Any Note tendered but not accepted shall be promptly mailed or delivered by the Issuer to the Holder thereof. The Issuer will publicly announce and inform the Exchange (for as long as the Notes are listed on the Official List of the Exchange) of the results of the Asset Sale Offer or Notes Offer, as applicable, on the Purchase Date.

Other than as specifically provided in this Section 3.09, any purchase pursuant to this Section 3.09 shall be made pursuant to Section 3.01 through to Section 3.06.

Section 3.10 Mandatory Redemption.

The Issuer is not required to make mandatory redemption payments or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes.

ARTICLE 4 COVENANTS

Section 4.01 Payments of Notes.

The Issuer will pay or cause to be paid the principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes on the dates and in the manner provided in the Notes and this Indenture. Principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, will be considered paid on the date due if the Paying Agent, if other than the Company or a Subsidiary thereof, holds as of 10:00 a.m. (London time) on the due date money deposited by the Issuer in immediately available funds and designated for and sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest and Additional Amounts, if any, then due. If the Company or any of its Subsidiaries acts as Paying Agent, principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, shall be considered paid on the due date if the entity acting as Paying Agent complies with Section 2.04.

If the due date for any payment in respect of any Notes (including any interest payment date) is not a Business Day, the Holder thereof will not be entitled to payment of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day, and will not be entitled to any further interest or other payment as a result of any such delay.

The Issuer will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue principal at a rate that is 1% higher than the then applicable interest rate on the Notes to the extent lawful. The Issuer will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue installments of interest and Additional Amounts, if any (without regard to any applicable grace period), at the same rate to the extent lawful.

Section 4.02 Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Issuer will maintain the offices and agencies specified in Section 2.03. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of the location, and any change in the location, of such office or agency. If at any time the Issuer fails to maintain any such required office or agency or fails to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Trust Office of the Trustee.

The Issuer may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where the Notes may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind such designations. The Issuer will give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation or rescission and of any change in the location of any such other office or agency.

The Issuer hereby designates the Trust Office of the Trustee (the address of which is specified in Section 14.01) as one such office or agency of the Issuer in accordance with Section 2.03.

(c) All financial statement and pro forma financial information shall be prepared in accordance with IFRS as in effect on the date of such report or financial statement (or otherwise on the basis of IFRS as then in effect) and on a consistent basis for the periods presented; provided, however, that the reports set forth in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of Section 4.03(a) may, in the event of a change in applicable IFRS, present earlier periods on a basis that applied to such periods. No report needs to include separate financial statements for any Subsidiaries of the Company. In addition, the reports set forth above will not be required to contain any reconciliation to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

(d) At any time that any of the Company's subsidiaries are Unrestricted Subsidiaries and any such Unrestricted Subsidiary or a group of Unrestricted Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, constitutes a Significant Subsidiary of the Company, then the quarterly and annual financial information required by Section 4.03(a) will include a reasonably detailed presentation, either on the face of the financial statements or in the footnotes thereto, of the financial condition and results of operations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries

(2) Details of such conference calls will either (x) be delivered with each report or (y) posted on an electronic website that is used by the Company to communicate to its investors or the equity holders generally for which the Holders have been, prior to the posting of such notice, informed of the website address and relevant password specifications, which notice shall constitute reasonable notice of such public calls for the purpose of this Section 4.03(f).

(g) In addition, so long as the Notes remain outstanding and during any period during which the Company is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the U.S. Exchange Act nor exempt therefrom pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b), the Company shall furnish to the Holders and, upon their request, prospective purchasers of the Notes, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4).

Section 4.08 Dividend and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Subsidiaries.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create or cause to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to:

(b) The restrictions in Section 4.08(a) will not apply to encumbrances or restrictions existing under or by reason of:

(1) agreements governing Indebtedness outstanding on the Issue Date (including any Senior Facilities Agreement), and any other agreements of the Company or its Restricted Subsidiaries, in each case as in effect on the Issue Date and taking into account any additional security contemplated by their terms and any amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of such agreements; provided that such amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings are not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions than those contained in such agreements on the Issue Date or comparable financings at the time of determination or would not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially impair the ability to make payments of amounts due in respect of the Notes or comply with the respective obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries under the Notes;

(2) this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees, the Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Documents and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement;

(5) non-assignment provisions, subletting restrictions or similar restrictions in contracts, leases and licenses entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(7) any agreement for the sale or other disposition of the Capital Stock or assets of a Restricted Subsidiary that restricts distributions by that Restricted Subsidiary pending closing of the sale or other disposition;

(8) Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness; provided that any such encumbrances or restrictions contained in the agreements governing such Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness taken as a whole are not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than those contained in the agreements governing the Indebtedness being refinanced or comparable financings at the time of determination or would not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially impair the ability to make payments of amounts due in respect of the Notes or comply with the respective obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries under the Notes;

(9) Liens permitted to be Incurred as set forth under Section 4.12 that limit the right of the debtor to dispose of the assets securing such Indebtedness;

(11) Hedging Obligations entered into from time to time for bona fide purposes of the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries;

(12) restrictions on cash, Cash Equivalents, Government Guaranteed Securities or other deposits or net worth imposed by customers, suppliers, or lessors or required by insurance, surety or bonding companies under contracts or leases entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(13) other Indebtedness of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries permitted to be Incurred after the Issue Date under Section 4.09; provided that in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management such encumbrances or restrictions taken as a whole are not materially less favorable to the Holders with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions, taken as a whole, than those contained in Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees, any Senior Facilities Agreement and the Collateral Documents on the Issue Date or customary in comparable financings at the time of determination or would not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially impair the ability to make payments of amounts due in respect of the Notes or comply with the respective obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries under the Notes;

(14) encumbrances on property that exist at the time the property was acquired by the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company;

(15) contractual encumbrances or restrictions in effect on the Issue Date, and any amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of those agreements; provided that such amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings are not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions than those contained in such agreements on the Issue Date or comparable financings at the time of determination or would not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially impair the ability to make payments of amounts due in respect of the Notes or comply with the respective obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries under the Notes;

(16) any mortgage financing or mortgage refinancing that imposes restrictions on the real property securing such Indebtedness;

(17) any Qualified Receivables Financing; or

(18) any encumbrances or restrictions imposed by any agreement that amends, renews, refinances, extends, refunds, replaces, defeases or discharges any of the contracts, instruments or obligations referred to in clauses (1) through (17) of this Section 4.08(b); provided that the encumbrances and restrictions contained in such agreement are not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than such encumbrances and restrictions prior to such amendment or refinancing or than those contained in any comparable agreements or financings at the time of determination or would not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors or senior management, materially impair the ability to make payments of amounts due in respect of the Notes or comply with the respective obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries under the Notes.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, Incur any Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt) and the Company will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to issue any preferred stock; provided, however that the Company may Incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt) and the Restricted Subsidiaries of the Company may Incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt) or issue preferred stock, if the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of the Company for the period of the most recent four consecutive fiscal quarters for which internal financial statements of the Company are available immediately preceding the date on which such additional Indebtedness is Incurred or such preferred stock is issued, as the case may be, would have been at least 2.0 to 1.0, determined on a pro forma basis (including the pro forma application of the proceeds therefrom), as if the additional Indebtedness had been Incurred or the preferred stock had been issued, as the case may be, at the beginning of such four-quarter period.

(A) the greater of (x) $225.0 million and (y) 100% of Consolidated EBITDA; plus

(B) the maximum amount of Senior Secured Indebtedness such that, on the date of determination, after giving pro forma effect to such Incurrence (including pro forma application of the proceeds thereof), the Consolidated Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio of the Company does not exceed 2.5 to 1.0, provided that any Indebtedness or preferred stock Incurred pursuant to this clause (1) may be refinanced (including, for the avoidance of doubt, an extension, renewal, refund, replacement, defeasance, or discharge) at any time if such refinancing Indebtedness or preferred stock does not exceed the greater of (I) the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness or preferred stock permitted to be Incurred pursuant to this clause (1) on the date of determination for such refinancing and (II) the aggregate principal amount of the Indebtedness or preferred stock being refinanced at such time (together with an amount necessary to pay fees, commissions, premiums, discounts, costs and expenses (including underwriting commissions paid as discounts) Incurred in connection with such refinancing);

(c) For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 4.09:

(1) in the event that an item of Indebtedness or preferred stock meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of Permitted Debt described in clauses (1) through (22) of Section 4.09(b) or is entitled to be Incurred pursuant to Section 4.09(a), the Company will be permitted to classify such item of Indebtedness or preferred stock on the date of its Incurrence and will only be required to include the amount and type of such Indebtedness or preferred stock in one of such clauses, although the Company may divide and classify an item of Indebtedness or preferred stock in one or more of the types of Indebtedness or preferred stock and may later reclassify all or a portion of such item of Indebtedness or preferred stock, in any manner that complies with this Section 4.09;

(f) Neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor will Incur any Indebtedness (including Permitted Debt) that is contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or such Guarantor unless such Indebtedness is also contractually subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and the applicable Guarantee on substantially identical terms; provided, however, that no Indebtedness will be deemed to be contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Guarantor solely by virtue of being unsecured or by virtue of being secured with different collateral or by virtue of being secured on a junior priority basis or by virtue of the application of waterfall or other payment ordering provisions affecting different tranches of Indebtedness.

Section 4.10 Asset Sales.

(a) The Company will not, and will not cause or permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, consummate an Asset Sale unless:

(c) Within 365 days after the receipt of any Net Proceeds from an Asset Sale, the Company (or any Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, as the case may be) may:

(1) apply such Net Proceeds, at its option:

(A) to repay or redeem (v) Indebtedness outstanding under Section 4.09(b)(1)(A), (w) Pari Passu Indebtedness Incurred under a Credit Facility that is secured by a Lien on the Collateral and that is not subordinated in right of payment to the Notes or any Guarantee, (x) Senior Secured Indebtedness that is Pari Passu Indebtedness at a purchase price of no more than 100% of the principal amount of such Pari Passu Indebtedness, so long as the Issuer (or the Company or applicable Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be) makes an offer on a pro rata basis to all Holders at a purchase price in cash equal to at least 100% of the principal amount of the Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, in accordance with the provisions set forth under Section

4.10(d)-(j), (y) any Indebtedness that was secured by any assets not constituting Collateral sold in such Asset Sale, or any other Indebtedness secured only by assets not constituting Collateral, (z) Indebtedness of a Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor (other than Indebtedness owed to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries), (aa) the Notes pursuant to an offer to all Holders at a purchase price equal to at least 100% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of purchase (a “Notes Offer”), or (bb) (in full or in part) the Notes pursuant to the redemption provisions set forth in Section 3.07;

(B) to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, or any Capital Stock of, another Permitted Business; provided that in the case of any such acquisition of Capital Stock, the Permitted Business is or becomes a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company;

(C) to make a capital expenditure or other Investment in any person engaged in a Permitted Business;

(D) to acquire other assets that are not classified as current assets under IFRS and that are used or useful in a Permitted Business, or

(2) enter into a binding commitment to apply the Net Proceeds pursuant to clause (B), (C) or (D) of Section 4.10(c)(1), provided that such binding commitment shall be treated as a permitted application of the Net Proceeds from the date of such commitment until the earlier of (x) the date on which such acquisition or expenditure is consummated, and (y) the 180th day following the expiration of the aforementioned 365 day period; or provided that if the assets sold or transferred in such Asset Sale constituted Collateral (other than assets that only constitute part of the Collateral because such assets are subject to a floating charge or equivalent Lien), the Company shall pledge or shall cause the applicable Restricted Subsidiary to pledge any assets (including without limitation any acquired Capital Stock) acquired (which for the avoidance of doubt shall not include capital expenditure under Section 4.10(c)(1)(C)) with the Net Proceeds of such Asset Sale to secure (to the extent required by the Agreed Security Principles) the Notes on a first-priority basis.

(3) any combination of Section 4.10(c)(1) and Section 4.10(c)(2),

(d) Any Net Proceeds from Asset Sales that are not applied, invested or subject to a Notes Offer as provided in Section 4.10(c) will constitute “Excess Proceeds”. When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds exceeds the greater of $45.0 million and 20.0% of Consolidated EBITDA, within 10 Business Days thereof, or at any earlier time at the Issuer’s election, the Issuer will make an offer to all Holders (an “Asset Sale Offer”) and (at the Issuer’s election) all holders of other Indebtedness that is pari passu with the Notes or any Guarantee to purchase, prepay or redeem with the proceeds of sales of assets the maximum principal amount of Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness (plus all accrued interest on the Indebtedness and the amount of all fees and expenses, including premiums, Incurred in connection therewith) that may be purchased, prepaid or redeemed out of the Excess Proceeds. The offer price in any Asset Sale Offer will be equal to (solely in the case of the Notes) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes and (solely in the case of Pari Passu Indebtedness) no greater than 100% of the principal amount (or accreted value, as applicable) of such Pari Passu Indebtedness, plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the date of repayment and will be payable in cash. If any Excess Proceeds remain after consummation of an Asset Sale Offer or any Net Proceeds subject to a Notes Offer remain after consummation of a Notes Offer, the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries may use those Excess Proceeds or Net Proceeds for any purpose not otherwise prohibited by this Indenture. If the aggregate principal amount of Notes and other Pari Passu Indebtedness tendered into (or to be prepaid or redeemed in connection with) such Asset Sale Offer exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds or if the aggregate principal amount of Notes tendered pursuant to a Notes Offer exceeds the amount of the Net Proceeds so applied, the Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness to be prepaid or redeemed shall be prepaid or redeemed on a pro rata basis based on the principal amount of Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness presented for purchase. The Notes to be prepaid or redeemed will be selected, if applicable, in the manner described in Section 3.02. Upon completion of each Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds will be reset at zero. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer may make an Asset Sale Offer prior to the expiration of the 365-day period referred to in Section 4.10(c).

(e) To the extent that any portion of Net Proceeds payable in respect of the Notes is denominated in a currency other than dollars, as the case may be, the amount thereof payable in respect of such Notes shall not exceed the net amount of funds in U.S. Dollars that is actually received by the Issuer upon converting such portion of the Net Proceeds into U.S. Dollars.

(f) Pending the final application of any Net Proceeds, the Company (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) may temporarily reduce revolving credit borrowings or otherwise invest the Net Proceeds in any manner that is not prohibited by this Indenture.

(g) Not later than the date upon which written notice of an Asset Sale Offer is delivered to the Trustee, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate as to (i) the amount of the Excess Proceeds, (ii) the allocation of the Net Proceeds from the Asset Sales pursuant to which such Asset Sale Offer is being made and (iii) the compliance of such allocation with the provisions of this Section 4.10 and this Indenture. Upon the expiration of the Offer Period, the Issuer shall deliver to the Paying Agent for cancellation the Notes or portions thereof that have been properly presented for purchase to and are to be accepted by the Issuer. Upon receipt from the Issuer of the repurchase price for the Notes accepted for payment, the Paying Agent shall promptly (but in any case not later than 10 Business Days after the Paying Agent receives such amounts) cause to be repaid to each selling Holder an amount equal to the repurchase price of the Notes presented for purchase by such Holder and accepted by the Issuer for repayment. In the event that the Excess Proceeds delivered by the Issuer to the Paying Agent is greater than the repurchase price of the Notes presented for purchase, the Paying Agent shall deliver the excess to the Issuer without undue delay after the expiration of the Offer Period for application in accordance with this Section 4.10.

(h) Notices of an Asset Sale Offer shall be mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or electronically, at least 30 but not more than 60 days before the repayment date to each Holder at such Holder's registered address. If any Note is to be purchased in part only, any notice of purchase that relates to such Note shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof that is to be purchased. For Notes which are represented by global certificates held on behalf of the Common Depositary, notices may be given by delivery of the relevant notices to the Common Depositary for communication to entitled account holders in substitution for the aforesaid mailing.

(i) On and after the repurchase date, unless the Issuer defaults in payment of the purchase price, interest shall cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof purchased.

(j) The Asset Sale Offer and Notes Offer will comply with the requirements of any securities laws and regulations thereunder to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the purchase of the Notes as a result of an Asset Sale Offer or a Notes Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Indenture, the Issuer will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Indenture by virtue of such compliance.

Section 4.11 Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, make any payment to, or sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its properties or assets to, or purchase any property or assets from, or enter into or make or amend any transaction, contract, agreement, understanding, loan, advance or guarantee with, or for the benefit of, any Affiliate of the Company (each, an “Affiliate Transaction”), involving aggregate consideration in excess of the greater of $10.0 million and 5.0% of Consolidated EBITDA, unless:

(1) the Affiliate Transaction is on terms that are not materially less favorable to the Company or the relevant Restricted Subsidiary than those that would have been obtained in a comparable transaction by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary with a Person who is not an Affiliate; and

(2) the Company delivers to the Trustee with respect to any Affiliate Transaction or series of related Affiliate Transactions involving aggregate consideration in excess of the greater of $30.0 million and 12.5% of Consolidated EBITDA, an Officer’s Certificate and a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company certifying that such Affiliate Transaction complies with this Section 4.11.

(b) The following items will not be deemed to be Affiliate Transactions and, therefore, will not be subject to Section 4.11(a):

(1) any employment or consultancy agreement, collective bargaining agreement, employee benefit plan, officer or director indemnification agreement, including any stock option, stock appreciation rights, stock incentive, MIP or similar plans or any similar arrangement entered into by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business or consistent with past practice and payments pursuant thereto (including severance, termination and other similar payments to former or departing employees, consultants, officers or directors);

(2) transactions (including a merger) between the Company and any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or among any Restricted Subsidiaries;

(3) transactions with a Person (other than an Unrestricted Subsidiary of the Company) that is an Affiliate of the Company solely because the Company owns, directly or through a Restricted Subsidiary, an Equity Interest in, or controls, such Person;

(4) payment of reasonable fees to, reimbursements of expenses and indemnity provided on behalf of, officers, directors, employees or consultants of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or of any Parent;

(5) any issuance of Equity Interests (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company, receipt of any capital contributions in exchange for Equity Interests of the Company (other than Disqualified Stock) or the Incurrence of Subordinated Shareholder Debt;

(6) Restricted Payments and Permitted Investments (other than Permitted Investments described in clauses (3) and (9) (to the extent such guarantee is in respect of Indebtedness of a Person that is not the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary) of the definition thereof in Section 1.01) that do not violate Section 4.07;

(7) Management Advances and MIP Payments;

(8) transactions with customers, clients, suppliers, joint venture partners or purchasers or sellers of goods or services, or lessors or lessees of property or providers of employees or other labor in compliance with the terms of this Indenture which are, in the aggregate (taking into account all the costs and benefits associated with such transactions), in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors, materially no less favorable to the Company or its Restricted Subsidiaries than those that would have been obtained in a comparable transaction by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary with a Person who is not an Affiliate;

(9) Liens on Equity Interests of Unrestricted Subsidiaries of the Company for the benefit of lenders of Unrestricted Subsidiaries of the Company;

(10) if such Affiliate Transaction, following an Initial Public Offering, is with a Person in its capacity as a holder of Capital Stock of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary where such Person is treated no more favorably than the holders of Capital Stock of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary;

(11) transactions effected pursuant to agreements in effect on the Issue Date and any amendment, modification or replacement of such agreement (so long as such amendment or replacement is not, in the good faith judgment of the Company's Board of Directors, materially more disadvantageous to the Holders, taken as a whole, than the original agreement as in effect on the Issue Date);

(12) Permitted Payments to Parent;

(13) execution, delivery and performance of any consolidated group arrangements for tax or accounting purposes, provided that any payments to be made pursuant to such arrangements are made in compliance with Section 4.07;

(14) (A) issuances or sales of Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock or Designated Preference Shares) of the Company or options, warrants or other rights to acquire such Capital Stock or Subordinated Shareholder Debt and entering into any proceeds loan in respect of the proceeds of any issuance of Senior Notes; provided that the interest rate and other financial terms of such Subordinated Shareholder Debt or proceeds loans are approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company in their reasonable determination and (B) any amendment, waiver or other transaction, including satisfying payment obligations, with respect to any Subordinated Shareholder Debt or proceeds loan in compliance with the other provisions of the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable;

(15) any transaction effected as part of a Qualified Receivables Financing;

(16) any transaction effected in connection with the Restructuring.

Section 4.12 Liens.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, create, incur, assume or otherwise cause to exist or become effective any Lien of any kind securing Indebtedness upon any of their property or assets, now owned or hereafter acquired, except:

(1) in the case of any property or asset that does not constitute Collateral, (A) Permitted Liens or (B) if such Lien is not a Permitted Lien, to the extent that all payments due under this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees are secured on an equal and ratable pari passu basis with the obligations so secured (or if such obligations so secured are subordinated in right of payment to either the Notes or any Guarantee, prior or senior thereto, with the same relative priority as the Notes or such Guarantee, as applicable, shall have with respect to such subordinated Indebtedness), until such time as such obligations are no longer secured by a Lien; and

(2) in the case of any property or asset that constitutes Collateral, Permitted Collateral Liens.

(b) The conditions for the release of any such Lien created in favor of the Notes or any such Guarantee pursuant to Section 4.12(a)(1)(B) is set forth Section 10.02.

Section 4.13 Limitation on Issuer Activities

(a) The Issuer will not engage in any business activity or undertake any other activity, except:

(1) any activity reasonably relating to the offering, sale, issuance, Incurrence and servicing, purchase, redemption, refinancing or retirement of the Notes, or other Indebtedness permitted by the terms of this Indenture, the granting of Liens permitted under Section 4.12 and distributing, lending or otherwise advancing funds to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries;

(2) any activity undertaken with the purpose of fulfilling any other obligations under the Notes, other Indebtedness permitted by the terms of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement (or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement entered into pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement or this Indenture) or any Collateral Document to which it is a party;

(3) Permitted Investments constituting Investments in the Company or another Restricted Subsidiary, Investments in the form of cash and Cash Equivalents and repurchases of the Notes or other Indebtedness permitted by the terms of this Indenture;

(4) Permitted Reorganization;

(5) any activity undertaken in connection with the Restructuring;

(6) any activity directly related to the establishment and/or maintenance of the Issuer's corporate existence or otherwise complying with applicable law; and

(7) other activities not specifically enumerated above that are de minimis in nature.

(b) The Issuer will not create, Incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien over any of its property or assets, or any proceeds therefrom, to secure Indebtedness, except for Liens to secure the Notes or other Indebtedness permitted to be Incurred under this Indenture to the extent Liens securing such Indebtedness are permitted to be Incurred under this Indenture.

(c) The Issuer will at all times remain a wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary of the Company. Except in accordance with Article 5 the Issuer will not merge, consolidate, amalgamate or otherwise combine with or into another Person (whether or not the Issuer is the surviving corporation) or, other than in connection with the Incurrence of a Permitted Lien or Permitted Collateral Lien, sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any material property or assets to any Person in one or more related transactions.

(d) For so long as any Notes are outstanding, none of the Company nor any of its Restricted Subsidiaries will commence or take any action or facilitate a winding-up, liquidation or other analogous proceeding in respect of the Issuer.

Section 4.14 [Reserved]

Section 4.15 Offer to Repurchase Upon Change of Control Triggering Event.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Issuer will make an offer (a "Change of Control Offer") to each Holder to repurchase all or any part (in integral multiples of $1; provided that Notes of $1,000 in aggregate principal amount or less may only be redeemed in whole and not in part) of that Holder's Notes at a purchase price in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of purchase (the "Change of Control Payment") (subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant Record Date to receive interest on the relevant Interest Payment Date); provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be obliged to repay Notes as described under this provision, in the event and to the extent that it has unconditionally exercised its right to redeem all of the Notes in accordance with this Indenture, or all conditions to such redemption have been satisfied or waived.

(b) Unless the Issuer has unconditionally exercised its right to redeem all the Notes in accordance with this Indenture or all conditions to such redemption have been satisfied or waived, no later than the date that is 60 days after any Change of Control Triggering Event, the Issuer will give notice to each Holder, stating that a Change of Control Offer is being made and offering to purchase Notes on the date specified in the notice, which shall be no earlier than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is made (the “Change of Control Payment Date”), pursuant to the procedures required by this Indenture and described in such notice, stating:

(1) that the Change of Control Offer is being made pursuant to this Section 4.15 and that all Notes tendered will be accepted for payment; and

(2) the purchase price and the purchase date or delivered;

(3) that any Note not tendered will continue to accrue interest;

(4) that, unless the Issuer defaults in the payment of the Change of Control Payment, all Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Change of Control Offer will cease to accrue interest after the Change of Control Payment Date;

(5) that Holders electing to have any Notes purchased pursuant to a Change of Control Offer will be required to surrender the Notes, with the form entitled “Option of Holder to Elect Purchase” attached to the Notes completed, or transfer by book-entry transfer, to the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice prior to the close of business on the third Business Day preceding the Change of Control Payment Date;

(6) that Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Paying Agent receives, not later than the close of business on the second Business Day preceding the Change of Control Payment Date, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of Notes delivered for purchase, and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have the Notes purchased; and

(7) that Holders whose Notes are being purchased only in part will be issued new Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, which unpurchased portion must be equal to $1,000 in principal amount or an integral multiple of $1 thereof.

(c) The Change of Control Offer will comply with the requirements of any securities laws and regulations thereunder to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of the Notes as a result of a Change of Control Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any applicable securities laws or regulations conflict with the Change of Control Triggering Event provisions of this Indenture, the Issuer will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Indenture by virtue of such compliance.

(d) On the Change of Control Payment Date, if a Change of Control Triggering Event has occurred, the Issuer will, to the extent lawful:

(1) accept for payment all Notes or portions of Notes properly tendered pursuant to the Change of Control Offer;

(2) deposit with the Paying Agent an amount equal to the Change of Control Payment in respect of all Notes or portions of Notes properly tendered; and

(3) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes properly accepted together with an Officer's Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes or portions of Notes being purchased by the Issuer pursuant to the Change of Control Offer.

(e) The relevant Paying Agent will promptly mail or cause to be delivered to each Holder which has properly tendered and so accepted the Change of Control Payment for such Notes, and the Trustee (or Authenticating Agent) will promptly authenticate and mail (or cause to be transferred by book entry) to each Holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, if any; provided that each new Note will be in a principal amount of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1 in excess thereof. Any Note so accepted for payment will cease to accrue interest on and after the Change of Control Payment Date. The Issuer will publicly announce the results of the Change of Control Offer on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Change of Control Payment Date.

(f) If a Change of Control Triggering Event has not occurred at the time of the Change of Control Payment Date, but a Change of Control Triggering Event subsequently occurs, the Issuer will be required to extend a new Change of Control Offer in compliance with the terms of this Section 4.15. The Issuer will not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control Triggering Event if (x) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Section 4.15 and purchases all Notes properly tendered for purchase and not withdrawn under the Change of Control Offer, or (y) notice of redemption has been given pursuant to Section 3.07 and all conditions thereto have been satisfied or waived, unless and until there is a default in payment of the applicable redemption price. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, a Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control Triggering Event, conditioned upon the consummation of such Change of Control Triggering Event, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control Triggering Event at the time the Change of Control Offer is made.

(g) The provisions of this Indenture relating to the Issuer's obligation to make an offer to repurchase the Notes following a Change of Control Triggering Event may be waived or modified with the prior written consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event.

Section 4.16 Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees of Indebtedness.

(a) The Company will not cause or permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries that are not Guarantors or the Issuer, directly or indirectly, to guarantee, assume or in any manner become liable with respect to any Indebtedness with an outstanding principal amount in excess of $20.0 million under any Senior Facilities Agreement, any syndicated Credit Facility or any Public Debt, in each case, of the Issuer or a Guarantor unless such Restricted Subsidiary simultaneously executes and delivers a supplemental indenture providing for the Guarantee of the payment of the Notes by such Restricted Subsidiary, which Guarantee will be senior to or pari passu with such Restricted Subsidiary's guarantee of such other Indebtedness; provided, however, that such Restricted Subsidiary shall not be obligated to execute such supplemental indenture or provide such Guarantee to the extent and for so long as the incurrence of such Guarantee is contrary to the Agreed Security Principles.

(b) Each additional Guarantee provided pursuant to Section 4.16(a) will be limited as necessary to recognize certain defenses generally available to guarantors (including those that relate to fraudulent conveyance or transfer, voidable preference, financial assistance, corporate purpose, corporate benefit, capital maintenance or similar laws, regulations or defenses affecting the rights of creditors generally) or other considerations under applicable law.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 4.16(a) and Section 4.16(b), the Company shall not be obligated to cause such Restricted Subsidiary to guarantee the Notes to the extent that such Guarantee by such Restricted Subsidiary would reasonably be expected to give rise to or result in a violation of applicable law, which, in any case, cannot be prevented or otherwise avoided through measures reasonably available to the Company or the Restricted Subsidiary or any liability for the officers, directors or shareholders of such Restricted Subsidiary. Section 4.16(a) will not be applicable to any guarantees of any Restricted Subsidiary outstanding on the Issue Date, or any guarantee given to a bank or trust company having combined capital and surplus and undivided profits of not less than $250 million, whose debt has an Investment Grade Rating by at least two Rating Agencies at the time such guarantee was given, in connection with the operation of cash management programs established for the benefit of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries.

(d) Any additional Guarantee will automatically and unconditionally be released and discharged in accordance with Section 11.06.

Section 4.17 [Reserved].

Section 4.18 Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries.

The Board of Directors of the Company may designate any Restricted Subsidiary (including any newly acquired or newly formed Subsidiary) to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary if that designation would not cause a Default. If a Restricted Subsidiary is designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, the aggregate Fair Market Value of all outstanding Investments owned by the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries in the Subsidiary designated as Unrestricted shall be deemed to be an Investment made as of the time of the designation and will reduce the amount available for Restricted Payments under Section 4.07 or under one or more clauses of such definition of Permitted Investments, as determined by the Company. That designation will only be permitted if such Investment would be permitted at that time.

Any designation of a Subsidiary of the Company as an Unrestricted Subsidiary will be evidenced to the Trustee by filing promptly with the Trustee a certified copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company giving effect to such designation and an Officer's Certificate certifying that such designation complied with the preceding conditions and was permitted under Section 4.07 or under one or more clauses of such definition of Permitted Investments, as determined by the Company. If, at any time, any Unrestricted Subsidiary would fail to meet the preceding requirements as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, it will thereafter cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of this Indenture and any Indebtedness of such Subsidiary will be deemed to be Incurred by a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company as of such date and, if such Indebtedness is not permitted to be Incurred as of such date under Section 4.09, the Company will be in Default under Section 4.09.

The Board of Directors of the Company may at any time designate any Unrestricted Subsidiary to be a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company; provided that such designation will be deemed to be an Incurrence of Indebtedness by a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company of any outstanding Indebtedness of such Unrestricted Subsidiary, and such designation will only be permitted if (1) such Indebtedness is permitted under Section 4.09, calculated on a pro forma basis taking into account such designation as if such designation had occurred at the beginning of the applicable reference period; and (2) no Default or Event of Default would be in existence following such designation.

Section 4.19 Maintenance of Listing.

The Issuer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Notes on the Official List of the Exchange or for so long as such Notes are outstanding on another “recognised stock exchange” as defined in Section 1005 of the Income Tax Act of 2007 of the United Kingdom.

Section 4.20 No Impairment of Security Interest.

(a) The Company will not, and will not cause or permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, take or knowingly or negligently omit to take, any action which action or omission would or could reasonably be expected to have the result of materially impairing the security interest with respect to the Collateral (it being understood that the Incurrence of Liens on the Collateral permitted by the definition of Permitted Collateral Liens shall under no circumstances be deemed to materially impair the security interest with respect to the Collateral) for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders, and the Company will not, and will not cause or permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, grant to any Person other than the Security Agent, for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders and the other beneficiaries described in the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, any interest whatsoever in any of the Collateral; provided that (i) nothing in this Section 4.20 shall restrict the discharge or release of the Collateral in accordance with this Indenture, the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement; (ii) the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries may Incur Permitted Collateral Liens; (iii) the applicable Collateral Documents may be amended from time to time to cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect, manifest error or inconsistency therein; (iv) the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries may discharge and release security interests with respect to the Collateral in connection with the implementation of a Permitted Reorganization, (v) the applicable Collateral Documents may be amended in any manner that does not adversely affect the rights of the Security Agent, the Trustee or the Holders of Notes in any material respects; and (vi) the security interests and the related Collateral Documents may be amended, extended, renewed, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified or released (followed by an immediate retaking of a Lien of at least equivalent ranking over the same assets); provided, however, that in the case of clause (vi) of this Section 4.20(a), the Collateral Documents may not be amended, extended, renewed, restated, supplemented, released or otherwise modified or replaced, unless contemporaneously with such amendment, extension, replacement, restatement, supplement, modification, renewal or release (followed by an immediate retaking of a Lien of at least equivalent ranking over the same assets), the Company delivers to the Trustee either:

(1) a solvency opinion from an internationally recognized investment bank or accounting firm, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee confirming the solvency of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to any transactions related to such amendment, extension, renewal, restatement, supplement, modification, replacement or release and retaking;

(2) a certificate from the Board of Directors or chief financial officer of the relevant Person or the chief financial officer of the Company, which certificate confirms the solvency of the Person granting such security interest after giving effect to any transactions related to such amendment, extension, renewal, restatement, supplement, modification, replacement or release and retaking; or

(3) an Opinion of Counsel, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee (subject to customary exceptions and qualifications), confirming that, after giving effect to any transactions related to such amendment, extension, renewal, restatement, supplement, modification, replacement or release and retaking, the Lien or Liens securing the Notes created under the Collateral Documents so amended, extended, renewed, restated, supplemented, modified, replaced or release and retaking are valid and perfected Liens not otherwise subject to any limitation imperfection, in equity or at law, that such Lien or Liens were not otherwise subject to immediately prior to such amendment, extension, renewal, restatement, supplement, modification, replacement or release and retaking (other than as a result of the effect of the Agreed Security Principles or any new hardening period).

(b) At the direction of the Company and without the consent of the Holders, the Security Agent may from time to time enter into one or more amendments to the Collateral Documents or enter into additional or supplemental Collateral Documents to: (i) cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency therein or (ii) (but subject to compliance with Section 4.20(a)) (x) provide for Permitted Collateral Liens, (y) add to the Collateral or (z) make any other change thereto that does not adversely affect the rights of the Holders in any material respect.

(c) In the event that the Company complies with this Section 4.20, the Trustee and the Security Agent shall (subject to customary protections and indemnifications) consent to such amendment, extension, renewal, restatement, supplement, modification, replacement or release with no need for instructions from Holders.

Section 4.21 Additional Amounts.

(a) All payments made by or on behalf of the Issuer under or with respect to the Notes (whether or not in the form of Definitive Registered Notes) or any of the Guarantors on its Guarantee (including in each case any Successor Person) will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the Issuer or any Guarantor (including in each case any Successor Person) is incorporated, organized, carrying on a business through a branch, agency or permanent establishment or resident for tax purposes or any political subdivision thereof or therein or any jurisdiction by or through which payment is made by or on behalf of the Issuer or any Guarantor under or with respect to the Notes or the Guarantees or any political subdivision thereof or therein (each, a “Tax Jurisdiction”), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by or on behalf of the Issuer under or with respect to the Notes or any of the Guarantors with respect to any Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor, as applicable, will pay such additional amounts (the “Additional Amounts”) as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments after such withholding or deduction (including any such deduction or withholding from such Additional Amounts) will equal the respective amounts that would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

(1) any Taxes to the extent such taxes would not have been imposed but for the Holder or the beneficial owner of the Notes (or a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, partner of, member or shareholder of, or possessor of a power over, the relevant Holder, if the relevant Holder is an estate, trust, nominee, partnership, limited liability company or corporation) being or having been a citizen or resident or national of, incorporated, present, or engaged in a trade or business in, or having or having had a permanent establishment in, the relevant Tax Jurisdiction in which such Taxes are imposed or having any other present or former connection with the relevant Tax Jurisdiction other than by the mere acquisition or holding of, exercise or enforcement of rights under, or the receipt of payments in respect of, the Notes, this Indenture or any Guarantee;

(2) any Taxes to the extent such Taxes are imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the Holder or beneficial owner of the Notes to comply with any reasonable written request, made at least 30 days before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by the Issuer or any of the Guarantors to provide timely and accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such Holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid or timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification, information or other reporting requirement, which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from all or part of, or reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of, such Taxes (in each case, to the extent such Holder or beneficial owner is legally entitled to do so);

(3) any Taxes imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Note for payment (where Notes are in the form of Definitive Registered Notes and presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the Holder (except to the extent that the Holder would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Note been presented on the last day of such 30-day period);

(4) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, transfer, personal property or similar tax, assessment or excise taxes imposed on the transfer of Notes;

(5) any Taxes withheld, deducted or imposed on a payment to an individual and which are required to be made pursuant to Luxembourg Relibi law of December 23, 2005, as amended;

(6) any Taxes payable otherwise than by deduction or withholding on or in respect of any Note or Guarantee;

(7) any Taxes that were imposed with respect to any payment on a Note to any Holder who is a fiduciary or partnership or person other than the sole beneficial owner of such payment to the extent that no Additional Amounts would have been payable had the beneficial owner of the applicable Note been the Holder of such Note;

(8) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), as of the Issue Date (or any amended or successor version of such sections), any regulations promulgated thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, any similar law or regulation adopted pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States with respect to the foregoing or any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Code; or

(9) any combination of the items in clauses (1) through (8) of this Section 4.21(a).

(b) In addition to the foregoing, the Issuer and the Guarantors will also pay and indemnify each Holder and beneficial owner for any present or future stamp, issue, registration, transfer, court or documentary Taxes, or any other excise or property Taxes, charges or similar levies or Taxes which are levied by any Tax Jurisdiction on the execution, delivery, issuance or registration of, or by any Tax Jurisdiction on the enforcement of, any of the Notes, this Indenture, any Guarantee, or any other document or instrument referred to therein (other than a transfer of the Notes that is not part of the initial resale by the initial purchasers), or the receipt of any payments with respect to the Notes or the Guarantees (limited, solely in the case of Taxes attributable to the receipt of any payments, to any such Taxes imposed in a Tax Jurisdiction that are not excluded under clauses (1) through (5), (7) or (8) of Section 4.21(a) or any combination thereof).

(c) The Issuer and the Guarantors will not pay and indemnify any Holder or beneficial owner for any Luxembourg registration duties (droits d'enregistrement) payable in the case of registration by any Holder or beneficial owner of the Notes, this Indenture, any Guarantee, or any other document or instrument referred to therein in Luxembourg when such registration is not required to enforce the rights of a Holder or a beneficial owner under such documents.

(d) If the Issuer or any Guarantor, as the case may be, becomes aware that it will be obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to any payment under or with respect to the Notes or any Guarantee, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor, as the case may be, will deliver to the Trustee and the Paying Agent on a date that is at least 30 days prior to the date of that payment (unless the obligation to pay Additional Amounts arises after the 45th day prior to that payment date, in which case the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor shall notify the Trustee and the Paying Agent promptly thereafter) an Officer's Certificate stating the fact that Additional Amounts will be payable and the amount estimated to be so payable. The Officer's Certificate must also set forth any other information reasonably necessary to enable the Paying Agent to pay Additional Amounts on the relevant payment date. The Trustee and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to rely absolutely and solely on such Officer's Certificate as conclusive proof that such payments are necessary.

(e) The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will make or cause to be made all withholdings and deductions as required by law and will remit or cause to be remitted the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Tax authority in accordance with applicable law. The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will use its reasonable efforts to obtain Tax receipts from each Tax authority evidencing the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld. The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will furnish to the Trustee, within a reasonable time after the date the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld is made, certified copies of Tax receipts evidencing payment by the Issuer or a Guarantor, as the case may be, or if, notwithstanding such entity's efforts to obtain receipts, receipts are not obtained, other evidence of payment (reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) by such entity.

(f) Whenever in this Indenture there is mentioned, in any context, the payment of amounts based upon the principal amount of the Notes or of principal, interest or of any other amount payable under, or with respect to, any of the Notes or Guarantees, such mention shall be deemed to include mention of the payment of Additional Amounts to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

(g) The obligations in this Section 4.21 will survive any termination, defeasance or discharge of this Indenture, any transfer by a Holder or beneficial owner of its Notes and will apply, mutatis mutandis, to any jurisdiction in which any successor Person to the Issuer or any Guarantor is incorporated, organized, engaged in business or otherwise resident for tax purposes or any jurisdiction from or through which any payments made by or on behalf of the Issuer or any Guarantors under or with respect to the Notes or any Guarantee is made and any department or political subdivision thereof or therein.

Section 4.22 Suspension of Covenants on Achievement of Investment Grade Status.

(a) If on any date following the Issue Date:

(1) the Notes are assigned an Investment Grade Rating by at least two Rating Agencies; and

(2) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (the occurrence of the events described in Section 4.22(a)(1) and this Section 4.22(a)(2) being collectively referred to as a “Covenant Suspension Event” and the date thereof being referred to as the “Suspension Date”), then the Issuer shall provide written notice to such effect to the Trustee and, beginning on the Suspension Date, the provisions of this Indenture under Section 4.07, Section 4.08, Section 4.09, Section 4.10, Section 4.11, Section 4.16, Section 4.18, Section 4.26, Section 5.01(a)(5) and Section 5.01(b)(4) will not apply to the Notes or the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Suspended Covenants”).

(b) [Reserved].

(c) In the event that the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries are not subject to the Suspended Covenants under this Indenture for any period of time as a result of the foregoing, and on any subsequent date (the “Reversion Date”) one or more Rating Agencies withdraw their Investment Grade Rating or downgrade the rating assigned to the Notes below an Investment Grade Rating so that the Notes are no longer assigned an Investment Grade Rating by at least two Rating Agencies, then the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries will thereafter again be subject to the Suspended Covenants under this Indenture with respect to future events unless and until the Notes subsequently again attain an Investment Grade Rating from at least two Rating Agencies. Upon any such Reversion Date, the Company shall promptly notify the Trustee, however, the Trustee shall not be obliged to notify the Holders of such an event. The period of time between the Suspension Date and the Reversion Date is referred to in this Indenture as the “Suspension Period”. Upon the occurrence of a Covenant Suspension Event, the amount of Excess Proceeds from Net Proceeds shall be reset to zero.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any such reinstatement, no action taken or omitted to be taken by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary prior to such reinstatement will give rise to a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture with respect to the Notes; provided that (i) with respect to Restricted Payments made after such reinstatement, the amount available to be made as Restricted Payments will be calculated as though Section 4.07 had been in effect prior to, but not during, the Suspension Period; (ii) all Indebtedness Incurred, or Disqualified Stock or preferred stock issued, during the Suspension Period will be classified to have been Incurred or issued pursuant to Section 4.09(b)(5); (iii) any transactions with Affiliates entered into after such reinstatement pursuant to an agreement entered into during any Suspension Period shall be deemed to be permitted pursuant to Section 4.11(b)(11); and (iv) any encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor to take any action described in clauses (1) through (3) of Section 4.08(a) that becomes effective during any Suspension Period shall be deemed to be permitted pursuant to Section 4.08(b)(1); and (v) no Restricted Subsidiary shall be required to comply with Section 4.16 after such reinstatement with respect to any guarantee entered into by such Restricted Subsidiary during any Suspension Period. In addition, in the event of any such reinstatement, the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries will be permitted, without causing a Default or an Event of Default, to honor any contractual commitment or take any actions, as long as the contractual commitments were entered into during the Suspension Period and not in anticipation of the occurrence of a Reversion Date.

Section 4.23 Additional Intercreditor Agreements.

(a) At the request of the Company and upon delivery of an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel to the Trustee, without the consent of the Holders, and at the time of, or prior to, the Incurrence by the Issuer or a Guarantor of Indebtedness permitted under Section 4.09, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor and the Trustee and Security Agent shall enter into with the holders of such Indebtedness (or their duly authorized representatives) an amendment to the Intercreditor Agreement or an additional intercreditor agreement (an "Additional Intercreditor Agreement") on substantially the same terms as the Intercreditor Agreement (or more favorable to the Holders), including terms with respect to the limitation on enforcement and release of guarantees and priority as set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement (or on terms more favorable to the Holders); provided that such amendment to the Intercreditor Agreement or Additional Intercreditor Agreement will not impose any personal obligations on the Trustee or adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture or the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement.

(b) At the request of the Company, without the consent of Holders, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor and the Trustee and the Security Agent shall enter into one or more amendments to the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement to: (1) cure any defects, ambiguities, omissions or inconsistencies or reflect changes, in each case, of a minor, technical or administrative nature, (2) increase the amount or types of Indebtedness covered by any Intercreditor Agreement or Additional Intercreditor Agreement that may be Incurred by the Issuer or a Guarantor that is subject to any Intercreditor Agreement or Additional Intercreditor Agreement (including the addition of provisions relating to new Indebtedness ranking junior or pari passu in right of payment with the Notes); provided that such Indebtedness is Incurred in compliance with this Indenture, (3) add new Guarantors to the Intercreditor Agreement or an Additional Intercreditor Agreement, (4) further secure the Notes, (5) make provision for the security securing Additional Notes to rank pari passu with the Collateral or (6) make any other change to any such Intercreditor Agreement or an Additional Intercreditor Agreement that does not adversely affect the rights of Holders in any material respect.

(c) The Company shall not otherwise direct the Trustee to enter into any amendment to the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement without the consent of the holders of the majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, except as otherwise permitted by Article 9 and the Company may only direct the Trustee to enter into any amendment to the extent such amendment does not impose any personal obligations on the Trustee or adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or such Additional Intercreditor Agreement in any material respect.

(d) In relation to the Intercreditor Agreement or, to the extent applicable, an Additional Intercreditor Agreement, the Trustee shall be deemed to have consented on behalf of the Holders to any payment, repayment, purchase, repurchase, defeasance, acquisition, retirement or redemption of any obligations subordinated to the Notes thereby; provided that such transaction would comply with Section 4.07.

(e) Each Holder, by accepting such Note, will be deemed to have agreed to and accepted the terms and conditions of each of the Intercreditor Agreement and Additional Intercreditor Agreement and any amendment referred to in this Section 4.23 and none of the Company, the Trustee or the Security Agent will be required to seek the consent of any Holders to perform its obligations under and in accordance with this Section 4.23.

Section 4.24 Limitation on Holding Company Activities.

(a) The Company may not carry on any business or own any assets other than:

(1) the ownership of shares in its Subsidiaries and any other assets that are de minimis in nature; provided that the Company may from time to time receive in a transaction otherwise permitted under this Indenture and the Collateral Documents, properties and assets (including cash, Cash Equivalents, Government Guaranteed Securities and/or Indebtedness and other obligations) for the purpose of transferring such properties and assets to any Parent, any Subsidiary or any other Person, so long as in any case such further transfer is made promptly by the Company and, after giving effect thereto, the Company is again in compliance with this clause;

(2) the provision of administrative services, treasury service, legal, accounting and management services to its Subsidiaries of a type customarily provided by a holding company to its Subsidiaries and the ownership of assets necessary to provide such services;

(3) Incurring Indebtedness (or other items that are specifically excluded from the definition of Indebtedness) permitted under this Indenture (including activities reasonably incidental thereto, including performance of the terms and conditions of such Indebtedness (or other items that are specifically excluded from the definition of Indebtedness), to the extent such activities are otherwise permissible under this Indenture) and the granting of Liens permitted under Section 4.12.

(4) activities undertaken with the purpose of, and directly related to, fulfilling its obligations or exercising its rights under this Indenture, the Guarantees, the Intercreditor Agreement (or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement), the Collateral Documents, the Existing Notes Documents, any Senior Facilities Agreement, other

Indebtedness (or any item specifically excluded from the definition of Indebtedness) permitted by the terms of this Indenture, or any other document relating to the Notes;

(5) making Investments in the Notes, the Existing Notes or Indebtedness permitted under this Indenture;

(6) directly related or reasonably incidental to the establishment and/or maintenance of its or its Subsidiaries corporate existence;

(7) any activity reasonably relating to the servicing, purchase, redemption, amendment, exchange, refinancing or retirement of the Notes, the Existing Notes or other Indebtedness (or other items that are specifically excluded from the definition of Indebtedness) permitted under this Indenture;

(8) any activity undertaken in connection with the Transactions; or

(9) other activities not specifically enumerated above that are de minimis in nature.

Section 4.25 Further Assurances.

The Company shall, and shall procure that each of its Restricted Subsidiaries shall, at its own expense, execute and do all such acts and things and provide such assurances as the Security Agent may reasonably require (i) for registering any Collateral Documents in any required register and for perfecting or protecting the security intended to be afforded by such Collateral Documents; and (ii) if such Collateral Documents have become enforceable, for facilitating the realization of all or any part of the assets which are subject to such Collateral Documents and for facilitating the exercise of all powers, authorities and discretions vested in the Security Agent or in any receiver of all or any part of those assets. The Company shall, and shall procure that each of its Restricted Subsidiaries shall, execute all transfers, conveyances, assignments and releases of that property whether to the Security Agent or to its nominees and give all notices, orders and directions which the Security Agent may reasonably request.

Section 4.26 Business Activities.

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, engage in any business other than Permitted Businesses, except to such extent as would not be material to the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Each of the Issuer and the Guarantors will maintain its centre of main interest (as that term is used in Article 3(1) of The Council of the European Union Regulation No. 1346/2000 on Insolvency Proceedings) in its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation or in England and Wales or Scotland.

Section 4.27 Financial Calculations.

(a) For the purposes of determining “Consolidated EBITDA” for any basket or ratio under this Indenture on any date of determination, Consolidated EBITDA shall be calculated for the period of the most recent four consecutive fiscal quarters for which internal financial statements of the Company are available immediately preceding such date of determination and pro forma effect shall be given to Consolidated EBITDA as set out in this Section 4.27.

(b) In the event that the specified Person or any of its Subsidiaries that are Restricted Subsidiaries Incurs, assumes, guarantees, repays, repurchases, redeems, defeases or otherwise discharges any Indebtedness (other than ordinary working capital borrowings) or issues, repurchases or redeems preferred stock subsequent to the commencement of the period for which a financial ratio is being calculated and on or prior to the date on which the event for which the calculation of that financial ratio is made (for the purposes of this definition, the “Calculation Date”), then that financial ratio will be calculated giving pro forma effect (as determined in good faith by the Company’s chief executive officer, chief financial officer, head of treasury, head of corporate development, head of group accounting or any person performing a similarly senior accounting role), including in respect of any cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies that are reasonably expected to occur within 24 months, to such Incurrence, assumption, guarantee, repayment, repurchase, redemption, defeasance or other discharge of Indebtedness, or such issuance, repurchase or redemption of preferred stock, and the use of the proceeds therefrom, as if the same had occurred at the beginning of the applicable four-quarter reference period; provided, however, that (except with respect to Section 4.07(b)(18)) the pro forma calculation of that financial ratio shall not give effect to (i) any Indebtedness Incurred on the Calculation Date pursuant to Section 4.09(b) (other than 4.09(b)(1)(B) or 4.09(b)(14)(ii)) or (ii) the discharge on the Calculation Date of any Indebtedness to the extent that such discharge results from the proceeds of Indebtedness Incurred on the Calculation Date pursuant to Section 4.09(b) (other than 4.09(b)(1)(B) or 4.09(b)(14)(ii)).

(c) For purposes of calculating any financial ratio under this Indenture:

(1) any acquisition, Investment, joint venture, disposition, cost saving program or initiative or other similar transaction that have been made by the specified Person or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, including through mergers or consolidations or leases, or any Person or any Restricted Subsidiary acquired by the specified Person or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, and including all related financing transactions and including increases in ownership of Restricted Subsidiaries (including any Unrestricted Subsidiary that has been redesignated as a Restricted Subsidiary) (a “Transaction”), during the four-quarter reference period or subsequent to such reference period and on or prior to the Calculation Date, or that are to be made on the Calculation Date, will be given pro forma effect (as determined in good faith by the Company’s chief executive officer, chief financial officer, head of treasury, head of corporate development, head of group accounting or any person performing a similarly senior accounting role), including in respect of any cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies that are reasonably expected to occur within 24 months, as if they had occurred on the first day of the four-quarter reference period, provided that, if definitive documentation has been entered into with respect to that Transaction, at the option of the Company, Consolidated EBITDA for such period will be calculated after giving pro forma effect to such Transaction (including anticipated cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies reasonably expected to occur within 24 months) as if that Transaction had occurred on the first day of such period, even if the Transaction has not yet been consummated as of the date of determination;

(2) Consolidated EBITDA and Fixed Charges attributable to discontinued operations, as determined in accordance with IFRS, and operations or businesses (and ownership interests therein) disposed of prior to the Calculation Date, will be excluded;

(3) any Person that is a Restricted Subsidiary on the Calculation Date (including any Unrestricted Subsidiary that has been redesignated as a Restricted Subsidiary) will be deemed to have been a Restricted Subsidiary at all times during such four-quarter period;

(4) any Person that is not a Restricted Subsidiary on the Calculation Date will be deemed not to have been a Restricted Subsidiary at any time during such four-quarter period;

(5) if any Indebtedness bears a floating rate of interest, the interest expense on such Indebtedness will be calculated as if the rate in effect on the Calculation Date had been the applicable rate for the entire period (taking into account any interest rate agreement applicable to such Indebtedness), and if any Indebtedness is not denominated in the Company's functional currency, that Indebtedness for purposes of the calculation of that financial ratio shall be treated in accordance with IFRS;

(6) interest on a Lease Obligation shall be deemed to accrue at an interest rate reasonably determined by a responsible accounting or financial officer of the Company to be the rate of interest implicit in such Lease Obligation in accordance with IFRS; and

(7) the full run-rate effect of cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies (as determined in good faith by an a responsible accounting or financial officer of the Company) that have occurred during the four-quarter reference period or subsequent to such reference period and on or prior to the Calculation Date or that are reasonably expected to occur within 24 months shall be included as though such cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies had been achieved on the first day of the relevant period, provided that at any time the aggregate amount of anticipated cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies calculated pursuant to clauses (1) and (7) hereof shall only represent with respect to any four quarter period in the aggregate 20.0% of Consolidated EBITDA (including as a result of such cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies).

(d) When calculating the availability under any basket or ratio under this Indenture, in each case in connection with any Transaction or Restricted Payment where there is a time difference between commitment and closing or Incurrence, the date of determination of such basket or ratio and of any Default or Event of Default shall, at the option of the Company, be the date the definitive agreements for such Transaction or Restricted Payment are entered into and such baskets or ratios shall be calculated on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such Transaction or Restricted Payment (including any Incurrence of Indebtedness and the use of proceeds thereof and anticipated cost savings, expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies reasonably expected to occur within 24 months) as if they occurred at the beginning of the applicable reference period for purposes of determining the ability to consummate any such Transaction or Restricted Payment (and not for purposes of any subsequent availability of any basket or ratio). For the avoidance of doubt, (x) if any of such baskets or ratios are exceeded as a result of fluctuations in such basket or ratio (including due to fluctuations in Consolidated EBITDA of the Company or the target company) subsequent to such date of determination and at or prior to the consummation of the relevant Transaction or Restricted Payment, such baskets or ratios will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations solely for purposes of determining whether the Transaction or Restricted Payment is permitted hereunder and (y) such baskets or ratios shall not be tested at the time of consummation of such Transaction or Restricted Payment; provided, further, that if the Company elects to have such determinations occur at the time of entry into such definitive agreement, any such Transaction or Restricted Payment (including any Incurrence of Indebtedness and the use of proceeds thereof) shall be deemed to have occurred on the date the definitive agreements are entered and outstanding thereafter for purposes of calculating any baskets or ratios under this Indenture after the date of such agreement and before the consummation of such Transaction or Restricted Payment.

In the event of any transaction (other than a lease) described in and complying with the conditions listed in the immediately preceding paragraph in which the Issuer is not the continuing corporation, the successor Person formed or remaining or to which such transfer is made will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of the Issuer and the Issuer will be discharged from all obligations and covenants under this Indenture, the Notes and the Collateral Documents to which the Issuer is a party.

(b) A default under clause (4), (5) or (6) of this Section 6.01 will not constitute an Event of Default until the Trustee or the Holders of 30% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes notify the Issuer of the default and, with respect to clause (4) or (6), the Issuer does not cure such default within the time specified in clause (4) or (6), as applicable, after receipt of such notice.

Section 6.02 Remedies under this Indenture.

(a) Holders of the Notes may not enforce this Indenture or the Notes except as provided in this Indenture and may not enforce the Collateral Documents except as provided in such Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) if a Default occurs for a failure to deliver a required certificate in connection with another default (an "Initial Default"), then at the time such Initial Default is cured, such Default for a failure to report or deliver a required certificate in connection with the Initial Default will also be cured without any further action and (ii) any Default or Event of Default for the failure to comply with the time periods prescribed in Section 4.09, or otherwise to deliver any notice or certificate pursuant to any other provision of this Indenture shall be deemed to be cured upon the delivery of any such report required by such covenant or notice or certificate, as applicable, even though such delivery is not within the prescribed period specified in this Indenture.

Section 6.03 Acceleration

In the case of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(a)(9) and Section 6.01(a)(10), all outstanding Notes (including accrued interest, if any) will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may, or the Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may and the Trustee shall, if so directed by Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes, declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately. Upon any such declaration, the Notes shall become due and payable immediately.

Section 6.04 Other Remedies.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes or this Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. All remedies are cumulative to the extent permitted by law.

Section 6.05 Waiver of Past Defaults.

Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes by notice to the Trustee may on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes rescind an acceleration or waive an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences hereunder, except a continuing Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes (including in connection with an offer to purchase) (which may only be waived in accordance with clause (4) of Section 9.02); provided, however, that the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may rescind an acceleration and its consequences, including any related payment default that resulted from such acceleration. Upon any such rescission or waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 6.06 Control by Majority.

Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture and that the Trustee determines may be unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders or that may involve the Trustee in personal liability.

Section 6.07 Limitation on Suits.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee, in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Indenture at the request or direction of any Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee, and the Trustee has received, indemnity and/or security (including by way of prefunding) satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Except (subject to Article 9) to enforce the right to receive payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest or Additional Amounts when due, no Holder may pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Notes unless:

(1) such Holder has given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing;

(2) Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy;

(3) such Holder or Holders offer and, if requested, provide to the Trustee security and/or indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee against any loss, liability or expense;

(4) the Trustee does not comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer of such security and/or indemnity including by way of prefunding; and

(5) during such 60-day period, Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes do not give the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request.

(b) A Holder may not use this Indenture to prejudice the rights of another Holder or to obtain a preference or priority over another Holder.

Section 6.08 Rights of Holders to Receive Payment.

Except as set forth in Article 9 of this Indenture, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Note, on or after the respective due dates expressed in the Note (including in connection with an offer to purchase), or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder; provided that a Holder shall not have the right to institute any such suit for the enforcement of payment if and to the extent that the institution or prosecution thereof or the entry of judgment therein would, under applicable law, result in the surrender, impairment, waiver or loss of the Lien of this Indenture upon any property subject to such Lien.

Section 6.09 Collection Suit by Trustee.

If an Event of Default specified in clause (1) or (2) of Section 6.01 occurs and is continuing, the Trustee is authorized to recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Issuer for the whole amount of principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, remaining unpaid on, the Notes and interest on overdue principal and, to the extent lawful, interest and such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel.

Section 6.10 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

The Trustee is authorized to file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel) and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes), its creditors or its property and shall be entitled and empowered to collect, receive and distribute any money or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and any custodian in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee, and in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due to it for the compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.06. To the extent that the payment of any such compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.06 out of the estate in any such proceeding, shall be denied for any reason, payment of the same shall be secured by a Lien on, and shall be paid out of, any and all distributions, dividends, money, securities and other properties that the Holders may be entitled to receive in such proceeding whether in liquidation or under any plan of reorganization or arrangement or otherwise. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 6.11 Priorities.

(a) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, to the extent applicable, if the Trustee or the Security Agent collects any money pursuant to this Article 6 or from the enforcement of any Collateral Document, it shall pay out (or in the case of the Security Agent, it shall pay to the Trustee to pay out) the money in the following order:

First: to the Trustee, the Security Agent and their agents (including the Agents) and attorneys for amounts due under Section 7.06, including payment of all compensation, expenses and liabilities Incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and the Security Agent and the costs and expenses of collection;

Second: to Holders for amounts due and unpaid on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, respectively; and Third: to the Issuer or to such party as a court of competent jurisdiction shall direct.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 6.11.

Section 6.12 Undertaking for Costs.

In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee or the Security Agent for any action taken or omitted by it as a Trustee or Security Agent, as applicable, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 6.12 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.08, or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes.

Section 6.13 Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 6.14 Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 1.01(h)(7), no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 6.15 Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or any Holder to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 6 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders, as the case may be.

Section 6.16 Indemnification of Trustee.

Prior to taking any action under this Article 6, the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification or other security satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against all losses, liabilities and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

ARTICLE 7
TRUSTEE

Section 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing of which a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has received a written notice, the Trustee will exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default of which the Trustee has received written notice:

(1) the duties of the Trustee and the Agents will be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture and the Trustee and the Agents need perform only those duties that are specifically set forth in this Indenture and no others, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee and the Agents; and

(2) in the absence of gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. However, with respect to certificates or opinions specifically required to be furnished to it hereunder, the Trustee will examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liabilities for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(1) this paragraph does not limit the effect of paragraph (b) of this Section 7.01;

(2) the Trustee will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) the Trustee will not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.02, Section 6.05 or Section 6.06.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture or the Collateral Documents that in any way relates to the Trustee or the Security Agent is subject to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this Section 7.01.

(e) No provision of this Indenture will require the Trustee or the Security Agent to expend or risk its own funds or incur any expense or liability. The Trustee and the Security Agent will be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights and powers under this Indenture or the Collateral Documents at the request of any Holders, unless such Holder has offered to the Trustee and/or the Security Agent, and the Trustee and/or the Security Agent has received, security and/or indemnity (including by way of prefunding) satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense.

(f) The Trustee will not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Issuer. Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

(g) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice or any knowledge of any matter (including without limitation Defaults or Events of Default) unless a Responsible Officer assigned to and working in the Trustee's trust and agency department has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice or information thereof is received by the Trustee in accordance with this Indenture and such notice clearly references the Notes, the Issuer or this Indenture.

Section 7.02 Rights of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely upon any document (whether in its original, electronic or facsimile form) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person. The Trustee need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both. The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, may consult with counsel or other professional advisors and the written advice of such counsel, professional advisor or any Opinion of Counsel will be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon.

(c) The Trustee may act through its attorneys and agents and will not be responsible for the willful misconduct or negligence of any attorney or agent appointed with due care.

(d) The Trustee will not be liable for any action its takes or omits to take in good faith that it believes to be authorized or within the rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture or the Collateral Documents.

(e) Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Indenture, any demand, request, direction or notice from the Issuer will be sufficient if signed by an Officer of the Issuer.

(f) The Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture or the Collateral Documents at the request or direction of any of the Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity and/or security (including by way of prefunding) satisfactory to it against the losses, liabilities and expenses that might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction.

(g) The Trustee shall have no duty to inquire as to the performance of the covenants of the Issuer and/or its Restricted Subsidiaries. In addition, the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default except:

(A) any Event of Default occurring pursuant to clause (1) or (2) of Section 6.01 (provided it is acting as Paying Agent); and

(B) any Default or Event of Default of which a Responsible Officer shall have received written notification. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Trustee under Section 4.03 is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of the foregoing shall not constitute actual or constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Issuer's compliance with this Section 7.02 (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on Officer's Certificates).

(h) The Trustee shall not have any obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance, and shall not be responsible or liable for compliance with restrictions on transfer, exchange, redemption, purchase or repurchase, as applicable, of minimum denominations imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law or regulation with respect to any transfer, exchange, redemption, purchase or repurchase, as applicable, of any interest in any Notes.

(i) The rights, privileges, indemnities, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including its right to be indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder and by each agent (including the Agents) and the Security Agent, custodian and other person employed to act hereunder (including the Collateral Documents). Absent willful misconduct or gross negligence, each Agent shall not be liable for acting in good faith on instructions believed by it to be genuine and from the proper party.

(j) In the event the Trustee receives inconsistent or conflicting requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders, each representing less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may determine what action, if any, will be taken and shall not incur any liability for its failure to act until such inconsistency or conflict is, in its reasonable opinion, resolved.

(k) In no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by acts of war or terrorism involving the United States, the United Kingdom or any member state of the European Monetary Union or any other national or international calamity or emergency (including, but not limited to, natural disasters, or acts of God, any act of war, civil unrest, local or national disturbance or disaster, any act of terrorism, or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or facsimile or other wire or communication facility), it being understood that the Trustee shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

(l) The Trustee is not required to give any bond or surety with respect to the performance of its duties or the exercise of its powers under this Indenture, the Collateral Documents or the Notes.

(m) The permissive right of the Trustee to take the actions permitted by this Indenture shall not be construed as an obligation or duty to do so.

(n) The Trustee will not be liable to any person if prevented or delayed in performing any of its obligations or discretionary functions under this Indenture or the Collateral Documents by reason of any present or future law applicable to it, by any governmental or regulatory authority or by any circumstances beyond its control.

(o) The Trustee shall not under any circumstances be liable for any consequential loss (including without limitation loss of business, goodwill, opportunity or profit of any kind) or punitive damages of the Issuer, any Restricted Subsidiary or any other Person (or, in each case, any successor thereto), even if advised of it in advance and even if foreseeable.

(p) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuer personally or by agent or attorney.

(q) The Trustee may request that the Issuer deliver an Officer's Certificate setting forth the names of the individuals and/or titles of officers, directors, managers, and Authorized Signatories authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Officer's Certificate may be signed by any person authorized to sign an Officer's Certificate, including any person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded.

(r) No provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to do anything which, in its opinion, may be illegal or contrary to applicable law or regulation.

(s) The Trustee may refrain from taking any action in any jurisdiction if the taking of such action in that jurisdiction would, in its opinion, based upon legal advice in the relevant jurisdiction, be contrary to any law of that jurisdiction or, to the extent applicable, the State of New York.

(t) The Trustee may retain professional advisors to assist it in performing its duties under this Indenture. The Trustee may consult with such professional advisors or with counsel, and the advice or opinion of such professional advisors or counsel with respect to legal or other matters relating to this Indenture and the Notes shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel.

(u) At any time that the security granted pursuant to the Collateral Documents has become enforceable and the Holders have given a direction to the Trustee to enforce such Collateral, the Trustee is not required to give any direction to the Security Agent with respect thereto unless it has been indemnified and/or secured in accordance with clause (e) of Section 7.01. In any event, in connection with any enforcement of such security, the Trustee is not responsible for:

(1) any failure of the Security Agent to enforce such security within a reasonable time or at all;

(2) any failure of the Security Agent to pay over the proceeds of enforcement of the Collateral;

(3) any failure of the Security Agent to realize such security for the best price obtainable;

(4) monitoring the activities of the Security Agent in relation to such enforcement;

(5) taking any enforcement action itself in relation to such security;

(6) agreeing to any proposed course of action by the Security Agent which could result in the Trustee incurring any liability for its own account; or

(7) paying any fees, costs or expenses of the Security Agent.

(v) The Trustee may assume without inquiry in the absence of actual knowledge and written notification or information that the Issuer is duly complying with its obligations contained in this Indenture required to be performed and observed by it, and that no Default or Event of Default or other event which would require repayment of the Notes has occurred.

(w) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be subject to the provision of the Intercreditor Agreement, to the extent applicable.

Section 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee.

The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. However, in the event that the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest in its capacity as Trustee it must eliminate such conflict within 90 days or resign. Any Agent and the Security Agent may do the same with like rights and duties. The Trustee is also subject to Section 7.10.

Section 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer.

The Trustee will not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity or adequacy of this Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees, the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, it shall not be accountable for the Issuer's use of the proceeds from the Notes or any money paid to the Issuer or upon the Issuer's direction under any provision of this Indenture, it will not be responsible for the use or application of any money received by any Paying Agent other than the Trustee, and it will not be responsible for any statement or recital herein or any statement in the Notes or any other document in connection with the sale of the Notes or pursuant to this Indenture other than its certificate of authentication.

Section 7.05 Notice of Defaults.

If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if the Trustee is informed in writing of such occurrence by the Issuer, the Trustee will transmit to Holders or the Common Depositary a notice of the Default or Event of Default within 90 days after it occurs. Except in the case of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, any Note, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its Responsible Officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of the Holders.

Section 7.06 [Reserved].

Section 7.07 Compensation and Indemnity.

(a) The Issuer, failing which the Company, will pay to the Trustee and the Agents from time to time compensation for their acceptance of this Indenture and services hereunder as shall be agreed from time to time between them. The Trustee's and the Agents' compensation will not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Issuer, failing which the Company, will reimburse the Trustee and the Agents promptly upon request for all disbursements, advances and expenses properly incurred or made by it in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses will include the properly incurred compensation, disbursements and expenses of the Trustee's and the Agents' agents and counsel. In the event of the occurrence of an Event of Default, where the Trustee reasonably considers it necessary or is being requested by the Issuer to undertake duties which the Trustee and the Issuer reasonably believe to be of an exceptional nature or otherwise outside the scope of the normal duties of the Trustee, the Issuer, failing which the Company, shall pay to the Trustee additional remuneration for such duties; provided that any such additional remuneration is agreed between the Issuer and the Trustee in writing (if reasonably practicable).

(b) The Issuer, failing which the Company, will indemnify the Trustee and the Agents and their officers, directors, employees and agents against any and all losses, liabilities or expenses incurred by them arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of their duties under this Indenture, including, without limitation (i) the costs and expenses of enforcing this Indenture against the Issuer (including this Section 7.07) and (ii) defending itself against any claim (whether asserted by the Issuer, any Holder or any other Person) or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to its gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud; provided that in the case of clause (b)(ii), of this Section 7.07, if the Trustee controls such defense, the Issuer shall have the right to participate in such defense, except where the interests of the Issuer, on the one hand, and the Trustee, on the other hand, may be adverse. The Trustee and the Agents will notify the Issuer promptly of any claim for which they may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee or the Agents to so notify the Issuer will not relieve the Issuer or the Company, as applicable, of its obligations hereunder. The Trustee may have separate counsel and the Issuer, failing which the Company, will pay the properly incurred fees and expenses of such counsel. The Issuer need not pay for any settlement made without its consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) The obligations of the Issuer under this Section 7.07 will survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or the resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Security Agent or the Agents.

(d) To secure the Issuer's payment obligations in this Section 7.07, the Trustee will have a Lien prior to the Notes on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee, except that held in trust to pay principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, particular Notes. Such Lien will survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

(e) When the Trustee incurs expenses or renders services after an Event of Default specified in clause (9) of Section 6.01 occurs, the expenses and the compensation for the services (including the fees and expenses of its agents and counsel) are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any Bankruptcy Law.

(f) The indemnity contained in this Section 7.07 shall survive the discharge or termination of this Indenture and shall continue for the benefit of the Trustee, the Security Agent or any Agent notwithstanding its resignation or retirement.

Section 7.08 Replacement of Trustee.

(a) A resignation or removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor Trustee will become effective only upon the successor Trustee's acceptance of appointment as provided in this Section 7.08.

(b) The Trustee may resign in writing at any time and be discharged from the trust hereby created by so notifying the Issuer. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may remove the Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and the Issuer in writing. The Issuer may remove the Trustee if:

- (1) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10;
 - (2) the Trustee is adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or an order for relief is entered with respect to the Trustee under any Bankruptcy Law;
 - (3) a custodian or public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property;
- or
- (4) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting.

(c) If the Trustee resigns or is removed or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee for any reason, the Issuer will promptly appoint a successor Trustee. Within one year after the successor Trustee takes office, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may appoint a successor Trustee to replace the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer.

(d) If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, (i) the retiring Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, the Issuer, or the Holders of at least 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee or

(ii) the retiring Trustee may appoint a successor Trustee at any time prior to the date on which a successor Trustee takes office.

(e) If the Trustee, after written request by any Holder who has been a Holder for at least six months, fails to comply with Section 7.10, such Holder may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) A successor Trustee will deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Issuer. Thereupon, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee will become effective, and the successor Trustee will have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee will mail a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee will promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee; provided all sums owing to the Trustee hereunder have been paid and subject to the Lien provided for in Section 7.06. Notwithstanding replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 7.08, the Issuer's obligations under Section 7.06 will continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

(g) For the purposes of Section 7.08, the Issuer hereby expressly accepts and confirms, for the purposes of Article 1278 and/or Article 1281 of the Luxembourg Civil Code (to the extent applicable), notwithstanding any assignment, amendment, transfer and/or novation of any kind permitted under, and made in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture or any agreement referred to therein to which the Issuer and/or the Manager is party (including the Collateral Documents) any security interest created under such agreement or in relation to such agreement shall be preserved and continue in full force and effect to the benefit of each new successor.

Section 7.09 Successor Trustee by Merger, etc.

If the Trustee consolidates, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all of its corporate trust business to, another corporation, the successor corporation without any further act will be the successor Trustee.

Section 7.10 Eligibility; Disqualification.

There will at all times be a Trustee hereunder that is a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of England and Wales, or the United States of America or of any state thereof that is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trustee power, and which is generally recognized as a corporation which customarily performs such corporate trustee roles and provides such corporate trustee services in transactions similar in nature to the offering of the Notes.

ARTICLE 8 LEGAL DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 8.01 Option to Effect Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

The Issuer may at any time, at the option of its Board of Directors evidenced by a resolution set forth in an Officer's Certificate, elect to have either Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 be applied to have all of its obligations discharged with respect to the outstanding Notes and all obligations of the Guarantors discharged with respect to their Guarantees upon compliance with the conditions set forth in this Article 8.

Section 8.02 Legal Defeasance and Discharge.

(a) Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.02, the Issuer and each of the Guarantors will, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all outstanding Notes on the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "Legal Defeasance"). For this purpose, Legal Defeasance means that the Issuer and each of the Guarantors will be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the outstanding Notes, which will thereafter be deemed to be "outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 8.05 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in Section 8.02(a)(1) and Section 8.02(a)(2), and to have satisfied all their other obligations under such Notes and this Indenture (and the Trustee, on demand of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following provisions which will survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder:

(1) the rights of Holders of the outstanding Notes to receive payments in respect of the principal of, or interest or premium, if any, and Additional Amounts, if any, on such Notes when such payments are due from the trust referred to in Section 8.04;

(2) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Article 2 and 4.02;

(3) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the Agents hereunder and the Issuer's and the Guarantors' obligations in connection therewith; and

(4) this Article 8.

(b) Subject to compliance with this Article 8, the Company may exercise its option under this Section 8.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 8.03.

Section 8.03 Covenant Defeasance.

(a) Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, the Issuer and each of the Guarantors will, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, be released from each of their obligations under the Section 3.09, 4.05, 4.06, 4.07, 4.08, 4.09, 4.10, 4.11, 4.12, 4.13, 4.15, 4.16, 4.18, 4.19, 4.20, 4.23, 4.24 and 4.26 and Section 5.01 with respect to the outstanding Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Notes will thereafter be deemed not "outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but will continue to be deemed "outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder (it being understood that such Notes will not be deemed outstanding for accounting purposes). For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the outstanding Notes, the Issuer and each of the Guarantors may omit to comply with and will have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such covenant or by reason of any reference in any such covenant to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply will not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 6.01, but, except as specified in this Section 8.03, the remainder of this Indenture and such Notes and Guarantees will be unaffected thereby. In addition, upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, clauses (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of Section 6.01 will not constitute Events of Default and clauses (9) and (10) of Section 6.01 shall constitute Events of Default solely with respect to the Issuer.

(b) In addition, in the event Covenant Defeasance occurs, certain events (not including non-payment, bankruptcy, receivership, rehabilitation and insolvency events) described under clauses (9) and (10) of Section 6.01 will no longer constitute an Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

Section 8.04 Conditions to Legal or Covenant Defeasance.

In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance under either Section 8.02 or Section 8.03:

(1) the Issuer must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or such other entity designated by the Trustee for this purpose, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders, cash in U.S. Dollars, non-callable Government Obligations, or a combination of cash in U.S. Dollars and non-callable Government Obligations (with such cash and government securities denominated in U.S. Dollars), in amounts as will be sufficient to pay the principal of, or interest and premium and Additional Amounts, if any, on, the outstanding Notes on the stated date for payment thereof or on the applicable redemption date, as the case may be, and the Issuer must specify whether the Notes are being defeased to such stated date for payment or to a particular redemption date;

(2) in the case of an election under Section 8.02, the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee (i) an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee (subject to customary exceptions and exclusions) confirming that: (a) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the U.S. Internal Revenue Service a ruling; or (b) since the date of this Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Holders and the beneficial owners of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred; and (ii) an Opinion of Counsel in the jurisdiction of organization of the Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that the Holders and the beneficial owners of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for income tax purposes of such jurisdiction as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to income tax in such jurisdiction in the same amounts and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred;

(3) in the case of an election under Section 8.03, the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee (i) an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee (subject to customary exceptions and exclusions) confirming that: the Holders and the beneficial owners of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred and (ii) an Opinion of Counsel in the jurisdiction of organization of the Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that the Holders and the beneficial owners of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for income tax purposes of such jurisdiction as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to income tax in such jurisdiction in the same amounts and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred;

(4) the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Issuer with the intent of preferring the Holders over the other creditors of the Issuer with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any creditors of the Issuer or Guarantors; and

(5) the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee, each stating that all conditions precedent relating to the Legal Defeasance or the Covenant Defeasance have been complied with.

Section 8.05 Deposited Money and Government Obligations to be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions.

Subject to Section 8.06, all money, non-callable Government Obligations (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or such other entity designated by the Trustee for this purpose or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 8.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 8.04 in respect of the outstanding Notes will be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

The Issuer will pay and indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the cash, non-callable Government Obligations deposited pursuant to Section 8.04 or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the outstanding Notes.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article 8 to the contrary, the Trustee will deliver or pay to the Issuer from time to time upon the request of the Issuer any money, non-callable Government Obligations held by it as provided in Section 8.04 which, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee (which may be the opinion delivered under clause (1) of Section 8.04), are in excess of the amount thereof that would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

Section 8.06 Repayment to Issuer.

Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on its request or (if then held by the Issuer) will be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note will thereafter be permitted to look only to the Issuer for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Issuer as trustee thereof, will thereupon cease.

Section 8.07 Reinstatement.

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any U.S. dollars or non-callable Government Obligations in accordance with Section 8.02 or Section 8.03, as the case may be, by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuer's obligations under this Indenture and the Notes will be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance with Section 8.02 or Section 8.03, as the case may be; provided, however, that, if the Issuer makes any payment of principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer will be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE 9
AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT AND WAIVER

Section 9.01 Without Consent of Holders.

Notwithstanding Section 9.02, without the consent of any Holder, the Issuer, the Company, the Trustee and the Security Agent (as applicable and to the extent each is a party to the relevant document) may amend or supplement any of the Notes Documents:

- (1) to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- (2) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes, provided that such uncertificated Notes are issued in registered form for purposes of Section 163(f) of the Code;
- (3) to provide for the assumption of the Issuer or a Guarantor's obligations under the Notes Documents by a successor to the Issuer or Guarantor in the case of a merger or consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the Issuer's or such Guarantor's assets in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, as applicable;
- (4) to make any change that would provide any additional rights or benefits to the Holders or that does not adversely affect the legal rights hereunder of any Holder in any material respect;
- (5) to allow any Restricted Subsidiary to become a Guarantor in accordance with this Indenture, to add Guarantees with respect to the Notes, to add security to or for the benefit of the Notes, or to effect, confirm and evidence the release, termination or discharge of any Guarantee or Lien (including the Collateral and the Collateral Documents) with respect to or securing the Notes in accordance with the terms of this Indenture;

- (6) to enter into additional or supplemental Collateral Documents;
- (7) to allow any Guarantor to execute a supplemental indenture and/or a Guarantee with respect to the Notes;
- (8) to release any Collateral or Guarantee in accordance with the terms set forth in this Indenture;
- (9) to provide for the issuance of Additional Notes in accordance with the limitations set forth in this Indenture;
- (10) to provide for a successor Trustee or Security Agent in accordance with the terms of this Indenture or to otherwise comply with any requirement of this Indenture;
- (11) [Reserved];
- (12) in the case of a Collateral Document, the Intercreditor Agreement and to the extent applicable any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, to Incur Indebtedness or to grant a Lien for the benefit of any Person, in each case with the ranking and priority appropriate thereto; provided that the Incurrence of such Indebtedness or the granting of Lien is permitted by this Indenture and Section 4.20 and Section 4.23 are complied with; and
- (13) to add additional parties to the Intercreditor Agreement or any Collateral Document to the extent permitted hereunder or thereunder.

The Trustee shall be entitled to request, receive and rely absolutely on such evidence as it deems appropriate, including Opinions of Counsel and Officer's Certificates, on which the Trustee may solely rely.

Upon the request of the Issuer and upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents described in Section 7.02, the Trustee will join with the Issuer in the execution of any amended or supplemental indenture authorized or permitted by the terms of this Indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be therein contained, but the Trustee will not be obligated to enter into such amended or supplemental indenture that affects its own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 9.02 With Consent of Holders.

Except as provided in this Section 9.02, the Issuer, the Company, the Security Agent and the Trustee (as applicable and to the extent each is a party to the relevant document) may amend, supplement or waive any of the terms of this Indenture (including, without limitation, Section 3.09, Section 4.10 and Section 4.15) and any other Notes Documents with the consent of the Issuer and the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes voting as a single class (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer, exchange offer or purchase of the Notes), and, subject to Section 6.05 and Section 6.08, any existing Default or Event of Default (other than a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, premium on, if any, interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Notes, except a payment default resulting from an acceleration that has been rescinded) or compliance with any provision of the Notes Documents may be waived with the consent of the Issuer and Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes voting as a single class (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer, exchange offer or purchase of the Notes).

Upon the request of the Issuer and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee of the consent of the Holders as aforesaid, and upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents described in Section 7.02, the Trustee will join with the Issuer in the execution of such amended or supplemental indenture unless such amended or supplemental indenture directly affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but will not be obligated to, enter into such amended or supplemental Indenture.

It is not necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Section 9.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, supplement or waiver, but it is sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

After an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 9.02 becomes effective, the Issuer will deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holders affected thereby a notice briefly describing the amendment, supplement or waiver. Any failure of the Issuer to deliver or cause to be delivered such notice, or any defect therein, will not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amended or supplemental indenture or waiver. Subject to Section 6.05 and Section 6.08 the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding voting as a single class may waive compliance in a particular instance by the Issuer with any provision of this Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees, the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement. However, unless (i) consented to by the Holders of at least 90% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes or (ii) consented to by each Holder adversely affected thereby (in each of (i) and (ii) above including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes), an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 9.02 may not:

- (1) reduce the principal amount of Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;
- (2) reduce the principal of or change the fixed maturity of any Note or alter the provisions with respect to the redemption of the Notes (except as provided above with respect to Section 4.10 and Section 4.15);
- (3) reduce the rate of or change the time for payment of interest, including default interest, on any Note;
- (4) waive a Default or Event of Default in the payment of principal of, or premium or Additional Amounts, if any, or interest on, the Notes (except a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes and a waiver of the Payment Default that resulted from such acceleration);

- (5) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in the applicable Note;
- (6) make any change in the provisions of this Indenture relating to waivers of past Defaults;
- (7) waive a redemption payment with respect to any Note (other than a payment required by Section 4.10 and Section 4.15);
- (8) make any changes in the provision of this Indenture described under Section 4.21 that adversely affects the rights of any Holder in any material respect or amends the terms of such Notes in a way that would result in a loss of an exemption from any obligation to withhold or deduct Taxes so described thereunder unless the Issuer and/or Guarantor agrees to pay Additional Amounts, if any, in respect thereof;
- (9) release all or substantially all of the Guarantors from any of their obligations under its Guarantee or this Indenture, except in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement;
- (10) release all or substantially all of the Collateral granted for the benefit of the Holders, except in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and to the extent applicable, any Additional Intercreditor Agreement;
- (11) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to the Notes or any Guarantees; or
- (12) make any change in the preceding amendment and waiver provisions.

Section 9.03 Revocation and Effect of Consents.

Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder is a continuing consent by the Holder and every subsequent Holder of a Note or portion of a Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent is not made on any Note. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent as to its Note if the Trustee receives written notice of revocation before the date the amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective. An amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective in accordance with its terms and thereafter binds every Holder.

Section 9.04 Notation on or Exchange of Notes.

The Trustee may place an appropriate notation about an amendment, supplement or waiver on any Note thereafter authenticated. The Issuer in exchange for all Notes may issue and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, as the case may be, shall, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, authenticate new Notes that reflect the amendment, supplement or waiver.

Failure to make the appropriate notation or issue a new Note will not affect the validity and effect of such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 9.05 Trustee to Sign Amendments, etc.

The Trustee and the Security Agent will sign, only in their respective capacities as Trustee and Security Agent, any amended or supplemental indenture authorized pursuant to this Article 9 if the amendment or supplement does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee and the Security Agent. The Issuer may not sign an amended or supplemental indenture until the Board of Directors of the Company approves it. In executing any amended or supplemental indenture, the Trustee and the Security Agent will be entitled to receive and (subject to Section 7.01) will be fully protected in relying upon, in addition to the documents required by Section 14.04, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such amended or supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that such amendment is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuer (and any guarantor) enforceable against them in accordance with its terms, subject to customary exceptions, and complies with the provisions of this Indenture.

SECURITY

Section 10.01 Collateral Documents.

(a) The payment obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors under the Notes, the Guarantees and this Indenture will, subject to the Agreed Security Principles, benefit from, (i) on the Issue Date, the security granted by the Collateral Documents and (ii) property and assets that thereafter secure the obligations under this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees pursuant to any Collateral Documents.

(b) The due and punctual payment of the principal of, and premium, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes and any Guarantee when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether on an interest payment date, at maturity, by acceleration, repurchase, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest and Additional Amounts (to the extent permitted by law), if any, on the Notes and any Guarantee and performance of all other obligations of the Issuer and any Guarantor to Holders or the Trustee under this Indenture, the Notes and any Guarantee according to the terms hereunder or thereunder, are secured as provided in the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement. Each Holder, by accepting a Note, consents and agrees to the terms of the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement (including, without limitation, the provisions providing for foreclosure and release of Collateral and authorizing the Security Agent to enter into any Collateral Document on its behalf) as the same may be in effect or may be amended from time to time in accordance with its terms and authorizes and directs the Security Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights thereunder in accordance therewith. The Issuer will deliver to the Trustee copies of all documents delivered to the Security Agent pursuant to the Collateral Documents, and the Issuer will and the Company will cause each of the Restricted Subsidiaries to do or cause to be done all such acts and things as may be necessary or proper, or as may be required by the provisions of the Collateral Documents, or which the Security Agent from time to time may reasonably request, to assure and confirm to the Trustee that the Security Agent holds, for the benefit of the Holders and the Trustee, duly created, enforceable and perfected Liens as contemplated hereby and by the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor

Agreement, so as to render the same available for the security and benefit of this Indenture and of the Notes and any Guarantee secured thereby, according to the intent and purposes herein expressed. The Issuer and any Guarantor will take, and the Guarantors will cause their respective subsidiaries to take, upon request of the Trustee, subject to the Agreed Security Principles, any and all actions reasonably required to cause the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement to create and maintain, as security for the Obligations of the Issuer and any Guarantors and, in respect of the Collateral, valid and enforceable perfected Liens in and on such Collateral.

(c) To the extent required, the Security Agent agrees that it will hold the security interests in Collateral created under the Collateral Documents to which it is a party as contemplated by this Indenture in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, and any and all proceeds thereof, for the benefit of, among others, the Trustee and the Holders, to act in preservation of the security interest in the Collateral in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement. The Security Agent will (subject to being indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction) take action or refrain from taking action with respect to the Notes in connection therewith only as directed by the Trustee, subject to the terms of this Indenture.

(d) Each Holder, by accepting a Note, shall be deemed (i) to have authorized the Security Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents and (ii) to have agreed to be bound thereby. The Trustee hereby acknowledges that the Security Agent is authorized to act under the Collateral Documents on behalf of the Trustee, with the full authority and powers of the Trustee thereunder. The Security Agent is hereby authorized to exercise such rights, powers and discretions as are specifically delegated to it by the terms of the Collateral Documents, including the power to enter into the Collateral Documents, as trustee on behalf of the Holders and the Trustee, together with all rights, powers and discretions as are reasonably incidental thereto or necessary to give effect to the trusts created thereunder. The Security Agent shall however at all times be entitled to seek directions from the Trustee with respect to the Notes and shall, subject to the Security Agent being indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction, be obligated to follow those directions if given (but the Trustee shall not be obligated to give such directions unless directed in accordance with this Indenture). The Security Agent hereby accepts its appointment as the agent of the Holders and the Trustee under the Collateral Documents, and its authorization to so act on such Holders' and the Trustee's behalf in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, neither the Trustee nor the Security Agent shall have any responsibility for the validity, perfection, sufficiency, adequacy, priority or enforceability of any Lien, Security or Collateral Document or other security interest, and shall have no obligation to take any action to procure or maintain such validity, perfection, sufficiency, adequacy, priority or enforceability.

Section 10.02 Release of Collateral.

(a) Collateral shall be released with respect to the Notes from the Liens and security interests created by the Collateral Documents in accordance with Section 10.05 and the Collateral may be released from the Liens and security interests created by the Collateral Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Collateral Document, the Intercreditor Agreement, any Additional Intercreditor Agreement and this Indenture. The Collateral may be released from the Liens and security interests created by the Collateral Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and this Indenture. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Collateral Documents, upon receipt by the Security Agent of a request from the Issuer or any Guarantor that complies with Section 10.05, the Security Agent shall release the Collateral. Upon receipt of such request the Security Agent shall execute, deliver or acknowledge any necessary or proper instruments of termination, satisfaction or release to evidence the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Indenture and the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 10.03 Authorization of Actions to Be Taken by the Trustee.

Subject to Section 7.01 and 7.02 and the terms of the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement (including any consent of the Holders required thereunder), the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, direct, on behalf of the Holders, the Security Agent to take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate in order to:

- (1) enforce any of the terms of the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement; and
- (2) collect and receive any and all amounts payable in respect of the Obligations of the Issuer and any Guarantor hereunder.

The Trustee will have power to, or to direct the Security Agent to, institute and maintain such suits and proceedings as it may deem expedient to prevent any impairment of the Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral (including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the security interest hereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of the Holders or of the Trustee).

Section 10.04 Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Trustee.

The Trustee is authorized to receive any funds for the benefit of the Holders distributed under the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement, any Additional Intercreditor Agreement and this Indenture, and to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

Section 10.05 Termination of Security Interest in Collateral.

Liens created by the relevant Collateral Documents shall be automatically and unconditionally released (and, upon request of the Issuer or any Guarantor, the Security Agent shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Holder but with notice to the Trustee) take such actions as shall be required to release such Liens) under any one or more of the following circumstances and as follows:

(1) in the case of a Guarantor (other than the Company) that is released from its Guarantee in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the release of Liens on the property and assets, and share capital, of such Guarantor;

(2) if the Company designates any of its Restricted Subsidiaries (other than the Issuer) to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Indenture, the release of Liens on the property, assets and share capital of such Restricted Subsidiary;

(3) in connection with any sale, transfer or other disposition of Capital Stock of a Guarantor or any holding company of such Guarantor (in each case, other than the Company) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, if the sale or other disposition does not violate Section 4.10;

(4) in connection with any sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of property or assets constituting Collateral (including Capital Stock of Subsidiaries) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries if the sale, transfer or other disposition does not violate Section 4.10;

(5) any release provided for in the Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement;

(6) upon Legal Defeasance, Covenant Defeasance or satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture as provided in Article 8 and Article 13;

(7) in accordance with Section 4.20;

(8) in connection with certain enforcement actions taken by the creditors under certain of our secured Indebtedness in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreement and, to the extent applicable, any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, the release of the property and assets subject to such enforcement sale;

(9) upon repayment in full of the Notes;

(10) in accordance with Article 9;

(11) as a result of a transaction permitted by Article 5;

(12) in connection with the implementation of a Permitted Reorganization;

(13) substantially concurrently with or following the release, discharge or other termination (other than as a result of an enforcement action) of any and all Liens over the relevant Collateral securing Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Guarantor outstanding under any Indebtedness outstanding under any Senior Facilities Agreement, so long as no Event of Default exists at such time or would arise as a result of such release;

(14) in connection with the granting of Liens on such property or assets, which may include Collateral, or the sale or transfer of such property or assets, which may include Collateral, in each case pursuant to a Qualified Receivables Financing;

(15) any release of any asset from any floating charge created under any Collateral Document to the extent not prohibited by the terms of this Indenture or such Collateral Document; and

(16) upon a release of the Lien that resulted in the creation of the Lien under Section 4.12 hereof.

The Security Agent and, if necessary, the Trustee shall take all reasonably necessary actions to effectuate or evidence any release of security interests over the Collateral in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement, any Additional Intercreditor Agreement and any relevant Collateral Documents, subject to customary protections and indemnifications. Each of the releases set forth in this Section 10.05 shall be affected by the Security Agent without the consent of the Holders or any action on the part of the Trustee, and each Holder, by accepting a Note, will be deemed to have consented to such actions by the Security Agent.

ARTICLE 11 GUARANTEES

Section 11.01 [Reserved].

Section 11.02 Guarantee.

(a) Subject to this Article 11, each of the Guarantors, jointly and severally, absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to each Holder and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Company hereunder or thereunder, that:

(1) the principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Notes and all other monetary obligations of the Issuer due under the Indenture will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Notes, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuer to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly and completely paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(2) in case of any extension of time of payment or performance or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that the same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise.

Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors will be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. Each Guarantor agrees that this is a guarantee of payment and performance and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) Subject to this Article 11, the Guarantors agree that their obligations are unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or this Indenture, the validity, perfection, non-perfection, lapse in perfection or priority of any security interest securing any of the obligations guaranteed by the Guarantee, the absence of any action to enforce any of the foregoing, any amendment, modification, waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuer, any action to enforce the same, any change in the corporate structure or existence of the Issuer or any other Guarantor, or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a Guarantor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Guarantor's liability under its Guarantee shall extend to all obligations under the Notes and this Indenture (including, without limitation, interest, fees, costs and expenses) that would be owed but for the fact that they are unenforceable or not allowable due to any proceeding under Bankruptcy Law involving the Issuer or any Guarantor.

(c) Each Guarantor waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, marshaling, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenant that this Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete payment and performance of the obligations contained in the Notes and this Indenture and the obligations of each Guarantor under this Guarantee shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment, set-off, defense, counterclaim, discharge or termination for any reason other than the complete payment and performance of the obligations contained in the Notes and this Indenture, it being understood that in relation to a Guarantor incorporated in Germany this provision shall apply only to the extent the respective waiver does not amount to a breach of such Guarantor's management's capital maintenance obligations.

(d) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuer, the Guarantors or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuer or the Guarantors, any amount paid by either the Trustee or such Holder, this Guarantee, to the extent theretofore discharged, will be reinstated in full force and effect.

(e) Each Guarantor agrees that it will not be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby or any collateral securing any such obligations until payment and performance in full of all obligations guaranteed, it being understood that this provision shall not be construed as a waiver of any such rights in relation to a German Guarantor to the extent the respective waiver does not amount to a breach of such Guarantor's management's capital maintenance obligations. Each Guarantor further agrees that, as between the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed by may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 for the purposes of this Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed, and (2) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) will forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantors for the purpose of this Guarantee. The Guarantors will have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Guarantee.

Section 11.04 Limitation and Effectiveness of Guarantees.

(a) General

Without limiting any specific exemptions set out below, each Guarantee and any other Guarantee, indemnity or assurance against loss in this Indenture does not apply to any liability to the extent it would constitute unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of sections 678 or 679 of the Companies Act 2006 or any equivalent and applicable provisions under the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the relevant Guarantor.

(b) Germany

(1) In this Section 11.04(b):

“German Guarantor” means:

- (A) any Guarantor incorporated in Germany as a limited liability company (Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung) (a “German GmbH Guarantor”); or
- (B) a limited partnership (Kommanditgesellschaft) in relation to which any general partner (persönlich haftender Gesellschafter) is a limited liability company (any such general partner is hereinafter referred to as a “German GP Company”) (such limited partnership is hereinafter referred to as a “German KG Guarantor”).

“Guarantee” means any guarantee and/or indemnity obligation of any German Guarantor created under this Indenture.

“Net Assets” means the amount of the German GmbH Guarantor’s, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company’s relevant assets (the calculation of which shall include all items set forth in Section 266(2) A, B, C, D and E of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch, “HGB”)) less:

- (A) the German GmbH Guarantor’s, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company’s liabilities, the calculation of which shall include all items set forth in Section 266(3) B, C, D and E of the HGB including any costs for any Auditor’s Determination but such liabilities shall exclude:
 - (i) the liabilities under or relating to the Guarantee; and
 - (ii) any obligations (Verbindlichkeiten) of the German GmbH Guarantor (and, in case of a GmbH & Co. KG, of its German GP Company):
 - (x) owing to any member of the group or any other affiliated company which are subordinated by law or by contract to any Indebtedness outstanding under this Indenture (including for the avoidance of doubt, obligations that would in an insolvency be subordinated pursuant to Section 39 para 1 no 5 or Section 39 para 2 of the German Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung)) and including obligations under guarantees for obligations which are so subordinated, unless a waiver of the loan provided to the relevant German GmbH Guarantor or, in the case of a GmbH & Co. KG, of its German GP Company, would result in that member of the group breaching its obligations under section 30 of the German Limited Liability Companies Act (GmbH-Gesetz, “GmbHG”) or any similar provision of any other jurisdiction applicable to it; and

- (y) incurred by the German GmbH Guarantor (and, in the case of a GmbH & Co.KG, of its German GP Company) in willful violation of any of the provisions of this Indenture; and
- (B) any amounts which are subject to legal dividend payment constraints (Ausschüttungssperre) pursuant to Section 253(6), Section 268(8) or Section 272(5) HGB, in each case calculated in accordance with HGB (taking into account applicable case law on the calculation of net assets pursuant to Section 30 GmbHG) and accounting principles consistent with those applied in the preparation of the latest annual unconsolidated financial statements for that German GmbH Guarantor (or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company).

For the purpose of such calculation, the following balance sheet items shall be adjusted as follows:

- (i) if the registered share capital of the German Guarantor, or where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, of its German GP Company, is increased out of retained earnings (Kapitalerhöhung aus Gesellschaftsmitteln) after the date of this Indenture, such increase shall not be taken into account unless (i) such increase has been effected with the prior written consent of the Trustee or is otherwise permitted under this Indenture and (ii) only to the extent it is fully paid up (voll eingezahlt);
- (ii) the amount of any increase after the date of this Indenture of the German Guarantor’s, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company’s registered share capital which has been effected out of retained earnings (Kapitalerhöhung aus Gesellschaftsmitteln) without the prior written consent of the Trustee shall be deducted from the registered share capital;
- (iii) any accrual (Rückstellung) in respect of a potential enforcement of the Guarantee or any Security shall be disregarded; and
- (iv) liabilities in relation to loans granted to, and other contractual liabilities incurred by, the German Guarantor or as the case may be by its German GP Company, in willful (vorsätzlich) or grossly negligent (grob fahrlässig) violation of this Indenture shall be disregarded.

- (2) In the case of a German Guarantor the enforcement of the Guarantee against such German Guarantor shall be limited if and to the extent that:
- (i) such Guarantee secures the obligations or liabilities of:
 - (A) the German Guarantor's, or in case of a German KG Guarantor, any of its relevant German GP Company's, direct or indirect shareholder (upstream), or
 - (B) a direct or indirect subsidiary of a shareholder pursuant to paragraph (i) (but excluding any direct or indirect subsidiary of the German Guarantor (and, in the case of a German KG Guarantor, any direct or indirect subsidiary of its German GP Company)) (cross-stream); and
 - (ii) the enforcement of the Guarantee (x) would cause the Net Assets to be less than the respective share capital (Stammkapital) (Begründung einer Unterbilanz) or (y) (if the German GmbH Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets are already less than its respective registered share capital) would cause such deficit to be further increased (Vertiefung einer Unterbilanz).
- (3) In addition, the German Guarantor and, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, also its relevant German GP Company shall, if so requested by the Trustee (acting on behalf of and for the account of the Holders), realise, to the extent legally permitted, in a situation where after enforcement of the Guarantee the German Guarantor, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its relevant German GP Company would not have Net Assets in excess of its respective registered share capital, any and all of its assets that are shown in the balance sheet with a book value (Buchwert) that is significantly lower than the market value of the asset if such asset is not necessary for the German Guarantor's or as the case may be its relevant German GP Company's operational business (operativ nicht betriebsnotwendig).
- (4) The enforcement of the Guarantee shall initially be excluded if no later than fifteen (15) Business Days following a demand by the Trustee (acting on behalf of and for the account of the Holders) to make a payment under the Guarantee, the managing directors on behalf of the German Guarantor or, as the case may be, its German GP Company, have confirmed in writing to the Trustee:
- (iii) to what extent the Guarantee granted hereunder has an upstream or cross-stream effect as described above; and
 - (iv) to which extent the Guarantee securing cross-stream and/or upstream obligations or liabilities as described above cannot be enforced as it would cause the Net Assets of the German Guarantor, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company to be less than its respective registered share capital (taking into account the above set out adjustments and realization duties),

(the “Management Determination”) and such confirmation is supported by a reasonably satisfactory calculation provided that the Trustee (acting on behalf of and for the account of the Holders) shall in any event be entitled to enforce the Guarantee for any amounts where such enforcement would, in accordance with the Management Determination, not cause the German Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets to be less than (or to fall further below) the amount of its respective registered share capital (in each case as calculated and adjusted as set out above).

- (5) Following the Trustee's receipt of Management Determination, any further enforcement of the Guarantee (i.e. any enforcement to which the Trustee is not already entitled to) shall be excluded for a period of no more than thirty (30) Business Days only. If the Trustee receives within such thirty (30) Business Days period: (i) an up-to date balance sheet together with (ii) a determination in each case prepared by auditors of international standard and reputation appointed by the relevant German Guarantor either confirming the Management Determination or setting out deviations from the Management Determination (the “Auditor's Determination”), the further enforcement of the Guarantee shall be limited, if and to the extent such enforcement would, in accordance with the Auditor's Determination cause the German Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets to be less than (or to fall further below) the amount of its respective registered share capital in each case as calculated and adjusted as set out above. If the German Guarantor fails to deliver an Auditor's Determination within thirty (30) Business Days after receipt of the Management Determination, the Trustee shall be entitled to enforce the Guarantee without any limitation or restriction.
- (6) If and to the extent (A) the net assets as determined by the Auditors' Determination are lower than the amount enforced in accordance with the Management Determination or (B) the Guarantee has been enforced without regard to the limitations set out above because (x) the Management Determination was not delivered within the relevant time frame or (y) the Auditors' Determination was not delivered within the relevant time frame but has been delivered within ten (10) Business Days following the due date for the delivery of the Auditors' Determination, the Trustee shall without undue delay repay to the relevant German Guarantor upon written demand of the relevant German Guarantor any amount (if and to the extent already paid to the Trustee (or any of them)) in the case of (A) equal to the difference between the amount paid and the amount payable resulting from the Auditor's Determination, and in the case of (B), which the Trustee would not have been entitled to enforce had the Management Determination and the Auditors' Determination been delivered in time provided such demand for repayment is made to the Trustee within six months from the date the Guarantee is enforced. The Trustee (acting on instructions from the Holders), may withhold any amount received pursuant to an enforcement of the Guarantee until final determination of the amount of the net assets pursuant to the Auditor's Determination.
- (7) The limitations set out in this Section 11.04(b) shall not apply (or, as the case may be, shall cease to apply):

- (i) if and to the extent any amounts borrowed under this Indenture are lent or on-lent to such German Guarantor and/or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its relevant German GP Company or any of its respective subsidiaries from time to time if, in addition by virtue of the enforcement of the Guarantee the German Guarantor, or as the case may be, its relevant German GP Company, has a recourse, indemnification, sharing of losses or other compensation claim against such lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the German Stock Act (Aktiengesetz, “AktG”) or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor which could be set-off against such loan receivable or otherwise be used to settle or discharge such loan obligation and provided that the Trustee (acting on instructions from the Holders) has waived with binding effect on the Trustee the restrictions of any provision under this Indenture restricting the right to set off claims against, or otherwise make use of the recourse, indemnification, sharing of losses or other compensation claim against such lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the AktG or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor in order to settle or discharge such loan obligation vis-à-vis, such lending member of the lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the AktG or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor; or
- (ii) if and when a domination agreement (Beherrschungsvertrag) and/or profit absorption agreement (Gewinnabführungsvertrag) (either directly or through a chain of domination and/or profit absorption agreements) is or becomes effective between the relevant German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) as dependent entity (abhängiges Unternehmen) and:
 - (A) in case of the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) is a subsidiary of the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee, that obligor; or
 - (B) in case the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) is a sister company of the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee, any joint (direct or indirect) parent company of the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) and that obligor, as dominating entity (beherrschendes Unternehmen)) other than where and to the extent the existence of such domination agreement (Beherrschungsvertrag) and/or profit absorption agreement (Gewinnabführungsvertrag) does not result in the inapplicability of sentence 1 of paragraph 1 of Section 30 GmbHG (as stipulated by sentence 2 of such paragraph) with respect to the relevant payments under the Guarantee (including in respect of intermediate entities through which the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee is an indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor, or as the case may be, its German GP Company);

- (iii) if and to the extent the German Guarantor holds on the date of the enforcement of the Guarantee a fully valuable and recoverable indemnity or claim for refund (vollwertiger Gegenleistungs-oder Rückgewähranspruch) against any of its direct or indirect shareholders or Subsidiaries of such shareholders (other than Subsidiaries of the German Guarantor) with respect to the relevant payments under the Guarantee; or
- (iv) if and to the extent for any other reason (including, without limitation, as a result of a change in the relevant rules of law) the deficit (Unterbilanz) referred to in paragraph (b) above does not constitute a breach of the German Guarantor's obligations to maintain its registered share capital pursuant to §§ 30 et seq. GmbHG or does not result in a personal liability of the managing directors of the German Guarantor pursuant to § 43 GmbHG.

(b) Kingdom of Saudi Arabia law

- (1) The obligations of a Guarantor incorporated in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (a “KSA Guarantor”) under this Indenture shall be limited to exclude any obligation to the extent that it would constitute an unlawful distribution to the partners or shareholders of that KSA Guarantor or an otherwise unlawful use of proceeds or assets of that KSA Guarantor, whether pursuant to article 10 of the Saudi Arabian companies regulations or any other applicable law (each being a “Breach of Law”). The Parties irrevocably agree that the obligations of a KSA Guarantor under this Indenture are limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of that KSA Guarantor, result in the obligations of that KSA Guarantor under this Indenture not constituting a Breach of Law.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the Company and each KSA Guarantor (without any need to amend this Indenture), the liability of a KSA Guarantor under this Indenture shall be limited to US$1,000,000,000 plus any unpaid amount of interest, fees, liability, costs and expenses under this Indenture and the amount of any interest, default interest, costs and expenses related to the liabilities of the KSA Guarantor.

(c) Norway

- (1) The obligations of each Guarantor incorporated in Norway (a “Norwegian Guarantor”) under this Indenture shall be limited by any mandatory provisions of law applicable to such Norwegian Guarantor and be deemed to have been given only to the extent it does not violate Sections 8-7 and 8-10 of the Norwegian Private Limited Liability Companies Act 1997 No. 44 (the “Norwegian Companies Act”) regulating unlawful financial assistance and other restricted loans, guarantees and joint and several liability as well as providing of security, and the liability of each Norwegian Guarantor only applies to the extent permitted by such provisions of the Norwegian Companies Act. Any Norwegian Guarantor’s obligations under this Indenture shall, however, be interpreted so as to make it liable to the fullest extent permitted by the Norwegian Companies Act from time to time.

- (2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company and each Norwegian Guarantor (and following any such agreement this Indenture shall be deemed to be amended accordingly), the liability of a Norwegian Guarantor under this Indenture shall be limited to US$1,000,000,000 plus any unpaid amount of interest, fees, liability, costs and expenses under this Indenture and the amount of any interest, default interest, costs and expenses related to the liabilities of the Norwegian Guarantor.

(d) Security

The limitations set out above shall apply mutatis mutandis to any security provided by any Guarantor under the Collateral Documents and to any guarantee, undertaking, obligation, indemnity and payment, including but not limited to, distributions, credits, loans and set-offs, pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture in relation to a Guarantor.

(e) Additional Guarantors

The Guarantee of, and any security granted by, any additional Guarantor is subject to any other limitations relating to that additional Guarantor set out in the relevant supplemental indenture applicable to such additional Guarantor.

Section 11.05 Notation Not Required.

Neither the Issuer nor any Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Guarantee or any release, termination or discharge thereof.

Each Guarantor agrees that its Guarantee set forth in Section 11.02 will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any failure to endorse on each Note a notation of such Guarantee.

Section 11.06 [Reserved].

Section 11.07 Releases.

A Guarantee of a Subsidiary Guarantor will be automatically released:

provided that, in each case, the Company or the applicable Guarantor has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for in this Indenture relating to such release have been complied with.

In addition, the Guarantee of the Company will be released in the circumstances described in clauses (3), (6), (7), (8) and (9) of this Section 11.06.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 13.01 Satisfaction and Discharge.

This Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees and the Collateral and any related defaults will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect, when:

(1) either:

(A) all Notes that have been authenticated and delivered, except lost, stolen or destroyed Notes that have been replaced or paid and Notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Issuer, have been delivered to the Paying Agent or Trustee for cancellation; or

(B) all Notes that have not been delivered to the Paying Agent or Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable by reason of the making of a notice of redemption or otherwise or will become due and payable by reason of the making of a notice of redemption or otherwise within one year and the Issuer or a Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee, or such other entity designated by the Trustee for this purpose, as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the Holders, cash in U.S. Dollars, non-callable U.S. Dollar-denominated Government Obligations or a combination of cash in U.S. Dollars or non-callable U.S. Dollar-denominated Government Obligations, in amounts as will be sufficient without consideration of reinvestment, to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not delivered to the Trustee for cancellation for principal, premium and Additional Amounts, if any, and accrued interest to the date of maturity or redemption;

(2) the Issuer or any Guarantor has paid or caused to be paid all sums payable by it under this Indenture; and

(3) the Issuer has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee under this Indenture to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the Notes issued hereunder at maturity or on the redemption date, as the case may be; provided that, if requested by the Issuer, the Trustee may distribute any amounts deposited in trust to the Holders prior to the maturity or the redemption date, as the case may be, provided, however, that the Holders shall have received at least five Business Days' notice from the Issuer of such earlier payment date (which may be included in a notice of redemption); provided, further that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall not distribute such amounts deposited in the trust to Holders prior to the fifth Business Day following the date of publication of any such redemption notice, to the extent applicable. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Person (including, without limitation, any Holders) for making any payments at the request of the Issuer and the indemnities from the Issuer and/or Guarantors contained in this Indenture shall extend to any actions of the Trustee taken, and any losses and liabilities Incurred by the Trustee (including, without limitation, any claim that may be brought by Holders), in connection with such request.

In addition, the Issuer must deliver an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel to the Trustee stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been satisfied; provided that any such counsel may rely on any Officer's Certificate as to matters of fact (including as to compliance with clauses (1), (2) and (3)) of this Section 13.01.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, if money has been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 13.01(1)(B), Section 13.02 and Section 8.06 will survive. In addition, nothing in this Section 13.01 will be deemed to discharge those provisions of Section 7.06, that, by their terms, survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

Section 13.02 Application of Trust Money.

Subject to Section 8.06, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 13.01 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Persons entitled thereto, of the principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or Government Obligations, as applicable, in accordance with Section 13.01 by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Issuer's and the Guarantors' obligations under this Indenture and the Notes shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 13.01; provided that if the Issuer has made any payment of principal of, premium on, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on, the Notes because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money or Government Obligations, as applicable, held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

(b) Communications with the Trustee.

In no event shall the Trustee or the Agents be liable for any Losses arising from the Trustee or the Agent receiving or transmitting any data from the Issuer or the Company, any Authorized Person or Officer or any party to the transaction via any non-secure method of transmission or communication, such as, but without limitation, by facsimile or email.

The parties hereto accept that some methods of communication are not secure and the Trustee or the Agent shall incur no liability for receiving instructions via any such non-secure method. The Trustee or the Agent is authorized to comply with and rely upon any such notice, instructions or other communications believed by it to have been sent or given by an Authorized Person or Officer or an appropriate party to the transaction (or authorized representative thereof). The Issuer, the Company or authorized officer of the Issuer or the Company shall use all reasonable endeavors to ensure that instructions transmitted to the Trustee or an Agent pursuant to this Indenture are complete and correct. Any instructions shall be conclusively deemed to be valid instructions from the Issuer, the Company or authorized officer of the Issuer or the Company to the Trustee or such Agent for the purposes of this Indenture.

Section 14.03 Certificate and Opinion as to Conditions Precedent.

Upon any request or application by the Issuer to the Trustee to take any action under this Indenture, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee:

- (1) an Officer's Certificate in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee (which must include the statements set forth in Section 14.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all conditions precedent and covenants, if any, provided for in this Indenture relating to the proposed action have been satisfied; and

The Trustee may make reasonable rules for action by or at a meeting of Holders. The Registrar or Paying Agent may make reasonable rules and set reasonable requirements for its functions.

Section 14.06 Agent for Service; Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities.

The Issuer and each of the Guarantors irrevocably and unconditionally:

(1) submits itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Indenture to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect hereof, to the general jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of New York, sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, appellate courts from any thereof and courts of its own corporate domicile, with respect to actions brought against it as defendant;

(2) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same and waives any right to trial by jury;

(3) appoints Cogency Global, Inc., 10 East 40th Street, 10th Floor, New York, New York 10016, USA, as its agent to receive on its behalf service of all process (“Authorized Agent”) in any such action or proceeding, such service being hereby acknowledged by the Issuer to be effective and binding in every respect. Such appointment shall be irrevocable unless and until replaced by an agent reasonably acceptable to the Trustee.

The Issuer and each of the Guarantors represents and warrants that the Authorized Agent has agreed to act as said agent for service of process, and the Issuer agrees to take any and all action, including the filing of any and all documents and instruments, that may be necessary to continue such appointment in full force and effect as aforesaid. Service of process upon the Authorized Agent and written notice of such service to the Issuer shall be deemed, in every respect, effective service of process upon the Issuer and the Guarantors.

Section 14.07 No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders.

No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer, the Company or any other Guarantor, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer, the Company or any other Guarantor under the Notes, this Indenture, the Guarantees, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Documents or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. The waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws of the United States.

Section 14.08 Governing Law.

THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SHALL GOVERN AND BE USED TO CONSTRUE THIS INDENTURE AND THE NOTES AND THE GUARANTEES WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO APPLICABLE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW TO THE EXTENT THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD BE REQUIRED THEREBY.

Section 14.09 No Adverse Interpretation of Other Agreements.

This Indenture may not be used to interpret any other indenture, loan or debt agreement of the Company or its Subsidiaries or of any other Person. Any such indenture, loan or debt agreement may not be used to interpret this Indenture.

Section 14.10 Successors.

All agreements of the Issuer in this Indenture and the Notes will bind its successors. All agreements of the Company in this Indenture and the Notes will bind its successors. All agreements of the Trustee in this Indenture will bind its successors. All agreements of each Guarantor in this Indenture will bind its successors, except as otherwise provided in Section 11.07.

Section 14.11 Severability.

In case any provision in this Indenture or in the Notes is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section 14.12 Counterpart Originals.

The parties may sign any number of copies of this Indenture. Each signed copy will be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

Section 14.13 Table of Contents, Headings, etc.

The Table of Contents, Cross-Reference Table and Headings of the Articles and Sections of this Indenture have been inserted for convenience of reference only, are not to be considered a part of this Indenture and will in no way modify or restrict any of the terms or provisions hereof.

Section 14.14 Judgment Currency.

Any payment on account of an amount that is payable in U.S. Dollars (the “Required Currency”), which is made to or for the account of any Holder or the Trustee in lawful currency of any other jurisdiction (the “Judgment Currency”), whether as a result of any judgment or order or the enforcement thereof or the liquidation of the Issuer or a Guarantor, shall constitute a discharge of the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s obligations under this Indenture and the Notes or the Guarantees, as the case may be, only to the extent of the amount of the Required Currency which such Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, could purchase in the London foreign exchange markets with the amount of the Judgment Currency in accordance with normal banking procedures at the rate of exchange prevailing on the first Business Day following receipt of the payment in the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Required Currency that could be so purchased is less than the amount of the Required Currency originally due to such Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, the Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, from and against all loss or damage arising out of, or as a result of, such deficiency. This indemnity shall constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Indenture or the Notes, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder or the Trustee from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

Section 14.15 Prescription.

Claims against the Issuer or any Guarantor for the payment of principal, premium or Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes will be prescribed ten years after the applicable due date for payment thereof. Claims against the Issuer or any Guarantor for the payment of interest on the Notes will be prescribed five years after the applicable due date for the payment of interest.

The Issuer will pay interest semi-annually in arrears on June 1 and December 1 of each year, or if any such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day (each an “Interest Payment Date”). Interest on the Notes will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from the date of issuance; provided that if there is no existing Default in the payment of interest, and if this Note is authenticated between a record date referred to on the face hereof and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date, interest shall accrue from such next succeeding Interest Payment Date; provided, further, that the first Interest Payment Date shall be June 1, 2021. Upon notice to the Trustee, the Issuer may change the Paying Agent, the Registrar or the Transfer Agent without prior notice to the Holders.

(4) INDENTURE. The Issuer issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of [●], 2020, (the “Indenture”) among the Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee, the Security Agent, the Paying Agent, Registrar and the Transfer Agent. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture. The Notes are subject to all such terms, and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms. To the extent any provision of this Note conflicts with the express provisions of the Indenture, the provisions of the Indenture shall govern and be controlling.

(5) OPTIONAL REDEMPTION.

(a) Prior to December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of Notes issued under the Indenture upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, at a redemption price equal to 109.875% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to, but not including, the date of redemption of the Notes (subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date), with the net cash proceeds of one or more Equity Offerings, provided that:

(1) at least 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes under the Indenture remains outstanding immediately after the occurrence of such redemption; and

(2) the redemption occurs within 180 days of the date of the closing of such Equity Offering.

(b) At any time prior to December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem, in whole or in part, the Notes, upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice to the Holders, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed, plus the Applicable Premium (as calculated by the Issuer) as of, and accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes being redeemed to, but not including, the redemption date (subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

(c) Except pursuant to clause (a) and (b) in this Paragraph 5 and except as pursuant to Paragraph 6 or Paragraph 7, the Notes may not be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuer prior to December 1, 2022; provided, however, that the Issuer, the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may acquire the Notes by means other than a redemption, whether by open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, in accordance with applicable securities laws so long as (A) such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of the Indenture and (B) such acquired Notes will not be deemed to be outstanding and the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries and affiliates shall not be entitled to any of the voting rights provided to Holders under the Indenture.

(d) On or after December 1, 2022, the Issuer may on any one or more occasions redeem, in whole or in part, the Notes upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice to the Holders, at the prices (expressed as percentages of the outstanding principal amount on the redemption date) set forth below, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes redeemed, to, but not including, the applicable redemption date if repaid during the period beginning on the dates indicated below (subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant Interest Payment Date):

Year

December 1, 2022	104.938%
December 1, 2024 and thereafter	100.000%

(e) In addition, at any time prior to December 1, 2022, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, the Issuer may redeem, during each twelve-month period commencing on the Issue Date, up to 10% of the original principal amount of the Notes (including the original principal amount of any Additional Notes of the same series) at a redemption price equal to 103% of the principal amount redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to, but not including, the applicable redemption date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

(f) In connection with any tender offer for, or other offer to purchase, the Notes, if holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in such tender offer and the Issuer, or any third party making such a tender offer in lieu of the Issuer, purchases all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by such holders, the Issuer or such third party will have the right upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to the holders of the Notes, given not more than 30 days following such purchase date, to redeem all Notes that remain outstanding following such purchase at a price equal to the price paid to each other holder in such tender offer (other than any incentive payment for early tenders), plus, to the extent not included in the tender offer payment, accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, thereon, to, but not including, the redemption date. In determining whether the holders of at least 90% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes have validly tendered and not withdrawn Notes in a tender offer or other offer to purchase for all of the Notes, as applicable, Notes owned by an Affiliate of the Issuer or by funds controlled or managed by any Affiliate of the Issuer, or any successor thereof, shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purposes of such tender offer or other offer, as applicable.

(g) Unless the Issuer defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable redemption date.

(i) Any redemption or notice may, in the Issuer's discretion, be subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent.

(6) REDEMPTION FOR CHANGES IN TAXES.

The Issuer may redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at its discretion at any time upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to Holders (which notice will be irrevocable and given in accordance with Section 3.02 of the Indenture), at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date fixed by the Issuer for redemption (a "Tax Redemption Date") and all Additional Amounts (if any) then due and which will become due on the Tax Redemption Date as a result of the redemption or otherwise (and subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date and Additional Amounts (if any) in respect thereof), if the Issuer or a Guarantor, as the case may be, on the next date on which any amount would be payable in respect of the Notes or any Guarantee, is or would be required to pay Additional Amounts, and the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor (but, in the case of a Guarantor, only if the payment giving rise to such requirement cannot be made by the Issuer or another Guarantor, who can make such payment without the obligation to pay Additional Amounts) cannot avoid any such payment obligation by taking reasonable measures available (including making payment through a Paying Agent located in another jurisdiction), as a result of:

(i) any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction affecting taxation which change or amendment has not been publicly announced before the Issue Date and becomes effective on or after the Issue Date (or, if a Tax Jurisdiction has been added since the Issue Date the date on which that Tax Jurisdiction became a Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture); or

(ii) any change in, or amendment to, the existing official written position regarding the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings (including a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction or a change in published practice), which change, amendment, application or interpretation has not been publicly announced before the Issue Date and becomes effective on or after the Issue Date (or, if a Tax Jurisdiction has been added since the Issue Date, the date on which that Tax Jurisdiction became a Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture).

The Issuer will not give any such notice of redemption earlier than 60 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer, or Guarantor, as the case may be, would be obligated to make such payment or withholding if a payment in respect of the Notes or any Guarantee were then due. Prior to the publication or, where relevant, mailing of any notice of redemption of the Notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel, the choice of such counsel to be subject to the prior written approval of the Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), to the effect that there has been such change or amendment which would obligate the Issuer or a Guarantor to make such payment or withholding and an Officer's Certificate to the effect that the Issuer or Guarantor, as the case may be, cannot avoid such payment or withholding by taking reasonable measures available to it. For the avoidance of doubt, reasonable measures shall not include anything which has any material impact on the business of the Issuer or Guarantor, or which would cause the Issuer or Guarantor to incur any material costs. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such Opinion of Counsel and Officer's Certificate as sufficient evidence of the conditions as described in this Paragraph 6, in which event it will be conclusive and binding on all Holders.

Any redemption and notice described in this Paragraph 6 will be subject to the receipt by the Issuer or any Paying Agent of sufficient funds from the Issuer to pay the full redemption price payable to the Holders on or before the Tax Redemption Date.

(7) [RESERVED]

(8) MANDATORY REDEMPTION. The Issuer is not required to make mandatory redemption payments or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes.

(9) REPURCHASE AT OPTION OF HOLDER.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Issuer will make an offer (a “Change of Control Offer”) to each Holder to repurchase all or any part (in integral multiples of $1; provided that Notes of $1,000 in aggregate principal amount or less may only be redeemed in whole and not in part) of that Holder’s Notes at a purchase price in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of purchase (the “Change of Control Payment”) (subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date); provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be obliged to repay Notes as described under this provision, in the event and to the extent that it has unconditionally exercised its right to redeem all of the Notes in accordance with the Indenture, or all conditions to such redemption have been satisfied or waived.

(b) Any Net Proceeds from Asset Sales that are not applied, invested or subject to a Notes Offer as provided in the Indenture will constitute “Excess Proceeds”. When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds exceeds the greater of $45.0 million and 20.0% of Consolidated EBITDA, within ten Business Days thereof or at any earlier time at the Issuer’s election, the Issuer will make an offer to all Holders (an “Asset Sale Offer”), and (at the Issuer’s election) all holders of other Indebtedness that is pari passu with the Notes or any Guarantees to purchase, prepay or redeem with the proceeds of sales of assets the maximum principal amount of Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness (plus all accrued interest on the Indebtedness and the amount of all fees and expenses, including premiums, Incurred in connection therewith) that may be purchased, prepaid or redeemed out of the Excess Proceeds. The offer price in any Asset Sale Offer will be equal to (solely in the case of the Notes) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes and (solely in the case of Pari Passu Indebtedness) no greater than 100% of the principal amount (or accreted value, as applicable) of such Pari Passu Indebtedness, plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the date of repayment and will be payable in cash. If any Excess Proceeds remain after consummation of an Asset Sale Offer or any Net Proceeds subject to a Notes Offer remain after consummation of a Notes Offer, the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries may use those Excess Proceeds or Net Proceeds for any purpose not otherwise prohibited by the Indenture. If the aggregate principal amount of Notes and other Pari Passu Indebtedness tendered into (or to be prepaid or redeemed in connection with) such Asset Sale Offer exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds or if the aggregate principal amount of Notes tendered pursuant to a Notes Offer exceeds the amount of the Net Proceeds so applied, the Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness to be prepaid or redeemed shall be prepaid or redeemed on a pro rata basis based on the principal amount of Notes and such other Pari Passu Indebtedness presented for purchase. The Notes to be prepaid or redeemed will be selected, if applicable, in the manner described under Section 3.02 of the Indenture. Upon completion of each Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds will be reset at zero. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer may make an Asset Sale Offer prior to the expiration of the 365-day period referred to above.

To the extent that any portion of Net Proceeds payable in respect of the Notes is denominated in a currency other than U.S. Dollars, the amount thereof payable in respect of such Notes shall not exceed the net amount of funds in U.S. Dollars that is actually received by the Issuer upon converting such portion of the Net Proceeds into U.S. Dollars.

(10) NOTICE OF REDEMPTION.

At least 10 days but not more than 60 days before a redemption date, the Issuer will mail or cause to be mailed (with a copy to the Trustee and Paying Agent), by first class mail or electronically, a notice of redemption to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed at its registered address, except that redemption notices may be mailed more than 60 days prior to a redemption date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the Notes or a satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture. If the Notes are at such time listed on the Exchange, the Issuer shall inform the Exchange of the principal amount of the Notes that have not been redeemed in connection with any optional redemption.

In formulating its opinion on such matters, the Trustee will be entitled to request, receive and rely absolutely on such evidence as it deems appropriate, including Opinions of Counsel and Officer's Certificates, on which the Trustee may solely rely. Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or the Indenture and that the Trustee determines may be unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders or that may involve the Trustee in personal liability.

(15) TRUSTEE DEALINGS WITH ISSUER. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. FORM OF SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE
TO BE DELIVERED BY SUBSEQUENT GUARANTORS

Supplemental Indenture (this “Supplemental Indenture”), dated as of _____, among _____, a company organized and existing under the laws of _____ (the “Subsequent Guarantor”), a subsidiary of the Company (as such term is defined in the indenture referred to below) (or its permitted successor), KCA Deutag UK Finance plc, organized and established as a public limited company under the laws of England and Wales, having its registered office at 1 Park Row, Leeds, LS1 5AB, United Kingdom, KCA DEUTAG Alpha Limited, organized and established as a limited liability company under the laws of England and Wales, having its registered office at Bankhead Drive, City South Office Park, Portlethen, Aberdeenshire AB12 4XX, United Kingdom, and Lucid Trustee Services Limited as Trustee.

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the Issuer and the Company have heretofore executed and delivered to the Trustee an indenture (the “Indenture”), dated as of [●], 2020, providing for the issuance of U.S. Dollar-denominated 9.875% Senior Secured Notes due 2025 (the “Notes”);

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Subsequent Guarantor shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Subsequent Guarantor shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuer’s Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein (the “Guarantee”); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Issuer, the Company and the Trustee are authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Subsequent Guarantor and the Trustee mutually covenant and agree for the equal and ratable benefit of the Holders as follows:

1. CAPITALIZED TERMS. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

2. AGREEMENT TO GUARANTEE. The Subsequent Guarantor hereby agrees as follows:

(a) To jointly and severally Guarantee to each Holder of a Note, authenticated and delivered by the Trustee, and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, regardless of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture or the Notes, that:

(i) the principal of, interest on, premium, and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal and premium, if any, and if lawful, interest and Additional Amounts of the Issuer to the Holders or the Trustee under the Indenture or the Notes or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes, that same will be promptly paid in full when due in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Subsequent Guarantor shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately.

(b) The obligations of the Subsequent Guarantor hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuer, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a Guarantor.

(c) The following is hereby waived: diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever.

(d) Except as set forth in Section 5, this Guarantee shall not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes and the Indenture, and the Subsequent Guarantor accepts all obligations of a Guarantor provided for under the terms of the Indenture.

(e) The Subsequent Guarantor waives and will not in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation or any other rights against the Issuer, the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary as a result of any payment by such Subsequent Guarantor under its Guarantee.

(f) As between the Subsequent Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture for the purposes of this Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Subsequent Guarantor for the purpose of this Guarantee.

(g) The Subsequent Guarantor hereby confirms that it is its intention that the Guarantee of the Subsequent Guarantor does not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of Bankruptcy Law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar federal or state law to the extent applicable to the Guarantee. To effectuate the foregoing intention, the Trustee and the Subsequent Guarantor hereby irrevocably agree that after giving effect to such maximum amount and all other contingent and fixed liabilities of the Subsequent Guarantor that are relevant under such laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Subsequent Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Subsequent Guarantor, the obligations of the Subsequent Guarantor will be limited to the obligations of the Subsequent Guarantor under its Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

(h) [Applicable limitation wording to be added]

3. EXECUTION AND DELIVERY.

(a) To evidence its Guarantee, the Subsequent Guarantor hereby agrees that this Supplemental Indenture shall be executed on behalf of the Subsequent Guarantor by one of its Directors or Officers.

(b) The Subsequent Guarantor hereby agrees that its Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any failure to endorse on each Note a notation of such Guarantee.

(c) If an Officer whose signature is on this Supplemental Indenture no longer holds that office at a later time, the Guarantee shall be valid nevertheless.

(d) Upon execution of this Supplemental Indenture, the delivery of any Note by the Trustee, after the authentication thereof hereunder, shall constitute due delivery of the Guarantee set forth in this Supplemental Indenture on behalf of the Subsequent Guarantor.

4. [RESERVED].

5. RELEASES. Each Guarantee shall be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged in accordance with Section 11.06 of the Indenture.

6. NO RECOURSE AGAINST OTHERS. No director, officer, employee, Authorized Signatory, incorporator or stockholder of any Subsequent Guarantor, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Company or any Subsequent Guarantor under the Notes, the Indenture, the Guarantees or this Supplemental Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder, by accepting a Note, waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. The waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under applicable securities laws.

7. THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SHALL GOVERN AND BE USED TO CONSTRUE THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE, THIS NOTE AND THE GUARANTEES WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO APPLICABLE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW TO THE EXTENT THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD BE REQUIRED THEREBY.

8. JURISDICTION AND SERVICE OF PROCESS. The Subsequent Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally:

(1) submits itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Indenture to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect hereof, to the general jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of New York, sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, appellate courts from any thereof and courts of its own corporate domicile, with respect to actions brought against it as defendant;

(2) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(3) appoints Cogency Global, Inc., 10 East 40th Street, 10th Floor, New York, New York 10016, USA, as its agent to receive on its behalf service of all process (“Authorized Agent”) in any such action or proceeding, such service being hereby acknowledged by the Subsequent Guarantor to be effective and binding in every respect. Such appointment shall be irrevocable unless and until replaced by an agent reasonably acceptable to the Trustee.

The Subsequent Guarantor represents and warrants that the Authorized Agent has agreed to act as said agent for service of process, and the Subsequent Guarantor agrees to take any and all action, including the filing of any and all documents and instruments, that may be necessary to continue such appointment in full force and effect as aforesaid. Service of process upon the Authorized Agent and written notice of such service to the Subsequent Guarantor shall be deemed, in every respect, effective service of process upon the Subsequent Guarantor.

9. COUNTERPARTS. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Supplemental Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

10. EFFECT OF HEADINGS. The Section headings herein are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

11. THE TRUSTEE. The Trustee shall not be responsible in any manner whatsoever for or in respect of the validity or sufficiency of this Supplemental Indenture or for or in respect of the recitals contained herein, all of which recitals are made solely by each Subsequent Guarantor, the Issuer and the Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Supplemental Indenture to be duly executed and attested, all as of the date first above written.

► General matters applicable to the relationship between the Bank and the Customer

Material Interests

The Bank, divisions or transaction teams within the Bank, other members of the HSBC Group or any company with whom the Bank has an association, may from time to time have interests or duties which conflict with its clients' interests or duties owed to its clients, including, potentially, the Customer. The Bank has established procedures which are designed to identify and manage such conflicts. These include organisational and administrative arrangements to safeguard the interests of clients. The Bank also has rules and procedures which control disclosure of information between the HSBC Group's various legal entities, between different divisions within these legal entities and also between the transaction teams within those entities.

The Customer acknowledges that the Bank's agreement to provide services to the Customer does not require any other member of the HSBC Group or any of the Bank's other divisions or transaction teams to restrict their activities in any way or to provide the Customer, the Bank or the division or team advising the Customer any information whatsoever about, or derived from, those activities nor, in most cases, does it create any obligation to advise the Customer of any conflict of interest which exists or may arise.

In financing the Customer, the Bank will not be required to disclose to the Customer, nor to make use for the Customer's benefit, of, any information known to the Bank or any individual acting on the Bank's behalf which: (a) belongs to or is confidential to another client, or (b) belongs to or is confidential to the Bank, some other part of the Bank's business, its associates, or one of the HSBC Group's various legal entities.

In some cases, the Bank's procedures and controls may not of themselves be sufficient to ensure that a potential conflict of interest does not damage a client's interests. In these circumstances, the Bank may consider it appropriate to disclose the potential conflict to the client and may seek the client's consent to proceed. Alternatively, the Bank may decline to act or cease to act in any circumstance where there is residual risk of damage to the interests of any client.

Compliance Activity

The Bank and members of the HSBC Group, are required, and may take any action they consider appropriate in their sole discretion, acting reasonably, to meet Compliance Obligations in connection with the detection, investigation and prevention of Financial Crime ("Financial Crime Risk Management Activity"). To the extent permissible by law, neither the Bank nor any other member of the HSBC Group shall be liable to the Customer or any third party in respect of any Loss, whether incurred by the Customer or a third party, caused in whole or in part in connection with the undertaking of Financial Crime Risk Management Activity.

"Compliance Obligations" means obligations of the HSBC Group to comply with: (a) Laws, or international guidance and internal policies or procedures, (b) any demand and/or requests from authorities or reporting, disclosure or other obligations under Laws, and (c) Laws requiring members of the HSBC Group to verify the identity of its customers.

"Financial Crime" means money laundering, terrorist financing, bribery, corruption, tax evasion, fraud, evasion of economic or trade sanctions, and/or violations, or acts or attempts to circumvent or violate, any Laws relating to these matters.

"Laws" means any applicable local or foreign statute, law, regulation, ordinance, rule, judgment, decree, voluntary code, directive, sanctions regime, court order, agreement between any member of the HSBC Group and an authority, or agreement or treaty between authorities and applicable to the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group.

"Loss" means any claim, charge, cost (including, but not limited to, any legal or other professional cost), damages, debt, expense, tax, liability, obligation, allegation, suit, action, demand, cause of action, proceeding or judgment, however calculated or caused, and whether direct or indirect, consequential, punitive or incidental.

- 9.4 The Bank's rights against any Borrower shall not be impaired, discharged or otherwise affected by any time, indulgence, consent or waiver granted to any other Borrower or by any liability of any other Borrower, or any Security relating to any such liability being varied or released or by any failure to take or perfect any such Security or by any other act, event or omission which would but for this provision impair, discharge or otherwise affect any of the Bank's rights; and

Welcome to your Global Documentation Output Pack. There are two phases to generating your Output Pack ready for execution. These will allow you to review all the documentation before you finalise it and it can no longer be edited.

The Output Pack is initially marked with a Draft watermark when you have selected "Generate Draft Documentation". This represents all the documentation, including Terms and Conditions, based upon the services you have requested and the data entered so far. Please thoroughly review and ensure that all known data in the application forms is entered. This will improve your product set up. If any information is missing please go back to the Customer Detail Tab and/or Product Requests Tab and make any changes/additions. You can generate your draft document again and recheck all data entered.

After your final review of the watermarked version you can select the Finalise Document button which will generate the Output Pack again but without the watermark, ready to be signed. Once the Finalise Document is selected you will not be able to make any further amendments. You would need to start your case again. You are required to make a confirmation before selecting the Finalise Button.

If you have any questions please contact your HSBC representative dealing with your case.

Le damos la bienvenida a su paquete inicial de Global Documentation. La generación de un paquete inicial listo para ejecutarse consta de dos fases. Estas le permitirán revisar toda la documentación antes de finalizarla y de que ya no pueda editarse.

El paquete inicial incluye al principio la marca de agua Borrador si selecciona la opción "Generar borrador de documentación". Esto representa toda la documentación, incluidos los términos y condiciones, en función de los servicios solicitados y los datos introducidos hasta ese momento. Realice una revisión exhaustiva para asegurarse de se hayan introducido todos los datos conocidos en los formularios de solicitud. Esto facilitará la configuración del producto. Si falta información, vuelva a las pestañas Detalles del cliente o Solicitudes de producto y realice los cambios o las adiciones pertinentes. Puede generar su borrador de documentación otra vez y volver a comprobar todos los datos introducidos.

Tras la revisión final de la versión con marca de agua, puede seleccionar el botón Finalizar documentación, que generará el paquete inicial de nuevo sin la marca de agua, listo para firmarse. Una vez seleccionado el botón Finalizar documentación, no podrá realizar modificaciones. Deberá volver a empezar el caso. Debe confirmar antes de seleccionar el botón Finalizar.

Si tiene cualquier pregunta, póngase en contacto con el representante de HSBC encargado del caso.

Selamat datang di Global Documentation Output Pack. Ada dua fase untuk membuat Output Pack Anda siap dijalankan. Hal ini akan memungkinkan Anda memeriksa semua dokumen sebelum Anda memfinalisasi dokumen tersebut dan tidak dapat diedit lagi.

Periksa secara menyeluruh dan pastikan semua data yang diketahui dalam formulir aplikasi sudah dimasukkan. Hal ini akan membantu meningkatkan pengaturan produk Anda. Jika ada informasi yang belum lengkap, kembalilah ke Tab Detail Nasabah dan/atau Permintaan Produk dan lakukan perubahan/penambahan yang diperlukan. Anda dapat membuat draf dokumen lagi Anda dan memeriksa kembali semua data yang telah dimasukkan.

Setelah pemeriksaan final terhadap versi dokumen ber-watermark, Anda dapat menekan tombol Finalisasi Dokumen yang akan menghasilkan Output Pack lagi tetapi tanpa watermark, dan siap untuk ditandatangani. Jika Anda sudah menekan tombol Finalisasi Dokumen, Anda tidak dapat melakukan perubahan lagi. Anda harus memulai kasus Anda lagi. Anda diminta melakukan konfirmasi sebelum menekan Tombol Finalisasi.

Jika ada pertanyaan, hubungi perwakilan HSBC Anda yang menangani kasus ini.

1 Relationship Documents

- 1.1 The Relationship Documents govern the provision of the Services. In the event of any conflict among the Relationship Documents, the following order of priority shall apply:
- the applicable Country Conditions;
 - the applicable Supporting Documents;
 - any relevant Appendix;
 - any relevant Annex;
 - any relevant Services Schedule; and
 - the Terms.
- 1.2 In the event of any conflict between any of the terms of the Relationship Documents that rank equal in order of priority in accordance with Clause 1.1, the term which applies to a specific Service shall prevail in relation to the provision of that Service by the Bank to the Customer.
- 1.3 The Relationship Documents contain the whole agreement between the Parties relating to the transactions contemplated by the Relationship Documents and replace all previous agreements between the Parties relating to the Services and each Party confirms that in agreeing the terms of the Relationship Documents it has not relied on any express or implied warranties, representations, collateral contracts or other assistance made by or on behalf of the other Party unless set out in the Relationship Documents. Each Party waives all rights and remedies which, but for this Clause 1.3, might otherwise be available to it in respect of any such express or implied representation, warranty, collateral contract or other assurance. Nothing in this Clause 1.3 limits or excludes any liability for fraud.
- 1.4 In the Relationship Documents, references to the singular include the plural and vice versa. Clause headings are included for convenience only and do not affect interpretation. Unless otherwise defined in a Relationship Document, any capitalised term in the Relationship Documents shall have the meaning given to it in the Terms. Each reference to a document or agreement (whether online or in hard copy) is a reference to that document or agreement as amended or restated from time to time.

2 Authority

- 2.1 The Customer or any party duly authorised by the Customer to act on its behalf shall provide to the Bank documents identifying the Authorised Persons. The Bank is authorised to rely upon any such documents provided by any means, including electronically, and accepted by the Bank.
- 2.2 Subject to any written restriction received and accepted by the Bank, the Customer confirms that each Authorised Person shall be authorised to:
- perform all lawful acts on behalf of the Customer in connection with any Account or Service, including, but not limited to, opening, closing and operating Accounts, signing any agreements (including facility agreements), declarations or other documents relating to any Accounts or Services and execution of any guarantees, indemnities or other undertakings to the Bank; and
 - delegate their authority to perform such acts to any person indicated in any document provided to the Bank by any means, including electronically, and accepted by the Bank.
- 2.3 The Customer confirms that each Authorised Person is authorised to act as described in Clauses 2.2(a) and 2.2(b) until the Bank has received written notice, in form and substance acceptable to the Bank, of any change to an Authorised Person, or to a person to whom authority has been delegated in accordance with this Clause, and the Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

3 Communications, Instructions and Security Procedures

- 3.1 The Parties will comply with the Security Procedures. The Customer shall follow the Security Procedures upon accessing communication channels provided by the Bank and issuing Instructions or Communications via such channels. The Bank shall follow the Security Procedures upon receipt of such Instructions or Communications to establish their validity.
- 3.2 The Bank is not obliged to do anything outside of the Security Procedures to establish and rely upon the authority or identity of any person sending an Instruction or Communication on behalf of the Customer. The Bank is not responsible for errors or omissions made by the Customer or the duplication of any Instruction by the Customer and may act on any Instruction by reference to a bank identification or account number only, even if a bank or account name is provided. An authenticated SWIFT message issued to the Bank in the name of the Customer (or of an entity authorised by the Customer to issue SWIFT messages on its behalf) may be relied on by the Bank as having been issued by an Authorised Person.
- 3.3 If the Bank doubts the legality, origination or authorisation of an Instruction, it shall take such steps as it considers appropriate to investigate the matter. If such investigation results or, in the opinion of the Bank, is likely to result in the Instruction being declined or executed outside the applicable value date or other agreed time period, the Bank will notify the Customer as soon as practicable, provided it is not prohibited from doing so by any law, regulation, order or Authority.
- 3.4 The Bank will use its reasonable efforts to comply with any request made by the Customer to vary or cancel an Instruction and, subject to the Bank using such efforts, the Customer shall be responsible for any Losses related to such an Instruction.
- 3.5 The Customer is responsible for the accuracy, completeness and correct transmission of its Instructions and for ensuring they will achieve the Customer's intended purpose, including when the Customer requests the Bank to forward information to a third party. The Bank will not be liable to the Customer where the Bank chooses to comply with such a request and the Customer must take reasonable steps to ensure that its request will not give rise to any claim against the Bank. If the Bank accepts a manually initiated Instruction (being an Instruction which is not submitted through electronic communication channels provided by the Bank, but, for example, by telephone, fax or physical delivery), then, provided the Bank acts in accordance with the applicable Security Procedures, the Customer is responsible for any Losses related thereto.
- 3.6 Without prejudice and subject to the foregoing provisions of Clause 3, if the Bank acts on an Instruction which the Customer claims was unauthorised, the Bank shall only be responsible for acting on such Instruction if:
- the Bank cannot demonstrate that it acted in accordance with the Security Procedures; or
 - the Bank demonstrates that it acted in accordance with the Security Procedures, but the Customer can demonstrate that the unauthorised Instruction was not caused by a person (i) entrusted at any time to act for the Customer with respect to Instructions or the applicable Security Procedures, or (ii) who obtained access to the Customer's premises, equipment, systems or transmitting facilities or (iii) who obtained from a source controlled by the Customer, information (such as keys and passwords) which facilitated breach of the Security Procedures.

Unless one of the conditions set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this clause is satisfied, the Bank shall be entitled to enforce or retain payment from the Customer with respect to such an Instruction.

3.7 In some circumstances, Communications (including electronic mail, voicemail, SMS, telephone calls and website usage) as well as paper correspondence received by either Party such as envelopes or packages may be monitored, recorded or inspected (as appropriate) using monitoring devices or other technical or physical means. Such monitoring may take place where necessary insofar as required or allowed by and for purposes permitted by any applicable law, regulation, order or Authority from time to time, including, without limitation, to record evidence of business transactions and so as to ensure compliance with the Parties' respective policies and procedures. Subject to any applicable laws and regulations, all telephone conversations may be recorded by or for either Party without warning. Such records or recordings are and shall remain the sole property of the Party that made them and either Party may produce them as evidence in any proceedings brought in connection with the Relationship Documents.

3.8 Communication channels provided by the Bank may be suspended by the Bank for maintenance or for any other reason where it reasonably considers it necessary to do so. The Bank will provide the Customer with reasonable prior notice of the suspension where it is practical to do so.

4 Credits and Debits

- 4.1 If an Account is credited in error or in anticipation of receiving funds, where those funds are not received or the underlying funds transfer is reversed, the Bank may reverse all or part of such credit including any interest accrued thereon, make the appropriate entry to the Account, and, except in case of the Bank's error, debit or demand immediate repayment of any Losses incurred by the Bank in connection therewith, as appropriate.
- 4.2 The Bank is not obliged to carry out an Instruction which would result in a debit to an Account where this causes the Account to be overdrawn without the Bank's approval or to exceed any agreed or advised overdraft facility, or where the Account is subject to a right of a third party that has been enforced, such as a freezing order in favour of a creditor.
- 4.3 If the Customer gives Instructions which would result in multiple debits on an Account which would in aggregate cause the Account to be overdrawn or an agreed or advised facility to be exceeded, the Bank may decide the order in which to make those debits and whether to make any of them in whole or in part.
- 4.4 If an Account is overdrawn without the Bank's approval or if an overdraft limit is exceeded due to (i) any debit or (ii) such limit being withdrawn or varied by the Bank in accordance with applicable terms, the Customer shall immediately upon demand, or otherwise becoming aware thereof, transfer sufficient cleared funds to bring such Account into credit or within the overdraft limit. For the avoidance of doubt, the Bank is not hereby offering the Customer, or agreeing an increase to, any overdraft facility and, unless otherwise provided in an agreement executed by the Bank and the Customer, any extension of credit can be cancelled by the Bank at any time.

5 Statements

The Customer shall notify the Bank, as soon as practicable and in any case within 30 days of delivery of a statement of account or report of transactions, of any errors (including any errors arising as a result of fraudulent or unauthorised transactions) in that statement or report. If notice is received by the Bank after this time period, the Bank shall not be responsible for any Loss resulting from the delay by the Customer in providing such notice.

6 Interest

Any interest will accrue or, if applicable, be charged on the applicable credit balance of an Account on the days and at the applicable rate for those days as set out in any relevant guide or as the Bank may agree with the Customer from time to time. Unless agreed otherwise by the Parties, the Bank may change such rates and the Bank shall notify the Customer or otherwise make available such changes. The Customer acknowledges that, as applicable:

- interest payments made by the Bank may be made net of taxes and subject to deduction or withholding; and
- the Bank may debit from an Account any interest to be charged to such Account as and when due and such payment will be free of any deduction or withholding of tax or other charges so the Bank receives the full amount of such interest.

7 Security Interest

The Customer shall not grant any security interest over or transfer or assign its rights in connection with any Account without prior written consent from the Bank, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

8 Set-Off

The Bank may set off any of the Customer's obligations owed to the Bank that are due and payable against any obligations of the Bank owed to the Customer.

9 Representations, Warranties and Undertakings

- 9.1 Each Party represents and warrants, solely as to itself, that:
- it is duly incorporated or, if the Party is not a body corporate, is otherwise validly constituted and existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or constitution (as the case may be);
 - it has all necessary corporate or equivalent power and legal capacity to execute (where applicable) and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, the Relationship Documents; and
 - the execution and performance of the Relationship Documents by it will not violate its constitutional documents, organisational documents or bylaws, the terms of any material contract or other instrument (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any trust instrument) to which it is a party or by which it is bound or any duty, obligation, limitation or prohibition imposed on it by any law or regulation applicable to it; and
 - the terms of the Relationship Documents constitute legal, valid and binding obligations, enforceable against it.
- 9.2 Each Party furthermore warrants and undertakes to take all reasonable steps to ensure that its warranties and representations in Clause 9.1 shall remain valid and effective in all respects until such time as all Relationship Documents are terminated or expire in accordance with their terms.
- 9.3 A breach of Clause 9.1 or 9.2 shall constitute a material breach of the Relationship Documents. If a Party becomes aware that it is in breach of Clause 9.1 or 9.2 it shall notify the other Party as soon as reasonably practicable.

9.4 The Customer undertakes to:

- (a) comply with all reasonable requests of the Bank necessary to provide the Customer with the Services, including but not limited to, promptly providing to the Bank all documents and other information reasonably requested by it from time to time in relation to any Account or Service; the Bank may rely on the documents and information provided until the Customer notifies the Bank in writing of any changes and the Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act thereon; and
- (b) notify the Bank as soon as possible if it becomes aware of any theft, fraud, illegal activity, loss, damage or other misuse in relation to the Services or in relation to any associated documentation, Instruction, Communication or payment instrument.

9.5 Where multiple Customer Parties acting pursuant to an arrangement without separate legal capacity (such as participants in an unincorporated joint venture) are identified on an Application Form as joint holders of an Account and/or joint recipients of the Services, each Customer Party undertakes and agrees that:

- (a) it shall be jointly and severally liable with each Customer Party for any obligation owed by the Customer to the Bank or any other member of the Group under the Relationship Documents;
- (b) any demand, notice, agreement, Instruction or Communication given by the Bank to one or more Customer Parties, or received by the Bank from one or more Customer Parties, in connection with the Relationship Documents will be deemed to be a demand, notice, agreement, Instruction or Communication (as the case may be) given to or received from all Customer Parties;
- (c) if the Bank becomes aware of or reasonably suspects a dispute between any of the Customer Parties, the Bank may decline to act on any Instruction until all Customer Parties have confirmed the Bank's authority to act on it in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank; and
- (d) to the extent any Customer Party ceases to exist for any reason, the Relationship Documents shall continue to bind the remaining Customer Parties.

9.6 The Bank undertakes to maintain a business continuity plan setting out contingency arrangements for the continuing performance of the Bank's services, including the Services, in the event of a Force Majeure Event. The Bank shall test and review such business continuity plan at least once in each calendar year.

10 Confidentiality and Data Protection

10.1 The Parties agree that Confidential Information shall be kept confidential, except as disclosed in accordance with the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex.

10.2 The Parties will process and transfer Customer Information in accordance with the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex.

11 Performance and Liability

11.1 The Bank will perform its obligations under the Relationship Documents using such level of skill and care as would be considered commercially reasonable by reference to the standards and practices of the banking industry.

11.2 Neither Party shall be liable for any:

- (a) consequential, incidental or indirect Loss including, without limitation, fines, penalties or punitive damages; or
- (b) any direct or indirect loss of (i) profit (actual or anticipated), (ii) goodwill or (iii) business opportunity, whether or not foreseeable, even if one Party advised the other of the possibility of such loss or damage.

11.3 Any obligation of the Bank with respect to an Account shall be enforceable only at the Bank or, where the Account is held at a branch of the Bank, such branch, which in each case, is the sole place of payment, and not at or against another branch or member of the Group.

11.4 The Bank is only required to perform its obligations in the currency in which those obligations are denominated. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Bank, or any intermediary reasonably selected by the Bank, may make any currency conversion in connection with the exercise of its rights and obligations pursuant to the Relationship Documents, using exchange rates that are reasonable in the relevant market at the time and for the size and type of foreign exchange transaction.

11.5 The Parties shall not be liable for any Loss caused by a Force Majeure Event. If either Party is prevented or delayed in the performance of any of its obligations under the Relationship Documents by a Force Majeure Event, such Party shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify the other of the existence of the Force Majeure Event. The Bank's duty or the duty of any member of the Group to act upon any Instruction or Communication, or perform any obligation, shall be suspended to the extent that and for as long as the Bank and/or any member of the Group is prevented or restricted from doing so by a Force Majeure Event.

11.6 In providing the Services, the Bank may use certain Infrastructure Providers and the Services are therefore subject to the rules and regulations of those Infrastructure Providers as well as the guidelines and procedures of relevant regulatory or industry bodies. Neither the Bank nor any other member of the Group shall be liable for any Loss suffered as a result of the acts or omissions of an Infrastructure Provider, but will provide commercially reasonable assistance to the Customer in the recovery of any such Loss.

11.7 The Customer shall indemnify the Bank and any other member of the Group in full against any Loss arising from or in connection with a third party making a claim or demand against the Bank or other member of the Group as a result of the Bank or any other member of the Group processing an Instruction or otherwise performing its obligations hereunder in accordance with the Relationship Documents.

11.8 Neither the Bank nor any member of the Group is obliged to perform any of the Services or any other obligation under the Relationship Documents, including without limitation any obligation to give notice or provide information to the Customer, if to do so would result in the Bank or any member of the Group being in breach of any Law.

12 Fees and charges

12.1 The Customer shall pay to the Bank fees, costs, charges, interest and expenses in connection with the Services. These will be the Bank's standard fees and charges unless the Bank separately agrees different fees and charges with the Customer. Unless otherwise stated, all amounts payable pursuant to this Clause are exclusive of value added, sales, use, goods and services, business, stamp or any similar taxes or duties that may be applicable. All such taxes or duties will be applied in accordance with applicable legislation and the Bank will issue valid invoices or other documents as appropriate. The Bank may change the fees and charges either with reasonable notice to the Customer or immediately with the Customer's agreement. Payment of all amounts due pursuant to this Clause will be clear and free of any deduction or withholding for or on account of tax, set-off, counterclaim or other charges so the Bank receives such amounts in full. If a deduction or withholding for or on account of tax is required to be made by law, the payment shall be increased to an amount which after making any deduction or withholding leaves an amount equal to the payment which would have been made if no deduction had been required. The Customer shall make any payment required in connection with such tax deduction or withholding within the time allowed by law.

- 12.2 The Bank may debit fees, costs, charges, interest and expenses owed by the Customer to the Bank from any account advised by the Customer for such purposes. However, in the event of the Customer's breach of the Relationship Documents, the Customer's insolvency (which includes, where the Customer acts as a trustee, the insolvency of the trust and which may also include the Customer's bankruptcy in certain jurisdictions), or where acting in accordance with the Customer's advice is not possible, the Bank may debit fees, costs, charges, interest and expenses owed by the Customer to the Bank from any account the Customer has with the Bank. If the Customer fails to pay any amount due under the Relationship Documents, the Customer shall, to the extent permitted under applicable law, pay to the Bank interest and charges on the overdue amount at the rate the Bank determines, unless otherwise agreed, acting reasonably and in good faith.

13 Amendments and Assignment

- 13.1 If at any time the Bank makes amendments to terms governing the provision of services which include any of the Services to its customers generally or to customers belonging to the same market segment as the Customer, the Bank may, by written notice to the Customer, make the same (or substantially the same) amendments to the Relationship Documents. Such amendments will become effective on the expiry of no less than 45 days after delivery of such notice.
- 13.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 13.1, the Bank may, by written notice to the Customer, make amendments to the Relationship Documents at any time in order to comply with any law or regulation, which will become effective in accordance with the terms of such notice. The Bank will use reasonable efforts to give the Customer as much advance notice as possible in such circumstances.
- 13.3 Neither Party may assign its rights or transfer its obligations under these Relationship Documents without the written consent of the other, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. However, the Bank may, without the Customer's consent, assign the Bank's rights and/or transfer the Bank's obligations to:

- (a) any member of the Group; or
- (b) to the Bank's successor following a merger, consolidation or disposal of all or substantially all of the Bank's shares, capital, assets or the business to which the Relationship Documents relate, provided that such assignment does not adversely affect the provision of the Services to the Customer.

14 Termination

- 14.1 Either Party can terminate any or all Relationship Documents and/or, in the case of the Bank, withdraw any or all of the Services or close any Account by giving 30 days prior written notice to the other. Any liabilities owing to the Bank thereunder will become immediately due and payable on termination of the terms of the relevant Relationship Document.
- 14.2 Subject to any applicable legal or regulatory restriction, either Party can terminate any or all Relationship Documents and/or, in the case of the Bank, withdraw any or all of the Services or close any Account immediately if:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the Relationship Documents which is incapable of remedy or not remedied within a reasonable time period;

- (b) any step is taken by or in respect of the other Party for a moratorium, composition, compromise or arrangement with creditors, administration, bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution (other than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction), receivership, distress or execution, debt relief orders, interim orders or the other Party becomes insolvent (including, where a Party acts as a trustee, the insolvency of the trust and which may also include the Customer's bankruptcy in certain jurisdictions) or is deemed unable to pay its debts as they fall due, or anything analogous to the foregoing occurs in any applicable jurisdiction;
- (c) it is or may become unlawful for that Party to perform its obligations under any of the Relationship Documents or if to do so would result in that Party or, in the case of the Bank, any member of the Group, being in breach of any regulation or requirement or request of any governmental or other authority; or
- (d) the Customer has provided false or misleading information, or failed to provide Customer Information reasonably requested by the Bank, in connection with any know-your-customer or financial due diligence performed by the Bank or if otherwise required, in the Bank's reasonable opinion, in connection with any Compliance Activity.

- 14.3 Termination of the Terms by either Party shall have the immediate effect of terminating each of the Relationship Documents.

- 14.4 Termination shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either Party nor shall it affect the coming into force or continuation in force of any other Clauses and provisions of the Relationship Documents which are expressly or by implication intended to come into force or continue in force on or after termination or expiry of the Relationship Documents including, without limitation Clauses 1, 3.5, 9.5, 10, 11, 13.3, 14.1, 14.4, 15-21 inclusive, and the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex.

15 Waiver

In the event that any Party fails or delays to exercise a right under the Relationship Documents, that Party may still exercise that right later. Any waiver of any right shall be in writing and limited to the specific circumstances.

16 Severability

Each provision of the Relationship Documents is severable and if any provision is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction or in relation to any particular Service, then that provision is severed only in that particular jurisdiction or in relation to that particular Service. All other provisions shall continue to have effect.

17 Third Party Rights

Any law, statute or regulation which may bestow upon a person who is not a Party the right to enforce any of the terms of the Relationship Documents shall be disappplied to the fullest extent permitted.

18 Notices

Notices in writing from the Bank shall be effective if delivered to an address specified by the Customer on an Application Form or to such other address as the Customer may specify in writing from time to time as effective for delivery of notices pursuant to the Relationship Documents, including an address for notices to be sent electronically. Notices in writing from the Customer shall be effective if delivered to the Bank's address specified on the most recent statement for the relevant Account or to such other address as the Bank may specify in writing from time to time as effective for delivery of notices pursuant to the Relationship Documents, including an address for notices to be sent electronically.

19 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- 19.1 The Relationship Documents and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the relevant Account is maintained or the relevant Service is provided unless specified otherwise in any applicable Relationship Document.
- 19.2 Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties, they submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the jurisdiction whose governing law applies.

20 Counterparts

The Relationship Documents may be entered into by the execution of any number of copies of the relevant Application Form, all of which taken together shall form one document.

1 Interpretation

Business Day means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday in the United Kingdom, when the Bank is open for business.

2 The Single Euro Payments Area

2.1 This Clause 2.1 shall only apply where the Customer enters into SEPA direct debit mandates in respect of its Accounts.

- (a) The Single Euro Payments Area ("SEPA") Direct Debit Scheme allows direct debit arrangements to be entered into across the SEPA. The Customer may enter into SEPA direct debit mandates in respect of any of the Accounts which are denominated in euro.
- (b) The Customer may inform the Bank at any time that no SEPA direct debits are to be made from its Accounts. The Customer must comply with the terms of its mandates and resolve any dispute regarding any payment directly with the party to the relevant mandate.
- (c) Terms agreed in the Customer's mandates shall not affect the Bank's obligations under the SEPA Direct Debit Scheme.

2.2 This Clause 2.2 shall only apply where the Bank has agreed to make the relevant service available to the Customer. With regards to all SEPA payments, information on the payment operation governed by the SEPA schemes (SCT, SCT Inst, SDD Core and SDD B2B) and the Customer's rights under such schemes is available from the following website: www.hsbcnet.com/sepa. The contractual relationship governing the aforementioned products and/or services is supplemented by the information on www.hsbcnet.com/sepa. Further the contractual relationship governing the SEPA Direct Debit (Creditor) product is also supplemented by the SEPA Direct Debit Core Scheme Rulebook and the SEPA Direct Debit B2B Scheme Rulebook.

3 The Payment Services Conditions

3.1 The following Clauses 3.2 - 3.10 will amend and/or supplement each relevant Relationship Document when the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (as amended, restated or re-enacted from time to time) (the "Regulations") apply to the Services being provided under such Relationship Document.

3.2 The Regulations are a set of rules in the United Kingdom which shall apply to certain payment services provided by the Bank to the Customer. Certain provisions of the Regulations do not apply where:

- (a) one of the payment service providers of either the payer or the payee is located outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"); and

- (b) the payment services are carried out in a currency other than in euro or a currency of an EEA state that has not adopted the euro as its currency.

In both circumstances referred to in (a) and (b) above the Regulations only apply to those parts of the payment service carried out within the EEA. In addition where the payment service falls within 3.2(a) and (b) Clause 3.4 will not apply.

3.3 In order for an Instruction to be properly executed, the Customer shall provide the Bank with the payee's bank sort code and account number or, where applicable, the bank identification code (BIC), or other relevant identification of the payee's bank and the payee's international bank account number (IBAN), or other relevant account number, and/or such information (if any) as the Bank may advise the Customer from time to time.

3.4 The Bank shall make a payment on the Customer's behalf to the relevant payee by the end of the Business Day following receipt of the Customer's complete Instruction. Where the payment to be made relates to a paper payment order, the Bank shall make the payment on the Customer's behalf to the relevant payee by the end of the second Business Day following the time of receipt of the Customer's complete Instruction.

3.5 If the Customer's Instruction is received after the deadline specified in any reference material provided or made available to the Customer by the Bank or on a non-Business Day, the Bank shall assume the Customer's Instruction has been received on the Business Day following the receipt of the Customer's Instruction.

3.6 The Bank shall have the right to stop the use of a payment instrument on reasonable grounds relating to:

- (a) the security of the payment instrument;
- (b) the suspected unauthorised or fraudulent use of the payment instrument; or
- (c) the Customer's ability to repay any credit advanced to the Customer.

3.7 If the Customer receives a payment, the Bank may deduct the Bank's reasonable charges, before crediting the Customer's account with the remaining sum of money. The Bank shall provide the Customer with the details of the original sum of money received by the Customer and the Bank's deducted charges in the Customer's bank statement (or by other means agreed with the Customer).

3.8 In this Clause "Third Party Provider" and "TPP" means a payment initiation service provider or account information service provider which is authorised by or registered with the FCA or another EEA regulator or otherwise permitted by law to access information on accounts and/or give the Bank the Customer's Instructions to make payments from those accounts which are accessible online and which are subject to this Clause 3.

- (a) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Relationship Documents, the Customer may instruct a Third Party Provider to access information on the Customer's accounts and/or give the Bank Instructions to make transfers from its accounts, without the need for a written agreement between the Bank and the Third Party Provider, provided that in either case the Third Party Provider has identified themselves to the Bank and acted in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations. Before entering into an agreement with a TPP the Customer must check it is authorised. If the Customer instructs an unauthorised third party, the Bank will assume it is the Customer that is authorising the Bank to give access to information about the Customer's accounts and the Customer will be responsible for any payments made as a result. If the Bank is aware that an unauthorised third party is trying to access the Customer's accounts, the Bank will block access to the accounts.
- (b) Any Instructions from a Third Party Provider shall be deemed to be valid instructions from the Customer to the Bank for the purposes of the Relationship Documents and shall be treated in the same way under the Relationship Documents as an Instruction given by an Authorised Person. This includes the right to refuse an instruction for the reasons set out in the Relationship Documents.
- (c) The Bank may deny a Third Party Provider access to an account where there are justified and evidenced reasons relating to unauthorised use or fraudulent activities by that Third Party Provider. Before doing so, the Bank will inform the Customer that it intends to deny access and will give reasons for doing so, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so, in which case the Bank will inform the Customer immediately afterwards. In either case, the Bank will inform the Customer in the manner in which the Bank considers most appropriate in the circumstances and will not be obliged to inform the Customer, where doing so would compromise the Bank's reasonable security measures or otherwise be unlawful. In the event the Bank denies access to a Third Party Provider the Bank will also notify the FCA.

3.9 The provisions of the Regulations which are permitted to be disapplied by law do not apply to the Relationship Documents.

3.10 The provisions which shall not apply to these terms, as provided in the clause immediately above, shall include the whole of Part 6 of the Regulations and Regulations 66(1), 67(3) and (4), 75, 77, 79, 80, 83, 91, 92 and 94 of Part 7 of the 2017 Regulations. In addition, a different time period shall apply for the purposes of Regulation 74(1) (notification of unauthorised payments). Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Relationship Documents, this period will be 60 days from the date of your statement.

4 The General Data Protection Regulation Conditions

4.1 The following capitalised terms shall have the following meanings when used in this Clause 4.

Customer Personal Data means Personal Data in respect of which Customer is primarily responsible and/or accountable under Data Protection Legislation.

Data Protection Legislation has the meaning set out in Clause 21 of the Terms, which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes national legislation in the Customer's jurisdiction of incorporation or establishment implementing the Data Protection Directive (Directive 95/46/EC) and the Directive on Privacy and Electronic Communications (Directive 2002/58/EC), the GDPR, and any other laws and regulations implementing, derogating from or made under them, in each case as amended or re-enacted and in force from time to time.

GDPR means the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC and the terms "Data Subject" and "processing" (and any derivatives thereof) have the meaning given to them in the GDPR.

Personal Data Breach means the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, corruption, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, Customer Personal Data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed by or on behalf of the Bank.

4.2 By reference to the Purposes set out in Clause 2.2 of the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex, in circumstances where the Bank is using, collecting, processing and/or sharing any Customer Personal Data for the provision of Services requested by the Customer, it may act either as a data processor or a data controller, as determined under the relevant Data Protection Legislation. In particular, in circumstances where the Bank determines the purposes for which and the manner in which any Customer Personal Data are to be processed (for instance, in connection with any of the Purposes set out in clauses 2.2 (b) - (h) of the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex) the Bank shall act as a data controller.

4.3 To the extent Customer Information constitutes Customer Personal Data, and the Bank acts as a data processor in relation to such Customer Personal Data, pursuant to or in connection with the Relationship Documents, the Bank shall, to the extent required by Data Protection Legislation:

- (a) on behalf of the Customer, carry out Customer Personal Data processing activities necessary for the Purposes and in processing Customer Personal Data comply with all written instructions of the Customer in relation to any such Customer Personal Data, such written instructions to include the Purposes. In the event that a legal requirement prevents the Bank from complying with such instructions or if, in the Bank's opinion, the Customer's written instructions infringe the Data Protection Legislation (a "Processing Conflict"), the Bank shall not be obliged to carry out the data processing affected by the Processing Conflict and shall, unless such legal requirement prohibits it from doing so, inform the Customer of the relevant legal requirement before carrying out further processing activities in respect of the affected Customer Personal Data;
- (b) ensure that any of the Bank's personnel that have access to the Customer Personal Data, have been informed by the Bank of the confidential nature of the Customer Personal Data and such personnel have agreed in writing to be bound by a duty of confidentiality in respect of the Customer Personal Data;

- (c) at the Customer's request and cost, provide reasonable co-operation and assistance (taking into account the nature of the processing undertaken by the Bank and the information available to the Bank) to the Customer in taking such steps as are necessary to ensure its compliance with the obligations of Articles 32 - 36 of the GDPR and its obligations to respond to the exercise of data subject rights under the Data Protection Legislation;
- (d) take all reasonable and appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard Customer Personal Data against unauthorised, accidental or unlawful access, processing, loss, damage or destruction in accordance with the relevant Data Protection Legislation (including such measures as are required by Article 32 of the GDPR as amended, extended, re-enacted or replaced from time to time), and the Bank's IT security standards and policies as the same may be implemented by the Bank from time to time;
- (e) without undue delay on becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach or any complaint made to the Bank relating to Customer Personal Data, notify the Customer of such Personal Data Breach or complaint and provide the Customer with such reasonable co-operation and assistance (taking into account the nature of the processing undertaken by the Bank and the information available to the Bank) as agreed by the Parties in making any mandatory notifications to Authorities and/or affected individuals in connection with the Personal Data Breach or complaint; and
- (f) subject to the Customer providing prior written notice and agreeing to confidentiality obligations reasonably satisfactory to the Bank and any member of the Group or subcontractor involved in processing Customer Personal Data, make information available to the Customer to the extent that it is reasonably necessary in order to evidence compliance with its obligations under this Clause 4.

4.4 The Customer agrees that, where the Bank is acting as a data processor, the Bank shall be entitled to appoint third parties to sub-process the Customer Personal Data, provided that:

- (a) the Bank shall ensure that the third party is bound to comply with data protection obligations which are substantially the same as those set out in this Clause 4 as if the third party was the Bank; and
- (b) the Bank shall remain liable to the Customer for that third party's compliance with this Clause 4.

4.5 On expiry or termination of the Relationship Documents or any part of them, the Bank will (where the Bank is acting as a data processor and at the Bank's option) return to Customer or securely and permanently destroy all Customer Personal Data and all copies thereof (except to the extent that the Bank retains copies of the Customer Personal Data in accordance with law, regulation or the Bank's internal retention policies, in which case it shall continue to treat any such Customer Personal Data as Confidential Information).

4.6 In addition to the warranty provided in Clause 3.1 of the Confidentiality and Regulatory Annex, the Customer warrants and represents that the Bank (acting both as a data processor and data controller as set out in Clause 4.2) is entitled to process Customer Personal Data as set out in the Relationship Documents, that the Customer has taken, and will take from time to time, all steps required by Data Protection Legislation to permit the on-going processing of Customer Personal Data by the Bank, and that, as far as the Customer is aware, the Bank's processing of Customer Personal Data for the purposes of the Relationship Documents will not cause the Bank to breach any Data Protection Legislation, and that any Customer Personal Data is accurate and up-to-date.

4.7 The Bank shall be entitled to transfer, or otherwise permit access to, the Customer Personal Data outside the European Economic Area provided that the transfer satisfies the requirements of Data Protection Legislation and is subject to appropriate safeguards.

About this Agreement

This agreement is between us, HSBC UK Bank plc, and you, the organisation we've opened one or more accounts for. Depending on where it's used, 'you' can mean the organisation or any individual authorised by the organisation.

You'll be bound by anything done by any person you've authorised to access or use an account for you, even if they do something that's outside the scope of the authority you gave them.

You can ask us for a copy of these terms at any time.

If you'd like this document in another format such as large print, Braille or audio, please contact us.

1. How do we contact each other?

How will we contact you?

To contact you, we'll use the most recent postal or email address and telephone numbers you've given us. To warn you about any actual or suspected fraud or security threats we'll use the fastest and most secure way of contacting you (e.g. we might text you rather than calling you).

If you've chosen to access notices electronically, including through Business Internet Banking or HSBCnet, we may provide statements and other account information to you in this way. Where statements are available in Business Internet Banking we won't change them and you'll be able to download and print them.

Note

You must tell us as soon as possible if the contact details for you or any authorised person change. If you don't, you might not get information or notices from us - we won't be responsible for this.

You must make sure that anyone authorised to access or use your accounts is aware of any notices and information we send you.

We may record:

- ♦ and monitor telephone calls so we can improve our services and for security reasons
- ♦ telephone numbers you call us from and may use them if we need to contact you urgently.

We'll always use English to communicate with you.

About using your account

5. How do we make sure we’re dealing with you?

Before we do certain things (e.g. provide information about your account or make payments) we need to check your identity and make sure that you’ve authorised the action we’re taking.

- ◆ If we get a document, for example, we can check that a signature on it matches our records. If you’re in a branch, we may also ask for photo ID (e.g. a driver’s licence).
- ◆ In all other cases or if your security details are used with Mobile or Business Internet Banking, Business Telephone Banking (or another service we provide for accessing your accounts e.g. HSBCnet) or with a payment device we’ll assume we’re dealing with you and that we’re authorised to take action. We may add other ways of checking your identity in the future.

Misuse of Business Telephone Banking

If you think the Primary User or an Additional User is misusing Business Telephone Banking, including operating beyond their authority, you must let us know immediately and take steps to revoke their access. You must also replace the Primary User where their access has been revoked.

Limits on payments

We may set limits on how much a user can instruct us to pay out of an account. We may also limit the number of payments a user can make on one call. We'll only do this if they have a large number of multiple payments to make. A user can pay any one recipient up to £10,000 a day using Business Telephone Banking although we might let them exceed this limit in exceptional circumstances.

Unregistered individuals

If an individual who isn't registered for Business Telephone Banking contacts us and wishes to discuss your account, we won't provide any information to them until they pass our security checks. We won't authorise any payments via Business Telephone Banking by any person, including a signatory, who isn't registered to use the service. An individual may be able to start the process of applying for a product or service but completing such application may be restricted by the mandate or our procedures.

Becoming a signatory

If an Additional User who isn't a signatory becomes one, we'll allow them full powers over the accounts. This will happen automatically, which means we won't tell you or the Primary User this has happened.

If someone's no longer a user or a signatory

You must tell us immediately if someone ceases to be a signatory or needs to be removed from the Business Telephone Banking service. This might happen when a person resigns from their job, leaves the business or goes on gardening leave, for example.

If a person ceases to be a Primary User then you must nominate a replacement. You must also tell us if any Additional Users become or cease to be a mandate signatory.

If you don't inform us of changes to the people who are signatories or are nominated to use Business Telephone Banking, then we'll continue to process instructions we receive from them (subject to security checks being passed).

7. Keeping up security

We'll do all we reasonably can to prevent unauthorised access to your account. You must also act reasonably to prevent misuse of your account by keeping your payment devices and security details safe, and by not sharing your security details with anyone else (other than a TPP that you've authorised). If you don't, we may block access to your account to protect you and us from unauthorised use. If you ask, we'll tell you when the block will end if we can.

Tips for preventing misuse of your accounts:

Don't:

- ♦ allow anyone (other than a TPP, if necessary) to use any payment device or tell them your security details;
- ♦ choose security details that anyone else can easily guess;
- ♦ log in, or stay logged in, to a device if you're not in full control of it or it's not in your possession; or
- ♦ use a device to access online banking services if another person has registered their biometric data on it.

Before you transfer possession of a payment device to someone else (e.g. if you sell it or give it to someone for repair), please ensure that you delete:

- ♦ cards stored on it or in any e-wallets; and
- ♦ any biometric access (such as fingerprint, face or Voice ID) including access from any linked device.

You'll find additional security tips on our website and in the Business Banking Made Easy brochure. Please check for any updates we may make from time to time.

You must contact us as soon as possible if:

- ♦ someone else tries to access, or has accessed, your account or payment device (with or without security details), or has made a payment from your account using a cheque; or
- ♦ your cheque(s), payment device or security details have been lost or stolen.

We'll ask for information or other help and we may assist and ask you to assist with any police investigation.

You mustn't use a payment device or cheque after you've reported it lost or stolen or you think someone has used or tried to use it. You must destroy it and return it to us if we ask.

8. Using a TPP

What's a 'TPP'?

A TPP is a third party service provider that's authorised by or registered with the FCA or another EEA regulator or otherwise permitted by law to access information and make payments on online payment accounts operated by other providers (such as banks, building societies and credit card issuers) and has your permission to do this.

An EEA regulator is a regulator in a member state of the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Norway.

If you use a TPP, the terms of this agreement will still apply. We'll give the TPP access to account information and you'll be able to make the same payments through the TPP that you'd be able to make if you were dealing with us online. Account information will include details about who you make payments to and receive payments from. This might contain some sensitive personal information.

Although you mustn't, generally, give your security details to anyone else, you may give them to a TPP if it's necessary for them to provide their services to you. We may refuse to allow a TPP to access your account if we're concerned that the TPP is unauthorised or acting fraudulently. We'll tell you if we do this (unless it'd be unlawful or we'd compromise our reasonable security measures).

You must check from the information the TPP has to give you that they're authorised. If you think a payment made through a TPP was unauthorised or incorrect you must call us as soon as you can.

If you give your security details to an unauthorised third party, we'll assume it's you that's authorising us to give access to information about your accounts and you'll be responsible for any payments made as a result. If we're aware that an unauthorised third party is using your security details, we'll block access to your accounts.

9. Statements and other information we'll give you

Whenever we make a payment into or out of your account, take our charges or charge or pay interest we'll give you details by updating the information we provide through Business Internet Banking, HSBCnet or sending a separate confirmation. This information will also be available if you ask for it using Business Telephone Banking, cash machines or in our branches.

If you're a Small Business or Small Charity Customer, we may also ask you to choose between receiving monthly statements or having the information made available as set out above. If you choose not to receive monthly statements, we may still send you statements at a different frequency (we'll explain this if we offer you the choice). If you don't tell us what you want, we'll provide statements monthly. If you have an overdraft on your account, you'll be provided with a monthly statement.

We'll send statements by post or, if you're registered for Business Internet Banking, provide them online unless you've asked us for paper statements. You can also access online statements via HSBCnet. We'll also send statements by post if they aren't available online. We'll only send or provide a statement if there's been a payment out of your account since the last statement we gave you.

If you're a Larger Corporate Business Customer, we'll agree with you how we'll provide statements. You can ask us for a copy of your statements at any time.

You must let us know as soon as possible if you think there are any unusual or incorrect transactions on your accounts. For most transactions, if you don't do so within 13 months of the date of the transaction, you won't have a right to a refund. However, if you're a Small Business Customer or a Small Charity Customer and you've been tricked into sending money to a fraudster, there's no time limit for reporting this to us.

Pre-notification of account charges

We'll send you pre-notifications of fees or overdraft interest rates that are to be deducted from your account at least 14 days before we deduct them. We may do this by post, email, Business Internet Banking or HSBCnet.

10. Text message banking

We can change, suspend or withdraw the text message banking service at any time.

We're not liable for any losses you suffer if:

- ♦ you don't receive a text message that we can show we sent to you (or if you only receive part of it); or
- ♦ someone steals or sees your confidential information because you haven't followed our instructions or kept your phone and security details secure.

We'll deduct our service fees from your nominated account in arrears for each calendar month you're registered for the service.

11. Information we need from you and when we can disclose information about you

Before you (or anyone on your behalf) provides information on connected persons to us or a member of the HSBC Group you must ensure that you have a legitimate interest, lawful purpose or the agreement of the relevant person. You must also ensure they've been provided with our Privacy Notice, which explains the way in which their information will be processed and their rights in relation to their information.

What's a 'connected person'?

A 'connected person' is a person or legal entity whose information (including personal data or tax information) you provide, or which is provided on your behalf, to any member of the HSBC Group or which is otherwise received by any member of the HSBC Group in connection with this agreement.

A connected person could be any guarantor, a director, officer or employee of a company, partners or members of a partnership, any substantial owner, controlling person, or beneficial owner, trustee, settlor or protector of a trust, account holder of a designated account, recipient of a designated payment, your attorney or representative (e.g. authorised signatories), agent or nominee, or any other persons or entities with whom you have a relationship that's relevant to your relationship with the HSBC Group.

If we make a reasonable request for information, you must give it to us as soon as possible. If you don't, or we suspect fraudulent or criminal activity of any kind:

- ◆ we might try to get it from another source;
- ◆ we could block or close your account(s) or suspend your access to services; or
- ◆ you might not be able to carry on doing some or all of your banking with us.

You must make sure the information you give us is accurate and up to date and tell us within 30 days if anything changes.

We'll use your information as explained in our Privacy Notice (available at www.business.hsbc.uk/legal). We'll also give it to others if required by law, a public duty (e.g. if we believe you may have tax obligations in other countries, we may have to disclose that information directly to tax authorities) or it's in our interests to disclose it to protect our interests or reputation (e.g. in any legal proceedings) or if we have your specific agreement.

12. Tax compliance

It's up to you to meet your tax responsibilities in the UK and elsewhere. This relates to opening and using accounts and services provided by members of the HSBC Group. Some countries' tax laws may apply to you even if you don't have a business there. Connected persons are responsible for their own tax obligations. As you're responsible for your own tax obligations (and connected persons for theirs), no HSBC Group member is responsible for this or provides tax advice. It's your choice whether to seek independent legal and tax advice.

13. What happens if you stop using your account?

If you haven't used your current account for 12 months, we may restrict payments in or out of it to protect against fraud, but we'll let you know first.

If you're not using a savings account but you're using other accounts with us, we won't suspend the savings account unless you haven't used it for two years.

Payments

This section is about payments in and out of accounts. Some accounts have different or additional terms which are set out in the Additional Conditions for that product. We don't accept or make payments in all currencies (please ask us if you want to know which currencies we cover). All payments and decisions about payments are made on working days, and how we manage payments can depend on whether the payment is made within the European Economic Area (EEA) and if it's in an EEA currency.

What's an 'electronic payment'?

Electronic payments include internal transfers and standing orders and Direct Debits from other people or businesses to you. We can accept payments from mobile payment systems (e.g. Paym).

What's the 'EEA'?

The EEA is all member states of the European Union and Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway.

What's 'SEPA'?

SEPA stands for the Single Euro Payments Area. Euro payments can be made through SEPA across multiple jurisdictions including the EEA, plus Monaco, San Marino, Switzerland, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man.

What's the 'HSBC Exchange Rate'?

This is the rate we use to convert payments to and from currencies other than the currency of your account. It's based on the foreign currency market for each currency we offer so changes constantly. The rate you get will depend on the size of the payment and whether we're buying currency (because you're receiving a payment) or selling currency (because you're making a payment).

What's a 'working day'?

A working day is Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Branch opening hours will be the working day for payments at a branch, but for payments made by Faster Payments our working day is 24/7.

14. Payments into your account (other than by cheque)

Payments can be paid into your accounts in different ways and available to you at different times.

Payment in	When you can use the funds and when it counts for working out interest
Cash
Branch counters.*	Immediately.
Using your deposit or debit card at UK Post Office® branches – sterling only.	Immediately.
At our self-service machines that accept payments in.	Immediately if the machine says that it automatically counts your cash. Otherwise, it'll be the same working day (or the next working day if you pay in after the cut-off time displayed on the machine).

Payment in	When you can use the funds and when it counts for working out interest
At other banks if they allow you to do so – they may charge for this and we'll pass on that charge.	Immediately after we receive your cash from the other bank.
If you pay cash into your account which isn't in the same currency as your account, we'll convert it into the currency of your account using the HSBC Exchange Rate at the time we receive the cash.
*There may be a limit on the amount you can pay in. For example, at Post Office® branches, you can't deposit more than £20,000 in notes or £250 in coins in any one deposit. Each Post Office® will tell you what its actual limit is when you're making the deposit.
Electronic payments
All payments in the currency of the account.	Immediately after we receive it.
All payments in a different currency than the account.	Immediately after we've converted it into the currency of the account using the HSBC Exchange Rate at the time we receive the payment.

15. Payment into your account by cheque

Paying sterling and euro cheques from a UK bank into your account

We have to collect payments made by cheque from the paying bank. The time it takes before you can use it depends on whether it's a paper or imaged cheque.

Paper cheques paid into HSBC UK Branches:	Working days after the working day that the cheque is paid in
♦ You'll start earning interest	2
♦ You'll be able to use the funds	3
♦ The paying bank can't recall the funds and we can't take it out of your account (unless we reasonably suspect fraud or you agree)	7

Note

We'll start to process a cheque the day you pay it into your account as long as it's before the branch cut-off time. Otherwise, we'll process it on the next working day. The branch cut-off time will be as displayed in branch.

If you want to use the funds before the paper cheque has 'cleared' (i.e. before it's certain that the paying bank can't recall the funds - on the seventh working day after the working day you've paid the cheque in) and want to know for certain whether the payment won't be recalled, you can ask us for 'special presentation'. This means we'll send a sterling cheque by post to the bank it came from for payment – and they'll let us know as soon as they receive it whether they'll pay it or not.

Imaged cheques paid into HSBC UK Branches:	Working days after the working day that the cheque is paid in
♦ You'll start earning interest	1
♦ You'll be able to use the funds	1 (as soon as the payment is shown in your account – this could be at any time that day)
♦ The paying bank can't recall the funds and we can't take it out of your account (unless we reasonably suspect fraud or you agree)	1

Note

An imaged cheque is a scanned digital image of a paper cheque that can be processed for clearing and payment through the Image Clearing System.

If there's an issue with the cheque which means we're unable to scan it, it may take longer to clear.

Example

Cheque paid in before the branch cut-off time on a Monday:	Paper cheque	Imaged cheque
♦ You'll start earning interest.	On Wednesday.	On Tuesday.
♦ You'll be able to use the funds.	After the funds appear in your account on Thursday (this could be at any time that day).	After the funds appear in your account on Tuesday (this could be at any time that day).
♦ The paying bank can recall the cheque.	Until the end of the second Tuesday after you pay it in. We'll take the funds out of your account if this happens.	Until the funds appear in your account.

Note

If you pay a cheque in at a Post Office®, these timings will begin when we receive it, normally on the next working day.

If a cheque paid into your account is returned unpaid we'll tell you and take the payment from your account. We may ask for payment again from the paying bank. If deducting the full amount from your account would make you go overdrawn or make you go over your overdraft limit, we'll treat it as a request for a new or a larger unarranged overdraft. If that happens, you may have to pay charges and overdraft interest.

Paying other cheques into your account

If we process a foreign currency cheque for you, you'll be responsible for our charges and costs and the charges of any foreign bank or agent we use to collect the payment. We'll take these from the account you told us to pay the cheque into. We can't always process a foreign currency cheque (including a sterling or euro cheque where the paying bank is not in the UK, Channel Islands or the Isle of Man), e.g. if exchange controls apply.

To pay a foreign cheque into your account we either have to negotiate or collect it. In each case, we'll convert the cheque amount into the currency of the account using the HSBC Exchange Rate.

Negotiate	Collect
We'll assume the cheque will clear and will pay the cheque amount into your account on the working day after we receive it.	We'll send the cheque to the paying bank and pay the payment into your account when we receive it. The time this takes depends on the paying bank and/or its country. You can ask us for details. We may use an agent to collect payment.

If the foreign bank returns the cheque or asks for the money to be returned, we'll take enough money from your account to cover the payment in the foreign currency using the HSBC Exchange Rate applicable at the time of the deduction. This is unlikely to be the same as the amount we paid into your account because exchange rates may have changed. We'll do this even if you've already spent the money or if it will put you into an unarranged overdraft.

16. Payments into your account by mistake or fraud

We'll take back any money we pay into your account by mistake or due to an HSBC systems error.

If we're told that a payment from within the EEA wasn't meant for you (e.g. if the payer used the wrong account number) we'll contact you. If you tell us the payment wasn't a mistake, we're legally required to share all relevant information with the paying bank (if it asks us), including your name, address and transaction information, so that the payer can contact you directly.

In all other cases, the steps we'll take will depend on how the payment was made and where it came from.

For UK payments (other than payments made by CHAPS)

How long has the payment been in your account?	What will we do?
Two months or less	We'll limit access to the money for 15 working days and tell you we've done this, so that you have time to show us that it was meant for you before we return it to the paying bank.
More than two months	We'll contact you before limiting access to the money or returning it to the paying bank.

♦ If the payment was made into a closed or suspended account, we'll return it to the paying bank.

For CHAPS, international and non-sterling payments

♦ We won't take the payment out of your account and return it to the paying bank unless you agree.

If we suspect any payment into your account was the result of fraud, we can remove it without asking you.

If you don't have enough money in your account when we take a payment out of it for any of these reasons, this will result in an unarranged overdraft.

17. When we can refuse to accept payments into your account

We can refuse to accept a payment into your account if we're acting reasonably, e.g. if we reasonably believe that:

- ◆ accepting it might cause us to breach a legal requirement or might expose us to action from any government, regulator or law enforcement agency; or
- ◆ there is fraudulent or criminal activity on or in connection with the account.

18. How we decide whether to make a payment from your account

We'll make a payment from your account if you instruct us to unless:

- ◆ you don't have enough money in your account (including any arranged or unarranged overdraft);
- ◆ you haven't given us the account or reference details or we know they're incorrect;
- ◆ you've asked us to send the payment in a particular way (e.g. by Faster Payments) and the recipient's bank doesn't accept that method;
- ◆ you've not provided any extra identification or information about the payment that we've reasonably asked for;
- ◆ the payment exceeds a limit that we tell you, or that you've set (where applicable) when you make the payment; or we reasonably believe:

- ◆ there has been a breach of security or misuse of your account, security details or a payment device;
- ◆ there has been fraudulent or criminal activity of any kind whether or not linked to your account or your relationship with us and it's reasonable for us not to make a payment as a result;
- ◆ it would cause us to breach a law, regulation, code, court order or other duty, requirement or obligation or expose us to action or censure from any government, regulator or law enforcement agency;
- ◆ we're prevented from doing so due to us or any member of the HSBC Group carrying out financial crime risk management activity; or
- ◆ someone else may have a claim over the money.

Note

In this section, 'we' and 'us' includes any HSBC Group Company worldwide.

If you ask us to make payments on a particular day, unless you've asked us to make a BACS payment we'll check you have enough money in your account to make them at the start of that day (excluding automatic transfers into the account) and, unless it's a weekend or a public holiday, we'll check again at:

- ◆ 1.30pm for cheque payments; and
- ◆ 3.30pm for all other payments.

If we're able to make some but not all of the payments we'll pay cheques first, and then Direct Debits, and standing orders and, if there's more than one, we'll start with the smallest payment.

Even if you don't have enough money or arranged overdraft, we might make the payment by allowing an unarranged overdraft on your account. Any payments that we can't make will be returned unpaid.

You'll know we've refused to make a payment if:

- ◆ you're making it online or using Mobile or Business Telephone Banking; or
- ◆ you're using a payment device (such as a debit card).

For other types of payment, e.g. standing orders, we'll try and tell you as soon as possible. You can always call us immediately to find out why we've refused a payment and what you need to do to correct any errors that made us refuse it and we'll tell you unless we're prevented by law or any regulation or for fraud prevention or security reasons. You can also get transaction information through Business Telephone Banking, Business Internet Banking and Mobile Banking.

19. Blocking payments and services

We can block any payment device (and your access to related services such as Business Telephone Banking, Mobile, Business Internet Banking and HSBCnet) if we reasonably believe it's necessary because of:

- ◆ a significantly increased risk that you may be unable to pay any money you owe us on the relevant account;
- ◆ suspected fraudulent or criminal use of the payment device; or
- ◆ security concerns (e.g. if we know or suspect your payment device and/or security details have been misused).

If we do this, we'll usually let you know why immediately afterwards, unless we're prevented by law or any regulation or for security reasons. We'll unblock the payment device as soon as the reason for blocking it ends.

Payment limits

We may set limits on the number or value of payments you can make for different types of payments (e.g. like your debit card or payment devices). We'll tell you what it is when we send you it and you can also ask at any time.

20. Payments from your account

Cash withdrawals

You can withdraw cash:

- ◆ at any of our branches or Post Office® branches, where available; or,
- ◆ by using a cash machine,

up to a daily limit we tell you when we send your debit card. You can ask us to consider changing your daily limit.

Payments (other than by card or cheque)

To make a payment from your account in the ways set out in the table opposite, you'll need to give us details of the account you want to make the payment to and any other details we ask for. This usually includes the sort code and account number (or equivalent for payments outside the UK) or, where available, a number that's linked to these, such as a mobile phone number. However, we're planning to change this in future and may start asking you for the name of the account holder so we can check it matches the account you're paying. It's up to you to check the details are correct before asking us to make a payment as we'll make it using only these details.

The table below shows the cut-off time for giving us payment instructions and how long payments take to reach the payee’s bank after we’ve received your instruction to make the payment and taken it from your account.

Cut-off time

This is the latest time on any day that we can process instructions or add payments to an account. You can ask us for the relevant cut-off time when you give us a payment instruction.

If we don’t receive a payment request before the cut-off time on a working day, we’ll treat your request as received on the next working day. The timings set out in the box below will begin then.

Payment type	Cut-off time*	When the payment will reach the recipient’s bank
Payments in the UK in sterling
Internal (including automatic) transfers between accounts held by us	No cut-off. You can make payments at any time (Business Internet Banking, Express Bank Machine or cash machine) 10.00 pm (Business Telephone Banking)	Immediately
To accounts at other banks	Bill Payments (by Faster Payment) <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ 11.45 pm (Business Internet Banking)♦ 10.00 pm (Business Telephone Banking)	Usually within two hours

	BACS <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ 6.45 pm (Business Internet Banking) Two working days before the payment is due to be made (for example, if you want to make a payment on Wednesday, you’ll need to tell us by 6.45 pm on Monday)	On the requested day

Standing orders	♦ 11.45 pm (Business Internet Banking)♦ 10.00 pm (Business Telephone Banking)Three working days before the first payment is due to be made	On the requested day

International payments in sterling and payments in other currencies

You can give us instructions to make international payments at any time via Business Internet Banking.

Payment instructions given before the cut-off times below will be actioned on the same working day and any instructions given afterwards will be actioned on the next working day:

To accounts in the EEA in euro and sterling	♦ 3.30pm (Business Internet Banking and Business Telephone Banking)♦ 2.00 pm (in branch)	Next working day
SEPA credit transfer	♦ 9.30 am (Business Internet Banking)	Same working day
All other payments	♦ 6.00 pm for US DollarsFor other foreign currencies, please check. We can't make payments in some currencies.	Usually up to four working days (but may take longer depending on the country the money is being sent to)

*When we don't give you a specific branch closing time, the cut-off time for in-branch payments will be when the branch closes for the day. The cut-off time for all payments by post is 12.00 pm. HSBCnet cut-off times are not included in this table. For further information about HSBCnet cut-off times, please refer to the specific information you have been given for HSBCnet. You can also contact the HSBCnet Helpdesk for any queries.

Note

If you instruct us to make a payment on a future date, we'll make it on that date, unless it's a non-working day, in which case we'll make it on the next working day (except for bill payments, which are made using the Faster Payments System and can be made on any day).

If you want to make a regular payment (such as a standing order) you must set it up with us at least three working days in advance.

You can instruct us to make payments on a future date for the following:

- ♦ Bill payments;
- ♦ BACS; and
- ♦ International and SEPA payments in the same currency as your account.

If you're a Small Business or Small Charity Customer and a payment you make to an account in the EEA doesn't arrive when it should (normally the working day after we send it), you can ask us to contact the receiving bank to ask them to treat the payment as if it had been made on time.

Currency payments

If you want to make a payment in a different currency to your account, you can ask us to convert the amount into that currency and we'll tell you the HSBC Exchange Rate that we'll use. We won't change the rate if the payment goes ahead immediately. If the payment isn't made immediately, or we don't agree a rate with you and you tell us to go ahead with the payment anyway, we'll apply the HSBC Exchange Rate that applies at the time we make the payment.

In future, once we've advised you that it applies to your account, we'll confirm the exchange rate that will apply to the payment at the time you instruct it using Business Internet Banking or HSBCnet and this rate will apply even if (because of the cut-off times listed) it doesn't go ahead until the next working day. Otherwise, we'll use the HSBC Exchange Rate that applies when the payment is made.

If the payment is returned to us or we can't make it for any reason, we'll reverse it using the HSBC Exchange Rate at that time. If it's changed, the amount we pay back when we reverse the payment will be different to the amount we originally took from your account.

If we can't convert the money before we send it, or you don't want us to, it will be converted by the recipient's bank unless:

- ◆ you're a Larger Corporate Business Customer; or
- ◆ the payment is not processed entirely within the EEA.

In both these cases any intermediary we route the payment through may carry out the currency conversion. If it does, it'll convert the payment at the current market rate it uses at that time. If you ask us, we'll tell you the exchange rate used.

Instead of deducting our charges from the payment, you can ask us to deduct them from your account. If the payment is to a recipient outside the EEA, any intermediary we route it through and the recipient's bank may deduct their charges from your payment too.

The intermediary we use for international payments may be a member of the HSBC Group.

Cheque payments in sterling

To make a cheque payment, you need to write on it the name of the recipient, the amount (in numbers and words) and the date that you're signing it (we'll usually pay cheques even if you've used a date in the future). If you want to cancel a cheque you must tell us the same details and your account and cheque number before we pay it or begin the imaging process. We can't cancel it after that point.

If we receive a cheque for payment more than six months after you write it we may pay it but don't have to.

Payments by card

If you use your debit card for a cash withdrawal or payment, we'll take the money from your account after we receive confirmed details from the relevant payment scheme, such as Visa or MasterCard. This may be on a working or a non-working day.

If you use your debit card for a transaction or cash withdrawal in a foreign currency, it will be converted into sterling on the day Visa or Mastercard processes it using the Visa scheme exchange rate (available at www.visaeurope.com) or the Mastercard scheme exchange rate (available at www.mastercard.com) We also apply charges to these transactions. You can find our charges in our Business Price List.

We may replace your card with a different type of card available under this agreement after reviewing your personal circumstances.

21. Cancelling or changing payments (other than cheques)

You can't cancel or change a payment that you've asked us to make immediately. This includes card payments.

Other payments can be cancelled or changed if you contact us by the deadline on the working day before the payment is due to be made (except for standing orders and Direct Debits using Business Internet Banking and BACS, where the deadline is three and four working days before respectively).

Details of cancelling or changing payments made using HSBCnet profiles (and applicable cut-off times) are not included in this table. For further information on this, please refer to the specific information you've been given for HSBCnet. You can also contact the HSBCnet Helpdesk for any queries.

If you haven't used a Direct Debit or standing order for 13 months, we'll cancel it. If payments you've cancelled are still collected (e.g. by the organisation), we'll treat the payment as unauthorised and give you an immediate refund.

22. What happens if there are incorrect or unauthorised payments on your account or you’ve been tricked into sending money to a fraudster?

This clause doesn’t apply to cheques. If you notice a cheque payment has been made from your account that is incorrect or you didn’t sign, please contact us as soon as possible and we’ll look into this.

What’s an ‘incorrect payment’?	What’s an ‘unauthorised payment’?	What do we mean by “tricked into sending money to a fraudster”?
A payment that hasn’t been sent to the person or account you specified when you instructed us to make the payment.	A payment from your account which wasn’t authorised by you or someone you’ve authorised to make payments from your account. If you give someone your payment device or security details and they use them to make a payment, we may treat the payment as if you’d authorised it depending on what happened. This is why you mustn’t tell anyone your security details or allow anyone access to your payment device unless they’re a TPP and it’s necessary for you to do so.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ You intended to send money to someone but you were tricked into sending it to someone else; or♦ You sent money to someone for what you thought was a genuine purpose but which was actually fraudulent. When we say “send money” here, we mean where you’ve asked us to transfer money from your account to another account in the UK.

Question	Answer
What if you notice an incorrect or unauthorised payment, or that you’ve been tricked into sending money to a fraudster on, or after, 28 May 2019?	You must call us as soon as you can.
What will we do when you tell us that you’ve been tricked into sending money to a fraudster on, or after, 28 May 2019?	Applying industry standards, we’ll look into this and let you know whether or not you’re entitled to a full or partial refund. This will usually be no later than 15 working days after the day you told us, but may take longer in exceptional circumstances. If you’re entitled to a refund, we’ll then give you this without delay. You won’t get a refund if, taking into account the circumstances when the payment was made, we find you should have known that you were sending money to a fraudster.

23. Refunds

For some card payments in the EEA

If you're a Small Business or Small Charity Customer and you've made a card payment, you can ask us to refund it if:

- ◆ the payment was made in the EEA;
- ◆ you didn't agree the actual payment amount;
- ◆ the amount charged to your account was higher than you reasonably expected, taking into account previous spending patterns and the particular facts of the case; and
- ◆ you make the refund request within eight weeks of the date when the payment was charged to your account.

We'll investigate your claim and may ask for information which we reasonably need.

Within 10 working days of your request (or receiving information we've asked for), we'll either refund the payment or tell you why we're not.

You aren't entitled to a refund if you gave consent for the payment directly to us and, at least four weeks before the payment was made, you were given information about the transaction by (or it was available from) us or the retailer.

For BACS Direct Debit or SEPA Direct Debit payments

The terms of the BACS Direct Debit Guarantee or SEPA Direct Debit Scheme will apply to refunds for any Direct Debit errors.

How much will we refund and can we reverse a refund?

If you're a Small Business or Small Charity Customer and we give a refund for any reason, we'll refund the payment and any interest we charged (or pay any interest that we'd have paid) so you're in the position you would've been in if the payment hadn't been made.

If you're a Larger Corporate Business Customer and we give you a refund for an incorrect payment, we'll refund the amount of the payment but won't refund any interest you didn't receive or charges you incurred due to the incorrect payment.

If we give a refund but later find you weren't entitled to it, we'll reverse it so you're in the position you would've been in if we hadn't refunded you.

About overdrafts, charges and how we pay and charge interest

24. Overdrafts

We may agree to give you an overdraft on an account if we think you can afford it. Overdrafts are only for short-term borrowing and aren't available on some accounts.

The types of overdraft are explained below but all overdrafts are repayable 'on demand'. This means we can ask for immediate repayment although we'll usually give you advance notice.

Types of overdraft

Arranged (previously "formal")

You ask us for, and we agree to give you, an overdraft before you make any transactions that take your account overdrawn, or over your previously arranged overdraft limit.

Unarranged (previously "informal")

You've made a payment or we've taken an amount from your account and you don't have enough money in the account (or under an arranged overdraft).

If we permit an unarranged overdraft, it will stay in place until:

- ◆ we agree an arranged overdraft; or
 - ◆ you pay enough into your account to bring it back into credit or within your arranged overdraft limit.

Business Savings Accounts and International Business Savings Accounts are not designed to provide unarranged overdrafts. However, if operational reasons mean we're unable to prevent a charge or transaction which would cause you to go overdrawn, we'll treat this as an unarranged overdraft and you'll have to repay the overdrawn amount immediately on demand. Please speak to your usual point of contact about overdraft rates on these accounts. Rates are shown on your regular statement and set out in the Business Price List.

You'll find details of our overdraft text alerting service in our Business Banking Made Easy brochure.

Who is responsible for the money you borrow?

If you're a sole trader, you're personally responsible for any money your business borrows.

For partnerships, personal representatives or trusts, each partner, personal representative or trustee is jointly and individually responsible for money borrowed when they were in that position (even if they aren't any more). The only exception is if we've agreed something else in writing. We may demand repayment of money borrowed by an organisation from any or all of these individuals.

For companies, limited liability partnerships or other incorporated bodies, and clubs, societies, associations, charities and other unincorporated bodies (except partnerships, personal representatives and trustees), individuals aren't normally responsible for money their organisation has borrowed unless they've given personal guarantees.

Contingent liabilities

In each case, you’re also responsible for contingent liabilities. This is money that you might owe us in the future because of a legal obligation you have to us now.

For example, you might ask us to give a guarantee in your favour to someone else. If we have to make a payment as your guarantor, you agree you’ll pay us what we’ve paid them. Because it may never happen, that obligation to repay us is a contingent liability.

Where you have contingent liabilities:

- ◆ we may take money from your account to meet any amount you owe us due to a contingent liability no longer being contingent (e.g. becoming an actual liability);
- ◆ we may take money from your account and hold it, to cover the amount of any contingent liabilities you have to us (e.g. we might only agree to give a guarantee for you if you give us money upfront to cover the amount we may need to pay out as guarantor); and
- ◆ we can hold money to pay for contingent liabilities without telling you in advance, if we have good reasons to think you might otherwise not be able to pay.

If we decide to do any of the above, we’ll work out how much we need to cover your contingent liabilities in good faith based on current market rates. We’ll also tell you what we’ve done, and when and why we did it.

25. Interest rates and charges

In the Additional Conditions you’ll find the terms which apply to certain types of account.

In the Business Price List you’ll find:

- ◆ our overdraft charges;
- ◆ all our other standard charges e.g. for certain types of account, making payments and providing services. These will apply unless we agree different charges with you;
- ◆ details of the Currency Standard Debit Interest Rate; and
- ◆ where to find the Business Standard Debit Interest Rate.

How we’ll work out your interest

We’ll provide details of your interest rate when you open the account and you can contact us to find out your current rate at any time.

We’ll pay and charge interest at a fixed or variable rate.

You can also find our standard interest rates on our website, in our branches or by calling us.

What’s a ‘fixed’ rate’?	What’s a ‘variable rate’?
Fixed rates are rates that we’ve told you won’t change for an agreed period.	Variable rates are rates that might go up and down. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">◆ rates which track a ‘reference rate’ set by another institution which we don’t control (e.g. the Bank of England base rate); or◆ rates we set internally.

For sterling accounts we work out interest each day on the amount you owe us or, where we pay interest, on the amount we're holding for you in that account. For foreign currency accounts we work out interest on the basis of a 360 day year.

We'll take interest from, or pay it into, your account on the day in the month you originally opened your account (unless we've made a different arrangement with you) or, if that's not a working day, the next working day. If you have a non-sterling account and the credit interest rate on your account goes below zero, we may charge you interest on the money you hold with us.

Your account charges

We'll charge you the fees set out in the Business Price List (unless we've agreed different charges with you) and may charge you other fees and expenses, e.g. for putting in place security or for dealing with your overdraft.

We may also charge for services which aren't set out in the Business Price List, but we'll always tell you how much they'll be and check you're happy to pay them before we provide the service. We may also charge an administration fee, up to the maximum permitted by law, if we have to do anything to comply with a court order on your account(s).

We can take charges from your account either when we provide the service, or at the end of your charging period. We'll give you at least 14 days' notice before taking any interest, fees or charges from your account.

Please note that taxes or costs may apply to you that aren't charged by us and/or won't be paid through us. If you're sending money outside the UK but within the EEA, you'll only pay our charges. You can't pay charges for the recipient.

Charges for using other banks

If we need to use an agent, correspondent or intermediary bank to make a payment, you may have to pay their charges too (except for currency conversions carried out by intermediaries).

Our relationship with you

26. Changes we can make which require notice

Our agreement has no fixed end date so it's likely we'll need to keep our terms up to date so they cover changes we're making to our business and changes we don't control. We'll only make changes for these reasons if it's reasonable for us to pass on the impact of them, but we'll never change any terms that we've said are fixed (e.g. fixed interest rates on some accounts) before the fixed period ends.

Change	Notice before change		Notice after change

* Notice within three working days will be given online, in newspapers or in branch. Personal notice will be given within 30 days.

Note

The timeframes in this table don't apply to reference interest rates and our currency base rates. These are dealt with in section 27 below. Different notice periods may apply to some of the Additional Conditions.

Your rights when we tell you about a change

If we give advance notice that we’re going to make a change to this agreement and you don’t tell us you want to close your account before that change takes place, or within the next 60 days (if longer), then we’ll assume you’ve accepted the change and it will apply automatically at the end of the notice period.

If you tell us you don’t want to accept the change you can close your account without charge.

27. Changes we can make without telling you in advance

Interest and exchange rates	When we apply changes
Reference interest rates
Some accounts have interest rates that are based on ‘reference rates’ which we don’t control (e.g. the Bank of England base rate).	The new rate will apply within one working day of any change to the reference rate and will be shown on your statement and available from our website.
Exchange rates
HSBC Exchange Rate.	We can change these immediately and without giving advance notice.
Currency base rates
Our currency base rates for Larger Corporate Business Customers are variable interest rates which we set. They aren’t available to Small Business or Small Charity Customers. You’ll need to contact us or visit our website (for rates you pay us) to find out the current rate.	Our currency base rates can change daily. The applicable rate will be shown on your statement or will be available on our website.

28. How you can close your account or end this agreement

You can end this agreement or close any account at any time by writing to tell us (unless you’re switching to a new bank, in which case they can tell us to close it for you).

We’ll close your account as long as the closure instruction from you or your new bank has been signed by the authorised signatories on your mandate.

You won’t have to pay any charges once your account has closed but you’ll have to pay any charges for using the account before it’s closed (e.g. any card payments that have been authorised but not yet charged to the account).

Any account benefits will end when the account is closed.

We won’t close your account until you’ve paid everything you owe us.

The Additional Conditions will set out any other consequences (e.g. if you have a fixed term product you may lose interest if you close early).

29. How we can end this agreement, withdraw services and close your accounts

When?

Immediately and without notice

We can do this if you:

- ♦ have seriously or persistently broken this agreement;
- ♦ become insolvent;
- ♦ acted abusively, offensively or violently towards staff;
- ♦ weren't entitled to open your account or use the service, or are no longer entitled to have the account or service;
- ♦ haven't given us adequate information that we've requested about your liability for tax; or
- ♦ provided us with any false information; or if it's reasonable for us to believe that:

- ♦ you have or are using or obtaining, or allowing someone else to use or obtain, an account, service or money illegally or fraudulently;
- ♦ you're using the account for a purpose not covered by this agreement;
- ♦ by continuing the agreement, we (or another HSBC Group Company) may be exposed to action from any government, regulator or law enforcement agency;
- ♦ by continuing the agreement, we (or another HSBC Group Company) may break a law, regulation, code, court order or other duty, requirement or obligation, including compliance with any internal financial crime risk management activity;
- ♦ there's been a breach of security or misuse of your account, security details or a payment device; or
- ♦ you're involved in criminal activity whether or not linked to your account or your relationship with us.

By giving you notice

We may close an account or withdraw any service by giving you at least two months' notice.

We may give you less than two months' notice if you opened an account online and we didn't receive specimen signatures from each of the authorised signatories on your mandate within 60 days of your account opening.

We may also transfer you to a different account or tariff by giving you at least two months' notice if you stop meeting the eligibility criteria for your account. If you're not happy with this, you can close your account without charge before the transfer takes place.

What happens next?

We'll take any card payments that have been authorised but not yet charged to the account and apply any charges and interest which haven't yet been applied to your account before we pay what's left to you or to your account with another provider in the currency of your account, although in certain circumstances this may be paid in sterling regardless of the currency of the account. In these circumstances, funds will be converted to sterling at the HSBC Exchange Rate on the day of closure.

You mustn't write any more cheques, make any more payments or use any payment devices.

You'll need to pay us for any cheques we pay after your account is closed.

You're responsible for cancelling payments into and out of your account.

You must destroy any unused cheques and your card.

30. How we can transfer accounts

If:

- ♦ you no longer meet the conditions for an account; or
- ♦ we're withdrawing a type of account,

we'll give you at least two months' notice that we're going to transfer you to another account provided by us and that we think is appropriate for you. You can close your existing account during the notice period if you don't want us to make the transfer.

31. Transferring this agreement

Can we transfer this agreement?	Can you transfer this agreement?
Yes. <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ We can transfer all of our rights under this agreement and in relation to your account to someone else.♦ We can also transfer all of our obligations under this agreement and in relation to your account, but only to someone we reasonably consider capable of performing them as well as us and who is authorised or recognised by our regulator as being able to accept deposits. This won't reduce any of your rights in relation to your account.	No. <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ You can't transfer any of your rights and obligations in relation to the agreement, your account, or your account itself, to any other person.

32. When aren't we responsible for things that go wrong?

We won't be liable for any losses you may suffer if we cannot perform our obligations under this agreement due to:

- ♦ any legal or regulatory requirements;
- ♦ abnormal or unforeseeable circumstances which are outside our (or our agents' and/or subcontractors') control and which we couldn't have avoided despite all efforts to the contrary, such as industrial action or mechanical failure; or
- ♦ any member of the HSBC Group carrying out financial crime risk management activity.

In any other circumstance, we might be liable to you, but this will depend on the type of loss and the type of customer you are.

The table below sets out when we'll be liable to you for losses you may suffer.

Customer	Are we liable to you for the loss?
	Direct loss of profit	Other direct losses (such as costs)	Indirect or consequential loss (including lost business, data, profits or losses resulting from third party claims) even if it was foreseeable
Small Business Customer	✓	✓	✗
Small Charity Customer	✓	✓	✗
Larger Corporate Business Customer	✗	✓	✗

33. Set-off

If you have money in one of your accounts (except for trust, client or joint accounts), we may set it off against any amount you owe us which is due for payment on other accounts (including money you owe on a joint account) so it reduces or repays the amount you owe us. We'll only do this with accounts in your name.

In exercising our right, we may use any amounts you have in a fixed term deposit account and, where those deposits are not in the same currency as the amount owed, we may convert those amounts to the currency of the amount owed using our HSBC Exchange Rate. We may also adjust the amount of interest we pay you.

Note

Amounts owed to us and due for payment include, for example, amounts owed under a loan, credit card, charge card, mortgage or overdraft.

34. If you're a company or a partnership

If you're a company

You confirm, and confirm on behalf of any shareholders and associated companies who hold or are entitled to 10% or more of your share capital (whether legally or beneficially, directly or indirectly), that:

- ◆ neither you nor they have issued any bearer shares;
- ◆ you'll tell us immediately if you or they issue bearer shares or convert existing shares to bearer shares in the future, in which case you'll comply with our requirements on bearer shares; and
- ◆ the issuance of, or conversion of shares to, bearer shares and any failure to comply with this section would be a serious breach of these terms and you acknowledge that it may result in us ending every aspect of our relationship with you.

If you're in a partnership

These terms and the Additional Conditions will remain in force until you give us notice that you're closing the account or stopping the relevant service – even if you change the name of the partnership, new partners join or current partners leave.

How your money is protected

We're covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). The FSCS can pay compensation to depositors if a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations. Most depositors are covered by the scheme. In respect of deposits, an eligible depositor is entitled to claim up to the current FSCS limit for deposits. For joint accounts each account holder is treated as having a claim in respect of their share so, for a joint account held by two eligible depositors, each depositor would have a claim up to the FSCS deposit limit and so the maximum amount that could be claimed in total would be twice the current FSCS limit. The FSCS deposit limit relates to the combined amount in all the eligible depositor's accounts with the bank, including their share of any joint account, and not to each separate account. For further information about the scheme (including the current limits, amounts covered and eligibility to claim) please contact us, visit the FSCS website www.fscs.org.uk or call the FSCS on 020 7741 4100 or 0800 678 1100. Please note only compensation related queries should be directed to the FSCS.

Unclaimed assets scheme

We participate in the unclaimed assets scheme. If you've an account with us (including an account that we've closed in accordance with these terms but we haven't been able to repay your money to you) and there has been no activity from you on your account for at least the last 15 years we may transfer any money in your account to the unclaimed assets scheme at Reclaim Fund Limited.

This scheme doesn't apply to international business accounts, foreign currency accounts, currency client accounts or business money market accounts.

If you have a dormant business account (including closed accounts) and we haven't been able to repay the money in it to you, we may transfer the money to our unclaimed balances account. We'll only do this if your account has been dormant for at least 12 months.

We'll tell you at least 30 days before we do this. If we haven't already done so, we may then close your account. You'll still have the right to your money – you should ask us for information about how to get your money back. The transfer of money to the unclaimed assets scheme won't affect any entitlement you may have to compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

If we transfer your money in either of these situations, you can reclaim it by contacting us.

- 21.3 If at the date of this Agreement it is not permitted by law for the Customer to agree the matters referred to in Clauses 21.1 and 21.2 but subsequently such agreement does become permitted by law (whether because the Customer has ceased to be a Micro-enterprise or a Charity or otherwise), then the Customer agrees that the agreement of the Customer to the matters referred to in Clauses 21.1 and 21.2 shall take effect from such subsequent date.

Corporate Payment Card Customer Agreement Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions are applicable for the Bank's Corporate Payment Card Customer Agreement.

1. Products issued under this Agreement

1.1. The Bank agrees to issue to the Customer any combination of the following products under this Agreement:

- 1.1.1. Corporate Cards;
- 1.1.2. Purchasing Cards;
- 1.1.3. Lodge Cards;
- 1.1.4. Fuel Cards;
- 1.1.5. Virtual Cards;

1.2. The product selection section in this Agreement sets out which combination of Cards the Customer requires the Bank to issue it with. Following the initial product selection, the Bank may agree to subsequently issue other products as detailed in the product selection section, as requested by the Customer, whilst this Agreement remains in force.

1.3. This Agreement states where particular terms do or do not apply to a particular Card.

2. Card and card account issue and renewal

2.1. The Bank will issue Cards and renew and replace them unless cancelled and, if requested and appropriate for the relevant Card type, issue a PIN to each Cardholder, unless the Bank otherwise objects or refuses, which it may do in its absolute discretion. Issuance of Cards is subject to:

2.1.1. the Customer authorising the proposed Cardholder to receive and use a Card;

2.1.2. compliance with the Bank's account opening procedures in effect from time to time for the relevant product.

2.2. The Customer shall be bound by, and agrees to ensure acceptance and compliance by Cardholders with any relevant Conditions of Use issued with the product(s).

2.3. The Bank shall be under no responsibility to the Customer to:

2.3.1. ensure that Cardholders and Card Administrators comply with this Agreement, any relevant Conditions of Use, or any variation of or supplement to them;

2.3.2. take any legal action or proceedings against a Cardholder or Card Administrator;

2.3.3. ensure that a Card is used for the purposes of the Customer's business; or

2.3.4. review, monitor or investigate the use of a Card.

3. Accounting and billing

3.1. The Bank will open Cards for use under this Agreement, each having a Card Limit not exceeding the Customer Limit for the relevant Card. When a Card is issued to a Cardholder, the Customer must ensure that the Cardholder is notified of any Card Limit.

3.2. The aggregate of balances outstanding on all Cards shall not exceed the Customer Limit. The Bank may make changes to the Customer Limit and Card Limit from time to time and shall give the Customer written notice as soon as practicable, and as permitted by applicable law, of such changes and, where such changes lead to an outstanding balance being in excess of the revised Customer Limit or Card Limit, the written notice will include the period within which the Customer is required to make a payment to the Bank to reduce such balance so that it is equal to or less than the revised Customer Limit or Card Limit.

3.3. If any Customer Limit or Card Limit is exceeded without the Bank's approval, the Customer shall immediately repay the excess upon demand.

3.4. The Bank is authorised to debit each Card with the value of all transactions made by use of the Card (whether with or without use of a PIN or other identifier) or transacted via a Card whether or not properly authorised by the Cardholder or the Customer, including (without limitation) all transactions for which a merchant does not require express authorisation from the Bank and any transactions which may exceed the Card Limit or the relevant Customer Limit.

3.5. When asked to authorise a transaction, the Bank will take into account any other transactions already debited to the relevant Card or for which authorisation has been given, whether that transaction has been completed or not. This may lead to the transaction being declined. The Bank may refuse to authorise use of a Card if the Bank considers that the Card has been or is likely to be misused or where the Bank cannot authorise a transaction due to regulatory or legal restrictions. As part of the Bank's decision making process and in an effort to minimise the misuse of Cards, the Bank may refer an authorisation request back to the retailer or supplier for further information. This may result in the Cardholder being asked to produce further means of identification or other information.

3.6. A payment made by use of a Card or transacted on a Card cannot be stopped. If a retailer or supplier agrees to make a refund, the Bank will credit the relevant account only upon receipt of a written instruction in a form acceptable to the Bank from the retailer or supplier. The Bank cannot be held responsible for any delay in the receipt of such instructions.

4. Performance

4.1. The Bank may use sub-contractors, agents or third parties to perform and/or in connection with the performance of any of its activities in terms of its obligations under this Agreement.

4.2. The Bank may take, and may instruct members of its group to take any action which the Bank in its sole discretion considers appropriate to prevent or investigate crime or the potential breach of sanctions regimes or to act in accordance with relevant laws, regulations, sanctions regimes, international and national guidance, relevant group procedures and/or the direction of any public, regulatory or industry body relevant to any member of the group. This includes the interception and investigation of any payment, communication or instruction, and the making of further enquiries as to whether a person or entity is subject to any sanctions regime.

5. Payment

5.1. The Bank will make a Statement available to the Customer, and where applicable Cardholders, at the last known contact details provided by the Customer.

5.2. The Customer promises to pay to the order of the Bank, in immediately available funds in the currency in which the Card is denominated:

a) a payment(s) equal to the entire balance of each Card; and
b) all applicable interest, fees and charges which apply for the relevant Card(s), in accordance with this Agreement or on such basis as agreed between the Bank and the Customer in writing from time to time as specified on the Statement by the Payment Date. This may include (without limitation) charges payable if the Bank does not receive a payment in full by the Payment Date or if an outstanding balance exceeds an applicable Customer Limit or Card Limit.

5.3. If full payment of the amount shown on any Statement is not received by the Bank, in cleared funds, by the Payment Date, fees as detailed in the product selection section of the Agreement will apply being:

a) interest which will be debited by reference to the outstanding items on each account which will be calculated on the daily outstanding balance from the date the transactions fees and charges are debited to each account, and compounded monthly, until full payment is received, and

b) a late payment charge.

5.4. The Customer shall be liable for all transactions on the Cards and agrees to pay the Bank according to the Statements and the terms of this Agreement.

5.5. The Bank, in its sole discretion, has the right to apply payments to the Cards in such order as the Bank may determine.

5.6. Where the Customer has selected the Corporate Card individual bill corporate pay product on the product selection section, the following clauses shall apply:

5.6.1. The Customer agrees that it (and not the Cardholder) will pay each individual Cardholder statement balance in full by the agreed Payment Date as shown on the Statement. The Customer agrees that it will do this by making a separate payment(s) per Statement directly to the Bank or as otherwise agreed between the Customer and the Bank.

5.6.2. The Customer agrees that it will not instruct or permit its Cardholders to make any payments whatsoever to the Bank.

5.6.3. If the Bank becomes aware that any Cardholder has made a payment(s) directly to the Bank in settlement of all or part of their individual Statement, the Bank may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect notwithstanding the Agreement Term.

6. Liability for transactions

6.1. Subject to Clause 6.3, the Customer irrevocably and unconditionally indemnifies the Bank from and against all actions, proceedings, damages, costs, (including legal costs on a full indemnity basis) claims, demands, expenses and losses that the Bank may suffer or sustain in connection with the issue of any Cards by the Bank or the use of them, whether within the terms of any Conditions of Use and whether authorised or not, including but not limited to the value of all Card transactions and any losses or liabilities suffered or incurred by the Bank after a Cardholder ceases to be an officer of or employed/contracted by the Customer or any subsidiary company of the Customer.

6.2. Subject to Clause 6.3, the Customer shall be solely liable to the Bank for payment of the value of all transactions made by use of the Card whether or not that transaction has been made for the purposes of the Customer business or with the authority of the Cardholder or Customer, together with any charges, fees and interest payable under the Agreement. This will include (without limitation) any transactions made after the cancellation of a Card subject to the Bank's failure to comply with Clause 12.

6.3. Subject to Clause 6.4, the Customer shall have no liability for any transactions not authorised by the Customer or a Cardholder using a Card after it has been reported to the Bank (in accordance with any Conditions of Use) that the Card has been lost or stolen or that the Card details may be known by a third party or that unauthorised or fraudulent use is suspected. The amount of any such transactions that may have been debited in these circumstances will be provisionally credited to the relevant Card, including (without limitation) any related interest or charges. The Bank shall have no further liability to the Customer whatsoever. The Bank may require written notification that an item on the Customer's Statement is not a recognised transaction of the Card before the Bank can process any refund to which the Customer may be entitled.

6.4. Upon a report being made under Clause 6.3, the Bank will follow its usual procedures to cancel or block use of the Card, but if any loss, theft, fraudulent or unauthorised use of a Card or the disclosure of the Card details is attributable to the fraud or negligence of a Cardholder or the Customer (or the negligence of any agent, contractor, representative, employee or officer of the Customer) the Customer shall remain liable for any transactions made by use of the Card. For the purpose of this sub-Clause, "negligence" shall include (without limitation) any relevant failure by the Cardholder or Customer to observe any Conditions of Use.

6.5. The Bank may require the Customer to cooperate with it and relevant authorities in the Bank's efforts to recover any Card or funds. The Bank may also disclose to third parties any information about the Customer, any Cardholder and any Card account if it thinks it will help to avoid or recover loss.

6.6. In no event shall a Cardholder be liable to the Bank for Card transactions, and any credit made available is extended solely to the Customer.

7. Set-off

The Bank shall be entitled without notice to use any credit balances on any account held by the Customer with the Bank to reduce or repay any liability of the Customer outstanding under the Agreement. If the Bank takes such action it will advise the Customer. Where the credit balance is denominated in a currency other than the currency of the outstanding liability, the Bank will convert the credit balances to the currency of the outstanding liability at the Bank's exchange rate applicable on the day of conversion.

8. Tax

All fees and charges payable under the Agreement are exempt from UK and EU Value Added Tax but in the event that any law or regulation is introduced or there is a change in interpretation of any law or regulation which renders fees and/or charges liable to payment of Value Added Tax or other tax, or whether any tax currently exists in a jurisdiction that the Customer resides in, then such tax shall become payable by the Customer.

9. Disputed transactions

9.1. The Customer must continue to pay the Bank any money outstanding under the Agreement without any deduction, set-off or withholding and the Customer shall remain liable to make payments required under the Agreement even if the Customer is in dispute with or has a claim against a retailer, supplier or bank over a transaction made under this Agreement.

9.2. The Customer shall notify the Bank in writing of any transactions which the Customer disputes within 60 days of the date of the Statement showing the transaction. The Bank will take such steps as are available under the relevant payment system to resolve the dispute. If taking such steps does not resolve the dispute it will be a matter between the Customer and the retailer, supplier or bank. This Clause will continue to apply after any termination of the Agreement, however caused.

9.3 If the Bank suspects a payment into the Card account was the result of fraud, the Bank will remove it. If the Bank makes a payment into the Card account by mistake or as a result of an error, the Bank will debit the amount from the Card account. If the Bank is told that a payment from within the European Economic Area (EEA) was made into the Card account by someone else's mistake (for example if the payer gave the wrong account number), but, when the Bank contacts the Customer, the Customer informs the Bank that the payment was correctly made, the Bank is legally required to share all relevant information including the Customer's name and address and transaction information with the payment institution the payment came from if it asks for it so that the payer may use the contact details to make direct contact with the Customer to recover the payment. In all other cases the Bank will tell the Customer about it and, depending on how long ago the payment was made into the Card account, the Bank will either give the Customer time to provide evidence that the payment was correctly made before the payment is returned or the Bank will return the payment with the Customer's consent. During this time the Bank will restrict access to the payment (the Bank might do this by debiting the Card account or by limiting access to the amount on the Card account).

10. Terminating the Agreement

10.1. Notwithstanding the Agreement Term:

10.1.1. Either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the other upon or at any time after the occurrence of any of the following events:

a) If the other party commits any such breach of its obligations under this Agreement and if remediable shall fail to remedy such breach within 30 days of notice of requiring it to do so;

b) If the other party enters into a deed of arrangement or compounds with its creditors, or if a receiving order is made against it, or if an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding up of the other party, or an order is made for the appointment of an administrator to manage the other party's affairs, business or property, or if a receiver is appointed to control any of the other party's assets or undertakings, or if the other party is dissolved, or if circumstances arise which entitle a court or a creditor to appoint a receiver or manager, or which entitle a court to make a winding up order, or if the other party suffers any similar or analogous action in consequence of debt;

c) If it becomes apparent to either party that any statement, representation or warranty made by the other party during the negotiations leading to this Agreement, in this Agreement itself, or in the performance of this Agreement, was untrue in any material respect when made.

10.1.2. The Bank may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the Customer upon or at any time after either of the following:

a) the occurrence of any change in the financial condition of the Customer, which in the reasonable opinion of the Bank is adverse and material;

b) following an internal credit and risk review which the Bank is obliged to undertake from time to time.

10.2. Upon termination, the Bank:

10.2.1. will take its usual procedures to cancel all Cards and stop access to accounts; and

10.2.2. may make demand or demands for immediate repayment of all sums outstanding under the Agreement, whether incurred before or after termination.

10.3. Interest on any sums demanded under the Agreement shall accrue from the date of demand until the date of payment at the interest rate stated in the product selection section in the Agreement, both before and after any judgment, which will be calculated on the daily outstanding balance and compounded monthly until full payment is received.

10.4. After termination, the provisions of the Agreement shall continue to apply in relation to all sums due from either party to the other until they have been paid in full.

11. Limitation of liability

11.1. Any failure or omission by either party to carry out or observe any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement shall not give rise to any claim against the other party or be deemed a breach of the Agreement or limit the liability of the Customer to the Bank if such failure or omission arises from any cause reasonably beyond the control of that party.

11.2. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any consequential, special, secondary or indirect loss, injury or damage or any loss of, or damage to, goodwill, opportunity, profits or anticipated savings howsoever caused.

11.3. The Bank shall have no liability if any retailer, supplier, cash machine, terminal or bank refuses to or cannot accept a transaction for any reason, except, subject to Clause 11.2, where their inability to accept a transaction is solely the result of the transaction not being processed because of the Bank's negligence, or for the way in which such refusal is communicated.

12. Cancellation and surrender of Cards

12.1. Cards remain the property of the Bank and the Bank, upon reasonable grounds relating to security, suspected misuse or credit control, may suspend or cancel a Card at any time. The Bank will use best endeavours to notify the Customer prior to such suspension or cancellation, but in any event shall inform the Customer of such suspension or cancellation as soon as practicable.

12.2. The Bank will cancel a Card upon receipt of a request from the Customer.

12.3. Upon a request by the Customer to cancel a Card or on notice that the Bank has cancelled a Card or on termination of the Agreement, the Customer shall return to the Bank the relevant Card(s) cut in half vertically, or destroy such Cards and give written confirmation to the Bank that this has occurred.

12.4. If the Customer is unable to return a Card, the Bank will take its usual procedures to recover possession of it at the time of its attempted use but shall not be under any obligation to take any special procedures to recover possession, unless a specific arrangement has been agreed in writing between the Bank and the Customer.

12.5. In cancelling a Card, the Bank will take its usual procedures to block use of the Card (whether or not returned to the Bank) but if transactions are made by use of a Card after cancellation, the Agreement shall continue to apply in relation to that Card and transactions made under it until the receipt by the Bank of all sums outstanding in respect of the Card.

13. Information

13.1. Confidentiality

13.1.1 Subject to Clauses 13.1.2, 13.1.3 and 13.3, the parties agree that Confidential Information shall be kept confidential.

13.1.2 The Bank may disclose such Confidential Information to:

- (a) members of the Bank's group on a confidential basis;
- (b) sub-contractors, agents and third parties used by the Bank for providing the services in relation to the products, on a confidential basis;
- (c) regulators, auditors or as otherwise permitted, required or reasonably necessary under law, regulation or an order of a court; and/or
- (d) any other person with the Customer's consent.

13.1.3 The Customer may disclose Confidential Information to its employees or agents on a confidential basis to the extent strictly necessary for the receipt of the services under this Agreement.

13.2. Data protection and Customer Data

13.2.1 The Customer acknowledges that Personal Information may be stored, disclosed, processed and transferred by the Bank and members of its Group, or its group's sub-contractors, agents or third parties on a worldwide basis to perform and/or in connection with the performance of any of its activities under this Agreement in accordance with data protection legislation. The Customer consents, and shall take such steps as are required for the purposes of any applicable data protection legislation, to permit the Bank to store, disclose, process and transfer all Personal Information about relevant individuals in the manner described above.

13.2.2 The Customer explicitly consents to the Bank accessing, processing, and retaining any information the Customer provides to the Bank, for the purposes of providing payment services to the Customer. This does not affect any rights and obligations under data protection legislation. The Customer may withdraw this consent by terminating this Agreement. If the Customer does this, the Bank will stop using the data for this purpose, but may continue to process the data for other purposes.

13.3. The Bank shall not be restricted from making any disclosures under this Clause 13 where the Bank undertakes financial crime management and compliance activity under its regulatory obligations.

14. Variation

14.1. The Bank may, at its discretion from time to time, amend, vary or supplement the terms of the Agreement or Conditions of Use upon giving at least 60 days' notice in writing to the Customer. The Customer shall inform every applicable Cardholder of any amendments to the Conditions of Use promptly after notice of the same from the Bank.

14.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 14.1, the Bank may, by written notice to the Customer, make amendments to the Agreement at any time in order to comply with any law or regulation, which will become effective in accordance with the terms of such notice. The Bank will use reasonable efforts to give the Customer as much advance notice as possible in such circumstances.

15. General

15.1. The failure of a party to exercise or enforce any right conferred upon it by the Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any such right or operate so as to bar the exercise or enforcement of it any time or times after the failure.

15.2. If any provision of the Agreement is or proves to be or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, under any enactment or rule of law, such provision or part shall to that extent be deemed deleted from the Agreement and the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall not be in any way affected.

15.3. The Bank may transfer any of its rights, liabilities or obligations under the Agreement or any part of it and the Customer shall release the Bank from all such liabilities and obligations in the event of any such transfer. Following any transfer, references to the Bank in the Agreement shall read as references to the transferee to the extent of the transfer.

15.4. The Bank may disclose information about the Customer, any Cardholder and the Agreement in relation to an actual or a proposed contract for the transfer of the Bank's rights, liabilities and obligations under the Agreement provided that the Bank shall impose an obligation on the recipient to keep such information confidential, subject to any restrictions imposed by national laws of the country in which the Customer is situated.

15.5. For certain products where the Bank's nominated third party provides part of the service, the Bank may require the Customer to enter into a separate Agreement directly with the third party for the provision of the product.

15.6. Part 6 of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (the "PSR") and those regulations noted in Regulation 63(5) of the PSR are appropriate to agreements with consumers, micro-enterprises and charities and will not apply to this Agreement. The Customer represents that it is not a microenterprise (as defined in Commission Recommendation 2003/361/EC, as amended from time to time), or if it is a microenterprise then the Customer is a part of a group undertaking (as defined in the Companies Act 2006 as amended from time to time) that is not a microenterprise.

15.7 Using a third party provider ("TPP")

15.7.1 A TPP is a third party service provider that is authorised by or registered with the Financial Conduct Authority or another EEA regulator or otherwise permitted by law to access information and make payments on online payment accounts operated by other providers (such as banks, building societies and credit card issuers) and has permission from an account holder to do this.

15.7.2 If the Customer uses a TPP, the terms of this agreement will still apply. The Bank will give the TPP access to account information and the Customer will be able to make the same payments through the TPP that the Customer is able to make if the Customer was dealing with the Bank online.

15.7.3 Although the Customer and any Cardholder must not, generally, give any security details to anyone else, the Customer may give them to a TPP if it is necessary to allow a TPP to provide its services to the Customer. The Bank may refuse to allow a TPP to access the Card account if the Bank is concerned that the TPP is acting on an unauthorised or fraudulent basis. If the Bank does this, it will inform the Customer (unless doing so would compromise the Bank's reasonable security measures or otherwise be unlawful).

15.7.4 The Customer must check from the information provided to it by the TPP, that the TPP is authorised. If the Customer or a Cardholder gives security details to an unauthorised third party, the Bank will assume it is the Customer or the Cardholder that is authorising the Bank to give access to information about the Card account and the Customer will be responsible for any payments made as a result. If the Bank is aware that an unauthorised third party is using the security details, the Bank will block access to the Card account.

15.8. The Customer confirms, and confirms on behalf of any shareholders who hold 10% or more of its share capital (whether legally or beneficially, directly or indirectly), that it is compliant with UK law regarding Bearer Shares and that none of its shareholders have issued Bearer Shares. The Customer agrees to tell the Bank immediately if it or any of its shareholders has issued Bearer Shares. The Customer also confirms that there are no laws or regulations preventing it from giving the confirmations required by this clause.

16. Notices and demands

16.1. Where the Bank gives any notice to or makes any demand on the Customer such notice or demand shall be deemed properly served if served upon the Customer at the address of the Customer last notified to the Bank.

16.2 If the Bank needs to contact the Customer about any actual or suspected fraud or security threats, the Bank will do this using the fastest and most secure way (for example, the Bank may try to send a text message rather than telephone).

16.3. The Customer shall indemnify the Bank and any other member of its group against any loss arising from or in connection with the Bank or other member of its group processing an instruction or otherwise performing its obligations hereunder where the Bank or any other member of its group has done so in accordance with this Agreement.

17. Liability Waiver

17.1. The Bank will, upon written request, waive the Customer's liability for transactions under this Agreement (except for the circumstances in 17.4, 17.5 and 17.6) under the following conditions:

17.1.1. a Card transaction(s) was authorised by a Cardholder and this occurred after the date that the Customer notified the Bank that the Cardholder was no longer employed by the Customer and, consequently, was no longer authorised by the Customer to use a Card; or a transaction(s) authorised by a Cardholder was an act of dishonesty or fraud on the part of the Cardholder and the Customer did not instruct nor give permission to the Cardholder to authorise the transaction(s); and

17.1.2. the Customer did not benefit in any way from the transaction(s), i.e. where the transaction(s) purchased goods or services which were not for the purposes of the Customer's business; and

17.1.3. the Customer has paid the Bank for, or is being asked by the Bank for payment of, the transaction(s) but has been unable to obtain recompense for the transaction(s) from the Cardholder or any other person; and

17.1.4. the Customer must give written notice to the Bank as soon as possible after the transaction(s), but in any event no later than 60 days following the date the transaction(s) is included on any Statement made available to the Customer. The notice should indicate that a request is being made to waive amount(s) due or paid for the transaction(s). The Customer must disclose sufficient detail to enable the Bank to identify the Card, the Cardholder and the transaction(s) for which a waiver is requested and an explanation of the circumstances under which the request is made. The Bank may require the Customer to provide further information before a waiver is granted. Where necessary, any information provided may be passed to the police or any other relevant authority.

17.2. Application for a waiver under this Clause 17 shall not affect the Customer's duty to make payments due under the Agreement.

17.3. A transaction(s) waived under this Clause 17 will be treated for interest and charging purposes as if it had not been applied to the account.

17.4. A waiver will not be granted if it would cause the total value of all waivers under this Clause in any 12 month period to exceed £15,000 or the billing currency equivalent for the relevant Cardholder or £1,000,000 or the billing currency equivalent for the Customer with the further restriction that any waiver of cash advance transactions will not exceed £200 or the billing currency equivalent per Cardholder per day and £700 or the billing currency equivalent per Cardholder in any 12 month period.

17.5. A waiver will not be granted, or if granted will be reversed, if it becomes apparent to the Bank that the Customer instructed, approved, authorised or in any way colluded in the authorisation of the transaction(s) for which a waiver was requested or that the Customer has obtained recompense for the transaction from any other person or that the customer has obtained or will obtain benefit from the goods or services purchased.

17.6. Waivers will not apply to transaction(s) where only a single Cardholder is employed by the Customer at the date the transaction(s) was undertaken.

18. Governing law

- 9.5 Notwithstanding the limit set out in Clause 9.4 above, to the extent a successful claim against the Bank or any other member of the HSBC Group (ie for direct loss arising as a result of its gross negligence or wilful misconduct only) relates to all or part of the principal amount payable under a Customer Instruction (such amount, the 'Lost Principal'), the Bank shall be liable for:
- 9.5.1 The Lost Principal; and

- 9.6 You will indemnify and hold the Bank and any other member of the HSBC Group harmless from all losses and liabilities incurred by the Bank or any member of the HSBC Group as a result of:
- 9.6.1 Any breach by you of your obligations under this Agreement; or
- 9.6.2 The Bank or any other member of the HSBC Group acting on any Customer Instruction or other communication relating to the Services, whether or not such Customer Instruction or communication was: (a) authorised by you, or (b) in an agreed form.

- 10.1 Either party may terminate this Agreement in whole or in relation to any Service:
- 10.1.1 On not less than 30 days' written notice to the other party; or
- 10.1.2 With immediate effect by written notice to the other if the other party: (a) commits a material breach of this Agreement (or, if termination is in relation to the Services only, commits in relation to that part of the Services, a material breach of this Agreement) which is not remedied within 14 days of a written notice requiring remedy; or (b) becomes insolvent under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction
- 10.2 Upon termination for any reason of any part of this Agreement for which Software or Materials were supplied, any such Software or Materials licence terminates.
- 10.3 Termination will not affect the rights and remedies of either party accrued to the date of termination nor will it affect any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Clauses 5, 6, 9, 11.2 and 12) which is intended to apply after termination.
- 10.4 From time to time we may suspend some or all of the System or Services for routine, non-routine or emergency maintenance or for any other reason where we reasonably consider it necessary to do so. In the event of such a suspension, we will where reasonably practicable provide you with a reasonable period of notice prior to the suspension.

11. FORCE MAJEURE AND OTHER RIGHTS

- 11.1 Neither party nor any member of the HSBC Group will be liable for any loss (including loss of profit), damage, delay or failure in performing any of its duties relating to this Agreement caused in whole or in part by the action of any government or governmental agency, natural occurrence, law or regulation (or any change in the interpretation thereof), injunction, currency restriction, sanction, exchange control, industrial action (whether involving its staff or not), war, terrorist action, equipment failure, or interruption to power supplies or anything else beyond its reasonable control. The affected party will attempt to notify the other party as soon as is reasonably practicable of the existence of such circumstances.
- 11.2 The Bank and other members of the HSBC Group are required to act in accordance with the laws and regulations operating in various jurisdictions which relate to the prevention of money laundering, terrorist financing and the provision of financial and other services to any persons or entities which may be subject to sanctions. The Bank may take, and may instruct other members of the HSBC Group to take, any action which it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers appropriate to act in accordance with all such laws and regulations. Such action may include but is not limited to: the interception and investigation of any payment messages and other information or Customer Instructions sent to or by the Customer or on its behalf via the Bank's systems or the System or any other member of the HSBC Group's systems; and making further enquiries as to whether a name which might refer to a sanctioned person or entity actually refers to that person or entity. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group will be liable for loss (whether direct, consequential or loss of profit, data or interest) or damage suffered by any party arising out of:
- 11.2.1 Any delay or failure by the Bank or any member of the HSBC Group in performing any of its duties under this Agreement or other obligations caused in whole or in part by any steps which the Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers appropriate to act in accordance with all such laws and regulations; or
- 11.2.2 The exercise of any of the Bank's rights under this clause.
- In certain circumstances, the action which the Bank may take may prevent or cause a delay in the processing of certain information. Therefore, neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group warrants that any information on the Bank's systems relating to any payment messages and Customer Instructions which are the subject of any action taken pursuant to this clause is accurate, current or up to date at the time it is accessed, whilst such action is being taken. Subject to the overriding requirements of any applicable laws and regulations, the Bank will endeavour to notify the Customer of the existence of such circumstances as soon as is reasonably practicable.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

- 12.1 This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties concerning the supply and use of the System and Services. It supersedes any pre-existing agreements, communications, representations and discussions between you and us relating to the System and Services, which are hereby terminated. Neither party will have a right of action against the other arising from any previous agreement, communication, representation and discussion in respect of the System and Services, except in the case of fraud. Any other agreements between us and you, terms of business and/or mandates relating to the conduct of your accounts or our provision of related services shall remain unaffected, save that if any conflict between such terms and the terms of this Agreement arises, this Agreement shall prevail in so far as the conflict relates to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- 12.2 Any notice to be given under this Agreement must be communicated by post or facsimile to the address most recently notified by the receiving party. Proof of posting or transmission of any notice to the Customer shall be deemed to be proof of receipt of the notice by the Customer at the time when the notice would in the ordinary course be delivered or transmitted.
- 12.3 If we agree that you may communicate with us or we agree to communicate with you (or any third party) via e-mail, the internet, or any other method (other than via the relevant System), you acknowledge the risks that any such communications may be intercepted, monitored, amended or otherwise interfered with by third parties. We are not responsible or liable to you or any third party in the event of any such occurrence in relation to any communication between us and you (or which appears to have been made on your behalf), or any communication you ask us to enter into with any third party.
- 12.4 You agree to pay our fees and other tariffs (where applicable) for providing the System or Services as we advise you from time to time, and we are entitled to debit your accounts wherever they are situated and wherever they are opened, with the amount of any such fees and/or tariffs. We may vary our fees and/or tariffs and the frequency and dates of payment on giving you not less than 30 days' notice.
- 12.5 Each party shall take all reasonable precautions to ensure that communications through the System are not affected by computer viruses, Trojan Horse programs (such as key loggers) and other harmful programs or components.
- 12.6 Each of the terms of this Agreement (including for the avoidance of doubt the exclusions of liability in Clause 9) is severable from the others and if one or more of them becomes void, illegal or unenforceable, the remainder will not be affected in any way.
- 12.7 The rights of the Bank under this Agreement (a) may be exercised as often as necessary; (b) are cumulative and not exclusive of its rights under any applicable law; and (c) may be waived only in writing and specifically. Any delay in the exercise or non-exercise of any such right is not a waiver of that right.
- 12.8 You may not assign any right or benefit under any provision of this Agreement without our prior written consent.
- 12.9 We may make modifications to this Agreement which are required due to changes in any laws and/or regulations by giving you not less than 30 days' notice or, exceptionally, such shorter period as is necessary for the effective operation of the Services.
- 12.10 No addition to or modification of any provision of this Agreement (other than as set out in Clauses 2.4, 8.2 and 12.9 above) shall be binding upon us unless made by a written instrument signed by the Bank's duly authorised representative.
- 12.11 Certain jurisdictions may have particular legal or regulatory requirements which require you to agree supplementary terms. Where such supplementary terms are necessary, we will provide those terms in writing together with this Agreement and other relevant documentation, and such supplementary terms shall form part of the Agreement.
- 12.12 Members of the HSBC Group may enforce the terms of this Agreement where such terms are applicable to them and they have been referenced in such terms, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. Except as provided in this clause, a person who is not a party to this Agreement has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.
- 12.13 In the event of any conflict between these Terms and Conditions and any of its schedules (other than express variations of these Terms and Conditions set out in any schedule), these Terms and Conditions shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 12.14 Where the Customer comprises one or more individuals (whether acting in a personal capacity or as a trustee(s), partners or otherwise) any notice in this Agreement (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, instructions given by Users appointed in accordance with this Agreement) may be given by the individual who is the Customer or, where the Customer comprises more than one individual, by any of such individuals.
- 12.15 Where the Customer is a partnership, this Agreement will continue in force unless revoked by notice given by any one partner, notwithstanding any change of name of the partnership, admission of a new partner(s) or any partner ceasing to be a member of the partnership by reason of death or otherwise.

13. AUTHORISATION BY CUSTOMER

- 13.1 You authorise and instruct us to supply the Services in respect of the accounts as set out in the Accounts and Services Schedule, and in respect of and for the purposes of the Trade Services Service, any import and/or export account(s) opened by you and/or any Customer Associate with us and/or any member of the HSBC Group for the purposes of any facilities granted to you and/or any Customer Associates by us and/or any member of the HSBC Group.
- 13.2 You may subsequently request and authorise us to provide or withdraw Services in respect of accounts opened at any time with us or an Institution in writing signed by a duly authorised person or person(s). The terms of this Agreement shall apply to all Services provided in relation to any accounts.
- 13.3 Certain Services may only be accessed by specified Users. The person(s) nominated in the section of this Agreement entitled 'Initial System Administrators' is appointed as the Initial System Administrator(s) and may appoint Users and further System Administrators from time to time.
- 13.4 If you access or use the System or the Services actually or purportedly on behalf of a Customer Associate, or otherwise act in any way on behalf of such Customer Associate, you shall ensure that you have appropriate authorisation from the Customer Associate to act on its behalf and you agree on behalf of the Customer Associate that the terms of this Agreement shall apply between us and the Customer Associate (as if it were the Customer) in relation to such access, use or other action.

14. LAW AND PROCEEDINGS

- 14.1 This Agreement is governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction named within the section of this Agreement entitled 'Principal Bank and Governing Law'. Both parties irrevocably submit to the non exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that named jurisdiction in respect of any proceedings which may be initiated in connection with this Agreement.
- 14.2 You agree that any of the Services provided by us to you shall be deemed to be provided in the jurisdiction named pursuant to Clause 14.1, irrespective of where a User accesses the System or uses the Services (if such access or use is in a different jurisdiction).

2. THE FACILITY

2.1 The Facility

- (a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Bank makes available a multicurrency credit facility in an aggregate amount the Base Currency Amount of which is equal to the Total Commitments.
- (b) The Facility will be available to all the Borrowers.

2.2 Finance Parties' rights and obligations

- (a) The obligations of each Finance Party under the Finance Documents are several. Failure by a Finance Party to perform its obligations under the Finance Documents does not affect the obligations of any other Party under the Finance Documents. No Finance Party is responsible for the obligations of any other Finance Party under the Finance Documents.
- (b) The rights of each Finance Party under or in connection with the Finance Documents are separate and independent rights and any debt arising under the Finance Documents to a Finance Party from an Obligor is a separate and independent debt in respect of which a Finance Party shall be entitled to enforce its rights in accordance with paragraph (c) below. The rights of each Finance Party include any debt owing to that Finance Party under the Finance Documents and, for the avoidance of doubt, any part of an Undertaking or any other amount owed by an Obligor which relates to a Finance Party's participation in the Facility or its role under a Finance Document (including any such amount payable to the Bank on its behalf) is a debt owing to that Finance Party by that Obligor.
- (c) A Finance Party may, except as specifically provided in the Finance Documents, separately enforce its rights under or in connection with the Finance Documents.

2.3 Obligors' Agent

- (a) Each Obligor (other than the Company) by its execution of this Agreement or an Accession Deed irrevocably appoints the Company (acting through one or more authorised signatories) to act on its behalf as its agent in relation to the Finance Documents and irrevocably authorises:
 - (i) the Company on its behalf to supply all information concerning itself contemplated by this Agreement to the Finance Parties and to give all notices and instructions (including, in the case of a Borrower, Utilisation Requests), to make such agreements and to effect the relevant amendments, supplements and variations capable of being given, made or effected by any

Obligor notwithstanding that they may affect the Obligor, without further reference to or the consent of that Obligor; and

- (ii) each Finance Party to give any notice, demand or other communication to that Obligor pursuant to the Finance Documents to the Company, and in each case the Obligor shall be bound as though the Obligor itself had given the notices and instructions (including, without limitation, any Utilisation Requests) or executed or made the agreements or effected the amendments, supplements or variations, or received the relevant notice, demand or other communication.

- (b) Every act, omission, agreement, undertaking, settlement, waiver, amendment, supplement, variation, notice or other communication given or made by the Obligors' Agent or given to the Obligors' Agent under any Finance Document on behalf of another Obligor or in connection with any Finance Document (whether or not known to any other Obligor and whether occurring before or after such other Obligor became an Obligor under any Finance Document) shall be binding for all purposes on that Obligor as if that Obligor had expressly made, given or concurred with it. In the event of any conflict between any notices or other communications of the Obligors' Agent and any other Obligor, those of the Obligors' Agent shall prevail.

3. PURPOSE

3.1 Purpose

Each Borrower shall only utilise the Facility to issue Undertakings in the ordinary course of trading of the Group (or to issue Undertakings not in the ordinary course of trading of the Group if the relevant Borrower provides cash cover in respect of the full notional amount of that Undertaking on or prior to it being issued).

3.2 Monitoring

No Finance Party is bound to monitor or verify the application of any Undertaking utilised pursuant to this Agreement.

4. UTILISATION

4.1 The Facility

- (a) The Facility may only be utilised by way of Undertakings. The Facility shall not be available for being drawn or utilised in cash.
- (b) In determining the amount of the Available Facility for the purposes of this Agreement, the Available Commitment of the Bank will be calculated ignoring any cash cover provided for outstanding Undertakings.

4.2 Delivery of a Utilisation Request for Undertakings

A Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may request an Undertaking to be issued by delivery to the Bank of a duly completed Utilisation Request at any time.

4.3 Completion of a Utilisation Request for Undertakings

Each Utilisation Request for an Undertaking is irrevocable and will not be regarded as having been duly completed unless:

- (a) it identifies the Borrower of the Undertaking;
- (b) the proposed Utilisation Date is a Business Day within the Availability Period and is not less than three Business Days after the date of the Utilisation Request;
- (c) the currency and amount of the Undertaking comply with Clause 4.4 (Currency and amount) and the limits set out in Clause 5 (Bank specific conditions);
- (d) the form of Undertaking is attached and is in a form agreed between the Bank and the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) (each acting reasonably) and includes the applicable goods description and delivery instruction where applicable;
- (e) subject to Clause 5.7 (Expiry Date of Undertakings), the Expiry Date of the Undertaking falls on or before the Termination Date;
- (f) the delivery instructions for the Undertaking are specified; and
- (g) the additional conditions specified in Clause 5.6 (Additional conditions to issuance of an Undertaking) have been satisfied or waived.

4.4 Currency and amount

- (a) The currency specified in a Utilisation Request must be an Approved Currency.
- (b) The amount of the proposed Undertaking must be an amount whose Base Currency Amount is not more than the Available Facility.

4.5 Issue of Undertakings

- (a) If the conditions set out in this Agreement have been met, the Bank shall issue the Undertaking on the Utilisation Date.
- (b) The Bank will only be obliged to comply with paragraph (a) above if on the date of the Utilisation Request or Renewal Request and on the proposed Utilisation Date:
 - (i) no Default is continuing or would result from the proposed Utilisation;
 - (ii) except to the extent the Borrower has provided cash cover in respect of all outstanding Undertakings (including the Undertaking under the relevant Utilisation Request) in accordance with Clause 5.9 (Excess Leverage Event), no Excess Leverage Event is continuing (as defined in Clause 5.9 (Excess Leverage Event));
 - (iii) no creditor (or group of creditors) of any Obligor is entitled to declare any Indebtedness of that Obligor (other than any Indebtedness specified in Clause 22.4(c) (Cross-payment default/acceleration)) due and payable prior to its specified maturity as a result of an event of default (however described) which has not been remedied or waived in accordance with the terms of that Indebtedness; and
 - (iv) the Repeating Representations to be made by each Obligor are true in all material respects.
- (c) The Bank shall determine the Base Currency Amount of each Undertaking which is to be issued in an Approved Currency.
- (d) The Bank may issue an Undertaking in the form of a SWIFT message or other form of communication customary in the relevant market but has no obligation to do so.

4.6 Renewal of an Undertaking

- (a) A Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may request that any Undertaking issued on behalf of that Borrower be renewed by delivery to the Bank of a Renewal Request in substantially similar form to a Utilisation Request for an Undertaking.
- (b) The Bank shall treat any Renewal Request in the same way as a Utilisation Request for an Undertaking except that the condition set out in paragraph (d) of Clause 4.3 (Completion of a Utilisation Request for Undertakings) shall not apply.
- (c) The terms of each renewed Undertaking shall be the same as those of the relevant Undertaking immediately prior to its renewal, except that:
 - (i) its amount may be less than the amount of the Undertaking immediately prior to its renewal; and
 - (ii) its Term shall start on the date which was the Expiry Date of the Undertaking immediately prior to its renewal, and shall end on the proposed Expiry Date specified in the Renewal Request.
- (d) Subject to paragraph (e) below, if the conditions set out in this Agreement have been met, the Bank shall amend and re-issue any Undertaking pursuant to a Renewal Request.
- (e) Where a new Undertaking is to be issued to replace by way of renewal an existing Undertaking, the Bank is not required to issue that new Undertaking until the Undertaking being replaced has been either (i) cancelled or (ii) returned (or to be returned) to the Bank and the Bank is satisfied that no liability can arise under it.

4.7 Revaluation of Undertakings

- (a) If any Undertakings are denominated in an Approved Currency (other than the Base Currency), the Bank shall on each Billing Cycle Date, recalculate the Base Currency Amount of each Undertaking by notionally converting into the Base Currency the outstanding amount of that Undertaking on the basis of the Bank's Spot Rate of Exchange on the date of calculation. The Bank shall notify the Company of the new Base Currency Amount of each Undertaking within 10 Business Day of request by the Company.
- (b) The Company shall, if requested by the Bank, ensure that within 30 days sufficient Utilisations are repaid to prevent the Base Currency Amount of the Utilisations exceeding the Total Commitments following any adjustment to a Base Currency Amount under paragraph (a) above.

4.8 Affiliates of the Bank

- (a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Bank may require that one of its Affiliates issues an Undertaking.
- (b) If the Bank requires that its Affiliate issues an Undertaking, the Bank shall ensure that its Affiliate shall, within two Business Days after the date of the relevant Utilisation Request, accede to the Intercreditor Agreement as a Super Senior Facility Lender in accordance with clause 26.16 (Creditor/Creditor Representative Accession Undertaking) of the Intercreditor Agreement.
- (c) If the Bank assigns all of its rights and benefits or transfers all of its rights and obligations to a New Lender, its Affiliate shall cease to have any obligations under this Agreement and the Intercreditor Agreement.

- (d) The Bank and its Affiliate shall be treated as a single entity for the purpose of the Finance Documents and the Bank shall ensure that any of its Affiliates that issues an Undertaking pursuant to this Clause performs its obligations under any Finance Document to which it is not a party.

5. BANK SPECIFIC CONDITIONS

5.1 Bank Specific Defined Terms

Approved Cash Cover Currency means Canadian Dollars, euro, USD, Sterling, Omani Rial, Kuwaiti Dinar, Saudi Riyal, Norwegian Krone, Polish Zloty, United Arab Emirates Dirham, Singapore Dollars and/or any other currency approved by the Bank.

Customs Bond means any Undertaking issued to guarantee the payment of import duties and taxes to custom authorities or equivalent.

Customs Bond Limit means US$15,000,000.

DB Undertaking means the Existing Undertaking with reference number GTYA080022273.

Direct Credit Substitute means any Undertaking which serves as a financial guarantee where the Bank has an irrevocable obligation to pay a third party beneficiary if a member of the Restricted Group fails to repay an outstanding commitment (but excluding any Undertaking issued in favour of a financial institution that explicitly backs any instrument referred to in the definition of "Undertaking" issued by that financial institution or any Custom Bond).

Direct Credit Substitutes Limit means:

- (a) from the date of this Agreement until the date on which the DB Undertaking is cancelled and returned to the Bank, US$19,000,000; and
- (b) from the date on which the DB Undertaking is cancelled and returned to the Bank, US$12,000,000.

Government Bond means an Undertaking issued in favour of any Governmental Authority.

Governmental Authority includes any nation or government, any state or other political subdivision thereof and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of, or pertaining to, government, but for the avoidance of doubt shall not include any nationalised or state-owned company.

Tax Bond means any Undertaking issued in favour of any tax authority or equivalent (other than a Customs Bond).

5.2 Available Commitment

- (a) Until the date on which the DB Undertaking is cancelled and returned to the Bank, for the purposes of the definition of Available Commitment, the Bank's Commitment shall be deemed to be US$50,000,000.
- (b) The Company shall, (or shall procure that another member of the Restricted Group will), use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that the DB Undertaking is cancelled and returned by no later than the date falling 6 months after the date of this Agreement.

- (c) In the event that the DB Undertaking has not been cancelled and returned to the Bank on or before the date falling 6 months after the date of this Agreement, the Total Commitments shall be automatically permanently reduced to US$50,000,000.
- (d) No Default or Event of Default shall occur as a result of any failure to cancel or return the DB Undertaking.

5.3 Alternative forms of Utilisation Request

As an alternative to requesting an Undertaking by delivering a Utilisation Request in the form set out in Schedule 3 (Utilisation Request), a Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may request the issue of an Undertaking using the Bank's "LOTS" system (or any replacement system in use from time to time) or pursuant to any other procedure as the Company and the Bank may agree from time to time, provided that the Company and the Bank agree that the Bank's "LOTS" system shall be the primary procedure for requesting Undertakings.

5.4 Existing Undertakings

- (a) The Bank confirms that from the date of this Agreement each Existing Undertaking is deemed to be an Undertaking under this Agreement.
- (b) The Bank also confirms that any cash cover in place prior to the date of this Agreement with respect to any Existing Undertakings is released with effect from the date of this Agreement. The Bank shall pay the cash held pursuant to such cash cover to the Company (or to such other member of the Restricted Group designated by the Company) within five Business Days after the date of this Agreement.

5.5 Direct Credit Substitutes and Custom Bonds

- (a) A Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may not submit a Utilisation Request for any Undertaking that is:
 - (i) a Direct Credit Substitute if as a result of that Undertaking, the aggregate Base Currency Amount of all outstanding Undertakings that are Direct Credit Substitutes and the DB Undertaking (for as long as it remains outstanding) would exceed the Direct Credit Substitutes Limit; or
 - (ii) a Customs Bond if as a result of that Undertaking, the aggregate Base Currency Amount of all outstanding Undertakings that are Customs Bonds would exceed the Customs Bond Limit.

The Direct Credit Substitutes Limit and the Customs Bond Limit do not operate to provide for sub-tranches of the Facility that may only be used to issue Direct Credit Substitutes or Custom Bonds (as the case may be). In determining the amount of the Facility available to be utilised under the Customs Bond Limit and the Direct Credit Substitute Limit, that amount shall be calculated ignoring any cash cover provided for any outstanding Undertakings issued under the Customs Bond Limit or the Direct Credit Substitute Limit (as the case may be).

- (b) The Bank must promptly notify the Company (and in any event before the Utilisation Date of the relevant Undertaking) if any Undertaking is to be treated as a Direct Credit Substitute. The Bank shall also promptly notify the Company if any Undertaking that has been designated as Direct Credit Substitute subsequently ceases to be a Direct Credit Substitute. If any Undertaking is issued and the Bank does not designate it as a Direct Credit Substitute that Undertaking cannot subsequently be re-classified as a Direct Credit Substitute without the consent of the Company.

- (c) In each Utilisation Request (but only to the extent possible under the Bank's "LOTS" system), the Company shall specify whether it considers the proposed Undertaking is a Direct Credit Substitute or not.

5.6 Additional conditions to issuance of an Undertaking

The additional conditions to the issuance of an Undertaking referred to in Clause 4.3(g) (Completion of a Utilisation Request for Undertakings) are:

- (a) confirmation from the Bank (acting reasonably) that issuing the requested Undertaking is not contrary to the Bank's internal policies as applicable to the Bank's customers generally from time to time and, in particular, that the beneficiary is not a Sanctioned Person and issuing the requested Undertaking to the relevant beneficiary is not restricted by any applicable law binding on the Bank; and
- (b) the Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) has provided any information reasonably requested by the Bank (including, without limitation, any information required for "know your customer" checks or similar procedures required by law or regulation binding on the Bank, to the satisfaction of the Bank) in relation to the proposed beneficiary of the Undertaking.

5.7 Expiry Date of Undertakings

- (a) A Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may request that the Expiry Date of an Undertaking falls after the Termination Date if (other than to the extent the Undertaking is a Customs Bond, a Tax Bond or a Government Bond (but, in the case of a Government Bond, only if it does not have an Expiry Date)) not later than three Months prior to the Termination Date, the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) provides cash cover in relation to that Undertaking.
- (b) A Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) may request an Undertaking that has no Expiry Date only if that Undertaking is a Customs Bond, a Tax Bond or a Government Bond.

5.8 Cash cover - general

- (a) Subject to Clause 5.9(b) (Excess Leverage Event), if cash cover is required to be provided in accordance with this Agreement in relation to an Undertaking that is denominated in an Approved Cash Cover Currency and the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) elects to provide cash cover in that Approved Cash Cover Currency, the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) shall provide that cash cover in the Approved Cash Cover Currency in an amount equal to 100% of the outstanding notional amount of the relevant Undertaking.
- (b) Subject to Clause 5.9(b) (Excess Leverage Event), if cash cover is required to be provided in accordance with this Agreement and either (i) that cash cover is required to be provided for an Undertaking which is not denominated in an Approved Cash Cover Currency or (ii) the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) elects to provide cash cover in a currency which is not the same currency as that of the relevant Undertaking, the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) shall provide that cash cover in US Dollars in an amount equal to 115% of the Base Currency Amount of the relevant Undertaking (or 110% of the Base Currency Amount of the relevant Undertaking if the currency of the Undertaking is Sterling or euro).
- (c) If any cash cover is provided in accordance with paragraph (b) above, on each Billing Cycle Date, in which that cash cover is provided, the Bank shall recalculate the Base Currency Amount of the relevant Undertaking by notionally converting into the Base Currency the outstanding amount of that Undertaking on the basis of the Bank's Spot Rate of Exchange on the date of calculation, and if the amount of that cash cover is:

- (i) less than 100% of the recalculated Base Currency Amount of the relevant Undertaking, the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) shall within five Business Days provide additional cash cover in US Dollars; or
- (ii) greater than 125% of the recalculated Base Currency Amount of the relevant Undertaking, the Bank shall within five Business Days pay or return (as applicable) an amount in US Dollars to the relevant Borrower (or such other member of the Restricted Group designated by the Company), such that, after that payment, the aggregate amount of cash cover provided in relation to that Undertaking is an amount equal 115% of the recalculated Base Currency Amount of that Undertaking.

5.9 Excess Leverage Event

- (a) Subject to the terms of this Clause 5.9, if any Leverage Calculation Certificate delivered in accordance with this Agreement shows that the Senior Secured Gross Leverage Ratio for the period to which that Leverage Calculation Certificate relates (the Relevant Period) exceeded 4.5:1 (an Excess Leverage Event), the Bank may request that the Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) provides cash cover in respect of all outstanding Undertakings, such cover to be provided within ten Business Days of that request.
- (b) If cash cover is required to be provided pursuant to paragraph (a) above, the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) shall provide that cash cover in US Dollars in an amount equal to 100% of the aggregate Base Currency Amount of all outstanding Undertakings (as calculated on the date the Bank requests that cash cover).
- (c) No Default or Event of Default shall occur as a result of any Excess Leverage Event but, for the avoidance of doubt, if the relevant Borrower (or the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) has failed to provide cash cover at the end of the relevant grace period following any request by the Bank pursuant to paragraph (a) above, this shall constitute an Event of Default.
- (d) An Excess Leverage Event will be continuing for the purposes of this Agreement until:
 - (i) it is cured in accordance with paragraph (f) below, provided that the relevant Borrower may request that new Undertakings be issued whilst an Excess Leverage Event is continuing if the relevant Borrower posts cash cover in respect of all outstanding Undertakings and the requested new Undertaking(s);
 - (ii) any subsequent Leverage Calculation Certificate delivered in accordance with this Agreement shows that the Senior Secured Gross Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to 4.5:1; or
 - (iii) it has been waived by the Bank (in its sole discretion).
- (e) If any cash cover is provided pursuant to paragraph (a) above and an Excess Leverage Event is no longer continuing, the Bank shall within five Business Days repay or return (as applicable) the aggregate amount of that cash cover in US Dollars to the relevant Borrower (or such other member of the Restricted Group designated by the Company).
- (f) If, at any time on or after the first day of any Relevant Period until the date that is 20 Business Days after the date on which the Leverage Calculation Certificate is required to be delivered for such Relevant Period, the Company receives the proceeds of any issuance of Capital Stock or Subordinated Shareholder Debt (a Specified Equity Contribution), the Company may recalculate the Senior Secured Gross Leverage Ratio solely for the purposes of paragraph (a) above (and not for the purposes of the calculation of the Issuance Rate) (the Cure Right) such that Consolidated EBITDA shall be increased (notwithstanding the absence of a related add-back in the definition of "Consolidated EBITDA") as of the end of such Relevant Period and applicable subsequent periods that include all or part of that Relevant Period, by an amount equal to that Specified Equity Contribution. If, after giving effect to the recalculation, the Senior Secured Gross Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to 4.5:1, no Excess Leverage Event shall be deemed to have occurred for any purpose under this Agreement. For this purpose:

- (i) the Cure Right shall not be exercised more than twice in any Financial Year;
- (ii) during the term of this Agreement, the Cure Right shall not be exercised more than four times;
- (iii) there shall be no limit on the amount of any Specified Equity Contribution that may be utilised by way of the Cure Right; and
- (iv) if the Company notifies the Bank that it intends to exercise the Cure Right, then until the 20th Business Day following the date on which the Leverage Calculation Certificate is required to be delivered for such Relevant Period, the Bank shall not exercise any right under this Agreement to demand cash cover or to refuse to issue any Undertakings.

6. UNDERTAKINGS

6.1 Payments on demand

If an Undertaking or any amount outstanding under an Undertaking is expressed to be immediately payable (other than pursuant to Clause 22.15 (Acceleration)), the Borrower that requested (or on behalf of which the Company or Abbot Group requested) the issue of that Undertaking shall repay or prepay that amount within five Business Days of demand.

6.2 Claims under an Undertaking

- (a) Each Borrower irrevocably and unconditionally authorises the Bank to pay any claim made or purported to be made under an Undertaking requested by it (or requested by the Company or Abbot Group on its behalf) and which appears on its face to be in order (a claim).
- (b) Each Borrower shall within five Business Days of demand pay to the Bank an amount equal to the amount of any claim.
- (c) Each Borrower acknowledges that the Bank:
 - (i) is not obliged to carry out any investigation or seek any confirmation from any other person before paying a claim; and
 - (ii) deals in documents only and will not be concerned with the legality of a claim or any underlying transaction or any available set-off, counterclaim or other defence of any person.
- (d) The obligations of a Borrower under this Clause 6 will not be affected by:
 - (i) the sufficiency, accuracy or genuineness of any claim or any other document; or

- (ii) any incapacity of, or limitation on the powers of, any person signing a claim or other document.

6.3 Indemnities

- (a) Each Borrower shall immediately on demand indemnify the Bank against any cost, loss or liability incurred by the Bank (otherwise than by reason of the Bank's gross negligence or wilful misconduct) in acting as the Bank under any Undertaking requested by (or on behalf of) that Borrower.
- (b) The obligations of each Borrower under this Clause 6.3 are continuing obligations and will extend to the ultimate balance of sums payable by that Borrower in respect of any Undertaking, regardless of any intermediate payment or discharge in whole or in part.
- (c) The obligations of any Borrower under this Clause 6.3 will not be affected by any act, omission, matter or thing which, but for this Clause 6.3, would reduce, release or prejudice any of its obligations under this Clause 6.3 (without limitation and whether or not known to it or any other person) including:
 - (i) any time, waiver or consent granted to, or composition with, any Obligor, any beneficiary under an Undertaking or any other person;
 - (ii) the release of any other Obligor or any other person under the terms of any composition or arrangement with any creditor or any member of the Restricted Group;
 - (iii) the taking, variation, compromise, exchange, renewal or release of, or refusal or neglect to perfect, take up or enforce, any rights against, or security over assets of, any Obligor, any beneficiary under an Undertaking or other person or any non-presentation or non-observance of any formality or other requirement in respect of any instrument or any failure to realise the full value of any security;
 - (iv) any incapacity or lack of power, authority or legal personality of or dissolution or change in the members or status of an Obligor, any beneficiary under an Undertaking or any other person;
 - (v) any amendment (however fundamental) or replacement of a Finance Document, any Undertaking or any other document or security;
 - (vi) any unenforceability, illegality or invalidity of any obligation of any person under any Finance Document, any Undertaking or any other document or security; or
 - (vii) any insolvency or similar proceedings.

7. REPAYMENT

Each Borrower shall repay each outstanding Undertaking and the outstanding amount of any claim on the Termination Date.

8. ILLEGALITY, VOLUNTARY PREPAYMENT AND CANCELLATION

8.1 Illegality

If, in any applicable jurisdiction, it becomes unlawful for the Bank to perform any of its obligations as contemplated by this Agreement or for the Bank to issue or leave outstanding any Undertaking or it becomes unlawful for any Affiliate of the Bank for the Bank to do so then:

- (a) the Bank shall promptly notify the Company upon becoming aware of that event;
- (b) upon the Bank notifying the Company, the Bank shall not be obliged to issue any Undertaking;
- (c) the Company shall procure that each relevant Borrower shall use its best endeavours to procure the release of each Undertaking issued by the Bank and outstanding at such time on or before the date specified by the Bank in the notice delivered to the Bank (being no earlier than the last day of any applicable grace period permitted by law); and
- (d) the Facility shall cease to be available for the issue of Undertakings.

- (f) If an Obligor is required to make a Tax Deduction, that Obligor shall make that Tax Deduction and any payment required in connection with that Tax Deduction within the time allowed and in the minimum amount required by law.
- (g) Within 30 days of making either a Tax Deduction or any payment required in connection with that Tax Deduction, the Obligor making that Tax Deduction shall deliver to the Bank for the Finance Party entitled to the payment evidence reasonably satisfactory to that Finance Party that the Tax Deduction has been made or (as applicable) any appropriate payment paid to the relevant taxing authority.
- (h) Subject to paragraph (i) below, a Treaty Bank and each Obligor which makes a payment to which that Treaty Bank is entitled shall co-operate in completing any procedural formalities necessary for that Obligor to obtain authorisation to make that payment without a Tax Deduction.

- (b) Paragraph (a) above shall not apply:

 - (A) is compensated for by an increased payment under Clause 13.2 (Tax gross-up);
 - (B) would have been compensated for by an increased payment under Clause 13.2 (Tax gross-up) but was not so compensated solely because one of the exclusions in paragraph (d) of Clause 13.2 (Tax gross-up) applied;

- (b) that Finance Party has obtained and it (or any of its affiliated entities) has utilised that Tax Credit, the Finance Party shall pay an amount to the Obligor which that Finance Party determines acting reasonably and in good faith will leave it (after that payment) in the same after-Tax position as it would have been in had the Tax Payment not been required to be made by the Obligor.

13.5 Bank status confirmation

- (a) If the Bank is not the Original Bank it shall indicate, in the documentation which it executes on becoming a Party as the Bank, and without liability to any Obligor, which of the following categories it falls in:

 - (ii) a Qualifying Bank (other than a Treaty Bank); or
 - (iii) a Treaty Bank.
- (b) If the Bank fails to indicate its status in accordance with this Clause 13.5 then the Bank shall be treated for the purposes of this Agreement (including by each Obligor) as if it is not a Qualifying Bank until such time as it notifies the Bank which category applies (and the Bank, upon receipt of such notification, shall inform the Company). The Company shall pay and, within five Business Days of demand, indemnify each Secured Party against any cost, loss or liability that Secured Party incurs in relation to all stamp duty, registration and other similar Taxes payable in respect of any Finance Document provided that this Clause 13.6 shall not apply to any stamp duty, registration or other similar Taxes payable in respect of any assignment, assignation, sub-participation or transfer by a Secured Party of any of its rights and/or obligations under a Finance Document.

- (i) (where the Supplier is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT) the Relevant Party must also pay to the Supplier (at the same time as paying that amount) an additional amount equal to the amount of the VAT. The Recipient must (where this paragraph (i) applies) promptly pay to the Relevant Party an amount equal to any credit or repayment the Recipient receives from the relevant tax authority which the Recipient reasonably determines relates to the VAT chargeable on that supply; and
 - (ii) (where the Recipient is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT) the Relevant Party must promptly, following demand from the Recipient, pay to the Recipient an amount equal to the VAT chargeable on that supply but only to the extent that the Recipient reasonably determines that it is not entitled to credit or repayment from the relevant tax authority in respect of that VAT.
- (c) Where a Finance Document requires any Party to reimburse or indemnify a Finance Party for any cost or expense, that Party shall reimburse or indemnify (as the case may be) such Finance Party for the full amount of such cost or expense, including such part thereof as represents VAT, save to the extent that such Finance Party reasonably determines that it is entitled to credit or repayment in respect of such VAT from the relevant tax authority.
- (d) Any reference in this Clause 13.7 to any Party shall, at any time when such Party is treated as a member of a group for VAT purposes, include (where appropriate and unless the context otherwise requires) a reference to the representative member of such group at such time (the term representative member to have the same meaning as in the Value Added Tax Act 1994) or a reference to the person who is treated at that time as making the supply, or (as appropriate) receiving the supply, under the grouping rules (provided for in article 11 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC as amended (or as implemented by any relevant member state of the European Union) so that a reference to a Party shall be construed as a reference to that Party or the relevant group or unity (or fiscal unity) of which that Party is a member for VAT purposes at the relevant time or the relevant representative member (or representative or head) of that group or unity at the relevant time (as the case may be).
- (e) In relation to any supply made by a Finance Party to any Party under a Finance Document, if reasonably requested by such Finance Party, that Party must promptly provide such Finance Party with details of that Party's VAT registration and such other information as is reasonably requested in connection with such Finance Party's VAT reporting requirements in relation to such supply.

 - (iii) any duty of confidentiality.
- (d) If a Party fails to confirm whether or not it is a FATCA Exempt Party or to supply forms, documentation or other information requested in accordance with paragraph (a)(i) or (a)(ii) above (including, for the avoidance of doubt, where paragraph (c) above applies), then such Party shall be treated for the purposes of the Finance Documents (and payments under them) as if it is not a FATCA Exempt Party until such time as the Party in question provides the requested confirmation, forms, documentation or other information.
- (e) If a Borrower is a US Tax Obligor or the Bank reasonably believes that its obligations under FATCA or any other applicable law or regulation require it, the Bank shall, within ten Business Days of:

- (i) making or filing a claim or proof against that Obligor; or
- (ii) obtaining or enforcing an order, judgment or award in relation to any litigation or arbitration proceedings, that Obligor shall as an independent obligation, within five Business Days of demand, indemnify each Secured Party to whom that Sum is due against any cost, loss or liability arising out of or as a result of the conversion including any discrepancy between (A) the rate of exchange used to convert that Sum from the First Currency into the Second Currency and (B) the rate or rates of exchange available to that person at the time of its receipt of that Sum.

- (b) Each Obligor waives any right it may have in any jurisdiction to pay any amount under the Finance Documents in a currency or currency unit other than that in which it is expressed to be payable.

15.2 Other indemnities

The Company shall (or shall procure that an Obligor will), within five Business Days of demand, indemnify the Bank against any cost, loss or liability incurred by it as a result of:

- (a) the occurrence of any Event of Default;
- (b) a failure by an Obligor to pay any amount due under a Finance Document on its due date;
- (c) funding, or making arrangements to fund, its participation in a Utilisation requested by a Borrower in a Utilisation Request but not made by reason of the operation of any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement (other than by reason of default or negligence by the Bank alone);
- (d) issuing or making arrangements to issue an Undertaking requested by the Company or a Borrower in a Utilisation Request but not issued by reason of the operation of any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement (other than by reason of default or negligence by the Bank alone); or
- (e) a Utilisation (or part of a Utilisation) not being prepaid in accordance with a notice of prepayment given by a Borrower or the Company.

16. MITIGATION BY THE BANK

16.1 Mitigation

- (a) Each Finance Party shall, in consultation with the Company, take all reasonable steps to mitigate any circumstances which arise and which would result in the Facility ceasing to be available or any amount becoming payable under or pursuant to, or cancelled pursuant to, any of Clause 8.1 (Illegality), Clause 13 (Tax gross up and indemnities) or Clause 14 (Increased Costs) including (but not limited to) transferring its rights and obligations under the Finance Documents to another Affiliate or Facility Office.
- (b) Paragraph (a) above does not in any way limit the obligations of any Obligor under the Finance Documents.

16.2 Limitation of liability

- (a) The Company shall promptly indemnify each Finance Party for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by that Finance Party as a result of steps taken by it under Clause 16.1 (Mitigation).
- (b) A Finance Party is not obliged to take any steps under Clause 16.1 (Mitigation) if, in the opinion of that Finance Party (acting reasonably), to do so might be prejudicial to it.

17. COSTS AND EXPENSES

17.1 Transaction expenses

The Company shall, within five Business Days of demand, pay the Bank the amount of all costs and expenses (including legal fees) reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with the negotiation, preparation, printing, execution and perfection of:

- (a) this Agreement and any other documents referred to in this Agreement and the Transaction Security; and
- (b) any other Finance Documents executed after the date of this Agreement.

17.2 Amendment costs

If:

- (a) an Obligor requests an amendment, waiver or consent; or
- (b) an amendment is required pursuant to Clause 26.7 (Change of currency), the Company shall, within five Business Days of demand, reimburse each of the Bank and the Security Agent for the amount of all costs and expenses (including legal fees) reasonably incurred by the Bank and the Security Agent (and, in the case of the Security Agent, by any Receiver or Delegate) in responding to, evaluating, negotiating or complying with that request or requirement.

17.3 Enforcement and preservation costs

The Company shall, within five Business Days of demand, pay to each Secured Party (other than the Security Agent) the amount of all costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred by it in connection with the enforcement of or the preservation of any rights under any Finance Document and the Transaction Security and any proceedings instituted by or against the Security Agent as a consequence of taking or holding the Transaction Security or enforcing these rights.

18. GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

18.1 Guarantee and indemnity

Each Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally jointly and severally:

- (a) guarantees to each Finance Party punctual performance by each other Obligor of all that Obligor's obligations under the Finance Documents;
- (b) undertakes with each Finance Party that whenever another Obligor does not pay any amount when due under or in connection with any Finance Document, that Guarantor shall immediately on demand pay that amount as if it was the principal obligor; and

- (c) agrees with each Finance Party that if any obligation guaranteed by it is or becomes unenforceable, invalid or illegal, it will, as an independent and primary obligation, indemnify that Finance Party immediately on demand against any cost, loss or liability it incurs as a result of an Obligor not paying any amount which would, but for such unenforceability, invalidity or illegality, have been payable by it under any Finance Document on the date when it would have been due. The amount payable by a Guarantor under this indemnity will not exceed the amount it would have had to pay under this Clause 18 if the amount claimed had been recoverable on the basis of a guarantee.

18.2 Continuing guarantee

This guarantee is a continuing guarantee and will extend to the ultimate balance of sums payable by any Obligor under the Finance Documents, regardless of any intermediate payment or discharge in whole or in part.

18.3 Reinstatement

If any discharge, release or arrangement (whether in respect of the obligations of any Obligor or any security for those obligations or otherwise) is made by a Finance Party in whole or in part on the basis of any payment, security or other disposition which is avoided or must be restored in insolvency, liquidation, administration or otherwise, without limitation, then the liability of each Guarantor under this Clause 18 will continue or be reinstated as if the discharge, release or arrangement had not occurred.

18.4 Waiver of defences

The obligations of each Guarantor under this Clause 18 will not be affected by an act, omission, matter or thing which, but for this Clause 18, would reduce, release or prejudice any of its obligations under this Clause 18 (without limitation and whether or not known to it or any Finance Party) including:

- (a) any time, waiver or consent granted to, or composition with, any Obligor or other person;
- (b) the release of any other Obligor or any other person under the terms of any composition or arrangement with any creditor of any member of the Group;
- (c) the taking, variation, compromise, exchange, renewal or release of, or refusal or neglect to perfect, take up or enforce, any rights against, or security over assets of, any Obligor or other person or any non-presentation or non-observance of any formality or other requirement in respect of any instrument or any failure to realise the full value of any security;
- (d) any incapacity or lack of power, authority or legal personality of or dissolution or change in the members or status of an Obligor or any other person;
- (e) any amendment, novation, supplement, extension restatement (however fundamental and whether or not more onerous) or replacement of a Finance Document or any other document or security including, without limitation, any change in the purpose of, any extension of or increase in any facility or the addition of any new facility under any Finance Document or other document or security;
- (f) any unenforceability, illegality or invalidity of any obligation of any person under any Finance Document or any other document or security; or
- (g) any insolvency or similar proceedings.

18.5 Guarantor intent

Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 18.4 (Waiver of defences), each Guarantor expressly confirms that it intends that this guarantee shall extend from time to time to any (however fundamental) variation, increase, extension or addition of or to any of the Finance Documents and/or any facility or amount made available under any of the Finance Documents for the purposes of or in connection with any of the following: business acquisitions of any nature; increasing working capital; enabling investor distributions to be made; carrying out restructurings; refinancing existing facilities; refinancing any other indebtedness; making facilities available to new borrowers; any other variation or extension of the purposes for which any such facility or amount might be made available from time to time; and any fees, costs and/or expenses associated with any of the foregoing.

18.6 Immediate recourse

Each Guarantor waives any right it may have of first requiring any Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) to proceed against or enforce any other rights or security or claim payment from any person before claiming from that Guarantor under this Clause 18. This waiver applies irrespective of any law or any provision of a Finance Document to the contrary.

18.7 Appropriations

Until all amounts which may be or become payable by the Obligor under or in connection with the Finance Documents have been irrevocably paid in full, each Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) may:

- (a) refrain from applying or enforcing any other moneys, security or rights held or received by that Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) in respect of those amounts, or apply and enforce the same in such manner and order as it sees fit (whether against those amounts or otherwise) and no Guarantor shall be entitled to the benefit of the same; and
- (b) hold in an interest-bearing suspense account any moneys received from any Guarantor or on account of any Guarantor's liability under this Clause 18.

18.8 Deferral of Guarantors' rights

Until all amounts which may be or become payable by the Obligor under or in connection with the Finance Documents have been irrevocably paid in full and unless the Bank otherwise directs, no Guarantor will exercise any rights which it may have by reason of performance by it of its obligations under the Finance Documents or by reason of any amount being payable, or liability arising, under this Clause 18:

- (a) to be indemnified by an Obligor;
- (b) to claim any contribution from any other guarantor of any Obligor's obligations under the Finance Documents;
- (c) to take the benefit (in whole or in part and whether by way of subrogation or otherwise) of any rights of the Finance Parties under the Finance Documents or of any other guarantee or security taken pursuant to, or in connection with, the Finance Documents by any Finance Party;
- (d) to bring legal or other proceedings for an order requiring any Obligor to make any payment, or perform any obligation, in respect of which any Guarantor has given a guarantee, undertaking or indemnity under Clause 18.1 (Guarantee and indemnity);

- (e) to exercise any right of set-off against any Obligor; and/or
- (f) to claim or prove as a creditor of any Obligor in competition with any Finance Party.

If a Guarantor receives any benefit, payment or distribution in relation to such rights it shall hold that benefit, payment or distribution to the extent necessary to enable all amounts which may be or become payable to the Finance Parties by the Obligors under or in connection with the Finance Documents to be repaid in full on trust for (or otherwise for the benefit of) the Finance Parties and shall promptly pay or transfer the same to the Bank or as the Bank may direct for application in accordance with Clause 26 (Payment mechanics).

18.9 Release of Guarantors' right of contribution

If any Guarantor (a Retiring Guarantor) ceases to be a Guarantor in accordance with the terms of the Finance Documents for the purpose of any sale or other disposal of that Retiring Guarantor then on the date such Retiring Guarantor ceases to be a Guarantor:

- (a) that Retiring Guarantor is released by each other Guarantor from any liability (whether past, present or future and whether actual or contingent) to make a contribution to any other Guarantor arising by reason of the performance by any other Guarantor of its obligations under the Finance Documents; and
- (b) each other Guarantor waives any rights it may have by reason of the performance of its obligations under the Finance Documents to take the benefit (in whole or in part and whether by way of subrogation or otherwise) of any rights of the Finance Parties under any Finance Document or of any other security taken pursuant to, or in connection with, any Finance Document where such rights or security are granted by or in relation to the assets of the Retiring Guarantor.

18.10 Additional security

This guarantee is in addition to and is not in any way prejudiced by any other guarantee or security now or subsequently held by any Finance Party.

18.11 General limitations

Without limiting any specific exemptions set out below, this guarantee and any other guarantee, indemnity or assurance against loss in any Finance Document (including any Transaction Security) does not apply to any liability to the extent it would constitute unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of sections 678 or 679 of the Companies Act 2006 or any equivalent and applicable provisions under the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the relevant Guarantor.

18.12 Germany

- (a) In this Clause 18.12:

German Guarantor means:

- (a) any Guarantor incorporated in Germany as a limited liability company (Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung) (a German GmbH Guarantor); or
- (b) a limited partnership (Kommanditgesellschaft) in relation to which any general partner (persönlich haftender Gesellschafter) is a limited liability company (any such general partner is hereinafter referred to as a German GP Company) (such limited partnership is hereinafter referred to as a German KG Guarantor).

Guarantee means any guarantee and/or indemnity obligation of any German Guarantor created under this Agreement or any other Finance Document.

Net Assets means the amount of the German GmbH Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's relevant assets (the calculation of which shall include all items set forth in Section 266(2) A, B, C, D and E of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch, HGB)) less:

- (a) the German GmbH Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's liabilities, the calculation of which shall include all items set forth in Section 266(3) B, C, D and E of the HGB including any costs for any Auditor's Determination but such liabilities shall exclude:
 - (i) the liabilities under or relating to the Guarantee; and
 - (ii) any obligations (Verbindlichkeiten) of the German GmbH Guarantor (and, in case of a GmbH & Co. KG, of its German GP Company):
 - (A) owing to any member of the group or any other affiliated company which are subordinated by law or by contract to any Indebtedness outstanding under this Agreement (including for the avoidance of doubt, obligations that would in an insolvency be subordinated pursuant to Section 39 para 1 no 5 or Section 39 para 2 of the German Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung)) and including obligations under guarantees for obligations which are so subordinated, unless a waiver of the loan provided to the relevant German GmbH Guarantor or, in the case of a GmbH & Co. KG, of its German GP Company, would result in that member of the group breaching its obligations under section 30 of the German Limited Liability Companies Act (GmbH-Gesetz, GmbHG) or any similar provision of any other jurisdiction applicable to it; and
 - (B) incurred by the German GmbH Guarantor (and, in the case of a GmbH & Co. KG, of its German GP Company) in willful violation of any of the provisions of the Finance Documents; and
- (b) any amounts which are subject to legal dividend payment constraints (Ausschüttungssperre) pursuant to Section 253(6), Section 268(8) or Section 272(5) HGB, in each case calculated in accordance with HGB (taking into account applicable case law on the calculation of net assets pursuant to Section 30 GmbHG) and accounting principles consistent with those applied in the preparation of the latest annual unconsolidated financial statements for that German GmbH Guarantor (or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company).

For the purpose of such calculation, the following balance sheet items shall be adjusted as follows:

- (i) if the registered share capital of the German Guarantor, or where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, of its German GP Company, is increased out of retained earnings (Kapitalerhöhung aus Gesellschaftsmitteln) after the date of this Agreement, such increase shall not be taken into account unless (i) such increase has been effected with the prior written consent of the Bank or is otherwise permitted under this Agreement or any other Finance Document and (ii) only to the extent it is fully paid up (voll eingezahlt);
- (ii) the amount of any increase after the date of this Agreement of the German Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's registered share capital which has been effected out of retained earnings (Kapitalerhöhung aus Gesellschaftsmitteln) without the prior written consent of the Bank shall be deducted from the registered share capital;

- (iii) any accrual (Rückstellung) in respect of a potential enforcement of the Guarantee or any Security shall be disregarded; and
 - (iv) liabilities in relation to loans granted to, and other contractual liabilities incurred by, the German Guarantor or as the case may be by its German GP Company, in willful (vorsätzlich) or grossly negligent (grob fahrlässig) violation of any Finance Document shall be disregarded.
- (b) In the case of a German Guarantor the enforcement of the Guarantee against such German Guarantor shall be limited if and to the extent that:
- (i) such Guarantee secures the obligations or liabilities of:
 - (A) the German Guarantor's, or in case of a German KG Guarantor, any of its relevant German GP Company's, direct or indirect shareholder (upstream), or
 - (B) a direct or indirect subsidiary of a shareholder pursuant to paragraph (i) (but excluding any direct or indirect subsidiary of the German Guarantor (and, in the case of a German KG Guarantor, any direct or indirect subsidiary of its German GP Company)) (cross-stream); and
 - (ii) the enforcement of the Guarantee (x) would cause the Net Assets to be less than the respective share capital (Stammkapital) (Begründung einer Unterbilanz) or (y) (if the German GmbH Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets are already less than its respective registered share capital) would cause such deficit to be further increased (Vertiefung einer Unterbilanz).
- (c) In addition, the German Guarantor and, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, also its relevant German GP Company shall, if so requested by the Bank, realise, to the extent legally permitted, in a situation where after enforcement of the Guarantee the German Guarantor, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its relevant German GP Company would not have Net Assets in excess of its respective registered share capital, any and all of its assets that are shown in the balance sheet with a book value (Buchwert) that is significantly lower than the market value of the asset if such asset is not necessary for the German Guarantor's or as the case may be its relevant German GP Company's operational business (operativ nicht betriebsnotwendig).
- (d) The enforcement of the Guarantee shall initially be excluded if no later than fifteen (15) Business Days following a demand by the Bank to make a payment under the Guarantee, the managing directors on behalf of the German Guarantor or, as the case may be, its German GP Company, have confirmed in writing to the Bank:
- (i) to what extent the Guarantee granted hereunder has an upstream or cross-stream effect as described above; and
 - (ii) to which extent the Guarantee securing cross-stream and/or upstream obligations or liabilities as described above cannot be enforced as it would cause the Net Assets of the German Guarantor, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company to be less than its respective registered share capital (taking into account the above set out adjustments and realization duties),

(the Management Determination) and such confirmation is supported by a reasonably satisfactory calculation provided that the Bank shall in any event be entitled to enforce the Guarantee for any amounts where such enforcement would, in accordance with the Management Determination, not cause the German Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets to be less than (or to fall further below) the amount of its respective registered share capital (in each case as calculated and adjusted as set out above).

- (e) Following the Bank's receipt of Management Determination, any further enforcement of the Guarantee (i.e. any enforcement to which the Bank is not already entitled to) shall be excluded for a period of no more than thirty (30) Business Days only. If the Bank receives within such thirty (30) Business Days period: (i) an up-to date balance sheet together with (ii) a determination in each case prepared by auditors of international standard and reputation appointed by the relevant German Guarantor either confirming the Management Determination or setting out deviations from the Management Determination (the Auditor's Determination), the further enforcement of the Guarantee shall be limited, if and to the extent such enforcement would, in accordance with the Auditor's Determination cause the German Guarantor's, or, where the German Guarantor is a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company's Net Assets to be less than (or to fall further below) the amount of its respective registered share capital in each case as calculated and adjusted as set out above. If the German Guarantor fails to deliver an Auditor's Determination within thirty (30) Business Days after receipt of the Management Determination, the Bank shall be entitled to enforce the Guarantee without any limitation or restriction.
- (f) If and to the extent (A) the net assets as determined by the Auditors' Determination are lower than the amount enforced in accordance with the Management Determination or (B) the Guarantee has been enforced without regard to the limitations set out above because (x) the Management Determination was not delivered within the relevant time frame or (y) the Auditors' Determination was not delivered within the relevant time frame but has been delivered within ten (10) Business Days following the due date for the delivery of the Auditors' Determination, the Bank shall without undue delay repay to the relevant German Guarantor upon written demand of the relevant German Guarantor any amount (if and to the extent already paid to the Finance Party (or any of them)) in the case of (A) equal to the difference between the amount paid and the amount payable resulting from the Auditor's Determination, and in the case of (B), which the Bank would not have been entitled to enforce had the Management Determination and the Auditors' Determination been delivered in time provided such demand for repayment is made to the Bank within six months from the date the Guarantee is enforced. The Bank may withhold any amount received pursuant to an enforcement of the Guarantee until final determination of the amount of the net assets pursuant to the Auditor's Determination.
- (g) The limitations set out in this Clause 18.12 shall not apply (or, as the case may be, shall cease to apply):
 - (i) if and to the extent any amounts borrowed under this Agreement are lent or on-lent to such German Guarantor and/or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its relevant German GP Company or any of its respective subsidiaries from time to time if, in addition by virtue of the enforcement of the Guarantee the German Guarantor, or as the case may be, its relevant German GP Company, has a recourse, indemnification, sharing of losses or other compensation claim against such lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the German Stock Act (Aktiengesetz, AktG) or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor which could be set-off against such loan receivable or otherwise be used to settle or discharge such loan obligation and provided that the Bank has waived with binding effect on any Finance Party the restrictions of any provision under any Finance Document restricting the right to set off claims against, or otherwise make use of the recourse, indemnification, sharing of losses or other compensation claim against such lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the AktG or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor in order to settle or discharge such loan obligation vis-à-vis, such lending member of the lending affiliated company (verbundenes Unternehmen) within the meaning of Section 16, 17 or 18 of the AktG or the lending direct or indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor; or

(ii) if and when a domination agreement (Beherrschungsvertrag) and/or profit absorption agreement (Gewinnabführungsvertrag) (either directly or through a chain of domination and/or profit absorption agreements) is or becomes effective between the relevant German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) as dependent entity (abhängiges Unternehmen) and:

(A) in case of the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) is a subsidiary of the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee, that obligor; or

(B) in case the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) is a sister company of the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee, any joint (direct or indirect) parent company of the German Guarantor (or, in case of a German KG Guarantor, its German GP Company) and that obligor,

as dominating entity (beherrschendes Unternehmen)) other than where and to the extent the existence of such domination agreement (Beherrschungsvertrag) and/or profit absorption agreement (Gewinnabführungsvertrag) does not result in the inapplicability of sentence 1 of paragraph 1 of Section 30 GmbHG (as stipulated by sentence 2 of such paragraph) with respect to the relevant payments under the Guarantee (including in respect of intermediate entities through which the relevant obligor whose obligations are guaranteed under the Guarantee is an indirect shareholder of the German Guarantor, or as the case may be, its German GP Company);

(iii) if and to the extent the German Guarantor holds on the date of the enforcement of the Guarantee a fully valuable and recoverable indemnity or claim for refund (vollwertiger Gegenleistungs-oder Rückgewähranspruch) against any of its direct or indirect shareholders or Subsidiaries of such shareholders (other than Subsidiaries of the German Guarantor) with respect to the relevant payments under the Guarantee; or

(iv) if and to the extent for any other reason (including, without limitation, as a result of a change in the relevant rules of law) the deficit (Unterbilanz) referred to in paragraph (b) above does not constitute a breach of the German Guarantor's obligations to maintain its registered share capital pursuant to §§ 30 et seq. GmbHG or does not result in a personal liability of the managing directors of the German Guarantor pursuant to §§ 43, 31 GmbHG.

18.13 Kingdom of Saudi Arabia law

(a) The obligations of a Guarantor incorporated in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (a KSA Guarantor) under the Finance Documents shall be limited to exclude any obligation to the extent that it would constitute an unlawful distribution to the partners or shareholders of that KSA Guarantor or an otherwise unlawful use of proceeds or assets of that KSA Guarantor, whether pursuant to article 10 of the Saudi Arabian companies regulations or any other applicable law (each being a Breach of Law). The Parties irrevocably agree that the obligations of a KSA Guarantor under the Finance Documents are limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of that KSA Guarantor, result in the obligations of that KSA Guarantor under the Finance Documents not constituting a Breach of Law.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed by the Company and each KSA Guarantor (without any need to amend this Agreement), the liability of a KSA Guarantor under the Finance Documents shall be limited to

US$1,000,000,000 plus any unpaid amount of interest, fees, liability, costs and expenses under the Finance Documents and the amount of any interest, default interest, costs and expenses related to the liabilities of the KSA Guarantor

18.14 Norway

- (a) The obligations of each Guarantor incorporated in Norway (a Norwegian Guarantor) under the Finance Documents shall be limited by any mandatory provisions of law applicable to such Norwegian Guarantor and be deemed to have been given only to the extent it does not violate Sections 8-7 and 8-10 of the Norwegian Private Limited Liability Companies Act 1997 No. 44 (the Norwegian Companies Act) regulating unlawful financial assistance and other restricted loans, guarantees and joint and several liability as well as providing of security, and the liability of each Norwegian Guarantor only applies to the extent permitted by such provisions of the Norwegian Companies Act. Any Norwegian Guarantor's obligations under the Finance Documents shall, however, be interpreted so as to make it liable to the fullest extent permitted by the Norwegian Companies Act from time to time.
- (b) Unless otherwise agreed by the Company and each Norwegian Guarantor (and following any such agreement this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended accordingly), the liability of a Norwegian Guarantor under the Finance Documents shall be limited to US$1,000,000,000 plus any unpaid amount of interest, fees, liability, costs and expenses under the Finance Documents and the amount of any interest, default interest, costs and expenses related to the liabilities of the Norwegian Guarantor.

18.15 Security

The limitations set out above shall apply mutatis mutandis to any Security provided by any Guarantor under the Security Documents and to any guarantee, undertaking, obligation, indemnity and payment, including but not limited to, distributions, credits, loans and set-offs, pursuant to or permitted by the Finance Documents in relation to a Guarantor.

18.16 Additional Guarantors

The guarantee of, and any Security granted by, any Additional Guarantor is subject to any other limitations relating to that Additional Guarantor set out in the Accession Deed applicable to such Additional Guarantor.
